

Q1: diverse applications such as:-

- i. Industry: Manufacturing systems, robots etc.
- ii. Medicine: Intensive care monitoring, radiotherapy etc.
- iii. Transport: Railway signaling systems, aircraft, space shuttle etc.
- iv. Military and defense applications

Q2: Factors affecting system safety:

- i. Hazard analysis
- ii. Requirements and specification
- iii. System Reliability and safety
- iv. Design
- v. Testing and debugging
- vi. Safety integrity analysis and risk assessment
- vii. Documentation

Q3: Categories of misuse:

- i. Computer fraud
- ii. Unauthorized obtaining of information from a computer
- iii. Unauthorized alteration or destruction of information stored on a computer
- iv. Denying access to an authorized user
- v. The unauthorized removal of information stored on a computer

Q4: Computer Fraud:

- i. Input frauds
- ii. Output frauds
- iii. Program frauds

Q5: Types of hacking:

- i. Website Hacking
- ii. Net Hacking
- iii. Password Hacking
- iv. Software Hacking
- v. Ethical Hacking
- vi. Email Hacking
- vii. Computer Hacking

Q6: What should do after hacked?

- i. Shut down /Turn off the system
- ii. Separate the system from network
- iii. Restore the system with backup or reinstall all programs
- iv. Connect the system to the network
- v. Good to call the police

Q7: Tools of Hacking:

- i. Scanner
- ii. Telnet
- iii. FTP

Q8: Penetration-Testing Methodologies:

- i. White box model
- ii. Black box model
- iii. Gray box model

Q9: The CIA: Information Security Principles:

The CIA principle

- i. Confidentiality
- ii. Integrity
- iii. Availability

Q10: Information Classification

- i. Government classifications
- ii. Private Sector classifications

Q11: Three general categories of controls exist:

- i. Policies

- ii. Programs
- iii. Technical controls

Q12: How to Protect Your Self: (any five)

- i. Use caution when you click links
- ii. Be careful about installing extras on your site
- iii. Be wary of unknown friends (strangers)
- iv. Google yourself
- v. Don't blindly connect
- vi. Trust your gut instinct
- vii. Use and maintain anti-virus software
- viii. Use strong passwords

Q13: Advantages and Disadvantages of Internet:

Advantages of the Internet:

1. Easy Communication
2. Instant Information
3. Online Education
4. E-Commerce & Online Banking
5. Entertainment
6. Work from Home
7. Global Connectivity

Disadvantages of the Internet:

1. Cybercrime
2. Addiction & Distraction
3. Fake News & Misinformation
4. Privacy Issues
5. Health Problems

6. Unemployment

7. Digital Divide

WU ROCKY