

MCM301 – Communication Skills

MOST LIKELY LONG QUESTIONS (5 Marks)

Final Term Exam (Fall 2025)

Lectures Covered: 19–45

Q1. Explain the four Modes of Speech Delivery.

1. Reading from a Manuscript

- Definition: Reading the speech word-for-word from a written text.
- Use: Suitable for sensitive or technical topics requiring accuracy.
- Drawback: Reduces eye contact and natural delivery.

2. Presenting from Memory (Memorized Speech)

- Definition: Delivering the speech entirely from memory.
- Use: Common in short speeches or acting performances.
- Drawback: Risk of forgetting and sounds mechanical.

3. Speaking Extemporaneously

- Definition: Speaking from an outline or brief notes.
- Use: Most preferred method for business and academic presentations.
- Benefit: Natural, flexible, and allows audience interaction.

4. Impromptu Speech

- Definition: Speech delivered with little or no preparation.

- Use: Meetings, interviews, or question-answer sessions.
 - Strategy: Think quickly, speak briefly, and conclude confidently.
-

Q2. Describe the AIDA plan used for developing Persuasive Messages.

1. Attention

- Start with an attention-getting opening.
- Be you-oriented and audience-centered.
- Goal: Make the audience want to listen.

2. Interest

- Develop interest by expanding the main idea.
- Relate benefits to audience needs.
- Explain why the message matters.

3. Desire

- Provide evidence to support claims.
- Show personal benefits to the audience.
- Reduce resistance using facts and proof.

4. Action

- Ask for a clear and specific action.
 - Restate benefits of acting.
 - Make the action simple and achievable.
-

Q3. Explain the Indirect Approach for Disappointing (Bad) News Letters.

1. Buffer

- Begin with a neutral or positive statement.
- Establish common ground (agreement, appreciation, or praise).
- Avoid revealing bad news immediately.

2. Explanation (Reasons)

- Provide logical and neutral reasons for refusal.
- Present facts before the bad news.
- Avoid blaming language or apologies.

3. Refusal (Bad News)

- State refusal politely and indirectly.
- De-emphasize by placing it mid-paragraph.
- Use conditional or implied wording.

4. Close

- End on a positive and forward-looking note.
- Avoid repeating the refusal.
- Maintain goodwill or suggest alternatives.

Q4. Differentiate between Chronological and Functional Résumés.

Chronological Résumé

- Structure: Jobs listed in reverse chronological order.
- Focus: Work history and career growth.
- Best For: Applicants with stable career paths.
- Advantage: Familiar and preferred by employers.

Functional Résumé

- Structure: Skills and accomplishments grouped by category.
 - Focus: What the applicant can do.
 - Best For: Career changers or those with gaps.
 - Advantage: De-emphasizes job dates and history.
-

Q5. Discuss the three styles of Group Leadership.

1. Authoritarian Style

- Leader makes all decisions.
- Members have limited responsibility.
- Can cause dissatisfaction if overused.

2. Democratic Style

- Decisions made collectively.
- Leader acts as guide and advisor.
- Builds confidence and participation.

3. Laissez-faire Style

- Group has complete decision freedom.

- Leader provides minimal guidance.
 - May result in confusion or low productivity.
-

Q6. What is the Seven C's concept? Explain any THREE.

1. Conciseness

- Use minimum words without losing meaning.
- Avoid wordy expressions.
- Include only relevant content.

2. Clarity

- Convey ideas accurately and simply.
- Use familiar and precise words.
- Keep sentences clear and well-structured.

3. Concreteness

- Be specific and vivid.
- Use facts and figures.
- Prefer active voice.

(Other C's include Courtesy, Correctness, and Completeness.)

Q7. List five general guidelines for using Visual Aids effectively.

1. Visibility – Ensure visuals are readable to everyone.

2. Simplicity – Present one idea per slide or visual.
3. Focus – Speak to the audience, not the visual.
4. Practice – Rehearse with visuals beforehand.
5. Timing – Distribute handouts at the end; keep videos short.