

ISL202_Solved GDB

GDB QUESTION: In Surah al-Hujurát, Almighty Allah describes the norms and etiquettes of social life, which provide us with the guidelines for living a graceful life. By adopting these social principles, we can upgrade our ethics and earn the proximity of Almighty Allah.

In this GDB, you will write about the five social rules and etiquettes mentioned in Surah al-Hujurát (Verses 1 to 12).

Surah Al-Hujurat, verses 1-12, outlines several social rules and etiquettes in Islam. Here are five of them:

1. Respect the Prophet's privacy: Verse 2-3 command Muslims not to raise their voices above the Prophet's (peace be upon him) or speak loudly when addressing him, showing respect for his position and privacy.
2. Verify information before sharing: Verse 6 warns against spreading unverified rumors or news, emphasizing the importance of fact-checking and responsible communication.
3. Avoid spying and backbiting: Verse 12 prohibits spying on others, backbiting, or speaking ill of people in their absence, promoting a culture of trust and respect.
4. Refrain from mocking or ridiculing others: Verse 11 discourages mocking or ridiculing others, fostering an environment of inclusivity and respect for all individuals.
5. Promote peace and reconciliation: Verse 9-10 encourage believers to reconcile disputes and promote peace, even when differences arise, to maintain harmony within the community.

These verses provide valuable guidelines for social interactions, emphasizing respect, empathy, and responsible communication.
