BY NIMMA MALIK

Society	Goals of education	Students	Instructional Methods	Curriculum	Agents	Influence on Education
Pre-literate Societies	- To teach survival skills - Teach group harmony	- All children - No grouping according to age - All children get together and listen to what people had to tell them.	- Informal methods - Children imitate adults	- Practice hunting - Fishing - Songs - Poems - Dances	- Parents - Liberal leaders - Religious leaders	- Informal - Transmission of skills
Influence of Chinese	Prepare elites to govern the empire according to Confucian principles	- Males of upper class	- Memorization and recitation	- Confucian Classics	Government officials	- Written examination for civil service
Indian Society	- To learn behavior and rituals based on Vedas	- Males of Upper classes	- Memorizing and interpreting sacred texts	- Vedas and religious texts	- Brahmin Priest scholars	- Cultural transmission and assimilation, spiritual detachment
Influence of Egyptians	- To prepare priest according to scribe for the empire	-Males of upper class	- Memorization and copying texts	- Religious or Technical texts	- Priest and scribes	- Restriction on educational controls to priest elites

Influence of Greek	- To cultivate civic responsibility	- Male children ages 7 to 20 years	- Memorization and recitation in primary schools, lecture, discussion, and dialogue in higher schools	- Athens: reading, writing, arithmetic, drama, poetry, And music, Sparta: Drill, military, songs and tactics.	- Athens: private teachers, philosophers. Sparta: military teachers	- Athens: well rounded, liberally educated person. Sparta: Concept of military state.
Influence of Romans	- Develop civic responsibility for the empire, -Administrative and military skills	- Male children ages 7 – 20	- Memorization and recitation in ludus; declamation in rhetorical schools (lutus is the primary school for everybody) declamation is the ability to create and give a speech.	- Reading, writing, arithmetic, law and philosophy	- Private schools and teachers, schools of rhetoric	- Practical administrative skills - Relate education to civic responsibility
Arabic Society	-Cultivate religious commitment to Islamic beliefs, - Expertise in mathematics, medicine and science	- Male children of upper class ages 7 – 20	- Memorization and recitation in primary schools, imitation and discussion in higher schools	- Reading, writing, arithmetic, religious literature, scientific studies	- Mosques. Court schools	Arabic numerals and computation, medicine and science materials
Influence of Medieval on Education	- Develop religious commitment, knowledge, and ritual; establish social order, prepare for appropriate rules.	- Male children of upper class - Girls and women entering religious community ages 7-20	- Memorization and recitation in lower schools, - Text analysis discussion in higher school and universities	- Athens: reading, writing, arithmetic, philosophy, theology, military and chivalry	- Parish - Chantry - Cathedral schools - Universities - Knighthood	- Structure and organization of the University - Institutionalization of knowledge

Renaissance Period	- Cultivate Humanist experts in Greek, and Latin classes; prepare people to serve dynastic leaders	- Male children of aristocracy and upper classes, ages 7-20	- Memorization and translation, and analysis of Greek, and Roman classes, classical literature, poetry and art.	- Latin and Greek classical literature, poetry and art	- Classical Humanists educators and schools like Lycee, gymnasium and Latin school,	- Emphasis on literary knowledge, excellence and style in classical literature, - two track system of schools
Reformation period	- Cultivate a commitment to a particular religious denomination, and general literacy	- Boys and Girls ages 7-12 in vernacular schools, - Young men of upper class in humanist schools.	- Memorization drill, indoctrination, catechetical instruction in vernacular schools, translation and analysis of classical literature in humanistic schools	- Reading, writing, arithmetic, catechism, and rituals. - Latin and Greek theology	- Vernacular elementary school for general public, - Classical schools for upper class.	- Commitment to universal education to provide literacy for everyone; origins of schools systems, dual track school system based on socio economic class and career goals.

Theorists	Philosophy	View of Human Nature
Confucius (Chinese)	Developed ethical system based on hierarchy, human relations and roles, emphasized order and stability	Human beings need the order of a stable society. People accept duties that come with their station life.
Socrates	Philosophical idealism, political conservation	Humans define themselves by self-examination
Plato	Philosophical idealist, social conservation, added intuition	Humans can be classified on intellectual capabilities
Aristotl	Realists, views society based on realism and observation	Humans have the power of rationality to guide their conduct