Leads the government

Important Long Questions

Long Question 1

Explain the structure of the Executive in Pakistan.

Answer:

Pakistan follows a Parliamentary System under the 1973 Constitution.

The Executive has two parts.

1. Political Executive

It includes:

- President
- Prime Minister
- Federal Cabinet
- Ministers of State
- Advisers

The Political Executive makes policies and takes important decisions.

2. Permanent Executive

It includes:

- Civil Bureaucracy
- Federal Secretaries
- Administrative Officers
- Government Departments

The Permanent Executive implements government policies and ensures continuity in administration.

Conclusion:

Both Political and Permanent Executives work together for effective governance in Pakistan.

Long Question 2

Explain the powers and functions of the Prime Minister and the President.

Answer:

President

- Constitutional Head of State
- Appoints the Prime Minister
- Gives assent to bills
- Represents national unity
- Performs ceremonial duties
- Acts on the advice of the Prime Minister in most matters

Prime Minister

- Real Executive
- Head of Government
- Leads the Cabinet
- Implements laws
- Makes national policies
- Coordinates with Parliament and provinces
- Represents Pakistan internationally

Conclusion:

The President is the ceremonial head, while the Prime Minister is the real executive authority in Pakistan.
