

ZAINEE

Contact#

03196960202

For Paid

- LMS Handling
- Zoom Classes
- Short Notes

Designed by

A.Sohail 0306-1104389

ENG-503

FINAL TERM PAPER

22-AUG-2023

OBJECTIVE

1. Politeness in language is centered on the notion of face.
2. him, them, those, Khan, Qureshi, etc are Examples of personal deixis
3. The word discourse was First introduced by Zelling Harris in 1952 to examine; the language beyond the level of the sentence and relation between linguistic and non-linguistic behavior.
4. The notion that English language instruction must be carried on by native speakers and experts has been challenged after the spread of debate on world Englishes.
5. The notion „native speaker“ has been employed as a mark of power and prestige for the benefit of some individuals.
6. The words learners need to be able to use and understand' FALL IN THE CATEGORY OF Productive vocabulary
7. learners of English; often no clear relation between spellings and pronunciation
8. Multiple choice tests are type of test to grade easy.
9. Grammar adds meanings that are not easily inferable from the immediate context.
10. According to Harmer, 1991 Good pronunciation is needed for this, but a “perfect accent” is not.
11. Even adults can become highly proficient, even native-like, speakers of second languages, especially if motivated to do so.
12. It is about planning and preparation, may overlap with the incubation stage.
13. The incubation stage in teaching creative writing is about planning and preparing.

FOR PAID LMS

03196960202

14. ICE stands for international corpus of English.
15. Bank of English is Monitor Corpora
16. Curriculum refers to all those activities in which students are engaged under the auspices of the institution
17. Register Analysis studies the language of fields such as journalism, medicine, or law for distinctive patterns of occurrence of vocabulary, verb forms, noun phrases, and tense usage.
18. In process of course development.... is considered the starting point
 - a. course content
 - b. course content planning
 - c. Sequencing course content
 - d. Course Rationale
19. Curriculum evaluation focuses on collecting information about language program to understand how successfully it works.
20. The social contexts of Emily Bronte's novels need to be understood in the context of Victorian morality in Britain.
21. Increase your awareness of your own cultural values, beliefs, traditions, and norms and how they affect your behavior is known as cultural intelligence
22. All the prosperous nations have developed a 'research culture'.
23. Teachers usually have a vision of how students are expected to behave for preventing....
disruptive behavior
24. The explosive growth of the internet has given new life to interactive media and CALL.
25. Motivation is a kind of social simulation.
26. Learner needs to become proficient in four main area of language.
27. Facilitating anxiety may have positive effects on learning as anxiety.

28. Linguistic imperialism is concerned with the study of linguistic hierarchization.
29. A lesson is a unified set of activities that focuses on one teaching objective at a time.
30. To Fairclough (1995), ideologies are acquired, expressed and enacted with the help of language.
31. Research in ELT Has a direct relationship with both policy and practice.
32. Research is the essence of higher education and is given prime importance across the globe
33. According to Dornye motivation has a positive effect in language learning.
34. A stable natural language is developed from mixture of different language is known as Creole.
35. getting the students interested in the subject, in the class and in the language point and hopefully enjoying what they are doing is called To engage.
36. Conversational analysis takes real data and then examine the language and demonstrates that the conversation is systematically structured.
37. The community of speaker of a language shift to speaking a completely different language; usually over an extended period of time. This is called language shift.
38. ELT stands for English language teaching.

Short questions

Q.1 Ways Deductive Approach is criticized by Adamson? (3)

Criticism of DA (Adamson)

1. Teaches grammar in an isolated way. (only teachers explain grammar) (teacher-centered approach)
2. Little attention is paid to meaning.
3. Practice is often mechanical.

Q.2 Define Critical Discourse Analysis?

CDA is a type of discourse analytical research that primarily studies the way social power abuse; dominance and inequality are enacted, reproduced, and resisted by text and talk in the social and political context (Van Dijk).

Q.3 Write down the three dimensions involved in course development?

The course development involves the following dimensions:

- Developing a course rationale
- Describing entry and exit levels
- Choosing course content

Q.4 Name at least two sub-varieties against

- A. Native varieties of English
- B. Non-native varieties of English

Against native varieties of English, two sub-varieties could be considered:

1. Dialects: Different regions or countries may have their own dialects of English, which can vary in pronunciation, vocabulary, and grammar. Some may view these dialects as deviations from the standard or "correct" form of English.
2. Sociolects: English spoken by specific social groups, such as certain ethnic or cultural communities, may be seen as non-standard or inferior by some. These sociolects can have unique vocabulary, grammar, and pronunciation influenced by the group's cultural background.

Q.5 Explain the Three elements of fiction writing?

Three elements of fiction writing are:

1. Plot: The sequence of events that make up the story, including the introduction, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution.
2. Characters: The individuals or entities that drive the story, with their own personalities, motivations, and conflicts.
3. Setting: The time, place, and atmosphere in which the story takes place, providing context and creating a backdrop for the events and characters.

LONG Questions

FOR PAID LMS

03196960202

Q.6 Advantages of concordances in ELT?

Concordances in ELT have several advantages. They provide authentic language examples, helping learners understand how words and phrases are used in real contexts. Concordances also assist in vocabulary development by showing collocations and word patterns. They promote learner autonomy, as students can independently explore and analyze language data. Additionally, concordances support language production, enabling learners to create more accurate and natural-sounding sentences.

Q.7 Halliday divided language learning into three heuristic categories relevant to ELT And explain language learning?

1. Language Learning
2. Learning Through Language
3. Learning About Language

Language Learning -Children develop use of complex grammatical structures and vocabulary; communicative competence i.e. comprehension of both spoken and written forms. Teacher helps his student in learning a language -methodology that is different on different levels. For instance, young children are taught with the help of curriculum and the instructional programs. At secondary and postsecondary level, they must learn how to read, write or argue in discipline-specific ways. Moreover, instructional programs may focus on specific language needs -create a student-centered environment.

Q.8 Explain the personal advantages of bilingualism?

Personal Advantage: Bilingualism stimulates creativity, raises self-esteem, enhances interpersonal and social skills, and develops greater social sensitivity.

- Bilingualism strengthens cognitive abilities.
- Bilingual people tend to be more creative and flexible.
- They can be more broad-minded, and they also find it easier to focus on a variety of tasks simultaneously. And being able to speak two languages helps in other ways TOO

Q.9 Write five factors that contribute to bringing variation in language?

Five factors that contribute to bringing variation in language are:

1. Geographic location: Different regions have their own dialects and accents, leading to linguistic variation.
2. Social factors: Factors such as social class, education level, and cultural background can influence language variation.
3. Historical influences: Language changes over time due to historical events, migrations, and cultural exchanges.
4. Contact with other languages: When languages come into contact, they can influence each other, leading to the emergence of new words, phrases, and grammatical structures.
5. Individual differences: Each person has their own unique way of speaking, influenced by their personal experiences, preferences, and idiosyncrasies.

Q.10 What is lesson and lesson planning?

A lesson is a structured period of time dedicated to teaching and learning a specific topic or skill. It typically involves the teacher presenting information, facilitating activities, and assessing student understanding.

Lesson planning is the process of designing and organizing a lesson to ensure effective teaching and learning. It involves determining the objectives, selecting appropriate instructional strategies and resources, sequencing activities, and considering assessment methods. Lesson planning helps teachers provide a clear and organized framework for delivering content and engaging students in the learning process.

