

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

In the name of God, Most Gracious, Most Merciful

PAK 301

PAK 301 MIDTERM PREPERATION FILE 2024 BY ZB

LESSON NO 1

- Ideology is a set of beliefs values, and ideals of a group and a nation.
- Ideology gives a nation a direction and worldview.
- The ideology of Pakistan took shape through an evolutionary process.
- Allama Iqbal gave the ideology of Pakistan a philosophical explanation.
- Quaid-i-Azam translated the ideology of Pakistan into a political reality.
- The Constituent Assembly passed the Objectives Resolution in March 1949.
- The Muslims of South Asia demanded separate electorates when they realized their future in a Hindu-majority India was not safe.
- The ideology of Pakistan stemmed from the instinct of the Muslim community to maintain their individuality in the Hindu society.
- Muslims believed that Islam and Hinduism produced two distinct cultures .
- Despite living together for over one thousand years, Hindus and Muslims developed different cultures and traditions.
- The basis of Muslim nationhood was neither territorial, racial, nor linguistic .
- Muslims demanded that areas where they were in majority should be constituted into a sovereign state.
- Muslims wanted to order their lives in accordance with the teachings of the Holy Quran and Sunnah.
- The concept of Muslims as a nation developed before the establishment of Pakistan.
- Muslim nationalism in the Sub-Continent began with the advent of Islam .
- The Arab traders introduced Islam in the coastal areas of India.
- Muhammad bin Qasim was the first Muslim invader who conquered some part of India.
Mahmud of Ghazna launched 17 attacks on India and opened the gate for preaching Islam.
- The Ali-Garh movement, led by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan, aimed to educate Muslims under colonial rule.

-
- The Indian National Congress was founded in 1885 to indicate the beginning of the Indian nationalist movement.
- Sir Syed advised Muslims not to join the Congress because it worked against Muslim interests.
- The Two-Nation Theory served as the basis for the demand for Pakistan by the Muslims of British India.
- Muslims wanted to preserve their distinct identity and advance their interests in India
- Initially, Muslims demanded safeguards, constitutional guarantees, and a federal system of government.
- The Hindi-Urdu controversy started with Hindu demonstrations in Banaras in 1867 ➤ The Muslims' heritage was not in favor of replacing Urdu with Hindi.
- The Muslim nationalism included principles like Rule of Law, socio-economic justice and fair play.
- Muslim nationalism promoted religious and cultural tolerance.
- The rights and interests of non-Muslims were to be protected under Muslim nationalism.
- The principles of Muslim nationalism are enshrined in the constitutions of Pakistan.

LESSON NO 2

- The Muslims' goal was mostly to protect and promote their identity and interests.
- The Muslims shaped their lives in accordance with their ideals and philosophy
- They sought constitutional safeguards from the British against the Hindu majority.
- Due to the antagonistic treatment from their rivals, Muslims set the goal of a separate state
- Islam had a central place in the Muslims' further developments
- The role of leadership is crucial in putting a nation on the right path.
- A good leadership infuses qualities such as awareness, mobilization, and sense of direction
- Muhammad Ali Jinnah was a history-making leader who changed the course of history.

- Jinnah was a Charismatic leader in the true sense of the term.
- Jinnah played a decisive role in articulating the Muslim demands and pursuing them despite strong opposition from the Hindus and the British.
- Jinnah began his political career in 1906 by joining the Indian National Congress
- Jinnah was elected to the Legislative Council in 1909
- In 1913, Jinnah joined the All India Muslim League (AIML).
- Jinnah resigned from the Congress in 1920 due to disagreements with Gandhi.
- The Lucknow Pact of 1916 marked Jinnah's efforts to promote Hindu-Muslim unity.
- The Lucknow Pact included demands for a separate electorate and one-third seats in the Central Legislature.
- In retaliation to the Nehru Report, Jinnah presented his 14 Points in 1929.
- In February 1935, Jinnah used the term Nation for the Muslims of India.
- In March 1936, Jinnah stated that Muslims could arrive at a settlement with Hindus as Two Nations.
- Jinnah gave assurances of equality for all citizens and rights for religious minorities in the new state.
- Allama Iqbal's first public appearance was in 1899 at the annual session of Anjuman Himayat-i-Islam in Lahore.
- Iqbal presented the poem Nala-i-Yatim at his first public appearance.
- At the initial stages, Iqbal was a nationalist, as evident in his poem Tarana-i-Hind
- Iqbal criticized capitalism, materialism, and lack of spiritualism in Western culture.
- In his 1930 address, Iqbal expressed his desire for the amalgamation of Punjab, NWFP, Sind, and Baluchistan

LESSON NO 3

The War of Independence in 1857 ended in disaster for the Muslims.

- The British blamed the Muslims for the War of 1857 and subjected them to ruthless punishment.

-
- After the Muslim rule, the British made English the only medium of instruction and the official language in 1835.
- Sir Syed Ahmad Khan believed that modern education was the key to progress for Muslims in India.
- The Aligarh Movement was initiated by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan for the regeneration of Indian Muslims.
- Sir Syed Ahmad Khan founded the Scientific Society for the translation of English works into Urdu in 1864.
- The Mohammedan Educational Conference was set up in 1886 to address the educational problems of Muslims.
- The Aligarh Movement helped establish the Muslim community's sense of being a nation.
- Sir Syed's writings such as Risala Asbab-i-Baghawat-i-Hind helped improve relations between the British government and Indian Muslims.
- Sir Syed strongly opposed Muslims joining the Hindu-dominated political party, the Indian National Congress.
- Sir Syed predicted that Hindus and Muslims were distinct nations that could no longer live together.
- Sir Syed believed that capitalism and materialism were weakening Western culture.
- The Urdu-Hindi controversy, initiated by Hindus, was strongly opposed by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan.
- Sir Syed's philosophy aimed to create an atmosphere of mutual understanding between Muslims and the British government.
- Sir Syed's writings aimed to root out misunderstandings between Islam and Christianity ➤
The Aligarh Movement encouraged Muslims to stay away from agitational politics.
- The Scientific Society was established by Sir Syed in 1864 to promote modern learning.
- The war of Independence marked the end of the Mughal rule in India.
- Syed Ahmad Khan established the Victoria School at Gazipur in 1863.

LESSON NO 4

- Sir Syed Ahmad Khan was born at Delhi in 1817.
- Sir Syed's maternal grandfather served in Iran and Burma under the British government.
- The British held Muslims criminal of the War of Independence 1857 ➤ Sir Syed got his interest in English from his maternal family.
- Sir Syed joined the British as head clerk in 1839
- Sir Syed passed the examination and became sub-judge in 1841
- At the time of the War of Independence, Sir Syed was a sub-judge in Bijnore
- Sir Syed warned Muslims from the aspirations of the Indian National Congress founded in 1885.
- The - Urdu-Hindi Controversy began in 1867 when Hindus campaigned to replace Urdu with Hindi.
- In December 1893, Sir Syed founded the Muhammadan Defense Association to protect Muslim rights.
- Sir Syed advocated for separate electorate for Muslims in 1883, saying that the majority would override the interests of the minority.
- Sir Syed died on March 27 1898 and was buried in Aligarh
- Sir Syed's main contribution to the Muslim struggle for identity was his focus on modern education
- The Muhammadan Anglo-Oriental School, founded by Sir Syed, was later raised to the level of a college in 1877 and a university in 1920.
- Sir Syed believed that Muslims needed to adopt Western education to progress in the modern world.
- Sir Syed regarded the British as a civilised, educated, wise, and disciplined nation.
- Sir Syed published Risala Asbab-i-Baghawat-i-Hind in 1858, analyzing the causes of the War of Independence.
- Sir Syed's main concern was to remove the misunderstandings between Muslims and - the British after the War of Independence.

Sir Syed founded the Mohammedan Anglo-Oriental School (MAO) in 1875, which later became Aligarh Muslim University.

Sir Syed warned against joining the - Indian National Congress political party, dominated by Hindus.

LESSON NO 5

- The year 1857 brought decline to the Muslim rule in India.
- The Muslims were persecuted ruthlessly after the War of Independence and left at the mercy of time.
- The Central Mohammedan Association of Justice Amir Ali Syed played a significant role in guiding Muslims post-1857.
- Aligarh movement is notable for its efforts in reviving Muslim self-identity in India.
- The partition of Bengal occurred in the year 1905
- East Bengal became a Muslim majority province after the partition of Bengal.
- Hindus retaliated furiously against the partition of Bengal, calling it the division of motherland
- The annulment of the partition of Bengal occurred on December 12, 1911
- The Simla Deputation took place in 1906
- The leader of the Simla Deputation was Sir Agha Khan
- The Simla Deputation consisted of 35 Muslims from all over India.
- The Simla Deputation requested more reservations in government jobs.
- In December 1906 the All India Muslim League was formed in Dhaka.
- The meeting that formed the Muslim League was chaired by Wiqar-ul-Mulk
- In March 1908, Agha Khan was formally elected president of the Muslim League.
- The London branch of the Muslim League was organized by Justice Amir Ali Syed

- -
 - One of the original goals of the Muslim League was the protection of Muslim political rights
 - The Lucknow Pact was signed in 1916
 - The Lucknow Pact was facilitated by M.A. Jinnah
- As per the Lucknow Pact, Muslims were granted one-third seats in the Imperial Legislative Council.
- One of the gains for Muslims from the Lucknow Pact was that unofficial bills could not be passed if three-fourths of a community opposed them.
- On August 20, 1917 the British Government announced greater association of Indians in all branches of government.
 - The Balkan wars and the demolition of the mosque in Kawnpur in 1913 were among the reasons Muslims lost faith in the British.

LESSON NO 6

- The Khilafat Movement was a religio-political movement launched by the Muslims of British India for the retention of the Ottoman Caliphate.
- Turkey sided with Germany in World War I.
- The Khilafat Movement was a peak period from 1919 to 1922.
- Indian Muslims considered the Ottoman Caliphate a symbol of unity for the Muslim Ummah.
- One of the goals of the Khilafat Movement was that the control of holy places should not be given to non-Muslims.
- The writings of Muslim intellectuals provoked sentiments for the preservation of Khilafat.
- Newspapers like Zamindar, Comrade, and Hamdard played a vital role in expressing resentment towards British policies.
- The first All India Khilafat Committee was formed at Bombay in July 1919.

-
-
- The first Khilafat Conference was held in Delhi in November 1919.
- In May 1920, the Khilafat Committee decided to start non-cooperation in collaboration with the Congress.
- The Rowlett Act, introduced in 1919, was a black law that gave the government authority to persecute any Indian.
- Jinnah resigned from the central legislature as a protest against the Rowlett Act.
- The Jallianwala Bagh incident occurred in April 1919.
The Nagpur Session of the Congress in December 1920 approved non-cooperation with the Government.
The Moplah Revolt occurred in August 1921 on the Malabar Coast.
- The Chauri Chaura incident in February 1922 led to the killing of 21 policemen.
- After the Chauri Chaura incident, Gandhi called off the non-cooperation movement.
- The Khilafat Movement was launched on the basis of extra-territorialism.
- The Khilafat Movement resulted in the short-lived unity between Hindus and Muslims

LESSON NO 7

- The Delhi Muslim Proposals were presented in March 1927.
- The Nehru Report was presented by a committee under the chairmanship of Motilal Nehru.
- Jinnah's Fourteen Points were presented in 1929.
- The Simon Commission was sent to India by the British government in 1927.
- The first session of the Roundtable Conference took place in 1930.
- The second session of the Roundtable Conference took place in 1931.
- The third Roundtable Conference took place from Nov. 17 to Dec. 24, 1932.
- The Poona Pact was signed in September 1932.

- The Communal Award was announced by Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald in August 1932.
- The Simon Commission recommended the abolition of the system in the provinces Dyarchy.
- The Nehru Report denied separate electorate for Muslims.
- The White Paper on Constitutional Proposals was issued by the British government in March 1933.
- The Government of India Act, 1935 was approved by the King in August 1935.
- The Communal Award provided separate electorates for all of India minorities.
- The Simon Commission was boycotted by most of the major political parties.

LESSON NO 8

- Dr Allama Muhammad Iqbal ranks amongst the Muslim intellectuals who left a deep impact on history.
- He inspired Muslims of the Sub-Continent and beyond and infused a moving spirit and identity in the Indian Muslims
- The Hindu-Muslim question had great importance and stood crucial to British Indian history after 1857.
- To Muslims, the key issue remained ‘‘ separate identity.’’
- The Two Nations theory could not fascinate the Hindus and the British peoples because they believed in territorial nationalism.
- By 1930, Muslims had developed a sense of identity and political demands .
- Iqbal delivered his Presidential address in this background.
- Iqbal’s stay in Europe from 1905-08 helped to crystallize his thoughts.
- He reminded them to follow the teachings of the Holy Prophet PBUH.
- Iqbal emphasized the ideals, teachings, and principles of Islam.
- Iqbal presided over the meeting and delivered his famous address in Allahabad.
- Rejecting secularism, he said religion is not a totally personal affair .
- The Muslims are not willing to submerge their religious individuality.
- Federalism. cannot succeed without recognizing the national identity of the Muslims ➤ He suggested that Punjab, NWFP, Sind, and Balochistan be amalgamated into a state.
- Iqbal’s address is a forceful and logical presentation of the Muslim case in India.

LESSON NO 9

- Intellectuals give lines of movement, leaders act upon, and the masses prove good soldiers.
- Chaudhry Rahmat Ali was one of the eminent scholars who made a significant contribution to the movement for the establishment of Pakistan.
- He was conscious of Muslim identity and outlined proposals for the partition of India for the sake of Muslims .
- Rahmat Ali was the man who coined the name, PAKISTAN , for the Muslim state.

- When he first presented his proposal for a Muslim state, nobody took it seriously.
- The Muslim intellectuals and leaders were concerned about the future of the Muslims in India.
- They ensured a secure future for Muslims by working out various proposals for securing a homeland.
- Chaudhry Rahmat Ali was born in Hoshiarpur district in 1893
- Rahmat Ali left for Cambridge University for higher education.
- Rahmat Ali's activism goes back to his student days in Lahore when he talked of a separate state for Muslims of India
- P Punjab, A Afghanistan NWFP, K Kashmir, S Sind, and B Balochistan are components of the name PAKISTAN.
- India cannot be described as a state/country or home of a single nation ➤ The Muslims are a distinct nation who has maintained its identity throughout . ➤ Rahmat Ali established the Pakistan National Movement in 1940 .
- When the Lahore Resolution was passed, it was instantly described as Pakistan Resolution
- The division of India was the solution of the Hindu-Muslim question .
- Rahmat Ali proposed this long before the Lahore Resolution.

LESSON NO 10

- The Government of India Act, 1935 was not fully promulgated but the only provincial part was introduced in the country .
- The elections of 1937 were held with the restricted franchise and separate electorate
- The Congress projected itself as an all-India force representing all religions and factions of society.

- The Muslim League contested for the Muslim seats ➤ The elections were completed in February 1937 .
- The Congress got majorities in five provinces Madras, U.P., C.P., Bihar, and Orissa.
- It emerged as the largest party in Bombay and won 704 out of 1585 general seats
- The Muslim League did not win a majority anywhere, including Bengal, Punjab, NWFP, and Sind
- The poor performance of the Muslim League was mostly due to organizational problems and opposition by local Muslim groups.
- In NWFP, Khudai Khidmatgar and Congress formed a coalition government
- The Muslim League could not form governments in the Muslim majority provinces.
- The Congress consented to a conditional support to the Muslim League in the U.P., which included dissolving the AIML Parliamentary Board.
- AIML members were not to function as a separate group.
- AIML members were to express allegiance to the Congress.
- The above-mentioned terms were a device to subvert the existence of the Muslim League.
- The Congress leaders started 'Muslim Mass Contact' movement to defame the ML.
- The Congress ministries adopted an overall negative and cruel attitude, especially towards the Muslim activists.
- The Muslims arranged a close monitoring of the government.
- The Pirpur Report was presented on 15, 1938 November.
- The Sharif Report concentrated on the ill treatment of the government with the Muslims in Bihar.
- The Muslim League highlighted the issues and mobilized the Muslims to counter them adequately.
- The ML arranged its session at Lucknow in October 1937.
- The Muslim leaders criticized the Congress policies and protested against the reduction of status of Urdu.
- The Second World War proved a blessing for the Muslims in a sense that the Congress Ministries resigned in November 1939
- The ML redefined its position during the World War II .

- They expressed their enthusiasm that no constitution would be enforced without the consent of the Muslims .

LESSON NO 11

The experience of Congress Rule compelled the Muslims to launch the movement for separate homeland

The Muslims' disappointment from the Congress leadership decided to open a new phase of history

- Quaid-i-Azam's article in Time and Tide concluded that Muslims are a nation
- Quaid-i-Azam's comments on March 13, 1940, are remarkable "If some satisfactory settlement cannot be found for Muslims in united India, the Muslim will have to demand for ." division of the country
- The Lahore Resolution was moved by Maulvi Fazlul Haq and seconded by Ch. Khaliquzzaman.
- The Lahore Resolution was finally approved on March 24, 1940
- Jinnah expressed that the Indian problem is not communal but international
- Jinnah stated that no Constitution can work without recognizing this reality
- The Lahore Resolution decided that the Federal system under Government of India Act, 1935 was not acceptable for the Muslims.
- The Resolution prioritized the protection of minorities
- This Resolution did not specify any demarcation of the territory but defined the future plan of struggle for the establishment of the Muslims states.
- The word 'states' was replaced by 'state' in 1946
- The World War II started in 1939 that required heavily men-powered battlefield.
- The British announced an offer in August 1940 for Indian cooperation.
- The proposal included expansion of the Viceroy's Executive Council and the setting up of National Defence Council.
- The Lahore Resolution remained the ultimate goal for the Muslim League
- The Cripps Mission negotiated with Indian leaders and issued the proposals
- The Congress demanded that a responsible government would be set up immediately after the war

LESSON NO 12

- Lord Wavell arranged the Simla Conference during June-July 1945.
Maulana Azad claimed Congress as the sole representative party of all the peoples living in India.
The elections announced by Lord Wavell in August 1945 aimed for self-government with the cooperation of Indian leaders.
- The ML launched a massive campaign for the establishment of Pakistan as its ultimate goal.
- The Islamic slogans became massively popular during the struggle for the establishment of Pakistan.
- In December 1945, the elections for the Central Legislature were held, and the ML won 81 Muslim seats.
- In the provincial elections held in February 1946, the ML won most of the Muslim seats in Punjab.
- The ML won 79 out of 86 Muslim seats in Punjab.
- Jinnah repeated the Two Nation Theory as a universal reality during discussions with the Cabinet Mission.
- The Cabinet Mission proposed that the Indian Union would comprise British India and princely states.
- The Centre would handle foreign affairs, defence, communication, and taxation. ➤ The ML's timely coercive political strategy led to the Congress negotiating with the British.
- The Interim Government was formed under Nehru on September 2, 1946.
- The Constituent Assembly (CA) was elected by the provincial assemblies in July 1946.
- The first session of the Constituent Assembly was held on December 9, 1946.
- By the end of 1946, it became clear that a constitution for united India could not be forced.

-
-
- The Cabinet Mission Plan offered a possibility of a loose federation with an option for the Muslims to separate after 10 years.

LESSON NO 13

The Muslim League decided to confront the political situation through protesting means for the first time.

The Direct Action Day was a protest against the British policy of injustice towards the Muslims.

- The Calcutta massacre convinced Lord Wavell to bridge the ML-Congress to some settlement.
- Lord Wavell tried to prepare Nehru and Gandhi to coordinate with the Muslim League.
- The Muslim League bagged 79 out of 86 seats in Punjab but Khizr Hayat Tiwana formed his government with the help of Hindu and Sikh members (Unionist).
- The Punjab government dealt with the situation cruelly, prompting protests from the Muslim League.
- Maulana Bhashani launched a movement against the ejection of Muslim peasants in Assam.
- On February 20, 1947, Prime Minister Attlee announced that by June 1948, all power would be given to representatives.
- Mountbatten was appointed as the new Viceroy of India.
- The 3rd June Plan outlined the procedures for the partition of India.
- The British would not impose a constitution, but the Constituent Assembly would frame a constitution.
- The Punjab & Bengal Assemblies were to meet in two parts to decide if the province should be partitioned.
- Sind Assembly would decide about joining either India or Pakistan.
- A referendum was held in NWFP to determine its future.

-
-
- The Boundary Commission was established for Punjab and Bengal.
- The Indian Independence Act was promulgated in July 1947 to give legal shape to the June 3 Plan.
- Two independent dominion states were established on August 15, 1947.
- The Government of India Act, 1935, was to be the interim constitution subject to changes due to the Indian Independence Act.
- Governor Generals could amend the Interim Constitution until March 31, 1948.
In Bengal, Muslims favoured joining the new Constituent Assembly while non-Muslims favoured partitioning and joining India.
The Shahi Jirga and non-official members of the Quetta Municipal Committee opted for Pakistan in Balochistan.

LESSON NO 14

- The Indian Councils Act, 1861 was the first legislation by the British government in India.
- The Indian Councils Act, 1892 increased the size of the Legislative Council from 10 to 16 members in the Central Legislative Council.
- The Government of India Act, 1909 is also known as the Minto-Morley Reforms.
- The Government of India Act, 1919 introduced the Montagu-Chelmsford Reforms.
- On August 2, 1858, the British Parliament passed a law for the complete takeover of all rights of the East India Company over India.
- Queen Victoria issued a proclamation on November 1, 1858 for the assumption of control of India by the British Crown.
- Lord Canning was the Governor General of India who was given the title of Viceroy.
- The Indian Councils Act, 1892 allowed nominal elections through special interests.
- The Government of India Act, 1909 provided for the expansion of Legislative Councils.
- The Government of India Act, 1919 provided a bicameral legislature at the Centre.

- The Council of State had a membership of 60, consisting of 34 elected and 26 nominated members.
- The Legislative Assembly under the Government of India Act, 1919 consisted of 145 members.
- Direct elections were introduced with limited franchise based on property, tax-paying, and previous experience of legislative councils.
- The Government of India Act, 1919 introduced the Diarchy System in the provinces.
- Reserved subjects under the Diarchy included judiciary, finance, and land revenue.
- The Government of India Act, 1935 was the most important and comprehensive legislation introduced by the British Government in India.

Passing criteria for a course

The Federal Assembly was the lower house that consisted of 375 members.

- The Council of State comprised 260 members, with 156 from British provinces and 104 from Indian States.
- Communal representation was secured under the Government of India Act, 1935.

LESSON NO 15

- Pakistan began its independent life under very difficult and unfavorable circumstances.
- One of the serious problems faced by Pakistan in the initial stages was the shortage of trained human power.
- The federal government was established in Karachi.
- Most of the trained officers had migrated to India.
- There was a shortage of office space, equipment and furniture.
- The provincial governments were overburdened and needed accurate connection between the centre and the provinces.
- The official system should have been efficient but faced difficulties due to a lack of facilities.
- The Indian government was not cooperative for the transfer of record and equipment to Pakistan.
- The civil administration did not hand over the promised financial, military, and other shares.
- Initially, rupees 200 million were transferred, which were not sufficient to meet expenditures.
- The Indian government tried to block these funds to suffocate the newly born Muslim state.
- The remaining funds were not released until Gandhi's threat of fast until death.
- The division of military manpower was not in the hand of a third person.
- Pakistan did not get any ordinance factory.

-
- The reorganization of the Armed Forces was another tough job.
- There was no army officer up to the rank of colonel.
- The princes were inclined to honor gestures of the British representative.
About 500 states had joined India before August 15.
- The Kashmiri people revolted against the ruler in the Poonch area.
- The World Bank settled the water issue in September 1960 with the Indus Water Treaty.

ZB +92 300 5427579

WhatsApp Channel 01:

<https://whatsapp.com/channel/0029VaODheTDp2Q8YVcoON2p>

WhatsApp channel 02 :

<https://whatsapp.com/channel/0029VafvOcy90x2tPbUaX02l>

YouTube:

<https://youtu.be/-AMj4iNz0UE?si=hg29pJZ1kujzg57J>

Passing criteria for a course

Letter Grade	Grade Points	Equivalent Percentage
A+	4.00	90-100
A	4.00	85-89
A-	3.66 - 3.99	80-84
B+	3.33 - 3.65	75-79
B	3.00 - 3.32	71-74
B-	2.66 - 2.99	68-70
C	2.00 - 2.65	61-67
D	1.00 - 1.99	50-60
F	0.00	00-49

Passing Criteria for a Course:

The passing criteria is defined in such a way that it ensures the student shall be consistent in his studies throughout the semester.

Therefore, for passing a course/subject, student shall fulfill the following:

- Secure minimum 20% score in Formative Assessments/Mid terms
- Secure minimum 20% score in Final Term Examinations.
- Secure at least 40% marks in aggregate while fulfilling the above requirements

Course Selection and Credit Hours

Q: How do I select courses when the course selection is open?

A: Follow these steps:

- Check the credit hours allowed by your university (e.g., 21, 18, or 15 credit hours).

2. Each subject typically has 3 credit hours.

3. Divide the total allowed credit hours by 3 to determine how many subjects you can select.

Examples:

21 credit hours = 7 subjects

18 credit hours = 6 subjects

15 credit hours = 5 subjects

Remember, the university may allow different credit hours for each student, so check your specific allowance.

By following these steps, you can make informed decisions during course selection and manage your credit hours effectively.

.....My Family.....

"Just Relax and focus! Exams are not difficult. Put in your 100% effort and trust in Allah.

.....ALQuran.....

"And indeed, with hardship comes ease." (Quran 94:5)

Remember, I'm here to support you! Stay brave and strong!"

May Allah bless you