

EDU 305 Classroom Management
Final term Paper Subjective Solved by Sahar

Total Questions: 35

Mcq's 20

Short Question of 2 marks: 5

Short Questions of 3 Marks: 5

Detailed questions of 5 marks: 5

Q: 1 explains intimidation techniques of psychological coercion in your own words.

Answer:

There are different intimidation techniques such as

1. Threats
2. Sarcasm
3. Ridicule
4. Psychological coercion
5. Physical coercion
6. Disapproval

Psychological coercion:

This is an oppressive strategy teacher used to control behavioral problems. They put a psychological pressure on students by using emotional outbursts and mentally distress students to comply with authority.

Q: 2 How does development of self-efficacy and empathy enhance student success in classroom?

Answer:

Empathy: - having concern about student's personal goals and interests.

Teacher having an empathetic attitude with student are more successful in conveying their instructions. It builds a harmony among student and teachers. Teacher having empathetic behavior try to understand and solve students problem. A mind works best in a supportive environment.

Self-efficacy:-

It is facilitated by one's beliefs and expectations of himself /herself to complete certain task successfully or not.

Self-efficacy certainly effect learning i.e. a student having low expectation of himself will not perform well.

Student's negative experiences and other negative feedbacks let him feel low of himself and he lose his confidence. Student expect very low of himself and remained unable to achieve better results.

While on the other hand there are certain factors that can increase self –efficacy and helps a student to perform better.

Performance Accomplishments, vicarious learning, verbal persuasion , physical / affective status.

Q: 3 How can principals assist teachers in improving their classroom management skills?

Answer:

- Principals should delegate authority to teachers to handle classroom management issues.
- Principals can assist teacher in improving their classroom management skills by arranging for staff development activities as needed.

Q: 4 On what issue parents must agree if they are managing their children's behavior?

Answer:

1. The specific behaviors that are required from the child
2. Mechanism by which parents will know that their child has behaved in the desired manner or not.
3. Consequences of behavior and misbehavior.

Q: 5 what does the term social competence means?

Answer :

Social competence is the ability to act in a caring and helpful manner to others.

- Having good social relationship with peers
- Develop warm attitude

- Having caring positive connections
- Downplay violence and aggression

Q: 6 identify some of the behaviors of students that need counseling services in schools?

Answer:

Students who insult, tease, harass, mock, abuse, lie, steal, aggressive, lack confidence and victims of bully.

Q: 7 explain overlapping as a classroom management strategy.

Answer:

Overlapping means responding to multiple students at the same time. It gives a view to students that you can do multi-tasking at the same time i.e. responding to one student's question while checking others home work.

What strategies should be implemented in schools to control violence among students?

Answer:

1. Prepare for a crisis
2. Train staff to respond against student aggression
3. Build rapport and trust
4. Dress properly
5. Keep items of value out of reach
6. Keep calm and in control
7. Tell students about the expected behavior and consequence for compliance and noncompliance.
8. Adopt a therapeutic attitude.

Q: 8 How can preventive discipline be exercised by teacher in the classroom?

Answer:

- Tell your students that you cannot tolerate misbehavior because it interfere with the right of other to learn and grow and your right to teach.
- Well planned and organized classroom activities help to keep discipline.

Q: 9 What does indirect bullying include?

Answer:

Harassing, teasing, mocking, calling by names , encouraging others to not to play with the victim are some forms of indirect bullying.

Q: 10 What strategies can a teacher use to develop strong social competence among students?

1. Develop a school wide culture of social competence.
2. Infuse curriculum with situation specific lessons that targets key behaviors
3. Match the intensity and level of instructions with the deficiency of social skills in students.

Q: 11 write three ways in which the consequences of breaking rules should be clearly specified and communicated to staff, students and parents.

Answer:

Newsletter, student assemblies, handbooks, announcements , memos , notice on board ,

Q: 12 How can bullying stop in classroom. Being a teacher give 5 examples.

Answer:

- Be knowledgeable and observant
- Involve parents and administrator
- Set positive expectation for behavior in classroom and school
- Arrange classroom meetings to discuss bullying
- Engage your colleagues in anti-bullying activities

Paper no : 2

Question # 1

Teacher should deal with disruptive students by :

"giving them a leadership role"

Question No. 2:

students may become bored of :

"doing task for a prolonged time"

Question No.3

Treat the classroom as a sacred temple to learning refuse to

"strong Control"

Question No. 4

The noise level must be under control :

"outside the classroom"

Long question

Explain strong control and laissez faire in the large classroom management?

Answer:

Strong control:

In strong control strategy a classroom is treated as a scared temple of learning where teacher is an authority and has a total control on his class.

Laissez fair:

A friendly environment is created in classroom and teachers have a positive , kind , friendly attitude with students. They give student relaxations and ignore students early departures . late arrivals , talking , reading. Teacher don't bother about knowing students problems. They are against having a rigid control on students.

Define positive classroom?

Answer:

Teachers used such strategies that leads to more students engagement and leads toward better learning of students.

Students takes more interest in learning activities during classroom.

Such classroom where proper teaching strategies are applied, students responses and problems are given attention and a cooperative positive atmosphere is created are called positive classrooms.

what is advance organizer?

Answer:

They included a list of topics in lesson, background information , key vocabulary and possible outcomes.

What are different kinds of outdoor activities briefly describe?

Answer:

- Field trips
- Nature experiments
- Research Based phenomena of different studies
- Fun activities

how to promote social-emotional manangemt in the classroom ?

Answer:

You can promote social-emotional development in your classroom by embedding your teaching practices throughout the day. Remaining sensitive to children's needs helps them feel secure and confident, and acts as a model for effective social behavior. For example, asking questions to help children find a solution to a social conflict helps them develop problem-solving skills. Reading a story and engaging children in a conversation about a socially challenging situation can also serve as a lesson in handling social problems as well as in literacy.

Explain some strategies to maintain discipline in the classroom?

Answer:

- Assign roles to advanced students
- Make groups
- Call with roll numbers
- Show respect
- Set classroom rules
- Make class routines

1. Direct bullying??

Verbal and physical abuse by someone who is having malicious intent.

3. Difference between direct and indirect bullying??

Answer:

Direct bullying is referred to physically harming a person while indirect bullying is displaying hate using non-verbal cues.

4. What are some social problems of aggressive student??

Answer:

- Low impulse control
- Low tolerance
- Inability to respond to stress in other ways
- Don't have insight for the feelings of others

5. Being a teacher how u maintain discipline in classroom??

Answer:

1. Calling the roll number:
2. Assigning roles to advanced students:
3. Creating a seating chart:
4. Showing Respect:
5. Discipline problems:
6. Set classroom rules:
7. Variety of activities:

8. Establish routines:
9. Making groups:

6. being a teacher how u monitor a student's learning in class??

1. Be proactive in giving feedback
2. Keep regular record of students learning
3. Monitor students learning and performance
4. Keep assessment portfolios to monitor.

7. which social areas cover teacher training....

Answer:

1. Organizing materials and classroom
2. A workable set of rules and procedures
3. Develop and communicate consequences
4. Planning activates for the first week
5. Maintain management system.
6. Ensuring student accountability

8.pro-social teacher..

Answer:

- Role taking exercises
- Intergroup dialogues
- Storytelling
- Group discussion
- Self-awareness and self-regulation
- Self-reflection and goal setting
- Jigsaw grouping

9.group contingencies??

Answer:

- The use of structures in which rewards and punishments are meted out to groups based on the behaviour of individuals within those groups have been found effective in remediating misbehaviour.
- Training in self-awareness, values clarification, cooperation and the development of helping skills has been successfully used to improve the behaviour of misbehaving students.
- Peer tutoring structures lower the incidence of misbehaviour in classrooms. Depending on the situation, students with behaviour problems may serve as either tutors or tutees.

10. Temperature preferences??

Answer:

Temperature preferences can vary dramatically. Most children can't concentrate when they are either too cold or too warm.

Temperature Conditions:

The classrooms should be ready to handle extreme weather conditions. There should be enough fans in the rooms in summers. The rooms should be well ventilated. Similarly, in cold conditions electric or gas heaters should be provided in classrooms. The classrooms should be protected from chilly winds from outside.

Paper: 3

Q. What is included in indirect bullying?

Q. Which type of rewards given to students and how it encourages students?

Answer:

1. Choose incentives:

- Choose incentives that contribute in positive ways to a student's development or sense of self-worth such as:
 - a) Privileges
 - b) Activities
 - c) Small prizes, e.g. books

2. Interpersonal rewards- rewards that offer the opportunity to do an activity with a special person – can be powerful motivators.

Ownership rewards:

Design reward charts that contribute to a student's sense of ownership. For example:

- Teacher can personalize a chart by including a student's photo or by inviting the student to decorate the chart.

Q. steps for develop anti-bullying attitude in students?

Answer:

Anti-bullying attitudes among peers should be developed through:

- Awareness-raising
- Opportunity for self-reflection
- Awakening feelings of responsibility
- Role playing or rehearsing new behaviours
- In order to control bullying teaching respect and nonviolence should start in elementary school.
- Non-violence training conducted by older peers can be particularly powerful.

Q. Process of EBSS

Answer:

1. Clarify the need for effective behavioural support and establish commitment, including administrative support and participation.
2. Priority of this should be reflected in the school improvement plan.
3. Develop a team focus with shared ownership.
4. Create a comprehensive system that prevents as well as responds to problem behaviour.
5. Tie effective behavioural support activities to the school mission.
6. Develop an action plan establishing staff responsibilities.

Q. what steps should b taken to control bullying?

Answer:

Student-level interventions are designed to develop social competence by changing students':

- Knowledge
- Skills
- Attitudes
- Beliefs
- Behaviours by using interactive teaching techniques

Victims of bullying can be helped to:

- Recognize attributes that place them at risk of becoming targets.
- Understand the consequences of their choices
- Modify their behaviours to minimize their chances of becoming victims

Q. Being a teacher what is your response if you feel your student in stress?

Answer:

Teacher response:

Teacher can use proximity control, boost student interest, or provide assistance with assignments.

Q. Being a teacher if a student argue and complaints you (defensiveness) what is your response?

Teacher Response

Teacher can remind student of rules, use conflict resolution, and encourage student to ask for help.

Q. Affective rules ?

- a) Be emotionally supportive
- b) Be helpful to peers
- c) Be respectful
- d) Do not shout
- e) Do not snatch or spoil the material
- f) Take turns before speaking
- g) Acknowledge and appreciate others

-School wide code of conduct:

Answer:

1. Safety: Are my actions safe for myself and for others?
2. Respect: Do my actions show respect for myself and for others?
3. Honesty: do my words and actions represent truth?
4. Responsibility: Do my actions meet the expectations to take care of myself and be a dependable member of the community?
5. Courtesy: Do my actions help make this a nice place, where people feel welcome and accepted, and where they can do their work without disruptions?

- How to handle students in stress
- How to handle students in physical aggression
- Rules to maintain discipline in class
- reality therapy
- principal-teacher rapport
- School culture n y effective school management is important?
- Sources of frustration in aggressive students
- EBSS

Edu 305 today paper...

1. Instrinic rewards
2. Penalties with example 3
- . 5 questions on bullying topic
4. Strategues of behaviour prblms

2.teacher training in classroom discipline?

Answer:

1. Organizing materials and classroom
2. A workable set of rules and procedures
3. Develop and communicate consequences
4. Planning activates for the first week
5. Maintain management system.
6. Ensuring student accountability

3.Avoid nice teacher syndrome?

Answer:

- Do not fall into the trap that imprisons many beginning teachers. Avoid the nice teacher syndrome.
- These teachers want their students to like them and thus give them unnecessary allowance.
- Thus disruptive behaviour is encouraged and sometimes becomes difficult to handle.

4.setting benchmark for behavior expectation?

Answer:

Benchmarks

1. Benchmarking is used to record performance by using a specific indicator.
2. Benchmarks are specific points of reference connected to levels of performance against which students are monitored.

Development of Benchmarks

Benchmarking can be done for:

- a) Communication with teacher
- b) Communication with peers
- c) Interpersonal relationships
- d) Material safety
- e) Following rules

5.performance accomplishment?

Answer:

- The manner in which accomplishments are received has an influence on an individual's self-efficacy, expectations and actions.
- In the classroom, for example, poor grades and other negative assessments of ability can lower self-efficacy beliefs.

6.teacher enthusiasm?

Answer:

Teacher enthusiasm positively affects student behavior and improves students student achievement as well.

1. Move around the class
2. Tone the voice
3. Share and articulate interest in the subject

7. Affective objective in lesson plan?

Answer:

1. Behavior modification happens over time
2. Drastic changes in behaviors are not long lasting
3. Integrate affective objectives in the lessons
4. Make students and other stakeholders realize that they are as important as cognitive objectives
5. Continuous integration will lead to behavior modification

11. Features of effective behavioral support?

Answer:

1. There is total staff commitment to managing behavior, whatever approach is taken.
2. There should be clearly defined and communicated expectations and rules.
3. Have an instructional component for teaching student's self-control and/or social skill strategies.
4. Prepare a support plan to address the needs of students with chronic, challenging behaviors.

12 How create discipline problem in school?

Answer:

Discipline problems arise because rules are:

- Unclear
- Perceived as unfairly or inconsistently enforced
- Students do not believe in rules
- Teachers and administrators disagree on the proper responses to student misconduct
- Teacher-administration cooperation is poor or the administration is inactive
- Teachers tend to have punitive attitudes
- Misconduct is ignored
- Schools are large or lack adequate resources for teaching

13.What is the role of administrative leadership and discipline?

Answer:

The principal plays a very important leadership role in establishing school discipline, both by effective administration and by personal example.

Administrative Models:

Principals of well-disciplined students are usually highly visible models.

14.teacher parent partnership role?

Answer:

Parents and teachers can engage in:

- Joint learning activities
- Supporting each other in their respective roles
- Carrying out classroom and school improvement activities
- Conducting collaborative curriculum projects in the classroom
- Participating together in various decision-making activities

15. Source of frustration among aggressive student?

Sources of frustration can be:

- Failure
- Lack of maintenance of social relationships
- Boredom
- Lack of positive reinforcement
- Irrelevant curriculum
- Overexposure to punishment
- Feelings of powerlessness

5:What do mean by extrinsic motivation and intrinsic motivation?

Answer:

- Extrinsic motivation occurs when a student is driven to perform behaviour in order to win a reward or avoid a punishment. For example:
 - (i) You want to put up a good behaviour because of fear of punishment.
 - (ii) You want to help others in a classroom to get some defined incentives.
- Students who must put forth more than the average degree of effort to accomplish a goal often become discouraged and invest less energy in challenging tasks. (Levin, 1994)

- Rewards can provide temporary incentives to encourage persistence when the natural, invisible rewards of success and mastery are infrequent.

Topic: 171 - Intrinsic Motivation:

1. Intrinsic motivation is a desire to attain targets for the sake of learning.
2. The urge for a true desire for mastery is driven by intrinsic motivation.
3. Students are rewarded for showing keen interest in the tasks assigned to them whether they are academic or behavioural in nature.
4. An intrinsic motivated reward further put faith in students' ability and reaffirms the displayed behaviour.

7:Teacher Bullyism?

Topic: 221 – Teachers as Bullies

A bullying teacher is one who uses his/her power to:

- Punish
- Manipulate
- Ridicule a student beyond what would be a reasonable disciplinary procedure
- Teacher bullyism is professional malpractice
- It is teaching through coercion and creates a disconnect between teacher and students
- Sarcasm and humiliation of students lead to lower self- esteem in students

8:Motivating Students for supplementary Material?

Supplementary Materials

1. To keep more advanced students challenged, prepare an activity resource book to keep in the classroom.
2. Students who finish activities s quickly can work on supplementary activities while waiting for the rest of the class to finish.

13: How can handle aggressive behavior of the student, as a teacher?

Answer:

- A nurturing, caring environment is one antidote to frustration and aggression.

Teachers who are therapeutic demonstrate:

- A high level of self-awareness and self-confidence.
- Realistic expectations of self
- The ability to exhibit and model self-control in managing stress and frustration.

14:how communication and reprimand as a classroom Management strategies?

Answer:

If you must reprimand students, use a normal tone of voice, look at the student, do not use gestures such as pointing your finger, and do not insist on the last word.