QUESTION

ENG 519 GDB Solution

ZB

Do you think the current English Language Curriculum in Pakistan meets the requirements for developing English language proficiency, and if not, what are the reasons behind its inadequacy?

Write your own views on the given topic. Your comments should NOT exceed 150-200 words.

SOLUTION

I strongly believe that the current English Language Curriculum in Pakistan falls short in developing English language proficiency among students. One major reason is the outdated syllabus, which focuses more on grammar rules and literature rather than practical communication skills.

Additionally, the curriculum lacks emphasis on spoken English, listening, and comprehension skills, which are essential for effective communication. The teaching methods are also traditional and teacher-centered, which do not encourage student participation and engagement.

ZB

Furthermore, the curriculum does not cater to the diverse needs of students from different regions and backgrounds. The assessment system also prioritizes written exams over spoken and listening skills, which creates an imbalance in language proficiency development.

To address these inadequacies, a revised curriculum with a focus on communicative language teaching, technology integration, and assessment reform is necessary.

Course Selection and Credit Hours

Q: How do I select courses when the course selection is open?

A: Follow these steps:

1. Check the credit hours allowed by your university (e.g., 21, 18, or 15 credit hours).

ZB

2. Each subject typically has 3 credit hours.

3. Divide the total allowed credit hours by 3 to determine how many subjects you can select.

Examples:

21 credit hours = 7 subjects

18 credit hours = 6 subjects

15 credit hours = 5 subjects

Remember, the university may allow different credit hours for each student, so check your specific allowance.

By following these steps, you can make informed decisions during course selection and manage your credit hours effectively.
