

MCM301 Final Term Short Notes by AC 03222254114

Visual aids: Improve quality and impact of your oral presentation.

Types of visual aids:

1. Computer Based Presentation- (Real time ,Prepared in advance)
2. Video(video clips)
3. Handouts (summary)
4. 35-milimeter slides
5. Whiteboard (can use marker)
6. Flip charts (drawing board type)
7. Overhead Transparencies (machine)

Group Meeting: Meeting of more than two people

There are of two types

- Formal
- Informal

Formation of Group

1. Forming-orientation phase
2. Storming
3. Norming
4. Performing

Phases in solving problem

1. Orientation -discussion
2. Conflict
3. Emergence -began search ways
4. Solutions -agree

Purpose of group meetings

- Present Information
- Solve Problems

Three kinds of meeting help to achieve these objectives

1. Informational Meetings (learn)
2. Suggested Solution Meetings (Input from staff)
3. Problem Solving Meetings (Problem,solution,benefit,action)

Group Decision Making

1. Standard Agenda

1. Problem identification
2. Problem analysis
3. Criteria(goals) Selection
4. Solution generation
5. Solution evolution & Selection
6. Final Decision
7. Solution Implementation

2. Brain Storming - Normal without any steps

Ways of Decision:

1. Consensus -through discussion and debate
2. Compromise -give demands
3. Majority Vote
4. Decision by leader
5. Arbitration -By external person

Styles of group Leadership:

1. Authoritarian -individual has total power
2. Democratic -Members Participation
3. Laissez-faire:- have leader trust on employee

Success depends:

- Group task roles
- Group building and maintenance roles
- Individual role

Group Task Roles:

- Initiating
- Information & opinion seeking
- Information & opinion giving

- Summarizing
- Clarify & Elaborating
- Implementing
- Consensus seeking -through discussion
- Devil's advocate
- Consultants -give idea but not participate

Group Building & maintenance Roles

- Encouraging
- Expressing Group Feelings
- Compromising
- Gate keeping
- House keeping
- Setting standards

Individual roles

- Self Understanding
- Recognition
- Inter-personal Understanding -understand others
- Active listening
- Managing conflict
- Stopping conflict
- Disruptive behavior

Participant roles

- Organizer
- Clarifier
- Questioner
- Factual contributor
- Helper
- Critical Tester
- Idea creator
- Conciliator -Middleman
- Energizer

Elements of effective written communication

1. Courtesy -use respecting words
2. Correctness -grammatically correct

3. Conciseness -to the point
4. Clarify
5. Completeness
6. Concreteness -be specific

Basic truths about human

- People are self-centered -ignore other needs
- People are defensive
- People are not perfect
- People expect courtesy
- People do the best they can

Guidelines for courteous writing

1. Exclude irritating expressions
2. Include meaning full apologies
3. Include courteous wording
4. Respond in timely manner
5. Positive wording
6. Bias-free language
 - Avoid gender bias
 - Avoid racial & ethnic bias
 - Disability bias

Preparing for effective Business Writing

1. Planning Stage
 - Determine your purpose
 - Consider your reader
 - Choose your idea
 - Determine appropriate content
2. Organizing stage
 - Outline topics you include
 - Determine order of topics
3. Drafting Stage
 - Develop appropriate beginning of paragraph
 - Compose the body
 - Develop appropriate ending of paragraph
4. Editing stage
5. Proofreading stage

Methods used in developing topics

- Direct Method -good news
- Indirect method -bad news

Parts of Business Letter:

1. Letter Head
2. Date
3. Address Notation (capital Letters)
4. Inside address -Our address
5. Attention line
6. Salutation
7. Subject
8. Body
9. Complimentary close
10. Signature area
11. Reference Initials -initials of who write and type letter .e.g. m.n/m.s
12. Enclosure -documents
13. Copies lines(copy notation & carbon copy e.g. c.n c.c)
14. Post scripts -personal message at end of the page.
15. Mailing Notation -certified or registered

Second page heading: For long letters give again heading on 2nd page with page no.

Direct request letters/types:

When you ask for something –information, action, products, adjustments, and references.

Strategy for routine requests:

Opening -Place main idea

A body -details

A close requesting action

Types of Direct request letters

1. Direct Inquiry letters

A) Request info about products

- Opening -Primary and secondary requests
- Explanation -reasons for request

- Closing -suggest action you wish recipient take.

b) Request info about person

It follows two rules

- Respect human rights –legal/moral
- Structured question around job

Structure of these types of letter

- Beginning directly
- Explaining situation
- Covering additional questions
- Ended with good will talk

2. Indirect inquiry letters: Used to request general information.

3. Claim letters: Complain about product or services to it manufacturer or supplier.

4. Order Letters: For place order

Components:

- Info about item
- Location for receiving
- Method of payment

5. Letters of invitation

- Speaking Invitation Invite to make presentation on stage.
- Social invitation Invite for special event.

6. Reservation Letters Reserving rooms seats etc.

7. Letter Requesting favors for giving favor.

Types of Good news letter

1. Letter reply to Direct or Indirect inquiry
2. Letter Granting Adjustments -response to complain
3. Letter that grant favor
4. Letter of congratulation -on achievement
5. Letter accepting invitation
6. Letter acknowledging order -order is shipped and delivered soon

Disappointing news letter

Goals of disappointing news letter's:

- Help receiver to understand and accept news
- Maintain trust and respect for business organization
- Reduce anxiety

So many goals in single message are not easy but achieved by:

1. Adopt audience centered tone

Adopt audience centered tone by:

- Using you-attitude -put reader's need first
- Choose positive words
- Use respectful language

2. Organize your message to meet your reader's need by direct or indirect

Direct approach: Put yourself in their shoes

Indirect approach:

1. Open with buffer -soften bad news
2. Continue with reasons
3. Emphasizing any good news
4. Close with positive forward looking statement

Something avoid when writing buffer:

- Avoid saying "no"
- Avoid using "I know"
- Avoid wordy irrelevant phrases
- Avoid apologizing
- Avoid too long buffer

Types of Buffer:

- Understanding -readers goals
- Praise
- Agreement -point on which both party agree
- Good news
- Appreciation -thanks for something
- Cooperation -convey willingness

- Fairness -assure reader that you analyze problem very well

Well written reasons:

- Detailed
- Tactful -planning
- No apologize -give company policy
- Individualize
- Positive

Close with goodwill:

- Keep it positive
- Limit future correspondence
- Be sincere
- Be confident

Refusing request for information: When people ask you for information but you don't.

Refusing request for favor: when you accept no favor

Refusing request for refund: refuse to give money

Refusing a claim: deny a claim in Insurance

Declining an Invitation: They already have plans for that day, Company arriving into town, the invitation doesn't appeal to them, event is at a venue that doesn't appeal to the person, other invitees that will be there.

Rejecting job application: the company has reviewed your application and decided that you are not a fit for the position.

Writing persuasive message:

1. Planning

- Analyze your purpose
- Analyze your audience
- Establish your credibility
- Strive for high ethical standards

2. Developing

- Get your readers attention
- Built your readers interest
- Increases your readers desire
- Motivate your reader to take action
- Balance emotional and logical appeals

Logical appeals

1. Analogy
2. Induction
3. Deduction

- Reinforce your position
- Deal with resistance

Sales letters:

1. An opening -attract readers attention
2. A section -capture readers interest in product
3. A courteous close

Collection letters: written notification to consumer of his due payments.

- Appeals to fair play
- Appeals to pride
- Appeals to good credit reputation
- Appeals for fair logical action

Memorandum (Memo):

Written message to use within organization

General Format

To:

From:

Date:

Subject:

Advantageous:

- Solve problems
- Provide a written record
- Reach many persons simultaneously

Types of Memo:

1. Requesting info
2. Giving instructions
3. Announcement Memo

4. Transmittal Memo

Reports

1. Progress Report
2. Periodic report
3. Justification report -record changes in business
4. Letter report -property related changes

Resume: Summary of your skills, experience, education and other personal details.

Chronological Resume: that prioritizes relevant professional experience & achievements

Function Resume: that focus on your professional skills rather than each job you held.

Interview

Success Factors:

- Positive attitude
- Proficiency in field study
- Communication skill
- Interpersonal skills
- Confidence
- Flexibility
- Critical thinking & problem solving skills
- Self motivation
- Leadership
- Team work

Things start today

1. Think smartly
2. Listen actively
3. Speak effectively
 - Channel
 - Speaker
 - Message
 - Audience
 - Feedback
4. Writing purposefully
5. Live happily