

Lesson 19

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Program is a composite of goals, policies, rules, tasks, procedures, resources to be employed.

True

False

Q2. Budget for an organization is a clear expression of income and expenditures.

True

False

Q3. The illogical sequential process of setting goals and choosing on best goals is termed as 'rational process'.

True

False

Lesson 19

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. In the planning process, on which factors future is forecasted?

Ans: Markets, prices, what services need to be provided, what technological change there will be, what population changes will be there. These are general factors which are considered while forecasting the future in the planning process.

Q2. What do you understand by 'evaluating the alternatives'?

Ans: In planning process different alternatives are considered and these are evaluated or examined on the basis of cost and benefits and finally on the basis of this type of analysis the decision is taken.

Q3. The selection of one best alternative among all is done on the basis of cost-benefit analysis.

True

False

Lesson 20

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Project is a distinct activity which requires investment and has beginning and end.

True

False

Q2. Project cycle is not a sequential process of project identification, feasibility, preparation, appraisal, approval, implementation and evaluation.

True

False

Q3. Chairman is the head of Planning & Development Board of Pakistan.

True

False

Q4. Planning organizations of Pakistan have responsibility of overall development of the country.

True

False

Lesson 20

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Development Board was created in Economic Affairs Division.

True

False

Q2. Six-Years Development Plan was prepared by Development Board in 1950.

True

False

Q3. Planning Board was re-designated as Planning Commission in 1962.

True

False

Q4. Project Identification is the first step in the Project Cycle.

True

False

Q5. What is Project Appraisal?

Ans: It is careful checking of the basic data collected through survey, assumptions and methodology used in the project preparation.

Q6. What is the highest project approving body of Pakistan?

Ans: National Economic Council is the highest project approving body of Pakistan.

Lesson 21

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. A systematic and sequential process of making decisions and achieving objectives is called rational decisions.

True

False

Q2. People have limited time and information so their rationality is limited.

True

False

Q3. Uncertainty is related to the known future.

True

False

Q4. The uncertain decisions have high rate of risks.

True

False

Lesson 21

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. What do you understand by programmed decisions?

Ans: Programmed decisions are structured or repetitive or routine decisions.

Q2. Organizational Process Model is used in those organizations which have decentralized decision making.

True

False

Q3. Organizational Process model emphasizes to follow standard operating procedures of the organization to maintain the quality of the decisions in the participative decision making environment.

True

False

Q4. Research & Analysis for decision making is very time and resource consuming activity.

True

False

Lesson 22

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Human resource is the most vital resource of the organization.

True

False

Q2. Human resource planning is to assess the future requirements of human assets for the organization.

True

False

Q3. Recruitment and selection are two different names of same activity.

True

False

Q4. Demotion is the transfer of the employee to the lower rank, grade or cadre.

True

False

Lesson 22

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Recruitment is to collect the pool of the candidate for selection according to the requirements.

True

False

Q2. Position description is the written description of the job duties and responsibilities from management positions.

True

False

Q3. Human Resource Management is the line function.

True

False

Q4. Human resource management can assure the organization of an adequate and constant supply of skilled and right employee.

True

False

Q5. Job Analysis is the last step in the recruitment process.

True

False

Q6. Planning for the development of the employees is the part of the recruitment activity.

True

False

Q7. What is the main purpose of the recruitment?

Ans: The purpose of the recruitment is to provide a group of candidate that is large enough to let the managers select the qualified employee they need according to their requirement.

Lesson 23

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Job offer is the first step of the selection process.

True

False

Q2. Selection is not a single activity but it is combination of many activities and become a complete process.

True

False

Q3. What do you understand by the term orientation?

Ans: Orientation is to familiarize the new employee with the organizational rules, work, procedure and policies.

Q4. What is “blue-collar jobs”?

Ans: Blue-collar jobs are non-managerial positions like clerks, superintendents.

Lesson 23

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Training is to provide necessary skills, knowledge and attitudes to perform a job in organization.

True

False

Q2. Job rotation is an example of on-the-job training.

True

False

Q3. Developmental programs of the employees seek to develop skills for current jobs.

True

False

Q5. Why management developmental programs are designed in the organization?

Ans: These type of programs are designed to improve the overall effectiveness of managers in their present positions and to prepare them for greater responsibility when they are promoted.

Lesson 24

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Performance is the function of human resource management.

True

False

Q2. Informal performance appraisal is conducted in the organizations along with formal appraisal system.

True

False

Q3. Different decisions like promotions, demotions, and lay-off are all done on the basis of performance appraisal of employees.

True

False

Q4. Competence is the ability to perform a particular task successfully.

True

False

Lesson 24

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. What is compensation?

Ans: It is wages and salaries given to the employees in a job position.

Q2. Immediate feedback is given to the employees in the informal appraisal system.

True

False

Q3. What is the real motive of Four Cs Model?

Ans: This model addresses the areas that must be focused when selecting people for the organization.

Q4. What do you understand by the term 'congruence' in the Four Cs Model?

Ans: It shows that how much trust and agreement exists between the management and employees of the organization. It also represents the agreement between the basic philosophy and goals of the organization and its employees.

Lesson 25

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Federal Public Service Commission is the recruiting & selection organization in the public sector.

True

False

Q2. In government sector, managerial positions start from BS-17.

True

False

Q3. Civil Services Academy is the human resource management organization of the government.

True

False

Q4. NIPA is the abbreviation of "National Investment & Project Association".

True

False

Q5. Public Opinion is the opinion of general masses.

True

False

Lesson 25

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. What are the ways or methods of external control of civil servants?

Ans: - Legislative control

- Public opinion
- Judiciary

Q2. Hierarchy is the tool of external control for the accountability of civil servants.

True

False

Q3. What is 'Mohtasib'?

Ans: Mohtasib hears the grievances of the citizens against civil servants and decide whether the action of civil servant was correct or otherwise.

Q4. What is 'Esta Code'?

Ans: Esta code provides laws, rules and instructions for the promotion, placement, transfer, discipline and conduct of civil servants.

Q5. What does civil servant mean?

Ans: Civil servant means a person who is member of all Pakistan services and he or she holds a civil post in connection with the affairs of the federation including any such post connected with defense.

Lesson 26

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Finance relates to the financing activities.

True

False

Q2. What does 'public deficit' mean?

Ans: The excess of expenditure over income in one budget period of government that is one year.

Q3. Government has the responsibility to deal with the issues like prices of goods and employment.

True

False

Q4. Public Finance looks into the financial problems and policies of government at three levels i-e federal, provincial and local.

True

False

Lesson 26

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Private finance means financial problems of individual economic unit like shop, firm factory.

True

False

Q2. Private goods are non-excludable.

True

False

Q3. Non-excludable means the use by one person cannot exclude other person.

True

False

Q4. Private car is non-excludable good.

True

False

Q5. Fee, fines, grants and interest receipt are taxable revenues.

True

False

Lesson 27

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Tax is levied charge by government on the income of others and it is source of income of government.

True

False

Q2. Income is a document showing expenditures and taxes of any person, organization or household.

True

False

Q3. Laissez-faire is an economic system that advocates state ownership of industry.

True

False

Q4. Adam Smith is considered as 'Father of Economics'.

True

False

Lesson 27

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Direct tax is a tax paid directly by the person or organization on whom it is levied.

True

False

Q2. The purpose of taxation is to redistribute of income from rich to poor and help finance welfare activities.

True

False

Q3. Income tax is an example of indirect taxation.

True

False

Q4. "Wealth of Nation" is a legendary book of economics by Adam Smith.

True

False

Q5. Two citizens who earn equal income and have same size of family should be taxed the same.

True

False

Lesson 28

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. The institution of budget was originated in Far East Asia.
True
False

Q2. The annual budget in Pakistan presents in parliament before approval and implementation.
True
False

Q3. Pakistani government presents annual budget in the month of June every year.
True
False

Lesson 28

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Performance Budgeting was introduced after World War II.

True

False

Q2. Budget and overall plan are integrated in Performance budget.

True

False

Q3. Medium Term Budgetary Framework is very useful in economic and political stability.

True

False

Q4. Budget call is sent in October to all the departments of Pakistan.

True

False

Q5. Salaries of government employees are considered as 'development expenditures'.

True

False

Q6. Fund is the combination of revenues, loans and money received in return of repayment of loans by the government.

True

False

Lesson 30

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. A process of ensuring the actual activities confirm to established standards is called control.

True

False

Q2. The rule of law is the state in which same law is applicable to everybody irrespective of their status, power, wealth or education.

True

False

Q3. The condition of rule of law is perfect in Pakistan.

True

False

Q4. Annual Confidential Report is used as tool to control the performance of the employees in the organizations.

True

False

Lesson 30

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Accountability is a financial control of the organization.

True

False

Q2. Control system of the organization plays very important role to enhance the effectiveness of the organization.

True

False

Q3. External control system is developed within the organization for monitoring the employees.

True

False

Q4. Judiciary is the type of internal control of accountability.

True

False

Q5. What do you understand by the term 'hierarchical order'?

Ans: It is the type of internal control in which individuals are supervised by superiors.

Q6. Define "Questions" as the type of external control.

Ans: Different type of questions about different issues of the country is asked by the members of legislature to the concerned authorities in the first hour of session of legislature. It is the type of accountability of authorities by the public representatives.

Lesson 31

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Financial audit is the analysis of all money related activities of the organization.

True

False

Q2. Audit is the post mortem of different events and activities.

True

False

Q3. Public money is the combination of tax & non-tax revenue and borrowed money.

True

False

Q4. Public money is for the welfare of common masses of the country.

True

False

Lesson 31

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. If the cost of a vehicle in comparison with another model of similar quality is low then this vehicle is said to be economical.

True

False

Q2. Performance audit helps to point out the strengths and weaknesses of the system for further improvement.

True

False

Q3. Define the concept of 'efficiency' in simple words.

Ans: Efficiency is defined as to give maximum output from given set of inputs.

Lesson 32

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Motivation is generally assumed good thing for better performance and output.

True

False

Q2. Motivation plays an important role for developing person's commitment.

True

False

Q3. All the humans have natural urge to excel and out perform.

True

False

Lesson 32

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. McClelland had developed the ERG Theory of motivation.

True

False

Q2. 'Relatedness' of ERG Theory explains the need of personal creativity.

True

False

Q3. Goal oriented behavior of the human beings play an important role in their successful life.

True

False

Q4. What do you understand by the concept of motivation?

Ans: It is a drive that moves individual to meet need and attain satisfaction.

Q5. What is need of power according to David C. McClelland?

Ans: According to McClelland, need of power is some people have high need of power or authority. They may be paid less but if they get a powerful position then they will be satisfied.

Lesson 33

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. What do you understand by power?

Ans: Power is the possession of controlling influence.

Q2. Who is leader?

Ans: A person who rules or guides or inspires others like Quaid-e-Azam, Ghandi, Abraham Lincon etc.

Q3. Rewards can be in the form nice words, certificates, badges, mugs etc.

True

False

Lesson 33

Post-assessment Questions

- Q1. What is the main concept of 'Trait Approach of Leadership'?
- Ans: This approach says that leaders are born and they have leadership qualities by birth.
- Q2. What do you understand by managerial leadership?
- Ans: This is the leadership that managers exercise in organization to achieve goals.
- Q3. What do you understand by the term valence?
- Ans: Valence is described as power or motivation which varies from person to person.
- Q4. What is 'Reinforcement Theory'?
- Ans: It states that consequences of past behavior affect future actions.
- Q5. Reinforcement theory is associated with the sociologist B.F. Skinner.
- True
- False
- Q6. Explain in simple words 'Expectancy Theory'.
- Ans: This theory explains that people try to assess the response of their actions and expect something in return.

Lesson 34

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. If in an organization there will be boss centered leadership then boss will have more authority.

True

False

Q2. Situational Leadership means that leadership styles will vary from situation to situation.

True

False

Q3. Managers closely supervise their employees for satisfactory performance.

True

False

Lesson 34

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. How do you define 'task-oriented' leadership function?

Ans: In this function manager has problem solving function, managers help the group in solving the different problems.

Q2. In your view what are the forces or powers of a manager?

Ans: The knowledge, experience, background are all the forces or the personal powers of a manager.

Q3. According to Hersey & Blanchard's Contingency Model, what does 'readiness' mean?

Ans: It means desire for achievement, willingness to accept responsibility, task-related ability, skills and experience of employees.

Q4. Explain in simple words 'Employee Centered Style'.

Ans: This style of leadership is more concerned with employee characteristics and accordingly adopting a leadership style.

Q5. Who are charismatic leaders?

Ans: Charismatic Leaders are those leaders who have their personal vision and energy and they inspire followers and have major impact on their organization.

Lesson 35

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Teams are effective and efficient way to complete the task.
True
False

Q2. Committee is the type of team.
True
False

Q3. Two or more people who interact with and influence each other to ward achievement of common purpose is termed as team.
True
False

Q4. Team has the responsibility to accomplish the whole assigned a task by the management of the organization.
True
False

Lesson 35

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. What is the main purpose of forming quality circles in the organizations?

Ans: Quality circles are formed for improving the quality of the organizations by suggestions of those who are directly involved in the working of the organizations.

Q2. What are self-managed teams?

Ans: Self-managed teams are those which are managed by themselves without any formal supervision of a manager.

Q3. Define in simple words the concept of 'group dynamics'.

Ans: Group dynamics means the changing roles and relationship in group behavior and formation and disbandment of group.

Q4. What is the 'adjourning' stage of team development? Explain briefly.

Ans: The team or group that is constituted for a given period of time for accomplishing a particular task, when the assigned task has completed then that team is disbanded and this is adjourning stage of team development.

Q5. Task force is formed to deal with specific and recurrent problem and to provide solution to it.

True

False

Lesson 36

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Transmission of information from one person to other person is called as interdependence.

True

False

Q2. Norms are the rules that a group uses for appropriate and inappropriate values, beliefs, attitudes and behaviors.

True

False

Q3. Task interdependence related to the dependence of workers on one group member on the work of another member.

True

False

Q4. Communication is the back bone of organization's survival and growth.

True

False

Q5. Solidarity and togetherness of group members is termed as cohesiveness.

True

False

Lesson 36

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. What is the benefit of team cohesiveness?

Ans: Team cohesiveness is very important and beneficial for efficient and better performance of the team.

Q2. The increase in interaction between the group members is a way to create group cohesiveness.

True

False

Q3. Symbols, gestures, sounds, letters, numbers and words are all the part of communication.

True

False

Q4. Define in simple words the concept of potency effectiveness.

Ans: It means every member in a group contribute effectively to achieve results.

Q5. What is the significance of effective communication in an organization?

Ans: Communication is important and essential for effective management processes like planning, controlling, organizing, leading and team work.

Q6. What do you mean by interpersonal communication?

Ans: Interpersonal communication is that type of communication which involves two or more people who are dependents on each other.

Lesson 37

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Sender is the initiator of communication process.
True
False

Q2. Noise is any factor that disturbs, confuses, or otherwise interferes with communication.
True
False

Q3. Noise is considered as barriers to effective communication.
True
False

Q4. Verbal communication involves discussions and instructions.
True
False

Q5. Smile or dress is a part of non-verbal communication.
True
False

Lesson 37

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. The credibility of receiver of a message is very important for conveying accurate message.

True

False

Q2. Emotional state of mind is barrier in effective communication.

True

False

Q3. Feedback is very important for making the communication effective and accurate.

True

False

Q4. Decoding is the process by which the receiver interprets the message and translates it into meaningful information.

True

False

Q5. Letters, memos and reports are the form of informal communication.

True

False

Click here to view solution

Lesson 38

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. The process by which two parties resolve conflict jointly and both parties get something in return is called negotiation.

True

False

Q2. Negotiation is used to resolve conflicts and issues.

True

False

Q3. The negotiator should be good listener for effective resolution of the conflicts.

True

False

Q4. Lateral communication is the type of communication which is done between the same level.

True

False

Lesson 38

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Authority structure of organization wherein each level and position has the authority to get work done.

True

False

Q2. When a boss communicates with his or her subordinates is termed as vertical communication.

True

False

Q3. What do you mean information ownership?

Q4. Define briefly 'grape vine' communication.

Click here to View solution

Lesson 39

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Executive branch of the government has the responsibility to execute or implement development projects.

True

False

Q2. Revenues are the collection by the government which is spent for the welfare of the public in the country.

True

False

Q3. Magistrate is a judicial officer with limited powers who handles certain preliminary matters such as issuing warrants, determining bail, issuing emergency protection orders and temporarily committing people to mental institutions.

True

False

Q4. The main purpose of district administration is to maintain law & order.

True

False

Lesson 39

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. What is the function of judiciary?

Ans: Judiciary has the function to hear and announce verdict on criminal and civil cases according to the described and defined law of the state.

Q2. What is the main function of district magistrate?

Ans: District magistrate has the coordinative function in the district.

Q3. The organization of elections in the district is the responsibility of district magistrate.

True

False

Q4. Deputy Commissioner is a technical person.

True

False

Q5. The control of police in the district was given to district magistrate in 1961.

True

False

Lesson 40

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Devolution is the transfer of resources and power to lower level authorities.

True

False

Q2. Bureaucracy is the synonym of devolution.

True

False

Q3. Local Government Plan was presented in 2000 in Pakistan.

True

False

Q4. Electoral College for presidential elections was introduced in 1962 in Pakistan.

True

False

Lesson 40

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Services and goods that match the need of local people is called allocative efficiency.

True

False

Q2. Functions that are necessary to be performed by local government is called its obligatory functions.

True

False

Q3. Basic Democracies system was introduced in 1958 which created 80,000 basic democrats or union councilors in the country.

True

False

Q4. Local Government is the authority which determines and executes measures within an area inside and smaller than whole state.

True

False

Q5. Union councils have no power of taxation in the country.

True

False

Lesson 41

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. DCO is the abbreviation of District Coordination Officer.

True

False

Q2. According to political reforms of 2000, 6 seats are reserved for peasants in tehsil councils of Pakistan.

True

False

Q3. Local government has the responsibility of providing primary and secondary health facilities to the people of the community.

True

False

Lesson 41

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Who is district coordination officer?

Ans: District coordination officer is an officer who coordinates the functions of departments at district levels.

Q2. Define briefly citizen community boards.

Ans: These are bodies at district level that oversee the work of government departments. These boards are comprised of elected people of area, teachers, doctors, lawyers and other professionals.

Q3. Devolution also aimed to facilitate easy access to justice.

True

False

Q4. According to devolution plan of 2000, police now works under nazim.

True

False

Q5. FY is the abbreviation of 'Financial Year'.

True

False

Lesson 42

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. New arrangement of seats has been made in devolution plan of 2000.

True

False

Q2. Adult literacy programs are programs for those adults who were unable to receive primary education.

True

False

Q3. Local government system is important to resolve issues at the grass root level.

True

False

Lesson 42

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Local Government System 2000 has enhanced women representation in political picture.

True

False

Q2. Divisible Pool is the list of taxes which are divided among all the provinces for their expenses.

True

False

Q3. In Pakistan, revenue sharing is the responsibility of federal government.

True

False

Q4. After Local Government Ordinance 2000, elected political representatives have control over bureaucracy.

True

False

Q5. There are 33% seats have been reserved for women in district council.

True

False

Lesson 43

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. NPM stands for New Public Management.

True

False

Q2. New Public Management was the revolution in public sector administration.

True

False

Q3. New Public Management was based on private sector rules and regulations.

True

False

Lesson 43

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. 1980s & 1990s was the era of emergence of new public management.

True

False

Q2. New Public Management has evolved in developed country of Netherland.

True

False

Q3. Management means achievement of results.

True

False

Q4. Administrator only monitors that instructions has been followed or not.

True

False

Lesson 44

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. Merit Pay is a tool to motivate the employees of the organization.

True

False

Q2. Political leadership plays an important role in bringing reforms.

True

False

Q3. The size of government has great effect on its efficiency.

True

False

Q4. Information technology has revolutionized the world and has brought efficiency.

True

False

Q5. In the present arena customer services is a major tool to retain market share and for the survival of the organization.

True

False

Q6. Unnecessary control causes rebellion among those who have been controlled.

True

False

Lesson 44

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Civil Services Reform Act of 1978 in USA aimed at giving greater responsibility for results.

True

False

Q2. The idea of change came from political leadership rather than public services.

True

False

Q3. Massey was one of the major contributors to new managerialism.

True

False

Q4. When the services are taken from third party to reduce the work load of the organization is termed as contracting out.

True

False

Q5. New managerialism has emphasized that the size of public sector should be reduced to small to make it efficient.

True

False

Q6. Accountability is very important tool for control and monitoring.

True

False

Lesson 45

Pre-assessment Questions

Q1. In New Public Management practice, private sector styles have been emphasized to use in public sector.

True

False

Q2. New Public Management was invented after the failure of conventional management styles.

True

False

Q3. Government increases taxation to reduce inflation.

True

False

Lesson 45

Post-assessment Questions

Q1. Politicising refers to the changes that are taking place in private sector.

True

False

Q2. The idea of non-political and efficient bureaucracy was put forward by Woodrow Wilson.

True

False

Q3. Public management & public accountability are two different concepts.

True

False