

Lesson no. 1

INTRODUCTION TO CONTEMPORARY TRENDS AND ISSUES AND

NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL CONVENTIONS ON EDUCATION

Important Points:

1. Contemporary Trends and Issues in Education:

- Contemporary education deals with present-time experiences.
- Trends represent positive patterns in education, while issues focus on the negatives.
- Technology plays a significant role in shaping education in the 21st century.
- Teachers need to adapt to the needs of 21st-century students by embracing technology and updating their skills.

2. International Conventions for Free and Quality Education:

- Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948) emphasizes the right to free education, especially at the elementary level.
- Convention on the Rights of the Child (1989) recognizes education as a fundamental right and stresses equal opportunities for all children.
- DAKAR World Education Forum (2000) aimed to achieve Education for All (EFA) goals by 2015, focusing on improving early childhood education, gender equality, literacy rates, and quality of education.

3. Millennium Development Goals (MDGs):

- Eight MDGs set by the United Nations include eradicating poverty, achieving universal primary education, promoting gender equality, reducing child mortality, improving maternal health, combating diseases, ensuring environmental sustainability, and developing global partnerships.

4. Status of Education in Pakistan:

- Pakistan faces challenges in achieving universal education due to population growth, gender disparities, and high illiteracy rates.
- Despite constitutional provisions for free and compulsory education, millions of children remain out of school due to financial constraints and lack of infrastructure.
- Awareness and further legislation are needed to address issues such as poverty, access to education, and quality of schooling.

quizzes with options:

1. What are the three key terms in contemporary education?

- a) Past, Present, Future
- b) Technology, Tradition, Trends
- c) Contemporary, Trends, Issues
- d) Innovation, Challenges, Solutions

2. Name two international conventions that emphasize free and quality education.

- a) Convention on the Rights of the Child, Kyoto Protocol
- b) Universal Declaration of Human Rights, DAKAR World Education Forum
- c) Paris Agreement, Convention on Biological Diversity
- d) Geneva Conventions, International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

3. What are some of the Millennium Development Goals related to education?

- a) Eradicate extreme poverty and hunger
- b) Achieve universal primary education
- c) Promote gender equality and empower women
- d) All of the above

4. What are the major challenges to achieving universal education in Pakistan?

- a) Lack of constitutional provisions
- b) Population growth and gender disparities
- c) High literacy rates and sufficient infrastructure
- d) None of the above

5. What are the constitutional provisions for education in Pakistan, and what are the key issues in implementing them?

- a) Article 37B and Article 25A; Lack of awareness and legislation
- b) Article 24A and Article 18C; Population growth and gender disparities
- c) Article 50A and Article 30B; Poverty and environmental degradation
- d) None of the above

Lesson no 2

EQUITY ISSUES IN EDUCATION

Important Points:

1. Equity Issues in Education: Poverty:

- Poverty remains a significant barrier to education in Pakistan.
- Factors contributing to the perpetuation of poverty include lack of skills development, teacher attitudes, and the impact of poverty on learning.
- Poverty affects learning through factors such as lack of access to food, emotional support, stress, and health issues.
- There is a strong correlation between poverty and academic success, with students from low-economic backgrounds facing higher chances of failure.

2. Equity Issues in Education: Silent Exclusion:

- Silent exclusion refers to students who attend school but gain little or no benefit from it.

- These students, often affected by poverty, exhibit low attendance, repetition of grades, low achievement, and dropout rates.
- Identifying and addressing silent exclusion requires vigilant teacher behavior, early intervention, and support for struggling students.

3. Equity Issues in Education: Income:

- Income levels significantly impact access to education and opportunities for children.
- Higher household income correlates with better educational outcomes and life chances.
- Low-income families face challenges in affording additional education costs such as examination fees, private tuition, and school supplies.

4. Equity Issues in Education: Health:

- Health disparities based on family backgrounds, cultures, and financial situations affect educational outcomes.
- Poor health, including malnutrition and obesity, can hinder cognitive development and academic performance.
- Inadequate access to healthcare facilities and environmental factors like poor ventilation can impact learning outcomes.

5. Equity Issues in Education: School Equipment:

- Lack of adequate school supplies and equipment poses challenges for students, particularly those from low-income families.
- Access to basic school equipment is related to parents' income levels.
- Providing equal access to school resources is essential for promoting equitable education.

Important Quizzes with Options:

1. What is one of the factors contributing to the perpetuation of poverty in Pakistan?

- a) Lack of teacher motivation
- b) Lack of access to food
- c) Overpopulation
- d) Insufficient government funding

2. What is silent exclusion in the context of education?

- a) Students who are absent from school
- b) Students who attend school but gain little or no benefit
- c) Students who excel academically
- d) Students with disabilities

3. How does income level impact educational outcomes?

- a) Higher household income correlates with better educational outcomes
- b) Lower household income correlates with better educational outcomes
- c) Household income has no impact on educational outcomes
- d) Household income is inversely related to educational outcomes

4. What role does health play in educational outcomes?

- a) Health has no impact on educational outcomes
- b) Good health is essential for cognitive development and academic performance
- c) Poor health improves academic performance
- d) Poor health leads to higher academic achievement

5. Why is access to school equipment important for students?

- a) It increases the cost of education

- b) It has no impact on educational outcomes
- c) It promotes equity in education
- d) It only benefits students from wealthy families

Lesson no 3

EQUITY ISSUES IN EDUCATION II

Important Points:

- Gender equity remains an issue in Pakistan, with females being the disadvantaged group.
- Disparities exist in opportunities for success in education, access to schools, and literacy rates between males and females.
- Factors contributing to gender disparity include cultural norms, gender division of labor, shortage of schools, shortage of female teachers, and conflict.
- Poverty, low education budget, and cultural norms restricting freedom of movement also contribute to gender inequity.
- Religious extremism and intolerance pose challenges to education, especially for religious minorities.
- Efforts to address gender disparity include increasing the number of schools, hiring more female teachers, and revising curricula to promote tolerance and inclusivity.

Quizzes with Options:

1. What is the primary reason for low enrollment of girls in schools in Pakistan?

- a) Lack of interest in education
- b) Cultural norms restricting freedom of movement
- c) Insufficient government funding
- d) Shortage of male teachers

2. Which factor contributes to gender disparity in education by limiting the movement of girls?

- a) Religious extremism
- b) Gender division of labor
- c) Low household income
- d) Lack of educational infrastructure

3. What is one of the key challenges faced by religious minorities in Pakistan in terms of education?

- a) Lack of interest in education
- b) Shortage of schools
- c) Religious extremism and intolerance
- d) Insufficient government funding

4. How can gender equity in education be promoted in Pakistan?

- a) Increasing the number of missionary schools
- b) Implementing stricter cultural norms
- c) Hiring more female teachers and revising curricula
- d) Decreasing the education budget allocation

Lesson no. 4

RELIGIOUS DISCRIMINATION AND SOCIOCULTURAL RELATED ISSUES

Here are the important points and quiz questions extracted from the provided text:

Important Points:

1. Textbooks in Pakistan often heavily emphasize Islamic teachings, neglecting the contributions of religious minorities.

2. Lack of exposure to religious minorities leads to intolerance among students and teachers.
3. There's a need for reforms in teacher training to promote tolerance and inclusivity.
4. Free and accessible education is essential for promoting equality and inclusion.
5. Implementing free and accessible education requires collective action, grassroots involvement, and adequate resources.

Quiz Questions:

1. What is a common issue identified in textbooks in Pakistan regarding the representation of religious minorities?

- a) Overemphasis on minority contributions
- b) Neglect of minority contributions
- c) Equal representation of all groups
- d) Focus solely on non-religious content

2. What contributes to the lack of tolerance towards religious minorities in Pakistani schools?

- a) Exposure to diverse religious beliefs
- b) Inclusive curriculum design
- c) Limited knowledge of minority beliefs
- d) Extensive teacher training programs

3. How can teacher training be reformed to promote tolerance towards religious minorities?

- a) Focus more on content knowledge
- b) Include training on dealing with diverse student populations
- c) Eliminate ethics courses from the curriculum

d) Exclude discussions on religious beliefs

4. What is the philosophy behind free and accessible education?

- a) Tolerating individual differences
- b) Excluding diverse learners
- c) Promoting discrimination
- d) Prioritizing technical movements

5. How can free and accessible education be implemented effectively?

- a) Encouraging grassroots action
- b) Excluding human rights from the curriculum
- c) Limiting community involvement
- d) Relying solely on political will

Lesson no 5

FREE AND ACCESSIBLE EDUCATION AND ITS BENEFITS

1. Textbook Representation of Religious Minorities:

- Textbooks in Pakistan often neglect the contributions of religious minorities.
- They are heavily loaded with Islamic teachings, with little representation of other religious groups.
- This lack of representation contributes to religious discrimination and intolerance in schools.

2. Lack of Tolerance Towards Religious Minorities:

- Limited knowledge of minority beliefs among teachers contributes to a lack of tolerance.
- Public school teachers often advocate respectful treatment of religious minorities, but may not know how to effectively implement it.

- Exposure to diverse religious beliefs is limited, especially among madrasa students and teachers.

3. Reforming Teacher Training:

- Teacher training programs should include training on dealing with diverse student populations, including religious minorities.

- Ethics courses should be included in the curriculum to promote tolerance and understanding.

- Teachers need to be equipped with the knowledge and skills to effectively engage with students from different religious backgrounds.

4. Philosophy of Free and Accessible Education:

- Free and accessible education promotes tolerance and inclusion of all learners.

- It focuses on removing barriers to education and ensuring equal access for all students.

- The philosophy emphasizes the importance of welcoming diversity and addressing individual needs.

5. Implementation of Free and Accessible Education:

- Grassroots action and community involvement are essential for effective implementation.

- Human rights education should be integrated into the curriculum to promote tolerance and inclusion.

- Adequate resources and political will are necessary to support free and accessible education initiatives.

6. Benefits of Free and Accessible Education:

- Free and accessible education enhances civic education and promotes social cohesion.

- It provides quality education in classrooms and supports individualized learning.

- Cost-effectiveness studies show that investing in free and accessible education yields positive returns for society.

These points highlight the importance of promoting tolerance, inclusion, and equal access to education for all students, including religious minorities, in Pakistan.

Important quiz

1. Textbook Representation of Religious Minorities:

- What is a common issue identified in textbooks in Pakistan regarding the representation of religious minorities?

- a) Overemphasis on minority contributions
- b) Neglect of minority contributions
- c) Equal representation of all groups
- d) Focus solely on non-religious content

2. Lack of Tolerance Towards Religious Minorities:

- What contributes to the lack of tolerance towards religious minorities in Pakistani schools?

- a) Exposure to diverse religious beliefs
- b) Inclusive curriculum design
- c) Limited knowledge of minority beliefs
- d) Extensive teacher training programs

3. Reforming Teacher Training:

- How can teacher training be reformed to promote tolerance towards religious minorities?

- a) Focus more on content knowledge

- b) Include training on dealing with diverse student populations
- c) Eliminate ethics courses from the curriculum
- d) Exclude discussions on religious beliefs

4. Philosophy of Free and Accessible Education:

- What is the philosophy behind free and accessible education?

- a) Tolerating individual differences
- b) Excluding diverse learners
- c) Promoting discrimination
- d) Prioritizing technical movements

5. Implementation of Free and Accessible Education:

- How can free and accessible education be implemented effectively?

- a) Encouraging grassroots action
- b) Excluding human rights from the curriculum
- c) Limiting community involvement
- d) Relying solely on political will

Lesson no 6

FREE AND ACCESSIBLE EDUCATION KEY PLAYERS, ATTITUDES, VALUES, CURRICULA & EMPOWERMENT

Important points:

1. Change processes towards free and accessible education often begin at a small scale and involve overcoming obstacles such as existing attitudes and values, lack of understanding, limited resources, and inappropriate organization.

2. Measurement of education change must consider direct benefits to children, wider impact on policies and practices, enhanced children participation, reduced discrimination, strengthened partnerships, and improved collaboration.
3. Teachers, parents, communities, school authorities, curriculum planners, training institutes, and entrepreneurs in education play vital roles in supporting free and accessible education.
4. Family members and communities can be valuable resources in supporting children's education, and efforts should be made to involve them effectively.
5. Teachers' positive attitudes towards free and accessible education depend on their experiences with challenging learners, teacher education, support within the classroom, class size, and workload.
6. Negative attitudes towards differences and resulting discrimination in society manifest as barriers to students' learning, but these barriers can be overcome through the practice of inclusion.
7. Accessible and flexible curricula are essential for creating schools for all, and strategies for developing such curricula include providing flexible time frames, allowing greater freedom to teachers, and emphasizing pre-vocational training.
8. Questions to consider for accessible curricula include whether human values promoting inclusion are fostered, if human and children's rights are addressed, if the curriculum is relevant to children's lives, and if teaching methods are child-centered and interactive.
9. Empowering communities to hold education stakeholders accountable for the inclusion of all children leads to important shifts in mindset and contributes to the advancement of free and accessible education.

Let's proceed with the quizzes.

Quiz:

1. What are some obstacles faced in change processes towards free and accessible education?

- a) Lack of accountability
- b) Limited resources

- c) Excessive organization
- d) Overemphasis on existing attitudes

2. Who are considered valuable resources in supporting free and accessible education?

- a) Only teachers and school authorities
- b) Only parents and communities
- c) Teachers, parents, communities, and other stakeholders
- d) Entrepreneurs in education only

3. What factors influence teachers' attitudes towards free and accessible education?

- a) Students' academic performance only
- b) Lack of support within the classroom
- c) Experiences with challenging learners, teacher education, and workload
- d) School location and infrastructure

4. How can negative attitudes towards differences in society be overcome?

- a) Through exclusionary policies
- b) Through the practice of inclusion
- c) By reinforcing discriminatory practices
- d) By limiting access to education for certain groups

5. What is essential for creating schools for all?

- a) Strict adherence to traditional curricula
- b) Accessible and flexible curricula
- c) Homogeneous student populations

d) Rigid teaching methods

6. What are some strategies for developing accessible curricula?

- a) Providing rigid time frames for students
- b) Limiting teachers' freedom in choosing working methods
- c) Allowing additional assistance only in theoretical subjects
- d) Emphasizing pre-vocational training and flexibility in teaching methods

7. How can communities contribute to the advancement of free and accessible education?

- a) By being passive observers
- b) By forming partnerships with outside contributors
- c) By excluding themselves from education discussions
- d) By relying solely on government initiatives

Lesson no 7

PEACE EDUCATION

Important points:

1. Peace education is important for ensuring safety and security, and addressing conflicts at various levels - within systems, societies, and families.
2. Peace studies explore handling conflicts peacefully and aim to resolve conflicts through non-violent means.
3. Peace is associated with concepts like equality, equity, symmetry, reciprocity, and equal rights, but inequality often leads to violence.
4. Peace studies involve critical analysis of human behavior, comparison of data with values related to peace, and making recommendations for peacebuilding.
5. Peace education is considered an applied science, aiming to deliver conflict transformation, peacebuilding, peacekeeping, and reconciliation.

6. Peace studies are transdisciplinary, making peace visible, understandable, and obtainable through various approaches.

7. The progression in peace research moves from multidisciplinary to interdisciplinary, cross-disciplinary, and finally to transdisciplinary stages, where intellectual tools from multiple disciplines are used to address peace-related issues.

Quiz with options:

1. Why is peace education important?

- a) To promote conflict
- b) To ensure safety and security
- c) To increase violence
- d) To escalate conflicts

2. What is another word for peace?

- a) Conflict
- b) Inequality
- c) Equality
- d) Division

3. How are peace studies categorized?

- a) As an isolated discipline
- b) As a branch of political science
- c) As transdisciplinary
- d) As interventional studies

4. What stage of peace research involves mutual learning among different disciplines?

- a) Multidisciplinary

- b) Interdisciplinary
- c) Cross-disciplinary
- d) Transdisciplinary

5. What is the ultimate goal of the transdisciplinary stage in peace research?

- a) To monopolize peace studies
- b) To focus solely on war studies
- c) To involve intellectual tools from multiple disciplines
- d) To perpetuate conflict

Lesson no 8

PEACE EDUCATION: PHILOSOPHY, ELEMENTS OF CURRICULUM & HISTORY

1. Conflict can be viewed differently depending on the perspective, requiring an understanding of all parties involved.
2. Peace studies focus on deep cultures and structures to understand mediation and conciliation.
3. There's a need for more focus on culture beyond religion in understanding conflicts.
4. Peace education seeks to understand the causes of conflicts, aiming to prevent wars and promote peace.
5. Patriotism involves critically evaluating and contributing to one's country's policies.
6. Peace education is more than the absence of violence; it encompasses justice, sustainability, and addressing structural issues like poverty and hunger.
7. Peace education operates on the assumptions that conflict is ubiquitous and transformable.
8. It promotes nonviolence, love, and reverence for life as the basis of transformation.
9. Peace education involves teaching conflict resolution skills, fostering positive attitudes, and instilling values of care and sustainability.

10. It appreciates the complexity of peace, addresses fears, and promotes peace as a process and philosophy alongside justice.

11. Peace education emphasizes responsibility, both individual and shared, in building a peaceful world.

12. Educators structure formal, informal, and hidden curricula to incorporate peace education principles, fostering tolerance, respect, and transformative learning experiences.

Important quizez

1. Why is peace education important?

- a) To promote conflict
- b) To ensure safety and security
- c) To increase violence
- d) To escalate conflicts

2. What is another word for peace?

- a) Conflict
- b) Inequality
- c) Equality
- d) Division

3. How are peace studies categorized?

- a) As an isolated discipline
- b) As a branch of political science
- c) As transdisciplinary
- d) As interventional studies

4. What stage of peace research involves mutual learning among different disciplines?

- a) Multidisciplinary
- b) Interdisciplinary
- c) Cross-disciplinary
- d) Transdisciplinary

5. What is the ultimate goal of the transdisciplinary stage in peace research?

- a) To monopolize peace studies
- b) To focus solely on war studies
- c) To involve intellectual tools from multiple disciplines
- d) To perpetuate conflict

Lesson no 9

AIMS, KNOWLEDGE, SKILL, ATTITUDE, AND IMPORTANCE OF PEACE

Important Points:

1. Peace education aims to promote knowledge, skills, and attitudes conducive to peace.
2. It involves understanding the nature of conflict, nonviolent conflict resolution, and awareness of cultural heritage.
3. Peace education emphasizes skills such as communication, critical thinking, problem-solving, and conflict resolution.
4. Attitudinal aims include fostering self-respect, tolerance, acceptance of others, and gender equity.
5. The historical roots of peace education trace back to reformers like Jane Addams and organizations like the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.
6. Modern educators like John Dewey and Maxine Greene emphasize the importance of education in promoting peace and social change.
7. Peace education is a multidisciplinary endeavor involving contributions from various fields.

8. It aims to empower individuals to live peacefully with others through cooperation, conflict resolution, and respect for diversity.

Quiz:

1. What are some elements of peace education curricula?

- a) Knowledge of military structures
- b) Principles of violence escalation
- c) Understanding of NGOs and grassroots initiatives
- d) Techniques of aggressive negotiation

2. Who emphasized the role of education in establishing peace?

- a) Jane Addams
- b) Maxine Greene
- c) John Dewey
- d) Horace Mann

3. What is the ultimate goal of peace education according to the provided text?

- a) To perpetuate conflict
- b) To establish military dominance
- c) To promote tolerance, cooperation, and conflict resolution
- d) To indoctrinate specific ideologies

4. What skills are emphasized in peace education?

- a) Conflict escalation
- b) Assertiveness and cooperation
- c) Exclusivity and prejudice

d) Violence perpetuation

5. Which historical figure is associated with the concept that "establishing peace is the work of education"?

a) Jane Addams

b) Horace Mann

c) John Dewey

d) Maria Montessori

Lesson no 10

THEMES FOR PEACE EDUCATION

Important points:

1. Attitudes aimed at in peace education include empathy, reconciliation, solidarity, social responsibility, sense of justice and equality, and joy in living.

2. Negative peace refers to the absence of direct or physical violence, while positive peace entails conditions of well-being and just relationships, encompassing social, economic, political, and ecological aspects.

3. The Peaceable Teaching Learning Process involves cognitive, active, and affective phases.

4. The purposes of peace education include the elimination of social injustice, rejection of violence, and abolition of war.

5. Values emphasized in peace education include self-respect, respect for others, gender equality, respect for life, compassion, global concern, ecological concern, cooperation, openness and tolerance, justice, social responsibility, and positive vision.

6. Upholding human dignity is central to the values system associated with social peace, as outlined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Peace Theme 1: Upholding human dignity

Upholding human dignity is at the Centre of the values system that we associate with social peace

Universal declaration of human rights

Article 1- right to equality

Article 2- freedom from discrimination

Article 3- right to life, liberty, personal security Article 4- freedom from slavery

Article 5- freedom from torture and degrading treatment

Article 6- right to recognition as a person before a law

Article 7-right to equality before the law

Article 8- right to remedy by competent tribunal

Article 9-Freedom from arbitrary arrest and exile Article 10- right to fair public hearing

Article 11- right to be considered innocent until proven guilty

Article 12- freedom interference with privacy, family, home and correspondence

Article 13- right to be free movement in and out of country

Article 14- right to asylum in other countries from persecution

Article 15- right to a nationality and freedom to change it

Article 16- right to marriage and family

Article 17- right to own property

Article 18- freedom of belief and religion Article 19- freedom of opinion and information

Article 20- right of peaceful assembly and association

Article 21- right to participate in government and in free elections

Article 22- right to social security

Article 23- right to desirable work and to join trade unions Article 24- right to rest and leisure

Article 25- right to adequate living standard Article 26- right to education

Article 27- right to participate in cultural life community

Article 28- right to a social order that articulates this document

Article 29- Community duties essential to free and full development

Article 30- freedom from state or personal interference in above rights

Important quizez

Here are some important quizzes with options:

1. What is the aim of attitude in peace education?

- a) To promote conflict
- b) To develop tolerance
- c) To reinforce stereotypes
- d) To escalate misunderstandings

2. In Theme 1: B, what is one possible outcome of attitudes emphasized in peace education?

- a) Increased ethnic discrimination
- b) Demonstration of acceptance and respect for diversity
- c) Reinforcement of ethnic stereotypes
- d) Encouragement of conflict among peers

3. According to Theme 1: C, what is highlighted as the greatest source for building a culture of peace?

- a) Political institutions
- b) Religious organizations

- c) Non-exploitive relationships between humans and nature
- d) Economic structures

4. Which term describes the absence of direct or physical violence, as explained in Theme 2: A?

- a) Negative peace
- b) Positive peace
- c) Structural violence
- d) Socio-cultural violence

5. What is one example of socio-cultural violence mentioned in Theme 2: A?

- a) Poverty
- b) Pollution
- c) Racism
- d) Economic inequality

6. What phase is part of the Peaceable Teaching Learning Process, as described in Theme 2: B?

- a) Cognitive phase
- b) Reflective phase
- c) Competitive phase

d) Evaluative phase

7. According to Theme 2: C, what are some values associated with peace education?

- a) Ignorance and bias
- b) Intolerance and aggression
- c) Cooperation and justice
- d) Discrimination and prejudice

8. What skill is NOT emphasized in peace education, according to the provided text?

- a) Reflection and critical thinking
- b) Decision making
- c) Ignorance and bias
- d) Empathy and group building

9. What is highlighted as central to the values system associated with social peace in Peace Theme 1?

- a) Upholding human dignity
- b) Exacerbating conflicts
- c) Reinforcing stereotypes
- d) Exploiting natural resources

10. Which article of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights emphasizes the right to education?

- a) Article 25
- b) Article 26
- c) Article 27
- d) Article 28

Lesson no 11

CONFLICT- INTRODUCTION, DEFINITION, SOURCES, RESPONSE STYLE AND DEALING

* Conflict - Introduction Challenging Prejudice and Building Types of Prejudice*

- Types of Prejudice: Racism, Sexism, Classic (distancing from the poor), Religious Intolerance.

- Importance of Education for Tolerance and Respect, particularly in schools.

- Quiz:

1. What are the types of prejudice mentioned?

- a) Racism, Sexism, Classic, Religious Intolerance
- b) Sexism, Classic, Poverty, Discrimination
- c) Racism, Poverty, Religious Intolerance, Education

2. Why is education for tolerance and respect important?

- a) To perpetuate prejudice
- b) To challenge and overcome prejudice
- c) To reinforce stereotypes

* Conflict - Definition and Components of Peace Education Curriculum*

- Components include emotions, anger management, violence in media, communication, empathy, cooperation, self-esteem, tolerance, conflict resolution, and safety.
- Emphasis on teaching about emotions, communication, empathy, and conflict resolution.

- Quiz:

1. What are some components of a peace education curriculum?

- a) Violence, aggression, conflict
- b) Anger management, empathy, cooperation
- c) Self-esteem, competition, aggression

2. Why is teaching about communication important in peace education?

- a) To encourage violence
- b) To facilitate understanding and resolution
- c) To suppress emotions

: Conflict - Sources: Anger Management, Violence in Media, Communication, Empathy

- Anger is a root of violent behavior but can be managed.
- Effects of violence in media on children and the importance of acknowledging its impact.
- Effective communication and empathy as tools for reducing violence and fostering peace.

- Quiz:

1. What is empathy?

a) Feeling sorry for someone

b) Understanding someone's perspective without feeling sorry for them

c) Ignoring others' feelings

2. Why is acknowledging the effects of violence in media important?

a) It has no impact on children

b) It can influence behavior and emotions

c) It encourages peaceful behavior

* Conflict Response Styles*

- Different conflict response styles: Sage, Diplomat, Ostrich, Philanthropist, Warrior.

- Factors influencing response styles: Personality traits, relationship dynamics, gender differences, past experiences.

- Quiz:

1. Which conflict response style emphasizes win/win solutions and cooperative problem-solving?

a) Sage

b) Ostrich

c) Warrior

2. What influences an individual's conflict response style?

a) Only personality traits

b) Relationship dynamics, gender differences, past experiences

c) Past experiences only

: Dealing with Difficult People and Positive Conflict Resolution

- Techniques for dealing with difficult people: Direct and indirect intervention, coping strategies.

- Importance of effective communication, power dynamics, and personal accountability.

- Conflict is positive when resolved through win/win problem-solving, strengthening relationships.

- Quiz:

1. What are techniques for dealing with difficult people?

- a) Ignoring them
- b) Direct and indirect intervention, coping strategies
- c) Arguing with them

2. When is conflict considered positive?

- a) When it leads to further disagreements
- b) When resolved through win/win problem-solving, strengthening relationships
- c) When one party wins at the expense of the other

Lesson no 12

LOOKING AT CONFLICT AND APPROACHES TO DEAL

Topic 56: Conflict Resolution Steps

- Steps include identifying the problem, using "I" messages, reflective listening, evaluating needs, brainstorming solutions, considering perspectives, deciding on the best solution, and follow-up evaluation.

- Emphasis on mutual agreement, commitment to the solution, and seeking new solutions if needed.

- Quiz:

1. What is the first step in conflict resolution?

- a) Brainstorming solutions

- b) Identifying the problem
- c) Making sudden promises

2. Why is it important to follow up after implementing a solution?

- a) To criticize suggestions
- b) To see if the conflict is resolved
- c) To reinforce stereotypes

Topic 57: Rules for Effective Communication

- Use "I" statements instead of "you" statements to avoid defensiveness.
- Patience is key in conflict resolution; it takes time to settle conflicts.
- Sometimes, it's necessary to take a temporary break from communication if tempers are flaring.
- Safety should always be prioritized; exit communication if feeling threatened.
- Quiz:

1. Why is it important to use "I" statements in communication?

- a) To make people feel defensive
- b) To facilitate effective communication
- c) To suppress emotions

2. When should you exit communication according to the rules?

- a) When feeling threatened or unsafe
- b) When feeling comfortable and calm
- c) When facing minor disagreements

Topic 58: Approaches to Conflict

- Five basic ways of addressing conflict: Avoidance, Collaboration, Compromise, Competition, Accommodation.

- Each approach is described along with when to use it, potential outcomes, and considerations.

- Emphasis on understanding the situation, considering others' viewpoints, and seeking mutually beneficial solutions.

- Quiz:

1. Which approach to conflict involves finding a middle ground in which each party is partially satisfied?

- a) Avoidance
- b) Collaboration
- c) Compromise

2. When is competition considered an appropriate approach to conflict?

- a) Rarely
- b) Always
- c) When facing minor disagreements

Lesson no 13

CONFLICT STYLES

Topic 56: Conflict Style based on TKI-I

- Five conflict styles: Competing, Accommodating, Avoiding, Collaborating, Compromising.

- Styles defined in terms of assertiveness and cooperativeness.

- Each style's effectiveness and when to use it explained.

- Quiz:

1. Which conflict style is high on assertiveness and low on cooperativeness?

a) Competing

b) Accommodating

c) Avoiding

2. When is the competing style effective?

a) When quick decisive action is needed

b) When creating goodwill is paramount

c) When it's important to have more information

Topic 60: Conflict Style based on TKI-II

- Explains the effectiveness and uses of each conflict style: Turtle, Shark, Teddy Bear, Fox, Owl.

- Describes the characteristics and situations suitable for each style.

- Quiz:

1. Which conflict style is characterized by prioritizing relationships over goals?

a) Turtle

b) Shark

c) Teddy Bear

2. When is the owl style effective?

a) When goals are important, but not worth the effort or disruption

b) When quick, decisive action is vital

c) When you want to protect yourself against people who take advantage

Topic 61: Conflict Situation

- Components of a conflict situation: frustration, conceptualization of the problem, behaviors and intentions, outcomes.

- Strategies for managing conflict effectively: accept that conflict will occur, use conflict management skills, de-escalation techniques.
- Tips for managing conflict include building good relationships, addressing small problems promptly, respecting differences, listening to others' perspectives, and adapting your style.
- Quiz:

1. What are the components of a conflict situation?

- a) Frustration, conceptualization of goals, values, history
- b) Frustration, conceptualization of problem, behaviors and intentions, outcomes
- c) Goals, methods, values, history

2. Which indicator suggests de-escalation in conflict?

- a) Not listening
- b) Threats
- c) Trying to understand

Lesson no 14

MADRASSA EDUCATION: CLASSIFICATION AND HISTORICAL STATUS

Important points:

- Madrassa education has been an integral part of Islamic society since the time of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH).
- Initially aimed at preservation and spread of knowledge, but has evolved over time.
- Post 9/11, perceived as promoting extreme religious, sectarian, social, and political views leading to militancy.
- Calls for reforms to transform radical ideologies into real Islamic moderate values.

Quiz:

1. What is the origin of the term "Madrassa"?

- a) Arabic word meaning "to study"

- b) Urdu word meaning "school"
- c) Persian word meaning "religious education center"

2. What are the main subjects of Madrassa Education?

- a) Mathematics, Science, History
- b) Quran, Hadith, Fiqh
- c) Literature, Geography, Economics

3. How are Madrassa Education systems organized in terms of levels and grades?

- a) Primary, Secondary, Tertiary
- b) Ibtidaya, Mutawasitah, Thanviyah
- c) Bachelor's, Master's, Ph.D.

4. What is the classification of Madrassa Education in Pakistan based on?

- a) Sect
- b) Gender
- c) Location

5. Which Wafaq is associated with the Barelvi sect in Pakistan?

- a) Wafaq-ul-Madaris Al-Arabia
- b) Wafaq-ul-Madaris Al-Salafia
- c) Tanzeem-ul-Madaris

Lesson no 15

DOMINANCE OF MADRASSA EDUCATION, ITS DEBATES; CONTROVERSIES

AND POLITICS

Important points:

- Pakistan's madrassa sector is diverse in terms of size, financing, level of education offered, and theological positions.
- Madrassas are primarily funded by charity, private donations, income from religious endowments, and sometimes government-administered Islamic alms.
- Some madrassas receive funds from foreign countries, and there are concerns about their agendas.
- The madrassa curriculum is under debate, with some believing it does not address modern requirements and may foster extremism.
- Registration of madrassas is a challenge, with many operating without formal affiliation and registration.
- Madrassas have been criticized for their political affiliations and potential role in sectarian violence.
- While many madrassas are against sectarian violence, they may still propagate their sect's beliefs, which can contribute to societal divisions.

Quizzes:

1. What is the primary source of funding for madrassas in Pakistan?

- a) Government grants
- b) Private donations and charity
- c) Foreign aid

2. What is one of the main challenges facing madrassas in Pakistan regarding their curriculum?

- a) Lack of qualified teachers

- b) Inadequate facilities
- c) Failure to address modern requirements

3. What percentage of madrassas in Pakistan are believed to have political affiliations?

- a) 30%
- b) 50%
- c) 62%

4. What role do madrassas play in sectarianism according to the text?

- a) They promote interfaith dialogue
- b) They propagate a specific sect's beliefs, potentially contributing to sectarian violence
- c) They remain neutral in sectarian conflicts

5. What is one reason some madrassas are against sectarian violence despite propagating their sect's beliefs?

- a) They fear losing government funding
- b) They prioritize religious harmony over sectarian divisions
- c) They aim to maintain a monopoly over religious education.

Lesson no 16

MADRASSA, RADICALIZATION AND REFORMS

Here are the important points extracted from the text:

- Madrassas in Pakistan have been accused of promoting extremism and radical views among students and the public.
- During the Zia regime, Madrassas were used for recruitment of manpower to wage proxy wars, leading to a militant worldview among some Madrassa students.

- Factors contributing to radicalization include biased political views, sectarian inclinations, and an interest in jihad.
- While Madrassas claim not to directly radicalize students, they create mindsets that make students vulnerable to extremist ideologies.
- The role of Madrassas in militancy is debated, with some studies suggesting stable or declining involvement since 1991.
- Despite denials, some Madrassas have been affiliated with jihadist organizations, raising concerns about their role in fostering extremism.

Now, here are some quiz questions with options:

1. During which regime were Madrassas used for recruitment of manpower to wage proxy wars?

- a) Bhutto regime
- b) Zia regime
- c) Musharraf regime

2. What factors contribute to radicalization among Madrassa students?

- a) Modern education
- b) Biased political views, sectarian inclinations, and interest in jihad
- c) Economic prosperity

3. What is the stance of Madrassas regarding their role in militancy?

- a) They deny any involvement in militancy
- b) They acknowledge some affiliation with jihadist organizations
- c) They actively promote militancy as part of their curriculum

4. According to Christine Fair's research, what has been the trend in Madrassa involvement in militancy since 1991?

- a) Decreased involvement
- b) Stable involvement
- c) Increased involvement

5. What is one factor that has contributed to radical views among Madrassa students?

- a) Exposure to diverse perspectives
- b) Influence of foreign governments
- c) Creation of mindsets vulnerable to extremist ideologies

Lesson no 17

POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS

Quizzes:

1. During which regime were Madrassas used for recruitment of manpower to wage proxy wars?

- a) Bhutto regime
- b) Zia regime (Correct)
- c) Musharraf regime

2. What factors contribute to radicalization among Madrassa students?

- a) Modern education
- b) Biased political views, sectarian inclinations, and interest in jihad (Correct)
- c) Economic prosperity

3. What is the stance of Madrassas regarding their role in militancy?

- a) They deny any involvement in militancy
- b) They acknowledge some affiliation with jihadist organizations (Correct)
- c) They actively promote militancy as part of their curriculum

4. According to Christine Fair's research, what has been the trend in Madrasa involvement in militancy since 1991?

- a) Decreased involvement
- b) Stable involvement (Correct)
- c) Increased involvement

5. What is one factor that has contributed to radical views among Madrasa students?

- a) Exposure to diverse perspectives
- b) Influence of foreign governments (Correct)
- c) Creation of mindsets vulnerable to extremist ideologies

Key Points:

- Madrassas in Indonesia have been integrated into the national education system and follow the government curriculum and standards.
- Recent reforms in Indonesia have led to increased enrollment rates, reduced dropout rates, and improved academic performance in national exams.
- Cuba's education model could serve as a comprehensive approach for providing both worldly and religion-oriented education in Madrassas, ultimately providing students with better career prospects.
- Madrasa reforms in Pakistan include measures such as involving Madrasa boards in reform discussions, accepting lower level degrees as equal to formal education, enhancing economic benefits for Madrasa graduates, and improving teacher training and curriculum.

- There is a need for improved dialogue and cooperation among various segments of society, including Madrassas, to promote peace and harmony.

Lesson no 18

UNIVERSAL EDUCATION

Key Points:

- Definition of Literacy: Literacy refers to the ability to read and write at a level that enables a person to function effectively in their day-to-day activities.

- Levels of Literacy:

1. Baseline literacy: This level includes the ability to read and write very simple texts and perform basic arithmetic. Basic computer skills may also be included.

2. Functional literacy: At this level, individuals become functional within society and are not solely dependent on basic reading and writing skills.

3. Multiple literacy: This is an advanced level where individuals can distinguish between different words with similar meanings, demonstrating a nuanced understanding of language.

- Difference between Literacy and Education: Literacy is compared to a tool, while education is likened to a process. Literacy enables one to read a book, while education involves understanding and comprehending the content.

- Importance of Literacy:

- Enables individuals to acquire knowledge and understanding of themselves and the world.

- Contributes to students' success in educational institutions.

- Promotes social and economic development in a country.

- Literacy in Islam:

- The Quran emphasizes the importance of seeking knowledge and learning.
- Hadiths (sayings of Prophet Muhammad) stress the obligation of seeking knowledge for every Muslim, regardless of gender.

Quizzes:

1. How is literacy defined?

- a) The ability to speak fluently
- b) The ability to read and write effectively (Correct)
- c) The ability to perform complex mathematical calculations

2. What is the minimum level of literacy known as?

- a) Advanced literacy
- b) Baseline literacy (Correct)
- c) Multiple literacy

3. According to the text, what is the difference between literacy and education?

- a) There is no difference
- b) Literacy is like a tool, while education is a process (Correct)
- c) Literacy is theoretical, while education is practical

4. What does the Quran emphasize regarding seeking knowledge?

- a) It is optional for Muslims
- b) Seek knowledge only within your own community
- c) Seeking knowledge is an obligation for every Muslim (Correct)

Lesson no 19

LITERACY AND LIFE OF LITERACY IN PAKISTAN

Key Points:

- Literacy as Social Practice:

- Literacy practices are embedded in everyday activities like shopping, visiting the doctor, or paying bills.
- Culturally accepted ways of engaging in social practices may vary across cultures and over time.

- Life on the Basis of Literacy:

- Literacy is considered a human right, empowering individuals and contributing to social and human development.
- Educational opportunities are closely linked to literacy levels.
- Literate parents are more likely to send their children to school, and literate individuals have better access to continuing educational opportunities.

- Literacy Rate in Pakistan:

- Total literacy rate: 57%
- Male literacy rate: 69%
- Female literacy rate: 45%

- Definitions and Literacy Rates over Time:

- Census definitions of literacy have evolved over the years, from basic reading ability to more comprehensive criteria.
- The literacy rate in Pakistan has shown gradual improvement over the decades.

- NETCOM:

- The Literacy and Mass Education Commission, established in 1981, was converted into the National Education and Training Commission (NETCOM) in 1990.
- NETCOM aims for mass education to achieve universal literacy.

Quizzes:

1. What are literacy practices?

- a) Practices related to technology
- b) Practices embedded in everyday activities (Correct)
- c) Practices associated with academic learning

2. How does literacy impact parental decisions regarding education?

- a) Literate parents are less likely to send their children to school
- b) Literate parents are more likely to send their children to school (Correct)
- c) Literacy has no impact on parental decisions regarding education

3. What is the current literacy rate in Pakistan?

- a) Total: 57%, Male: 69%, Female: 45% (Correct)
- b) Total: 69%, Male: 45%, Female: 57%
- c) Total: 45%, Male: 57%, Female: 69%

4. What is NETCOM's objective?

- a) To promote sports education
- b) To achieve mass education and universal literacy (Correct)
- c) To provide vocational training opportunities

Lesson no 20

NATIONAL EDUCATION POLICY AND LITERACY

Key Points:

- National Education Policy 1998-2010:

- Launch of a national literacy movement at every level of governance.
- Utilization of mosques and industry units for literacy programs.
- Expansion of non-formal basic education centers and engagement of youth organizations like scouts and guides.

- Private School Growth and Universal Literacy:

- Private schools have played a significant role in promoting literacy, especially among children aged 10-14.
- MDGs aimed for universal literacy by 2015, primarily through state-sector initiatives, overlooking the contribution of private schools.

- UNESCO and Universal Literacy:

- UNESCO has been actively working for over 65 years to prioritize literacy globally.
- UNESCO annually recognizes outstanding contributions to literacy, particularly focusing on rural adults, women, and girls.

Quizzes:

1. What was a key initiative of the National Education Policy 1998-2010 to promote literacy?

- a) Expansion of private schools
- b) Launch of a national literacy movement at every level of governance (Correct)
- c) Introduction of mandatory literacy tests for factory workers

2. How did private schools contribute to literacy, according to the information provided?

- a) Private schools focused on urban areas, neglecting rural literacy needs
- b) Private schools played a significant role, especially among children aged 10-14 (Correct)
- c) Private schools primarily focused on vocational training rather than literacy programs

3. What is UNESCO's role in promoting literacy?

- a) UNESCO focuses solely on formal education programs
- b) UNESCO has worked for over 65 years to prioritize literacy globally (Correct)
- c) UNESCO's literacy programs are limited to urban areas