(EDU-302) Human Development and Learning

(2nd Quiz Fall 2024)

Sughra Razzaq

Question 01:

Which one of the schools has described a number of different phenomena associated with classical conditioning?

Answer: Behaviourist School of Psychology

Question 02:

Which of the following theory involves the use of rewards and punishment to modify behaviour?

Answer: Operant Conditioning

Question 03:

Who is the learning theorist, viewed that personality is a collection of learned behavior patterns?

Answer: B.F. Skinner

Question 04:

Piaget's theory of cognitive development suggests that children's mental development occurs in following stages:

Answer: Four Stages

Question 05:

At which level of Kohlberg's moral reasoning, a child cannot understand the concept of moral values as morality is externally controlled by reward or punishment?

Answer: Pre conventional Level

Question 06:

Trust vs. mistrust stage of Erik Erikson's Psychosocial Theory spreads over:

Answer: Birth to 1 year

Question 07:

At which stage can children be easily molded and guided to learn about moral values?

Answer: Pre conventional Level (Pre-school)

Question 08:

Preschool years mark a child's transition from egocentricity to empathy. Egocentricity refers to interest of child in:

Answer: Self

Question 09:

At which level of Kohlberg's moral reasoning, morality is completely internalized by the individual and is not based on others' standards?

Answer: Post conventional Level

إِنَّ الصَّلَاةَ تَنهىٰ عَنِ الفَحشَاءِ وَالْمُنكَرِ. ("بیشک نماز بے حیائی اور برائی سے روکتی ہے۔")

Sughra Razzaq

إِنَّ الصَّلَاةَ تَنهىٰ عَنِ الفَحشَاءِ وَالْمُنكَرِ. ("بیشک نماز بے حیائی اور برائی سے روکتی ہے۔")