Q.1 Comparative value studies tend to lean towards_____.

A. Numerical analysis
B. quantitative analysis
C. qualitative analysis
D. both quantitative and quantitative

Q.2 Which of the following are often conflated in modern societies?

A. Nation and culture
B. Tribe and ethnicity
C. Religion and community
D. Money and status

Q.3 Comparative education pays close attention to the_____.

A. blind imitation
B. context
C. global agendas
D. description

Q.4 _____ is intimately related to distribution of power hierarchical structures.

A. Language
B. School
C. Curriculum
D. Methodology

Q.5 Concept of policy borrowing has become_____.

A. complex
B. central to comparative education researchers
C. obsolete
D. obsolete

Q.6 Entirely quantitative approaches standardize_____.

A. topics
B. methods
C. theory
D. variables

Q.7 Capability approach considers access to resources as a _____ of estimating inequality.

A. source
B. poor measure
C. strong measure
D. indicator

Q.8 Rational perspective is being criticized for being_____.

A. simple
B. rational
C. unrealistic
D. unique

Q.9 Case studies are coherent stories, wrapped in:

A. Culture
B. Theory
C. Society
D. Value

Q.10 Low and most stigmatized castes in Pakistan mostly live on the outskirts of:

A. Towns
B. Villages
C. Farms
D. Cities
