بِسۡمِ اللّٰہِ الرَّحۡمٰنِ الرَّحِیۡمِ

EDU101 Quiz 2 File by Tanveer Online Academy

Classical conditioning is learning through ----------	Association
Level 8 of the Hierarchy of Learning deals with ----------	problem solving
Postmodernism is a term applied to ----------	social sciences
According to Modernism what is at the center of existence?	Self
Who first identified the form of learning called Classical Conditioning?	Ivan Pavlov
Which theories focused on needs, feelings, attitudes and self-awareness of child?	Humanistic theories
The capacity of long term memory is:	Infinite
Postmodernist times are characterized by:	risk and diversity
Which of the following best describes the Behavioral perspective of psychology?	The study of how we learn
Thorndike presented the following Laws of Learning:	All of the above

The major theories of learning have been classified into _____ groups.	Three
“feelings and emotions developed from positive and negative experiences.” Is the definition of which of these terms?	Attitudes
The first learning outcome deals with ----------	intellectual skills
Knowing what deals with ----------	knowledge and facts
According to postmodernists what goes together?	Knowledge and power
Intellectual skills are all about ----------	knowing how
Information looks at ----------	Knowing what
Classical conditioning was presented by_____	Ivan Pavlov
Who of the following is NOT a behaviorist?	Piaget
Bandura’s contributions to learning are based on:	both observation and modelling
An example of a behaviour that is learned through operant conditioning is:	cleaning up your room to get your parent’s approval
Knowing how deals with the ----------	Content
B. F skinner was one of the most influential Psychologists of which country?	American

Gagne's Hierarchy of Learning bridges behaviorism with ----------	cognitive psychology
Humanistic theories look at the following:	all of the above
In the Hierarchy of Learning, behaviors are ----------	arranged in a bottom-up manner.
Phenomenological theories are also known as ----------	Humanism
Under behaviourism, the activation of prior knowledge is:	Irrelevant