

ENG510

Mid-Term

ABSTRACT

This comprehensive collection of notes is accurately crafted to empower students to excel academically, ensuring they achieve a minimum of 80% marks in their examinations. The content is organized with clarity and precision, focusing on key concepts, critical analyses, and practical applications tailored to the syllabus. These notes serve as a reliable resource for both thorough preparation and last-minute revision. Designed to inspire confidence and mastery, this guide is an essential tool for students striving for academic excellence.

Maha Malik
Spring 2025

MCQs by Zainee....

1. Linguistics differs from sociolinguistics in taking account only of the structure of language, to the exclusion of the social contexts in which it is learned and used.
2. Diagram based on the Wave model originally presented by Johannes Schmidt.
3. Synchronic linguistics Explores the functioning of language at a single time point without reference to earlier or later stages.
4. In Pakistan, for instance, official language; Urdu and English is used.
5. depends on the relation between participants. Dialect Code
6. Bilinguality is 'psycho-measurement', whereas bilingualism is the logical state of the individual who has access to more than one linguistic code.
7. Intra-sentential switching (code-mixing) as switching that takes place at the clause, phrase level, or at word level if no morphological adaptation occurs.
8. Sociolinguistic distinguishes between sex as a biological term and gender as a term used to describe socially.
9. Linguistic communications are heterogeneous.
10. Fairclough introduces the term Critical Language Study (CLS).
11. This led to the classic division of LPLP into: status planning, corpus planning and acquisition planning.
12. Twenty-four symbols are used in Korean language.
13. The official language of the United Kingdom is English.
14. Sociolinguistics is the descriptive study of the effect of any and all aspects of society, including cultural norms, expectations and context, on the way language is used, and society's effect on language.
15. Academy performs the process of codification. Society Writer None of these
16. Accents typically differ in quality of the voice, pronunciation and distinction of vowels and consonants, stress, and prosody.
17. Intra-sentential switching (code-mixing) as switching that takes place at the clause, phrase level or within the sentence.
18. Adulthood is the least explored life stage.
19. linguistic varieties which are at a particular speaker's disposal is called verbal repertoire.
20. Kachru to refer to the continuum of bilingualism as a) Zero point b) Central point c) Upper point d) All of these
21. AAVE stands for African American Vernacular English.
22. The use of the term register was criticized in the 1970s by David Crystal.
23. Pronunciation characteristic is specification to the difference in accents.
24. Politeness encodes social distance: It is a social norm and operates on the basis of a set of prescriptive social rules.
25. Lect is a specific form of a language or language cluster.

1. Idiolect: The speech habits peculiar to a particular person. It includes vocabulary, grammar, and pronunciation and differs from a dialect shared by a group.
2. Linguistic Repertoire: The range of linguistic varieties an individual can use in different contexts. Includes all language forms available to a speaker.
3. Bilinguality vs Bilingualism:
 - Bilinguality: A psychological state of accessing two linguistic codes.
 - Bilingualism: The actual use of two or more languages collectively.
4. Four stages of life span:
 - Infancy/Childhood
 - Adolescence
 - Adulthood
 - Old age.
5. Standard Language Processes:
 - Selection
 - Codification
 - Elaboration of function
 - Acceptance.
6. Aspects of Linguistic Hegemony:
 - Language used as power
 - Standard language seen as 'correct'
 - Suppression of other languages/dialects.
7. Three Measuring Points of Kachru:
 - Zero point: Limited competence
 - Central point: Use in administration, law, teaching
 - Upper point: Fluent use for social control.
8. Three Reasons for Language Diversity:
 - Ethnicity and region
 - Political and historical events
 - Migration and contact situations.
9. Three Scientists in Sociolinguistics:
 - William Labov
 - Peter Trudgill
 - Joshua Fishman.
10. Five Dialects in English:
 - Northeastern U.S.

- Southern U.S.
- African American Vernacular English (AAVE)
- Standard British English
- Scottish English.

11. Verbal Repertoire: Linguistic varieties available to an individual for use within their speech community.

12. Language Style According to Audience:

- Code choice depends on setting, topic, and listener relationship.

13. Computational Jargon: Specialized terminology used by professionals in computing and digital communication.

14. Five Linguistic Phenomena Constructs:

- Code-switching
- Code-mixing
- Language borrowing
- Accent variation
- Dialect shifting.

15. Language Planning: Efforts by governments/institutions to develop policies affecting language use, standardization, and education.

16. Regional Dialect: A variety of language associated with a particular geographic area.

17. Two Standard Varieties of Korean:

- Seoul Korean (South Korea)
- Pyongan Korean (North Korea).

18. Language vs Dialect:

- Language: Broader system of communication.
- Dialect: A subset, often regionally or socially defined.

19. Five Language Varieties:

- Standard
- Regional
- Social
- Stylistic

Compilation

- Idiolect.

20.Code Switching: Shifting from one code (language or dialect) to another within a conversation depending on context or audience.

21.Constraints in Language Contact:

- Social attitudes
- Spatial/geographic limitations
- Rigid social hierarchies.

22.Four Approaches to Language & Social Class:

- Deficit approach
- Dominance approach
- Difference approach
- Social constructionist approach.

23.Variables and Variants:

- Variable: A linguistic feature
- Variants: Different realizations of that feature.

24.Standard Language Four Names:

- Selection
- Codification
- Elaboration
- Acceptance.

25.Papua and Genua Types: These likely refer to sociolinguistic classifications; for example, Papua languages are highly diverse and Genua types might refer to creoles or mixed languages.

26.Appropriate: Refers to language use that is socially acceptable in a given context.

27.Official Language of Pakistan: English and Urdu.

28.Factors of Code Mixing:

- Topic change
- Speaker's language proficiency
- Contextual setting
- Identity expression.

29. Computing Jargons: Technical language used in computing, e.g., "cache", "algorithm", "bit".

30. Diachronic (not dychronic): The study of language change over time.

31. Linguistic Items: Words, phrases, sounds, and grammatical constructions used in communication.

32. Wave Model: Language change spreads outwards from a central point like ripples in water.

33. Three Works of Labov:

- The Social Stratification of English in New York City
- Principles of Linguistic Change
- Sociolinguistic Patterns.

34. Three Types of Code Switching:

- Inter-sentential
- Intra-sentential
- Tag-switching.

Q. Define Social Network

A social network in sociolinguistics refers to the web of relationships individuals are involved in, which influences their language use. The strength and type of these relationships (e.g., family, friends, workplace) determine the spread and maintenance of language features.

Q. How Many Letters Are Used in Korean Language?

The Korean writing system, Hangul, consists of:

- 14 basic consonants
- 10 basic vowels

Total: 24 basic letters (though many compound characters can be formed).

Q. Examples of Computing Jargon

1. Algorithm – A set of rules or steps to solve a problem.
2. Cache – A storage layer that helps access data faster.
3. Bug – An error or flaw in a computer program or system.

Q. Fill in the blanks related to socio linguistics:

- i. Sociolinguistics focuses on the effect of language on society.
- ii. Sociolinguistics focuses on the effect of language and society.
- iii. Sociolinguistics deals with study of language in relation to the society.
- iv. William Labov is often regarded as the founder of the study of sociolinguistics.
- v. Most of the growth in sociolinguistics has taken place since the late 1960s.

Q. Mark true/false (style)

- i. Style refers to ways of speaking. True.
- ii. Style is a fixed attribute of a speaker. False.
- iii. A speaker may use different styles depending on context. True.
- iv. Variation can occur in following ways: syntactically, lexically, and phonologically. True.
- v. Style-shifting correlates strongly with the amount of attention paid to speech. True.

Q. Fill in the blanks:

- i. Language is a key element in the construction of human groups.
- ii. Nationalism is one type of political setting in which LPLP has been undertaken in a particularly rigorous and systematic way.
- iii. The classic division of LPLP into: status planning, corpus planning and acquisition planning.
- iv. Corpus planning is an attempt to change the forms and structures of the language itself.
- v. Corpus planning involves processes of codification and standardization.

B.Ed. \(1.5 Years\)

BS English

Files

Compilation