From Lecture 19: Scanning and Language Functions

1. What is the main purpose of scanning in reading?

- A) To read a text thoroughly
- B) To find specific information quickly □
- C) To evaluate the author's viewpoint
- D) To summarize the main idea

2. Which type of memory was used in the earliest computers?

- A) Bubble memory
- B) Core memory □
- C) Semiconductor memory
- D) Flash memory

3. How is a core in "core memory" identified?

- A) By its size
- B) By its material
- C) By its unique address □
- D) By its magnetic state

4. What technological advancement allowed for faster and smaller computers in the 1970s?

- A) Magnetic tape
- B) Integrated circuits □
- C) Core memory
- D) Disk drives

5. What is one limitation of semiconductor memory?

- A) It is slow to access
- B) It is expensive
- C) Data is lost without power □

- D) It uses too much space

6. What is the role of a flowchart in programming?

- A) To debug errors
- B) To illustrate the sequence of steps □
- C) To write the code directly
- D) To store data

7. Which of the following is an example of language function in English?

- A) Scanning text for details
- B) Asking for directions □
- C) Writing code
- D) Solving mathematical problems

8. What is a primary feature of bubble memory?

- A) High durability
- B) Capability to retain data without power □
- C) Low cost
- D) Large size

9. What is the advantage of using chip-based memory in computers?

- A) Increased processing power □
- B) Reduced energy consumption
- C) Better graphics processing
- D) Enhanced audio clarity

10. Which term is used to describe how memory is addressed in primary memory?

- A) Magnetic codes
- B) Random access □
- C) Serial tracking
- D) Linear alignment

From Lecture 20: Classifying, Cause and Effect Relationship

11. What is the first step in problem-solving according to the lecture?

- A) Writing a program
- B) Defining the problem □
- C) Formulating an algorithm

DO NOT COPY

- D) Testing the program

12. What is an algorithm?

- A) A block diagram
- B) A sequence of steps to solve a problem
- C) A specific coding language
- D) A computer function

13. How are relationships between events represented in a flowchart?

- A) Using text explanations
- B) With connecting arrows
- C) Through numerical codes
- D) Using circular diagrams

14. What is the final step in the problem-solving process?

- A) Debugging the code
- B) Running the program with data
- C) Translating the algorithm
- D) Reviewing the algorithm

15. Which marker is commonly used to indicate a cause in a cause-effect sentence?

- A) Although
- B) Because
- C) Therefore
- D) Whereas

16. What does a block diagram in a flowchart illustrate?

- A) Hardware components
- B) Program instructions
- C) Sequence of events
- D) Memory organization

17. What is the key purpose of classification in English?

- A) To create a hierarchy
- B) To organize information logically
- C) To compare two ideas
- D) To highlight exceptions

18. In a general-to-specific classification, which verb is typically used?

DO NOT COPY

- A) Are
- B) Consists of □
- C) Was
- D) Were

19. How can effects in cause-effect relationships be identified?

- A) By asking "What happened?" □
- B) By asking "Who did it?"
- C) By finding the agent
- D) By locating the action

20. What is a key characteristic of the cause-effect relationship?

- A) Time sequence
- B) Logical connection □
- C) Physical space
- D) Random occurrence

21. Which expression signals certainty in cause-effect relationships?

- A) Might
- B) Undoubtedly □
- C) Possibly
- D) Maybe

22. Which structure typically expresses a cause in English?

- A) Noun + Adjective
- B) Verb + Clause
- C) Because + Clause □
- D) Adverb + Verb

23. In problem-solving, what happens after formulating an algorithm?

- A) Testing the algorithm
- B) Translating it into a program □
- C) Debugging the code
- D) Running the program

24. Why is it important to test a program?

- A) To correct errors □
- B) To write new code
- C) To store it in memory
- D) To create a flowchart

DO NOT COPY

25. What is the function of the terminal symbol in a flowchart?

- A) Represent data
- B) Mark start or end points □
- C) Show connections
- D) Indicate errors

26. Which part of the CPU is responsible for decision-making?

- A) Control unit
- B) Arithmetic-logical unit □
- C) Memory
- D) Input unit

27. What happens in the "keypunch" stage of programming?

- A) The program is written on cards □
- B) The program is debugged
- C) The flowchart is created
- D) The results are analyzed

28. In classification, how is a "specific to general" relationship expressed?

- A) Includes
- B) Make up □
- C) Consists of
- D) Composed of

29. Which phrase is used to connect the cause-effect relationship?

- A) On the contrary
- B) As a result □
- C) In addition to
- D) Moreover

30. How is information about classification usually organized?

- A) Randomly
- B) Chronologically
- C) From general to specific □
- D) In alphabetical order

Lecture 21: Presenting Information Graphically

DO NOT COPY

1. What is the purpose of a flowchart in programming?

- A) To compile the program
- B) To show the logical flow of a program
- C) To debug errors
- D) To store data

2. Which symbol in a flowchart indicates the start or end of a process?

- A) Diamond
- B) Rectangle
- C) Oval
- D) Arrow

3. What does a parallelogram symbol in a flowchart represent?

- A) Processing
- B) Input/Output
- C) Decision
- D) Terminal

4. The diamond symbol in a flowchart is used for:

- A) Starting the program
- B) Input operations
- C) Making a decision
- D) Connecting steps

5. Why is flowcharting helpful before writing a program?

- A) It ensures the program is error-free
- B) It outlines logical steps for the program
- C) It defines the coding language
- D) It eliminates all syntax errors

6. What is indicated by arrows in a flowchart?

- A) The program's variables
- B) The sequence of operations
- C) The end of the program
- D) Data storage locations

7. Why might two programmers create different flowcharts for the same problem?

- A) They use different symbols
- B) They may have different logical approaches

DO NOT COPY

- C) One might not use flowcharts
- D) The problem cannot be solved

8. What is the key advantage of the "neater" flowcharting method?

- A) It's easier to modify
- B) It serves as a permanent record □
- C) It uses fewer symbols
- D) It takes less time to create

9. How does flowcharting simplify debugging?

- A) Errors in logic are easier to locate □
- B) Syntax errors are corrected automatically
- C) The program is executed step by step
- D) Variables are pre-assigned

10. What does the term "freehand flowchart" mean?

- A) A flowchart drawn digitally
- B) A roughly sketched flowchart □
- C) A program written without logic
- D) A graphical representation using templates

Lecture 22: Sentence Types

11. What is a simple sentence?

- A) A sentence with one subject and one verb □
- B) A sentence with multiple subjects and verbs
- C) A sentence with a dependent clause
- D) A sentence containing multiple thoughts

12. Which of the following is a compound sentence?

- A) The fire alarm sounded.
- B) The fire alarm sounded, and they evacuated the building. □
- C) When the fire alarm sounded, she ran to the exit.
- D) Because the alarm sounded, they evacuated.

13. A complex sentence contains:

- A) Two independent clauses
- B) One independent and one dependent clause □

DO NOT COPY

- C) Multiple verbs
- D) Multiple subjects

14. Which sentence is compound-complex?

- A) The room is painted yellow.
- B) The bell rang six times, but no one answered because it was broken. □
- C) The bell rang, and everyone left.
- D) When the bell rang, the crowd dispersed.

15. What is the role of a conjunction in a compound sentence?

- A) To separate ideas
- B) To connect clauses □
- C) To emphasize a thought
- D) To indicate a conclusion

16. Which sentence uses parallel structure?

- A) I enjoy swimming, jogging, and to read.
- B) I enjoy swimming, jogging, and reading. □
- C) I enjoy swimming, jogging, and I read books.
- D) I enjoy swimming and reading books.

17. How is a dependent clause identified?

- A) It contains a subject and verb but cannot stand alone □
- B) It is the main idea of the sentence
- C) It contains multiple verbs
- D) It always starts with a noun

18. What is a compound sentence made up of?

- A) Two independent clauses joined by a conjunction □
- B) One independent clause
- C) One dependent clause
- D) A mix of phrases

19. The phrase "Because I was late" is an example of:

- A) An independent clause
- B) A dependent clause □
- C) A compound sentence
- D) A simple sentence

20. What is required in every simple sentence?

DO NOT COPY

- A) At least two verbs
- B) At least one independent clause
- C) A conjunction
- D) A semicolon

Lecture 23: Effective Sentences

21. What does "unity" in an effective sentence mean?

- A) All parts of the sentence contribute to one main idea
- B) The sentence is grammatically correct
- C) The sentence is concise
- D) The sentence contains multiple clauses

22. Which is an example of coherence in a sentence?

- A) The various parts follow a logical order
- B) The sentence has only one idea
- C) The sentence uses a semicolon
- D) The sentence is short

23. What is the purpose of emphasis in a sentence?

- A) To avoid redundancy
- B) To highlight the most important parts
- C) To maintain grammatical rules
- D) To combine multiple ideas

24. Which sentence violates unity?

- A) The models were dressed in the latest fashions, and many of them are unemployed.
- B) The models were dressed in the latest fashions.
- C) Many models are unemployed.
- D) The latest fashions were showcased.

25. How can coherence be achieved in a sentence?

- A) By combining multiple ideas
- B) By arranging ideas logically
- C) By adding semicolons
- D) By keeping the sentence short

26. Which technique is used to create emphasis?

DO NOT COPY

- A) Placing the most important idea at the end □
- B) Using short sentences
- C) Adding multiple conjunctions
- D) Repeating the main idea

27. What disrupts the unity of a sentence?

- A) Parallelism
- B) Adding unrelated ideas □
- C) Using conjunctions
- D) Placing ideas in order

28. Which of the following improves sentence coherence?

- A) Using transitional words □
- B) Using semicolons
- C) Adding unrelated facts
- D) Using synonyms

29. A sentence with unity will:

- A) Contain multiple unrelated ideas
- B) Express one main thought clearly □
- C) Include long descriptive phrases
- D) Avoid transitional words

30. Effective sentences are created through:

- A) Unity, coherence, and emphasis □
- B) Grammar, punctuation, and spelling
- C) Vocabulary, style, and length
- D) Parallelism, complexity, and length

Lecture 24: Identifying Sentence Errors

1. What is a sentence fragment?

- A) A complete sentence with extra modifiers
- B) A group of words that lack a subject, verb, or complete thought □
- C) A sentence with excessive punctuation
- D) A sentence with multiple clauses

2. Which type of fragment starts with a dependent word?

DO NOT COPY

- A) Sentence fragment
- B) Dependent word fragment □
- C) Fused fragment
- D) Modifier fragment

3. What is an example of a misplaced modifier?

- A) The dog barked loudly.
- B) Returning the jacket to the store, it was too small. □
- C) The students read books.
- D) After the bell rang.

4. How can a fused sentence be corrected?

- A) Add a subject to the second clause
- B) Add punctuation or a conjunction between clauses □
- C) Remove one of the clauses
- D) Replace all verbs

5. What does a dangling modifier fail to do?

- A) Modify the correct word in a sentence □
- B) Use proper punctuation
- C) Connect to the previous clause
- D) Complete a compound sentence

Lecture 25: Revising Sentence Errors

6. What is a run-on sentence?

- A) A single thought extended with modifiers
- B) Two or more complete thoughts without proper punctuation □
- C) A dependent clause paired with an independent clause
- D) A short, incomplete sentence

7. What is the best way to correct a comma splice?

- A) Replace the comma with a semicolon or a conjunction □
- B) Add a dependent word
- C) Remove the comma completely
- D) Add an additional clause

8. What is an example of a fused sentence?

DO NOT COPY

- A) The room was dark; no one could find the switch.
- B) The sky is clear it will rain later.
- C) The boy jumped, and the girl followed.
- D) Because the weather is nice, we went outside.

9. Which word signals the start of a subordinate clause?

- A) But
- B) If
- C) And
- D) Or

10. Which is an effective way to revise a misplaced modifier?

- A) Place the modifier next to the word it modifies
- B) Remove the modifier completely
- C) Add additional modifiers
- D) Begin with a conjunction

Lecture 26: Subject-Verb Agreement

11. What ensures subject-verb agreement?

- A) Matching the subject with the appropriate verb form
- B) Using only singular subjects and plural verbs
- C) Adding a prepositional phrase
- D) Starting sentences with adverbs

12. Which sentence has correct subject-verb agreement?

- A) The books on the table is old.
- B) The dog in the yard barks loudly.
- C) The group of students are ready.
- D) The pair of shoes have a discount.

13. Which type of pronoun is always singular?

- A) They
- B) Each
- C) Some
- D) None

14. How do indefinite pronouns like "everyone" affect verbs?

DO NOT COPY

- A) They require plural verbs
- B) They require singular verbs
- C) They require a comma before the verb
- D) They allow flexibility in verb choice

15. Which compound subject requires a singular verb?

- A) Either the teacher or the student is absent.
- B) The teacher and the student are absent.
- C) Neither students nor teachers have arrived.
- D) The dogs and the cats are playful.

Practice Questions

16. Identify the subject-verb error:

- A) The team was celebrating their victory.
- B) The group of children are playing in the yard.
- C) Everyone has brought their notebooks.
- D) The pilot and the crew were tired.

17. What is the subject in this sentence?

“The dog with the brown spots barks loudly.”

- A) The brown spots
- B) The dog
- C) The dog barks
- D) The spots barks

18. Which sentence avoids a dangling modifier?

- A) Jogging in the park, a beautiful view surrounded me.
- B) Jogging in the park, I enjoyed the beautiful view.
- C) A beautiful view, jogging in the park surrounded me.
- D) Jogging in the park and beautiful views.

19. Which of the following sentences is correct?

- A) Each of the boys have his own locker.
- B) Neither of the options is available.
- C) Everyone in the room were excited.
- D) Both of the plans was rejected.

DO NOT COPY

20. How can you fix the sentence:

“The man returned the jacket to the store that was too small.”

- A) Remove “that was too small”
- B) Rewrite: “The man returned the jacket, which was too small, to the store.”
- C) Add a semicolon before “that”
- D) Change “too small” to “smaller”

Fill-in-the-Blank Questions

21. A singular subject takes a _____ verb.

- A) Singular
- B) Plural
- C) Mixed
- D) Variable

22. Compound subjects connected by "and" usually take a _____ verb.

- A) Singular
- B) Plural
- C) Mixed
- D) Flexible

23. Indefinite pronouns such as "both" always require a _____ verb.

- A) Singular
- B) Plural
- C) Subjective
- D) Variable

24. Correct the error:

“The keys is on the table.”

- A) Replace “is” with “are.”
- B) Change “keys” to “key.”
- C) Add a conjunction after “keys.”
- D) Remove the article.

25. What question can help identify the subject of a sentence?

- A) Where is it?

DO NOT COPY

- B) Who or what is performing the action?
- C) How is the sentence structured?
- D) Why does the action happen?

Lecture 27: Writing

1. What is the first step in the writing process?

- A) Proofreading
- B) Drafting
- C) Prewriting
- D) Revising

2. What is the purpose of a rough outline?

- A) To finalize grammar
- B) To plan the structure of a piece of writing
- C) To provide detailed examples
- D) To proofread content

3. Which is NOT one of the five steps in the writing process?

- A) Prewriting
- B) Proofreading
- C) Skimming
- D) Revising

4. What does the introduction of a paragraph typically contain?

- A) Supporting details
- B) The main idea or thesis statement
- C) Concluding remarks
- D) Examples and anecdotes

5. Which of the following is a characteristic of an effective paragraph?

- A) Random sentence order
- B) Unity and coherence
- C) Only one sentence
- D) Use of informal language

6. What is the purpose of the concluding sentence in a paragraph?

DO NOT COPY

- A) To introduce new ideas
- B) To summarize the main points □
- C) To repeat the topic sentence verbatim
- D) To provide grammatical corrections

7. Which is a valid strategy during proofreading?

- A) Ignoring grammar errors
- B) Checking for spelling, grammar, and punctuation □
- C) Rewriting the entire draft
- D) Adding more content

8. What is emphasized in the revision stage of writing?

- A) Spelling and grammar
- B) Refining ideas and improving structure □
- C) Choosing a topic
- D) Organizing notes

9. Writing is described as a:

- A) One-step process
- B) Linear skill
- C) Series of steps and stages □
- D) Memorization exercise

10. In a well-written paragraph, supporting sentences:

- A) Repeat the topic sentence
- B) Develop and elaborate on the main idea □
- C) Provide unrelated details
- D) Are written in random order

Lecture 28: Word Choice

11. Why should slang be avoided in formal writing?

- A) It is too colorful
- B) It is vague and informal □
- C) It is not widely understood
- D) It is outdated

12. What is the main goal of word choice in writing?

DO NOT COPY

- A) To use complex vocabulary
- B) To use words suitable for the subject and audience □
- C) To avoid formal language
- D) To incorporate slang

13. Which of the following weakens effective communication in writing?

- A) Clear grammar
- B) Wordiness □
- C) Precise language
- D) Proper punctuation

14. What is a homonym?

- A) A word with multiple meanings
- B) A word pronounced the same as another but with a different meaning □
- C) A word with a similar origin
- D) A word used in technical writing

15. How should clichés be treated in formal writing?

- A) Used sparingly
- B) Avoided completely □
- C) Used for emphasis
- D) Preferred for clarity

16. Which example demonstrates clear word choice?

- A) The audience was bored to tears.
- B) The audience was bored by the lecture. □
- C) The audience didn't like the lecture.
- D) The lecture wasn't good.

17. Which word pair is commonly confused?

- A) It's and its □
- B) There and their
- C) They're and their
- D) All of the above

18. What is the recommended approach to using jargon?

- A) Avoid it unless it suits the audience □
- B) Use it to demonstrate knowledge
- C) Use it in all formal writing
- D) Avoid it entirely

DO NOT COPY

19. What is the primary drawback of wordiness?

- A) Adds unnecessary complexity
- B) Improves clarity
- C) Shows grammatical mastery
- D) Makes writing more interesting

20. A precise synonym for "happy" in a formal context is:

- A) Ecstatic
- B) Overjoyed
- C) Zonked
- D) Content

Lecture 29: Punctuation (Comma and Apostrophe)

21. What is the primary function of a comma?

- A) To end a sentence
- B) To separate ideas for clarity
- C) To show possession
- D) To replace a period

22. Which sentence demonstrates correct use of a comma?

- A) She ran and, she tripped over a rock.
- B) She ran, and she tripped over a rock.
- C) She ran and she tripped over, a rock.
- D) She ran and she, tripped over a rock.

23. What does an apostrophe indicate in contractions?

- A) Plural form
- B) Omitted letters
- C) Emphasis
- D) A new sentence

24. Which sentence correctly uses an apostrophe?

- A) The cat’s toy is missing.
- B) The cats toy’s is missing.
- C) The cats toy is missing.
- D) The cat toy is missing.

DO NOT COPY

25. A comma splice occurs when:

- A) Two clauses are improperly joined with a comma □
- B) A sentence lacks a comma
- C) A sentence contains multiple commas
- D) A clause ends with an apostrophe

26. When should a comma NOT be used?

- A) After introductory material
- B) Between items in a series
- C) Between two unrelated ideas □
- D) Around interrupting words

27. Which sentence uses a comma for introductory material?

- A) After dinner we watched a movie.
- B) After dinner, we watched a movie. □
- C) After dinner we, watched a movie.
- D) After dinner we watched, a movie.

28. What is the rule for using commas in direct quotations?

- A) Place the comma outside the quotation marks
- B) Place the comma inside the quotation marks □
- C) Do not use commas in quotations
- D) Use commas only for long quotations

29. Which sentence correctly uses commas in a series?

- A) We bought apples, oranges, bananas and grapes.
- B) We bought apples, oranges, bananas, and grapes. □
- C) We bought apples oranges bananas, and grapes.
- D) We bought apples oranges, bananas and grapes.

30. What is a key purpose of punctuation in writing?

- A) To enhance the visual appeal
- B) To clarify the relationship between parts of a sentence □
- C) To increase sentence length
- D) To add artistic value

DO NOT COPY

Lecture 30: Writing Effective Paragraphs

1. What is the primary purpose of a topic sentence?

- A) To provide examples
- B) To state the main idea of a paragraph □
- C) To summarize the conclusion
- D) To list supporting details

2. Which part of a paragraph provides detailed evidence to support the main idea?

- A) The introduction
- B) Supporting sentences □
- C) The topic sentence
- D) The conclusion

3. How does a concluding sentence function in a paragraph?

- A) It repeats the main idea
- B) It summarizes or reinforces the main idea □
- C) It introduces a new topic
- D) It adds unrelated details

4. Unity in a paragraph means:

- A) Each sentence discusses a different topic
- B) All sentences relate directly to the main idea □
- C) The paragraph has a strong conclusion
- D) The sentences are of equal length

5. Which method improves coherence in a paragraph?

- A) Adding examples randomly
- B) Using appropriate transition words □
- C) Avoiding complex sentences
- D) Repeating the topic sentence

6. What is the role of transitional signals?

- A) To clarify relationships between ideas □
- B) To eliminate redundancy
- C) To avoid repetition
- D) To add unrelated information

DO NOT COPY

7. Which of these is NOT an example of a transition word?

- A) Similarly
- B) However
- C) Finally
- D) Unrelatedly □

8. What is a common organizational structure for paragraphs?

- A) Chronological order □
- B) Alphabetical order
- C) Random order
- D) Reversed order

9. In a paragraph about "My Study Table," what would support the topic sentence?

- A) Descriptions of how the table is organized □
- B) Details about a different room in the house
- C) A discussion about favorite books
- D) A summary of daily routines

10. The main goal in writing a paragraph is to:

- A) Present multiple unrelated ideas
- B) Clearly convey one main point □
- C) Use as many words as possible
- D) Focus on grammar alone

Lecture 31: Developing Paragraph Writing

11. How should supporting sentences be arranged?

- A) In random order
- B) In a logical sequence □
- C) Alphabetically
- D) By length

12. What does the term "clustering" mean in prewriting?

- A) Organizing ideas around a central topic □
- B) Writing without structure
- C) Listing unrelated points
- D) Drafting the introduction

DO NOT COPY

13. What does “chronological order” refer to?

- A) Arranging events in order of their importance
- B) Arranging events in the sequence they occurred □
- C) Grouping unrelated ideas
- D) Prioritizing emotional impact

14. Which sentence is an example of chronological order?

- A) First, I brushed my teeth. Then, I went to bed. □
- B) I enjoy both reading and writing.
- C) My friends often visit me after school.
- D) The decision was important for many reasons.

15. Unity in a paragraph is achieved by:

- A) Adding multiple examples of unrelated ideas
- B) Ensuring all sentences support the main idea □
- C) Using only simple sentences
- D) Avoiding transition signals

16. Why is brainstorming useful during the writing process?

- A) It ensures perfect grammar
- B) It helps generate and organize ideas □
- C) It eliminates the need for drafting
- D) It replaces the need for a conclusion

17. Which of the following sentences lacks unity?

- A) Dogs are friendly pets that require care. Cats, however, are independent. □
- B) Dogs need regular walks for exercise.
- C) Puppies benefit from proper training.
- D) Owning a dog brings joy and responsibility.

18. Which type of sentence provides the foundation for paragraph coherence?

- A) A general statement
- B) A logical transition sentence □
- C) An introductory question
- D) A concluding sentence

19. What is NOT a feature of a well-written paragraph?

- A) Coherence
- B) Unity

DO NOT COPY

- C) Unrelated sentences □
- D) Logical transitions

20. How can you test a paragraph's unity?

- A) Check if all sentences relate to the topic sentence □
- B) Count the number of sentences
- C) Look for at least three examples
- D) Ensure all sentences have the same length

Lecture 32: Unity, Coherence, and Organization

21. A paragraph lacks unity when:

- A) All sentences relate to the same main idea
- B) Unrelated ideas are included □
- C) Supporting sentences are logically ordered
- D) Transition words are used

22. Coherence in writing ensures:

- A) Random placement of ideas
- B) Smooth flow between sentences □
- C) Use of complex vocabulary
- D) A focus on grammar over content

23. What is a logical order for arranging supporting sentences?

- A) Grouping all sentences randomly
- B) Using a clear and structured sequence □
- C) Placing the longest sentence first
- D) Grouping ideas without transition words

24. Which transition word indicates a contrast?

- A) Similarly
- B) Furthermore
- C) However □
- D) Additionally

25. What is an example of a topic sentence?

- A) My study table is organized with drawers and sections. □
- B) Pens are in the top drawer.

DO NOT COPY

- C) Paper is kept in the middle section.
- D) Snacks are stored in the top left drawer.

26. How is coherence achieved in a paragraph?

- A) By arranging sentences in a logical order □
- B) By using unrelated examples
- C) By omitting transitional phrases
- D) By including multiple ideas

27. A paragraph achieves unity when:

- A) It contains multiple examples
- B) All sentences focus on a single main idea □
- C) It uses general statements
- D) Transition words are omitted

28. What is the primary function of transition signals?

- A) To create abrupt changes in ideas
- B) To connect ideas smoothly □
- C) To add unrelated details
- D) To summarize the conclusion

29. Which of these sentences contributes to paragraph coherence?

- A) First, organize your workspace before starting a task. □
- B) Workspace organization is optional.
