

FINAL EXAMS (SHORT NOTES)

2024 - 2025

MCM₃₀₁ [MCQ's]

All Subjects Short Notes Available 03126968553

Contact Us: 03126968553

Lecture 19 – Making a Good Speech

What is the main purpose of a speech?

- a) To write reports
- ✓ b) To communicate a message to an audience
- c) To criticize others
- d) To avoid questions

What is one of the key qualities of a good speaker?

- a) Fast talking
- ✓ b) Clarity of speech
- c) Ignoring audience
- d) Using jargon

Which part introduces the main idea of a speech?

- ✓ a) Introduction
- b) Body
- c) Conclusion
- d) Rebuttal

What makes the speech more memorable?

- a) Long paragraphs
- b) Lack of structure
- ✓ c) Stories and examples
- d) Repetition only

What helps control nervousness during a speech?

- ✓ a) Preparation and practice
- b) Reading only
- c) Avoiding eye contact
- d) Skipping introduction

Which is not a verbal aspect of speech delivery?

- a) Volume
- ✓ b) Posture
- c) Rate
- d) Pitch

What is the key to engaging an audience?

- ✓ a) Interaction and eye contact
- b) Reading notes
- c) Standing still
- d) Avoiding questions

What should be avoided in speech delivery?

- a) Confidence
- b) Pauses
- ✓ c) Monotone
- d) Enthusiasm

What is the purpose of a conclusion?

- a) Introduce a new topic
- ✓ b) Summarize key points and close
- c) Avoid questions
- d) Extend the time

Which technique improves memory of key points?

- a) Complicated vocabulary
- b) Speaking fast
- ✓ c) Repetition and signposting
- d) Changing the topic

Which type of speech aims to influence opinions?

- ✓ a) Persuasive speech
- b) Informative speech
- c) Entertainment speech
- d) Ceremonial speech

Why is audience analysis important before a speech?

- a) To intimidate the audience
- ✓ b) To tailor content and tone
- c) To write longer content
- d) To change the venue

What helps ensure logical speech structure?

- a) Random facts
- ✓ b) Clear outline and transitions
- c) Humor only
- d) Irrelevant anecdotes

Which element supports speech understanding?

- a) Poor articulation

- b) Long words
- ✓ c) Clear enunciation
- d) Background noise

What is the benefit of using pauses in a speech?

- ✓ a) Emphasize points and collect thoughts
- b) Confuse audience
- c) Distract from message
- d) Skip content

What is not recommended during speech opening?

- ✓ a) Apologizing excessively
- b) Asking a question
- c) Quoting a famous person
- d) Telling a relevant story

Why is time management important in speeches?

- a) To speak quickly
- ✓ b) To respect the audience's schedule
- c) To confuse listeners
- d) To avoid preparation

What is the role of signposting?

- a) Making jokes
- ✓ b) Guiding the audience through the content
- c) Reading slides
- d) Summarizing only

Which is an effective visual aid in speech?

- a) Excessive text
- ✓ b) Simple and relevant slides
- c) Small font
- d) Distracting animation

What is essential for a powerful speech ending?

- a) Starting a new topic
- ✓ b) Strong final message and call to action
- c) Reading from slides
- d) Avoiding audience gaze

Lecture 20 – How to Make a Speech?

What is the first step in speech preparation?

- ✓ a) Selecting a topic
- b) Memorizing a script
- c) Practicing voice modulation
- d) Designing visuals

Which technique helps understand audience needs?

- a) Guessing their interests
- ✓ b) Audience analysis
- c) Telling jokes
- d) Using long sentences

What does an effective speech opening do?

- ✓ a) Captures attention
- b) Provides data only
- c) Starts with apology
- d) Delays main message

Which method helps keep speech organized?

- a) Random thoughts
- ✓ b) Outline with main points
- c) Repeating everything
- d) Memorizing jokes

What type of language is effective in speeches?

- ✓ a) Simple and direct
- b) Complex and technical
- c) Foreign phrases
- d) Passive voice

Why is storytelling used in speeches?

- a) To add time
- ✓ b) To engage audience emotionally
- c) To avoid main points
- d) To replace facts

What is one purpose of rehearsing a speech?

- ✓ a) Improve timing and delivery
- b) Increase speech length
- c) Memorize script fully
- d) Eliminate visuals

What makes a speaker sound more confident?

- a) Whispering
- ✓ b) Strong voice and eye contact
- c) Avoiding eye contact
- d) Using technical jargon

What is the body of the speech used for?

- ✓ a) Expanding on key points
- b) Giving only examples
- c) Restating introduction
- d) Telling jokes

What should a conclusion do?

- a) Introduce new points

- ✓ b) Reinforce main message
- c) Ask irrelevant questions
- d) Thank only

Which of the following supports clarity?

- ✓ a) Logical transitions
- b) Complicated words
- c) Fast talking
- d) Passive sentences

How can nerves be managed?

- ✓ a) Practice and deep breathing
- b) Avoid preparation
- c) Speak faster
- d) Skip the introduction

What should be avoided in speech delivery?

- a) Enthusiasm
- b) Gestures
- ✓ c) Monotone voice
- d) Eye contact

What helps retain audience attention?

- ✓ a) Questions and interaction
- b) Reading slides
- c) Fast talking
- d) Detailed graphs

Why is time awareness important?

- ✓ a) To respect schedule
- b) To fill silence
- c) To speak slowly
- d) To speak less

What makes a speech more memorable?

- a) Lengthy explanations
- b) Data-heavy slides
- ✓ c) Personal stories
- d) Complex vocabulary

What is feedback in public speaking?

- a) Ignored comments
- ✓ b) Audience response to speech
- c) Speaking back to audience
- d) Noticing silence

What helps in connecting with audience?

- ✓ a) Eye contact and smiles
- b) Turning away

- c) Reading from notes
- d) Monologue

What is the role of pauses?

- ✓ a) Highlight key points
- b) Avoid thinking
- c) Distract audience
- d) Fill silence

What is extemporaneous speaking?

- ✓ a) Speaking from brief notes
- b) Reading a full script
- c) Memorizing fully
- d) Improvising entirely

Lecture 21 – Characteristics of a Good Speaker

What is a primary trait of a good speaker?

- ✓ a) Confidence
- b) Nervousness
- c) Monotone speech
- d) Fast talking

What is vocal variety?

- a) Speaking quietly
- ✓ b) Using different tones and speeds
- c) Avoiding emphasis
- d) Reading only

Why is eye contact important in public speaking?

- ✓ a) It connects with the audience
- b) It avoids distractions
- c) It hides nervousness
- d) It replaces gestures

What shows a speaker's credibility?

- a) Long speeches
- ✓ b) Knowledge and preparation
- c) Fast talking
- d) Fancy visuals

What makes a speech persuasive?

- a) Memorizing content
- b) Avoiding questions
- ✓ c) Emotional and logical appeal
- d) Excessive data

What is articulation?

- ✓ a) Clear pronunciation of words
- b) Speaking fast
- c) Telling jokes
- d) Using technical terms

How can a speaker maintain attention?

- a) Talking continuously
- b) Reading slides
- ✓ c) Using examples and questions
- d) Avoiding movement

What does posture communicate during a speech?

- a) Boredom
- ✓ b) Confidence and authority
- c) Confusion
- d) Fear

What is an effective gesture?

- a) Random hand movement
- ✓ b) Purposeful movement to support words
- c) Standing still
- d) Holding notes

Why is feedback from the audience important?

- ✓ a) It guides and confirms understanding
- b) It distracts the speaker
- c) It changes the message
- d) It increases speech length

What is the impact of enthusiasm in speech?

- a) Annoys the audience
- b) Makes speaker nervous
- ✓ c) Engages and energizes audience
- d) Creates confusion

How should a speaker deal with nervousness?

- a) Hide it
- ✓ b) Use it as energy
- c) Ignore it
- d) Avoid eye contact

What role does knowledge play in speaking?

- ✓ a) Builds authority and confidence
- b) Replaces preparation
- c) Makes speech longer
- d) Reduces clarity

Why should a speaker avoid filler words?

- ✓ a) They distract and reduce credibility

- b) They help thinking
- c) They make speech formal
- d) They create emphasis

What is the best way to handle mistakes during speech?

- ✓ a) Acknowledge and move on
- b) Pause and panic
- c) Ignore the audience
- d) Restart the speech

Why is body language important?

- ✓ a) It reinforces verbal messages
- b) It hides emotions
- c) It's irrelevant
- d) It distracts from content

What should a speaker avoid during Q&A?

- ✓ a) Arguing with the audience
- b) Listening to questions
- c) Clarifying doubts
- d) Responding with facts

What is audience rapport?

- a) Telling jokes
- ✓ b) Building trust and connection
- c) Using jargon
- d) Giving instructions

Which of the following improves vocal variety?

- ✓ a) Pausing and changing pitch
- b) Monotone reading
- c) Reading faster
- d) Avoiding breaks

What is one way to close a speech effectively?

- a) Pause silently
- ✓ b) Summarize and call to action
- c) Introduce new content
- d) Ask the audience to leave

Lecture 22 – Audience Analysis

Why is audience analysis important?

- ✓ a) To tailor message to audience needs
- b) To reduce content
- c) To avoid questions
- d) To show vocabulary skills

What is demographic analysis?

- ✓ a) Study of age, gender, education
- b) Use of visuals
- c) Focus on body language
- d) Use of persuasive techniques

What is psychographic analysis?

- a) Analyzing visuals
- ✓ b) Understanding beliefs, values, and interests
- c) Predicting behavior
- d) Studying tone

What is a primary audience?

- ✓ a) The direct receiver of the message
- b) Support staff
- c) External observers
- d) Competitors

What is a secondary audience?

- ✓ a) Those indirectly affected by the message
- b) Main participants
- c) Internal team
- d) Financial experts

What is situational analysis?

- ✓ a) Studying the context and setting of communication
- b) Predicting sales
- c) Choosing presentation slides
- d) Building websites

What are audience expectations?

- ✓ a) What the audience anticipates from the speaker
- b) What the speaker wants
- c) Random assumptions
- d) Speaker's reputation

What is selective perception?

- ✓ a) Interpreting message based on personal experience
- b) Listening to all details
- c) Taking notes
- d) Avoiding feedback

What does audience segmentation mean?

- ✓ a) Dividing the audience based on traits
- b) Splitting speech content
- c) Using graphics
- d) Asking many questions

Which factor is part of cultural analysis?

- ✓ a) Language and customs

- b) Table of contents
- c) Budget analysis
- d) Office layout

What is a hostile audience?

- ✓ a) One that disagrees with your view
- b) Supportive audience
- c) Passive listeners
- d) Unfamiliar audience

How should you address a neutral audience?

- ✓ a) Provide balanced information and examples
- b) Avoid reasoning
- c) Criticize
- d) Ignore their feedback

What is the benefit of understanding audience needs?

- ✓ a) To make communication effective and persuasive
- b) To avoid interaction
- c) To repeat points
- d) To reduce content

How does educational level influence communication?

- ✓ a) It affects language and complexity used
- b) It changes gestures
- c) It requires more slides
- d) It limits communication

Why is feedback crucial in audience analysis?

- ✓ a) It helps verify understanding
- b) It slows speech
- c) It disturbs flow
- d) It replaces preparation

What is the risk of ignoring audience analysis?

- ✓ a) Miscommunication and audience disengagement
- b) Better flow
- c) More attention
- d) Clear message

Why analyze the setting of communication?

- ✓ a) It affects audience comfort and response
- b) To avoid interaction
- c) To shorten speech
- d) To reduce preparation

Which of the following is a part of audience profile?

- ✓ a) Age and background
- b) Mic brand

- c) Venue lighting
- d) Weather

What helps in identifying audience preferences?

- ✓ a) Surveys or feedback
- b) Guessing
- c) Quick introduction
- d) Avoiding questions

How does attitude affect audience behavior?

- ✓ a) Determines openness to message
- b) Decides room setup
- c) Affects lighting
- d) Influences slides

Lecture 23 – Planning a Presentation

What is the first step in presentation planning?

- ✓ a) Determining the purpose
- b) Designing visuals
- c) Memorizing content
- d) Using jokes

Why is analyzing the audience essential?

- ✓ a) To adapt message content and style
- b) To reduce speech time
- c) To avoid questions
- d) To speed up delivery

What defines a presentation's purpose?

- ✓ a) Reason for delivering the message
- b) Duration of the talk
- c) Number of slides
- d) Font size

Why prepare an outline before a presentation?

- ✓ a) To organize content logically
- b) To replace rehearsal
- c) To show off vocabulary
- d) To fill time

What is included in a presentation introduction?

- ✓ a) Attention-grabber and purpose
- b) Detailed data
- c) Body of message
- d) Only visuals

Why use transitions in a presentation?

- ✓ a) To connect ideas smoothly
- b) To increase word count
- c) To distract audience
- d) To skip slides

What should the body of the presentation contain?

- ✓ a) Main points with evidence
- b) Only jokes
- c) Repeated phrases
- d) Apologies

What is the purpose of a summary slide?

- ✓ a) Recap key points
- b) Introduce new topic
- c) End abruptly
- d) Show audience chart

What role does rehearsal play?

- ✓ a) Builds confidence and fluency
- b) Replaces slide design
- c) Avoids errors only
- d) Fills time

Why is time allocation important?

- ✓ a) To manage each section effectively
- b) To skip Q&A
- c) To shorten visuals
- d) To control lighting

What makes a good title slide?

- ✓ a) Clear and relevant title with name
- b) Multiple images
- c) Long paragraphs
- d) Complex diagrams

How does purpose affect content?

- ✓ a) It determines what and how to present
- b) It shortens the session
- c) It changes audience
- d) It changes color scheme

Why should the presentation be audience-centered?

- ✓ a) To increase engagement and clarity
- b) To reduce speaker preparation
- c) To skip content
- d) To extend speech

What is a rough draft in presentation planning?

- ✓ a) Initial content structure before finalizing

- b) Final version
- c) List of jokes
- d) Design layout only

What is sequencing in presentations?

- ✓ a) Logical order of content
- b) Slide transitions
- c) Design selection
- d) Font matching

Why avoid overloading slides with text?

- ✓ a) It distracts and bores the audience
- b) It saves time
- c) It looks professional
- d) It reduces questions

What does a clear objective provide?

- ✓ a) Direction for content and delivery
- b) Final report
- c) Speaker biography
- d) Topic list

What should a presentation plan include?

- ✓ a) Topic, audience, goal, and content
- b) Microphone setup
- c) Lighting options
- d) Lunch details

What tool helps clarify complex data?

- ✓ a) Visual aids
- b) Long lists
- c) Extra notes
- d) Fancy words

What is a presentation outline?

- ✓ a) Logical structure of content
- b) Detailed essay
- c) Design chart
- d) Font sample

Lecture 24 – Communicating in Teams

What is a team?

- a) A group of strangers
- ✓ b) A group working toward a common goal
- c) People in the same room
- d) Independent workers

Which skill is essential for team success?

- ✓ a) Communication
- b) Isolation
- c) Competition
- d) Avoidance

What does synergy mean in team communication?

- ✓ a) Combined team effort produces better results
- b) Working separately
- c) Assigning blame
- d) Having no conflict

What is groupthink?

- a) Productive collaboration
- b) Solving problems quickly
- ✓ c) Pressure to conform and suppress dissent
- d) Diversity of opinions

Which role focuses on completing tasks in teams?

- ✓ a) Task-oriented role
- b) Emotional role
- c) Aggressive role
- d) Passive role

What does an encourager do in a team?

- a) Criticizes ideas
- b) Avoids conflict
- ✓ c) Supports and motivates members
- d) Monitors deadlines

What is the primary cause of team conflict?

- a) Similar goals
- ✓ b) Poor communication
- c) Adequate planning
- d) Shared responsibilities

Which medium is common for virtual team communication?

- a) Paper
- ✓ b) Email or video conferencing
- c) Face-to-face only
- d) Bulletin boards

How can teams avoid misunderstandings?

- ✓ a) Clear and open communication
- b) Using technical terms
- c) Avoiding conflict
- d) Ignoring feedback

What is the benefit of having defined roles?

- ✓ a) Clarifies responsibilities

- b) Encourages arguments
- c) Delays decision-making
- d) Promotes confusion

What is cohesion in teams?

- ✓ a) Unity and commitment
- b) Conflict
- c) Pressure
- d) Passive agreement

What is a self-oriented role?

- ✓ a) Behavior that hinders group performance
- b) Role focused on goals
- c) Conflict resolver
- d) Listener

What is the importance of listening in teams?

- ✓ a) Promotes understanding
- b) Slows progress
- c) Causes conflict
- d) Is optional

How can group conflict be constructive?

- a) Always negative
- ✓ b) Leads to better solutions if managed
- c) Avoidable
- d) Blocks progress

What helps in collaborative decision-making?

- ✓ a) Consensus
- b) One leader deciding
- c) Avoiding votes
- d) Random selection

What role does feedback play in teams?

- ✓ a) Improves performance
- b) Reduces trust
- c) Creates conflict
- d) Should be avoided

Why are team meetings necessary?

- ✓ a) To coordinate and solve issues
- b) To pass time
- c) To replace emails
- d) To avoid responsibilities

Which tool is best for real-time team collaboration?

- a) Fax
- ✓ b) Instant messaging or shared documents

- c) Posters
- d) Letters

What is the main challenge in virtual teams?

- ✓ a) Lack of face-to-face interaction
- b) Too many resources
- c) Physical distance
- d) Too much feedback

What promotes trust in teams?

- ✓ a) Reliability and open communication
- b) Avoiding feedback
- c) Competition
- d) Silence

Lecture 25 – Listening

What is the difference between hearing and listening?

- ✓ a) Listening is active, hearing is passive
- b) Hearing is selective
- c) Listening uses eyes
- d) Hearing requires effort

Which type of listening focuses on understanding facts?

- ✓ a) Informational listening
- b) Empathetic listening
- c) Critical listening
- d) Passive listening

What is empathetic listening?

- ✓ a) Understanding speaker's emotions
- b) Criticizing ideas
- c) Multitasking
- d) Repeating facts

What helps improve listening skills?

- ✓ a) Asking questions and giving feedback
- b) Talking more
- c) Avoiding eye contact
- d) Multitasking

Which barrier affects listening the most?

- ✓ a) Distractions
- b) Repetition
- c) Note-taking
- d) Focus

What is selective listening?

- ✓ a) Hearing only what interests you
- b) Listening to everyone
- c) Focusing on grammar
- d) Writing down everything

What is critical listening?

- ✓ a) Evaluating logic and truth of the message
- b) Agreeing silently
- c) Ignoring tone
- d) Passive understanding

What is the role of feedback in listening?

- ✓ a) Shows engagement and clarity
- b) Delays conversation
- c) Confuses speaker
- d) Ends the conversation

Why is body language important in listening?

- ✓ a) Indicates attention and interest
- b) Distracts speaker
- c) Replaces words
- d) Creates noise

What is a sign of poor listening?

- ✓ a) Interrupting frequently
- b) Maintaining eye contact
- c) Asking questions
- d) Nodding

Why take notes while listening?

- ✓ a) To remember key points
- b) To distract the speaker
- c) To criticize
- d) To avoid questions

What does active listening require?

- ✓ a) Full attention and understanding
- b) Partial focus
- c) Fast response
- d) Repetition

What is prejudgment in listening?

- ✓ a) Forming opinion before hearing completely
- b) Listening carefully
- c) Clarifying doubts
- d) Avoiding interpretation

Which technique improves listening retention?

- ✓ a) Summarizing key points

- b) Watching speaker
- c) Talking back
- d) Avoiding eye contact

How does eye contact support listening?

- ✓ a) Builds trust and attentiveness
- b) Reduces confidence
- c) Replaces questions
- d) Confuses speaker

Why is silence useful in listening?

- ✓ a) Allows reflection and thinking
- b) Shows boredom
- c) Ends conversation
- d) Indicates confusion

What is passive listening?

- ✓ a) Hearing without engaging
- b) Asking questions
- c) Clarifying details
- d) Giving feedback

How does empathy enhance listening?

- ✓ a) Helps understand feelings
- b) Blocks logic
- c) Avoids bias
- d) Promotes talking

What is the first step in effective listening?

- ✓ a) Paying attention
- b) Giving opinions
- c) Interrupting
- d) Closing eyes

Which of the following hinders listening?

- ✓ a) Prejudice or assumptions
- b) Clarity of message
- c) Visual aids
- d) Feedback

Lecture 26 – Non-Verbal Communication

What is non-verbal communication?

- ✓ a) Communicating without words
- b) Written messages
- c) Audio messages
- d) Typed text

Which of the following is non-verbal?

- ✓ a) Facial expressions
- b) Text messages
- c) Audio recordings
- d) Emails

What does posture convey?

- ✓ a) Attitude and confidence
- b) Voice clarity
- c) Word choice
- d) Grammar usage

Why is eye contact important in non-verbal communication?

- ✓ a) It shows attention and respect
- b) It distracts
- c) It replaces words
- d) It confuses

What do gestures do in communication?

- ✓ a) Emphasize and support messages
- b) Replace body movement
- c) Reduce clarity
- d) Delay message

Which of these is a paralanguage element?

- ✓ a) Pitch and tone
- b) Email format
- c) Slide color
- d) Dress code

What does appearance communicate?

- ✓ a) Professionalism and personality
- b) Education only
- c) Vocal quality
- d) Grammar

What role does silence play in communication?

- ✓ a) Express emotions and reactions
- b) Interrupts flow
- c) Avoids engagement
- d) Shows confusion

What can a frown indicate?

- ✓ a) Disapproval or confusion
- b) Agreement
- c) Openness
- d) Clarity

Which of the following represents non-verbal disagreement?

- ✓ a) Shaking the head

- b) Raising hand
- c) Speaking louder
- d) Turning slide

What is haptics?

- ✓ a) Communication through touch
- b) Written symbols
- c) Group discussion
- d) Eye movements

What does open body language suggest?

- ✓ a) Receptiveness and ease
- b) Disinterest
- c) Avoidance
- d) Stress

What is the risk of misinterpreting non-verbal cues?

- ✓ a) Miscommunication
- b) Time waste
- c) Grammar errors
- d) Long meetings

Which non-verbal aspect shows nervousness?

- ✓ a) Fidgeting or avoiding eye contact
- b) Clear gestures
- c) Strong voice
- d) Direct posture

What is kinesics?

- ✓ a) Study of body movement
- b) Sound patterns
- c) Written text
- d) Slide design

Why should non-verbal cues align with verbal messages?

- ✓ a) To reinforce meaning and avoid confusion
- b) To impress audience
- c) To shorten speech
- d) To enhance visuals

How can personal space affect communication?

- ✓ a) Too much closeness may cause discomfort
- b) More words
- c) Confirms message
- d) Improves grammar

What does nodding usually signify?

- ✓ a) Agreement or understanding
- b) Refusal

- c) Indifference
- d) Delay

Which is an example of negative body language?

- ✓ a) Crossed arms and looking away
- b) Leaning forward
- c) Smiling
- d) Open hands

What enhances non-verbal communication in presentations?

- ✓ a) Coordinated gestures and expressions
- b) Only graphics
- c) Repetitive movement
- d) Loud voice only

Lecture 27 – Business Etiquette

What is business etiquette?

- ✓ a) Accepted professional behavior and manners
- b) Marketing strategy
- c) Writing style
- d) Email formatting

What is appropriate business attire?

- ✓ a) Clothing that reflects professionalism
- b) Sportswear
- c) Casual clothes
- d) Pajamas

Why is punctuality important in business?

- ✓ a) Shows respect and reliability
- b) Reduces workload
- c) Avoids interaction
- d) Allows late entry

What is a good handshake an example of?

- ✓ a) Positive non-verbal communication
- b) Sales technique
- c) Written agreement
- d) Resume skill

What should be avoided in professional meetings?

- ✓ a) Interrupting others
- b) Active listening
- c) Taking notes
- d) Asking questions

What is the protocol for phone etiquette in business?

- ✓ a) Use polite language and identify yourself
- b) Speak casually
- c) Keep silent
- d) End abruptly

What is the role of introductions in etiquette?

- ✓ a) They establish connection and respect
- b) To waste time
- c) To show dominance
- d) To delay work

Why should you remember names in business settings?

- ✓ a) Shows attentiveness and respect
- b) Reduces memory load
- c) Follows trends
- d) Improves writing

What is table etiquette during a business meal?

- ✓ a) Using utensils properly and polite conversation
- b) Talking loudly
- c) Ignoring others
- d) Using mobile phones

What is email etiquette?

- ✓ a) Using clear subject lines and professional tone
- b) Sending jokes
- c) Writing in slang
- d) Using emojis

Why is respect for cultural differences important?

- ✓ a) Promotes harmony in global business
- b) Avoids questions
- c) Prevents legal issues
- d) Encourages silence

How should you deal with disagreements professionally?

- ✓ a) Listen respectfully and respond calmly
- b) Shout to dominate
- c) Stay silent
- d) Leave the meeting

What is a common business courtesy?

- ✓ a) Holding the door or saying thank you
- b) Ignoring calls
- c) Speaking first always
- d) Criticizing publicly

Why is active listening part of business etiquette?

- ✓ a) Ensures understanding and respect

- b) Extends meetings
- c) Avoids decisions
- d) Reduces discussion

What should you do during a video meeting?

- ✓ a) Look into the camera and minimize distractions
- b) Eat food
- c) Keep background noise
- d) Walk away

What is the importance of follow-up in etiquette?

- ✓ a) Shows responsibility and professionalism
- b) Wastes time
- c) Replaces meetings
- d) Sends spam

What is the standard greeting in business email?

- ✓ a) Dear [Name]
- b) Hey there
- c) Wassup
- d) No greeting

How do you leave a lasting professional impression?

- ✓ a) Courteous behavior and preparation
- b) Talking more
- c) Dressing casually
- d) Avoiding feedback

What should be avoided in a group conversation?

- ✓ a) Dominating the discussion
- b) Asking questions
- c) Giving credit
- d) Being concise

What promotes teamwork in etiquette?

- ✓ a) Respect and collaboration
- b) Criticism
- c) Blame-shifting
- d) Isolation

Lecture 28 – The Writing Process

What is the first stage of the writing process?

- ✓ a) Planning
- b) Editing
- c) Drafting
- d) Proofreading

Why is audience analysis important in writing?

- ✓ a) Helps tailor content to reader's needs
- b) Improves font selection
- c) Reduces word count
- d) Adds complexity

What is brainstorming used for?

- ✓ a) Generating ideas
- b) Editing text
- c) Checking spelling
- d) Formatting slides

What is a thesis statement?

- ✓ a) Central idea or argument
- b) Email subject
- c) Title of document
- d) Conclusion

What is drafting in writing?

- ✓ a) Creating the first version of text
- b) Final editing
- c) Outlining topics
- d) Collecting data

Which of these is a prewriting activity?

- ✓ a) Outlining
- b) Proofreading
- c) Publishing
- d) Rewriting

Why is organizing information important?

- ✓ a) Makes content logical and easy to follow
- b) Lengthens the text
- c) Uses complex grammar
- d) Adds visuals

What is revision in writing?

- ✓ a) Improving content and structure
- b) Correcting spelling only
- c) Printing the text
- d) Shortening the document

What should be the focus during editing?

- ✓ a) Grammar, punctuation, and word choice
- b) Adding images
- c) Changing audience
- d) Rewriting ideas

What is the last stage of the writing process?

- ✓ a) Proofreading

- b) Drafting
- c) Researching
- d) Planning

What is the role of feedback in writing?

- ✓ a) Helps improve clarity and accuracy
- b) Confuses writer
- c) Reduces creativity
- d) Ends the process

What does tone refer to in writing?

- ✓ a) Attitude conveyed through language
- b) Font style
- c) Length of document
- d) Structure of headings

What is coherence in writing?

- ✓ a) Logical flow of ideas
- b) Sentence length
- c) Word repetition
- d) Use of commas

What does unity in a paragraph mean?

- ✓ a) All sentences support one main idea
- b) Equal sentence length
- c) Frequent transitions
- d) Use of quotes

Which is an example of a transitional word?

- ✓ a) Therefore
- b) Stop
- c) Go
- d) Table

Why avoid redundancy in writing?

- ✓ a) To maintain clarity and precision
- b) To increase length
- c) To impress reader
- d) To reduce effort

What is tone mismatch?

- ✓ a) Inconsistent attitude across sections
- b) Correct word choice
- c) Proper spelling
- d) Accurate citations

What does concise writing mean?

- ✓ a) Using few words to convey meaning
- b) Repeating phrases

- c) Avoiding main ideas
- d) Using long paragraphs

What is the benefit of outlining before writing?

- ✓ a) Guides structure and content
- b) Speeds up proofreading
- c) Improves decoration
- d) Enhances visuals

Why is revision different from editing?

- ✓ a) Revision focuses on content; editing on grammar
- b) Revision happens after printing
- c) Editing removes ideas
- d) Revision changes format

Lecture 29 – Revising and Proofreading

What is the goal of revising?

- ✓ a) Improve content clarity and structure
- b) Add extra words
- c) Format margins
- d) Change file name

What should you check during proofreading?

- ✓ a) Grammar and spelling errors
- b) Audience interest
- c) Document purpose
- d) Font design

Why read your work aloud while revising?

- ✓ a) Helps catch awkward or unclear sentences
- b) Slows you down
- c) Adds dramatic effect
- d) Improves speed

What is a common proofreading error?

- ✓ a) Overlooking homophones
- b) Adding extra data
- c) Using charts
- d) Highlighting keywords

Why take a break before proofreading?

- ✓ a) Provides fresh perspective
- b) Delays deadlines
- c) Removes interest
- d) Avoids completion

What is a style guide?

- ✓ a) A manual for formatting and consistency
- b) A book on fashion
- c) Sentence checklist
- d) Paragraph template

What is parallelism in writing?

- ✓ a) Using the same grammatical form for similar ideas
- b) Repeating words
- c) Varying sentence types
- d) Rewriting whole paragraphs

Which tool helps with digital proofreading?

- ✓ a) Grammar checker
- b) PowerPoint
- c) Paint
- d) Zoom

What is redundancy?

- ✓ a) Repetition of ideas or words unnecessarily
- b) Logical flow
- c) Proper formatting
- d) Active voice

Why check for punctuation in proofreading?

- ✓ a) It affects clarity and meaning
- b) It adds emotion
- c) It shows style
- d) It increases paragraph size

What should be revised in tone adjustment?

- ✓ a) Word choice and attitude
- b) Document size
- c) Font shape
- d) Chart labels

What is consistency in writing?

- ✓ a) Uniform style, tone, and format
- b) Random thoughts
- c) Longer sentences
- d) Slang usage

What is one strategy to catch spelling errors?

- ✓ a) Read from the end to beginning
- b) Skim fast
- c) Use bold text
- d) Increase font size

Why remove wordiness during revision?

- ✓ a) Makes writing more concise and direct

- b) Impresses the reader
- c) Enhances vocabulary
- d) Extends reading time

What is active voice?

- ✓ a) Subject performs the action
- b) Object comes first
- c) Action is unclear
- d) No subject used

What is the function of a checklist in proofreading?

- ✓ a) Ensures all aspects are reviewed
- b) Adds more points
- c) Makes content longer
- d) Increases word count

Why is visual proofreading necessary?

- ✓ a) To check formatting, spacing, alignment
- b) To add pictures
- c) To color the text
- d) To fill white space

What should you do if feedback is unclear?

- ✓ a) Ask for clarification
- b) Ignore it
- c) Delete content
- d) Rewrite everything

Which is better for proofreading: print or screen?

- ✓ a) Both have advantages depending on context
- b) Only screen
- c) Only print
- d) None

Why use version control during revision?

- ✓ a) To track changes and avoid losing content
- b) To delete history
- c) To erase errors
- d) To finalize early

Lecture 30 – Sentence Structure and Paragraph Development

What is a simple sentence?

- ✓ a) One independent clause
- b) Two independent clauses
- c) One dependent clause
- d) A list of items

What does a compound sentence contain?

- ✓ a) Two or more independent clauses
- b) A thesis statement
- c) One subject
- d) One phrase

What is a complex sentence?

- ✓ a) One independent and one or more dependent clauses
- b) Only dependent clauses
- c) Fragments
- d) Only phrases

What is a topic sentence?

- ✓ a) Main idea of a paragraph
- b) Final sentence
- c) Random thought
- d) Citation

Why use transitional words?

- ✓ a) To connect ideas smoothly
- b) To confuse reader
- c) To end quickly
- d) To start new paragraphs

What is paragraph unity?

- ✓ a) All sentences support the main idea
- b) Paragraphs of equal length
- c) Use of different fonts
- d) Multiple topics in one paragraph

Which is a transitional phrase?

- ✓ a) In contrast
- b) Run fast
- c) Eat now
- d) Right away

What is a run-on sentence?

- ✓ a) Two independent clauses without proper punctuation
- b) A long paragraph
- c) A fragment
- d) A sentence with a list

What is a fragment?

- ✓ a) An incomplete sentence
- b) A long sentence
- c) A proper conclusion
- d) A complete clause

What does parallel structure mean?

- ✓ a) Consistent grammatical form

- b) Mixed verb tenses
- c) Random formatting
- d) Repetition

What is coherence in paragraphs?

- ✓ a) Logical flow of ideas
- b) Repetition of phrases
- c) Use of bold words
- d) Varying tone

What is sentence variety?

- ✓ a) Using different sentence lengths and structures
- b) Repeating the same form
- c) Long sentences only
- d) Listing words

What is the function of supporting sentences?

- ✓ a) Develop the main idea in the paragraph
- b) Conclude the message
- c) Start a new topic
- d) Give unrelated data

Why avoid sentence fragments?

- ✓ a) They are incomplete and confusing
- b) They show emotion
- c) They enhance visuals
- d) They express facts

What is a concluding sentence?

- ✓ a) Wraps up the paragraph's main idea
- b) Starts a new argument
- c) Introduces a question
- d) Adds an example

How do you ensure clarity in a sentence?

- ✓ a) Use correct grammar and precise vocabulary
- b) Add passive voice
- c) Use slang
- d) Skip punctuation

What is subject-verb agreement?

- ✓ a) Subject and verb must match in number
- b) Using prepositions
- c) Conjugating verbs
- d) Removing verbs

What type of sentence is "Because I was late"?

- ✓ a) Fragment
- b) Simple sentence

- c) Compound sentence
- d) Run-on sentence

Which sentence is parallel?

- ✓ a) She likes running, swimming, and biking.
- b) She likes to run, swimming, and to bike.
- c) She likes running, swim, and bike.
- d) She likes run, biking, and swim.

What does indentation signify in a paragraph?

- ✓ a) Start of a new paragraph
- b) End of idea
- c) Error
- d) Heading

Lecture 31 – Business Letters (Structure and Elements)

What is the primary purpose of a business letter?

- ✓ a) To communicate formally with individuals or organizations
- b) To write personal notes
- c) To post on social media
- d) To replace meetings

What is the first part of a business letter?

- ✓ a) Heading
- b) Body
- c) Closing
- d) Subject

What does the salutation in a business letter do?

- ✓ a) Greets the recipient
- b) Summarizes the content
- c) Shows the writer's name
- d) Closes the letter

Which is a correct formal salutation?

- ✓ a) Dear Mr. Ali
- b) Hello friend
- c) Hey there
- d) To whom it may concern

What should the body of the letter include?

- ✓ a) Purpose, details, and request
- b) Only introduction

- c) Summary only
- d) List of items

What is the function of the complimentary close?

- ✓ a) Ends the letter politely
- b) Introduces a new topic
- c) Provides headings
- d) Adds humor

Which of the following is a standard complimentary close?

- ✓ a) Yours sincerely
- b) Bye
- c) Regards bro
- d) Peace

Why use a subject line in business letters?

- ✓ a) To state the topic clearly
- b) To entertain
- c) To list contact info
- d) To hide the purpose

What does enclosure notation indicate?

- ✓ a) Additional documents attached
- b) Number of words
- c) Deadline extension
- d) Sentence errors

What is the role of tone in a business letter?

- ✓ a) Sets professionalism and clarity
- b) Makes jokes
- c) Avoids content
- d) Adds word count

Which line spacing is typical in business letters?

- ✓ a) Single-spaced with double-space between paragraphs
- b) Double-spacing all
- c) No spacing
- d) Triple lines

Why is conciseness important in business letters?

- ✓ a) To save time and improve clarity
- b) To add detail
- c) To impress reader with length
- d) To include stories

What is included in the heading of a business letter?

- ✓ a) Sender's address and date
- b) Only date
- c) Greeting
- d) Signature only

What is a block format in business letters?

- ✓ a) All text aligned to the left
- b) Centered paragraphs
- c) Text in italics
- d) Paragraphs with bullet points

What type of language is suitable in business letters?

- ✓ a) Formal and clear
- b) Casual and humorous
- c) Informal slang
- d) Technical jargon only

What does the signature block contain?

- ✓ a) Name, title, and company
- b) Only signature
- c) A note
- d) Salutation

What is a reference line used for?

- ✓ a) To mention file or case numbers
- b) To greet
- c) To close the letter
- d) To state the date

What is the purpose of an inside address?

- ✓ a) Identifies the recipient's details
- b) Describes the letter's purpose
- c) Shows urgency
- d) Mentions the country

Why should you proofread a business letter?

- ✓ a) To correct grammar and spelling errors
- b) To increase word count
- c) To add jokes
- d) To add paragraphs

Which part comes after the salutation?

- ✓ a) Body
- b) Heading
- c) Date
- d) Subject line

Lecture 32 – Types of Business Letters

What is a claim letter?

- ✓ a) A request for correction or compensation
- b) A job application

- c) A thank-you note
- d) A complaint about advertising

Which letter is used to express dissatisfaction?

- ✓ a) Complaint letter
- b) Adjustment letter
- c) Inquiry letter
- d) Order letter

What is an adjustment letter?

- ✓ a) A response to a complaint or claim
- b) A price quotation
- c) An appointment request
- d) A cover letter

Which letter initiates a business transaction?

- ✓ a) Inquiry letter
- b) Reply letter
- c) Resignation letter
- d) Memorandum

What is the purpose of a sales letter?

- ✓ a) To promote a product or service
- b) To resign from a job
- c) To settle a bill
- d) To issue a complaint

What is a collection letter used for?

- ✓ a) Requesting payment for overdue bills
- b) Sending brochures
- c) Announcing a promotion
- d) Hiring an employee

Which letter confirms information received?

- ✓ a) Acknowledgment letter
- b) Complaint letter
- c) Application letter
- d) Claim letter

Which type of letter is used to request product or service details?

- ✓ a) Inquiry letter
- b) Adjustment letter
- c) Collection letter
- d) Termination letter

What is the goal of a recommendation letter?

- ✓ a) To support someone's application
- b) To cancel a deal
- c) To report an issue
- d) To order supplies

What does a resignation letter express?

- ✓ a) Intention to leave a job
- b) Application for a position
- c) Complaint about a colleague
- d) Gratitude for promotion

What is the key element in a sales letter?

- ✓ a) Persuasive appeal
- b) Salary details
- c) Resignation reasons
- d) Complaint solution

What should be included in a follow-up letter?

- ✓ a) Reminder or acknowledgment of prior communication
- b) New job offer
- c) Termination reason
- d) Invoice copy

Which letter is used to respond to an inquiry?

- ✓ a) Reply letter
- b) Adjustment letter
- c) Collection letter
- d) Circular letter

Which is not a type of business letter?

- a) Resignation letter
- ✓ b) Fictional story letter
- c) Claim letter
- d) Inquiry letter

What is a circular letter?

- ✓ a) Sent to many recipients with common information
- b) Personal invitation
- c) Complaint response
- d) Resume cover letter

What is the objective of an order letter?

- ✓ a) Request goods or services formally
- b) Complain about service
- c) Apply for a job
- d) Recommend a friend

What tone should be used in a complaint letter?

- ✓ a) Polite and clear
- b) Angry and emotional
- c) Joking and casual
- d) Dismissive

Which letter expresses appreciation?

- ✓ a) Thank-you letter

- b) Collection letter
- c) Inquiry letter
- d) Resignation letter

Which business letter introduces a person or service?

- ✓ a) Introduction letter
- b) Adjustment letter
- c) Resignation letter
- d) Order letter

What should a cover letter accompany?

- ✓ a) Resume
- b) Complaint letter
- c) Invoice
- d) Newsletter

Lecture 33 – Strategies for Routine & Positive Messages

What is a routine message?

- ✓ a) A standard business communication like requests or confirmations
- b) A complaint message
- c) A proposal
- d) A grievance letter

Why are routine messages usually direct?

- ✓ a) Because they contain good or neutral news
- b) Because they are persuasive
- c) To delay the bad news
- d) To confuse the audience

What is the typical tone of a positive message?

- ✓ a) Friendly and professional
- b) Aggressive and demanding
- c) Sarcastic
- d) Passive

What is the main structure of a routine message?

- ✓ a) Opening, body, and closing
- b) Title and paragraph only
- c) Conclusion first
- d) Bullets and charts

What does the opening of a routine message include?

- ✓ a) The main idea or purpose
- b) Supporting details
- c) Negative news
- d) Apology

Which of the following is a type of routine message?

- ✓ a) Acknowledgment letter
- b) Termination notice
- c) Warning letter
- d) Claim letter

What is the purpose of a goodwill message?

- ✓ a) To build positive relationships
- b) To report errors
- c) To delay response
- d) To negotiate salary

What is the closing of a routine message meant for?

- ✓ a) Courteous ending and action request
- b) Background details
- c) Apology
- d) Employee history

What should you avoid in a routine message?

- ✓ a) Unnecessary details
- b) Clarity
- c) Polite tone
- d) Direct format

What kind of tone is appropriate in good-news messages?

- ✓ a) Sincere and positive
- b) Defensive
- c) Ambiguous
- d) Forceful

Which message acknowledges receipt of something?

- ✓ a) Acknowledgment message
- b) Sales letter
- c) Proposal
- d) Claim letter

What is a transmittal message?

- ✓ a) A brief note accompanying a document
- b) A persuasive essay
- c) An evaluation report
- d) An order rejection

What is the purpose of an announcement message?

- ✓ a) To inform about events or changes
- b) To criticize
- c) To warn
- d) To argue

Which is a common medium for sending routine messages?

- ✓ a) Email

- b) TV advertisement
- c) Posters
- d) SMS only

How should you respond to an inquiry?

- ✓ a) Provide accurate and complete information
- b) Delay the response
- c) Answer vaguely
- d) Avoid direct reply

Which is an example of a goodwill message?

- ✓ a) Congratulations note
- b) Warning letter
- c) Error notification
- d) Complaint form

What is the purpose of a follow-up message?

- ✓ a) To confirm or request status of previous message
- b) To end communication
- c) To cancel service
- d) To start a new message thread

What is essential in a thank-you message?

- ✓ a) Sincere appreciation
- b) List of products
- c) Service request
- d) Refund details

Which tone is best for a response to a routine request?

- ✓ a) Helpful and courteous
- b) Critical
- c) Sarcastic
- d) Formal only

What is the key to writing effective routine messages?

- ✓ a) Clarity and brevity
- b) Fancy vocabulary
- c) Complex formatting
- d) Humor and slang

Lecture 34 – Strategies for Bad News Messages

What is a bad-news message?

- ✓ a) Communication that delivers negative information
- b) Celebration message
- c) Promotional email
- d) Job offer

What is the best approach for a bad-news message?

- ✓ a) Indirect
- b) Direct
- c) Formal
- d) Creative

What is the buffer in a bad-news message?

- ✓ a) A neutral opening to soften the negative message
- b) The apology
- c) The refund
- d) The main idea

What follows the buffer in the message structure?

- ✓ a) Reasons
- b) Apology
- c) Repetition
- d) Data table

Why should you provide reasons before bad news?

- ✓ a) To prepare the reader and reduce impact
- b) To confuse
- c) To delay decision
- d) To entertain

What comes after giving reasons in a bad-news message?

- ✓ a) The actual bad news
- b) Summary
- c) Title
- d) Call to action

What tone should be used in bad-news messages?

- ✓ a) Respectful and empathetic
- b) Aggressive
- c) Casual
- d) Sarcastic

Why use passive voice in delivering bad news?

- ✓ a) To soften the impact
- b) To avoid action
- c) To lengthen the message
- d) To delay reading

What is a common example of a bad-news message?

- ✓ a) Rejection letter
- b) Welcome message
- c) Thank-you note
- d) Invitation

What should be avoided in bad-news communication?

- ✓ a) Blame and harsh language

- b) Clarity
- c) Proper structure
- d) Formal tone

Why should alternatives be offered in bad-news messages?

- ✓ a) To show concern and maintain goodwill
- b) To confuse the reader
- c) To avoid message
- d) To end the topic

What is the closing part of a bad-news message for?

- ✓ a) Positive, forward-looking ending
- b) Repeating bad news
- c) Giving excuses
- d) Reprimanding

What is the effect of emotional intelligence in bad-news delivery?

- ✓ a) Makes the message more acceptable
- b) Increases rejection
- c) Reduces credibility
- d) Enhances criticism

Why is timing important in delivering bad news?

- ✓ a) To prevent misunderstanding and resentment
- b) To postpone reactions
- c) To stall decisions
- d) To limit explanation

What is one method to reduce disappointment in bad-news messages?

- ✓ a) Provide logical reasoning
- b) Ignore reader's concerns
- c) Emphasize the rejection
- d) Use technical jargon

Which strategy helps preserve relationships in negative messages?

- ✓ a) Indirect approach and empathy
- b) Humor and sarcasm
- c) Repetition of bad news
- d) Direct denial

Which message is best delivered in person, not via email?

- ✓ a) Job termination
- b) Survey reminder
- c) Invoice notice
- d) Thank-you letter

What is the key to credibility in bad-news messages?

- ✓ a) Honesty and tact
- b) Avoiding responsibility

- c) Humor
- d) Repetition

What is the purpose of the reasons section in bad-news messages?

- ✓ a) To justify the decision
- b) To avoid giving the message
- c) To distract from topic
- d) To entertain

What should be avoided in the buffer?

- ✓ a) Overly positive or misleading language
- b) Courteous greeting
- c) Context
- d) Reader's interest

Lecture 35 – Persuasive Messages

What is a persuasive message?

- ✓ a) Message aimed at influencing the reader's behavior
- b) Complaint message
- c) Thank-you note
- d) Job application

What approach is used in persuasive writing?

- ✓ a) Indirect
- b) Direct
- c) Harsh
- d) Passive

What should the opening of a persuasive message do?

- ✓ a) Gain attention
- b) Deliver bad news
- c) Offer discounts
- d) End the message

What is the AIDA model?

- ✓ a) Attention, Interest, Desire, Action
- b) Alert, Intent, Data, Analysis
- c) Action, Information, Demand, Agreement
- d) Address, Item, Deliver, Acknowledge

What builds interest in a persuasive message?

- ✓ a) Facts and benefits
- b) Complaints
- c) Prices only
- d) Apologies

How do you create desire in persuasive writing?

- ✓ a) Show how the product or idea meets needs
- b) Increase text length
- c) Use difficult vocabulary
- d) Delay main point

What is the final step in the AIDA model?

- ✓ a) Call to action
- b) Apology
- c) Closure
- d) Refund

Why should benefits be emphasized over features?

- ✓ a) Because readers care about results
- b) To make it sound fancy
- c) To include details
- d) To reduce length

What kind of tone should persuasive messages have?

- ✓ a) Positive and confident
- b) Threatening
- c) Indirect
- d) Formal and cold

What supports claims in persuasive writing?

- ✓ a) Evidence and testimonials
- b) Humor
- c) Apology
- d) Jargon

Which of the following is a persuasive message type?

- ✓ a) Sales letter
- b) Resignation note
- c) Adjustment letter
- d) Rejection message

Why use the reader-centered approach in persuasive writing?

- ✓ a) To focus on reader benefits and interests
- b) To highlight your own needs
- c) To reduce content
- d) To close sale fast

What is a key quality of a persuasive email?

- ✓ a) Clear subject and engaging body
- b) Flashy font
- c) Passive voice
- d) Long sentences

What should you avoid in persuasive communication?

- ✓ a) Exaggeration or false claims

- b) Confidence
- c) Data
- d) Action verbs

How can visuals help persuasion?

- ✓ a) Clarify and support the message
- b) Replace the message
- c) Entertain
- d) Confuse

What is an ethical persuasive message?

- ✓ a) Honest, respectful, and transparent
- b) Deceptive but friendly
- c) Overpromising
- d) Pushy

Why use storytelling in persuasion?

- ✓ a) Engages emotions and interest
- b) Adds humor
- c) Reduces words
- d) Replaces facts

What makes a persuasive call to action effective?

- ✓ a) Clear and urgent instruction
- b) Emotional blackmail
- c) Vague hints
- d) Polite silence

How should objections be addressed in persuasive messages?

- ✓ a) Refuted respectfully with evidence
- b) Ignored
- c) Mocked
- d) Delayed

What is the main goal of persuasive communication?

- ✓ a) Influence and motivate the audience
- b) Complain formally
- c) End conversation
- d) Limit understanding

Lecture 36 – Reports: Functions and Types

What is the primary purpose of a report?

- ✓ a) To provide organized and factual information
- b) To entertain readers
- c) To argue emotionally
- d) To replace meetings

What is an analytical report?

- ✓ a) It presents findings and interprets them
- b) It announces events
- c) It summarizes novels
- d) It lists dates only

What is an informational report?

- ✓ a) It provides data without recommendations
- b) It offers solutions
- c) It persuades readers
- d) It expresses opinions

What is a periodic report?

- ✓ a) Submitted at regular intervals
- b) Only once
- c) When requested
- d) After retirement

Which report is written on request?

- ✓ a) Special report
- b) Routine report
- c) Progress report
- d) Oral report

What is a feasibility report?

- ✓ a) It assesses the practicality of a proposal
- b) It announces a celebration
- c) It promotes a product
- d) It justifies opinions

What type of report is a progress report?

- ✓ a) Informational report
- b) Analytical report
- c) News report
- d) Evaluation report

Which of the following is a formal report?

- ✓ a) Research report
- b) Email response
- c) Phone conversation
- d) Invitation

What is a summary report?

- ✓ a) A condensed version of a longer report
- b) A visual chart
- c) A complaint form
- d) An appendix

Which type of report is typically oral?

- ✓ a) Informal report

- b) Research report
- c) Technical report
- d) Sales proposal

What does an audit report do?

- ✓ a) Reviews financial records
- b) Offers discounts
- c) Sends warnings
- d) Advertises products

What is the main quality of an effective report?

- ✓ a) Accuracy and objectivity
- b) Humor and slang
- c) Opinions and rumors
- d) Sales language

Which of the following is not a type of report?

- a) Feasibility report
- b) Progress report
- ✓ c) Conversation report
- d) Audit report

What is a trip report?

- ✓ a) A summary of business travel and meetings
- b) A personal journal
- c) A daily planner
- d) A shipping receipt

What is a justification report?

- ✓ a) Recommends action with supporting reasons
- b) Describes a process
- c) Evaluates performance
- d) Summarizes research

What does a compliance report confirm?

- ✓ a) That rules or laws have been followed
- b) That a product works
- c) That feedback was received
- d) That data is missing

Why is a title page important in a formal report?

- ✓ a) It provides title, author, and date
- b) It lists references
- c) It contains summary
- d) It explains visuals

Which is a characteristic of formal reports?

- ✓ a) Structured format and detailed content
- b) Informal tone

- c) Slang language
- d) Oral presentation only

Which is a business function of reports?

- ✓ a) To aid decision making
- b) To advertise products
- c) To entertain clients
- d) To market surveys

What is the difference between a letter and a memo report?

- ✓ a) Audience and length
- b) Grammar
- c) Tone
- d) Layout only

Lecture 37 – Report Writing: Structure and Process

What is the first step in report writing?

- ✓ a) Define the purpose
- b) Choose a font
- c) Write the title
- d) Attach appendix

What comes after determining purpose in report writing?

- ✓ a) Research and data collection
- b) Typing conclusion
- c) Adding graphs
- d) Inserting bibliography

What is included in the introduction of a report?

- ✓ a) Purpose, scope, and background
- b) Analysis
- c) Recommendations only
- d) Citations

Where are the main findings of the report presented?

- ✓ a) In the body section
- b) On the cover page
- c) In the appendix
- d) In the references

What is the function of the conclusion in a report?

- ✓ a) Summarizes main findings
- b) Introduces new ideas
- c) Adds graphs
- d) States background

Why include recommendations in a report?

- ✓ a) To suggest actions based on findings
- b) To lengthen report
- c) To explain method
- d) To introduce topic

What does the appendix contain?

- ✓ a) Supplementary material
- b) Summary of report
- c) Recommendations
- d) Report purpose

What is the title page used for?

- ✓ a) Providing report title and author info
- b) Listing citations
- c) Stating recommendations
- d) Showing graphs

What is the executive summary?

- ✓ a) Condensed version of full report for quick reading
- b) List of references
- c) Memo from HR
- d) Email summary

Why is organization important in report writing?

- ✓ a) It improves clarity and flow
- b) It shows vocabulary
- c) It entertains
- d) It replaces editing

What should be clear in report objectives?

- ✓ a) What the report aims to achieve
- b) Who the author is
- c) Design and layout
- d) Amount of research

What is one method of organizing report content?

- ✓ a) Problem-solution format
- b) Random idea insertion
- c) Mixed graphs
- d) Chronological citations

What is the role of headings and subheadings?

- ✓ a) Guide the reader and improve structure
- b) Increase font
- c) Add graphics
- d) Replace conclusion

What tone should be used in formal reports?

- ✓ a) Objective and professional

- b) Humorous and casual
- c) Passive and weak
- d) Informal and flexible

What is the table of contents?

- ✓ a) List of report sections with page numbers
- b) Description of tables
- c) Summary of appendices
- d) Bibliography

What is a limitation section in a report?

- ✓ a) Lists challenges faced during research
- b) Contains references
- c) Adds visuals
- d) Justifies title

Why use visual aids in reports?

- ✓ a) To support and simplify data presentation
- b) To decorate
- c) To replace text
- d) To lengthen report

What is proofreading in report writing?

- ✓ a) Checking for errors and consistency
- b) Adding keywords
- c) Fixing visuals
- d) Editing format only

What ensures credibility in report writing?

- ✓ a) Accurate sources and balanced tone
- b) Use of complex words
- c) Fancy graphics
- d) Colored text

Why is draft revision necessary?

- ✓ a) To improve logic and correctness
- b) To increase word count
- c) To decorate report
- d) To remove graphs

Lecture 38 – Visual Aids in Business Communication

What is the purpose of using visual aids?

- ✓ a) To simplify and enhance communication
- b) To lengthen content
- c) To distract the audience
- d) To replace the speaker

Which of the following is a type of visual aid?

- ✓ a) Bar chart
- b) Storyboard
- c) Dialogue
- d) Paragraph

Why use graphs in business communication?

- ✓ a) To present data clearly and quickly
- b) To tell a story
- c) To describe emotions
- d) To fill space

What does a pie chart represent?

- ✓ a) Proportions of a whole
- b) Timeline events
- c) Hierarchy
- d) Frequency

Which chart is best for comparing trends over time?

- ✓ a) Line chart
- b) Pie chart
- c) Flowchart
- d) Diagram

Why use a table in a report?

- ✓ a) To organize numeric data
- b) To narrate a story
- c) To analyze grammar
- d) To compare images

Which visual is best for processes and steps?

- ✓ a) Flowchart
- b) Line graph
- c) Column chart
- d) Scatter plot

What is the role of labels in visuals?

- ✓ a) To identify and explain data clearly
- b) To add color
- c) To increase size
- d) To replace captions

Why use visuals in presentations?

- ✓ a) To retain audience attention
- b) To show writing style
- c) To avoid eye contact
- d) To repeat content

What is a drawback of too many visuals?

- ✓ a) They can overwhelm the audience

- b) They add clarity
- c) They replace voice
- d) They save time

Which principle should guide visual design?

- ✓ a) Simplicity and clarity
- b) Complexity and color
- c) Bright colors
- d) Maximum text

What is the benefit of using icons?

- ✓ a) Quick visual representation
- b) Word replacement only
- c) Fancy design
- d) Confusion

Which visual shows frequency of categories?

- ✓ a) Bar graph
- b) Pie chart
- c) Line graph
- d) Map

What makes a visual aid effective?

- ✓ a) Relevance and readability
- b) Animation
- c) Quantity
- d) Size only

Why align visuals with verbal content?

- ✓ a) To reinforce message
- b) To distract viewers
- c) To increase report size
- d) To break monotony

What does a Gantt chart show?

- ✓ a) Project timeline and tasks
- b) Organizational hierarchy
- c) Budget reports
- d) Percentage shares

How can you ensure visual clarity?

- ✓ a) Use appropriate scale and font
- b) Use all available space
- c) Skip labels
- d) Zoom in

What is the function of a legend in charts?

- ✓ a) Explains symbols and colors
- b) Summarizes message

- c) Provides introduction
- d) Adds humor

Which visual is best for geographical data?

- ✓ a) Map
- b) Column chart
- c) Pie chart
- d) Line graph

What should be avoided in visual aids?

- ✓ a) Overcrowding with data
- b) Proper alignment
- c) Relevant charts
- d) Labels

Lecture 39 – Oral Presentations

What is the main goal of an oral presentation?

- ✓ a) To communicate ideas effectively
- b) To read aloud
- c) To avoid questions
- d) To entertain only

Which of the following is essential for effective delivery?

- ✓ a) Voice modulation
- b) Script memorization
- c) Static slides
- d) Long pauses

What should a presentation introduction include?

- ✓ a) Attention-grabber and overview
- b) Conclusion
- c) Chart
- d) Email

What helps maintain audience interest?

- ✓ a) Interaction and stories
- b) Monotone delivery
- c) Reading slides
- d) No visuals

What is the role of visuals in presentations?

- ✓ a) To support the spoken message
- b) To replace speaking
- c) To avoid preparation
- d) To fill time

What is the benefit of rehearsing a presentation?

- ✓ a) Builds confidence and fluency
- b) Saves time
- c) Shortens preparation
- d) Avoids feedback

What is the function of a conclusion in a presentation?

- ✓ a) Summarizes and reinforces the message
- b) Introduces data
- c) Asks questions only
- d) Shows charts

What is the best way to handle questions?

- ✓ a) Answer clearly and honestly
- b) Avoid eye contact
- c) Skip them
- d) Defer all to later

What is important in body language?

- ✓ a) Gestures and posture
- b) Folding arms
- c) Looking down
- d) Crossing legs

What is the ideal number of points per slide?

- ✓ a) 3–5
- b) 10–12
- c) 7–9
- d) 1–2

Why use transitions in presentations?

- ✓ a) To guide the audience through content
- b) To decorate
- c) To summarize
- d) To list numbers

Which tool can help practice presentations?

- ✓ a) Timer
- b) Poster
- c) Book
- d) Phone

What is a common presentation mistake?

- ✓ a) Reading from slides
- b) Using visuals
- c) Practicing
- d) Speaking clearly

Why should you know your audience?

- ✓ a) To adapt tone and content

- b) To ignore feedback
- c) To use formal jargon
- d) To delay start

What should be done before presenting?

- ✓ a) Test all equipment
- b) Write essay
- c) Sit down
- d) Sleep

How should a speaker handle nervousness?

- ✓ a) Breathe deeply and focus
- b) Avoid eye contact
- c) Speak faster
- d) Read notes fully

Which part of presentation has most impact?

- ✓ a) Opening
- b) Mid-section
- c) Reference
- d) Slide colors

What does eye contact help with?

- ✓ a) Engagement and connection
- b) Avoidance
- c) Memorization
- d) Slide reading

Which element reflects preparation?

- ✓ a) Smooth flow and timing
- b) Memorized jokes
- c) Slide count
- d) Font type

What should your closing slide include?

- ✓ a) Summary and thank-you
- b) New topic
- c) Speaker bio
- d) Agenda

Lecture 40 – Interviewing for Jobs

What is the main purpose of a job interview?

- ✓ a) To assess a candidate's suitability for a position
- b) To complete formalities
- c) To submit a resume
- d) To socialize

What should you research before an interview?

- ✓ a) Company background and job role
- b) Interviewer's hobbies
- c) Salary range only
- d) Dress code

Which type of interview involves a single interviewer?

- ✓ a) One-on-one interview
- b) Panel interview
- c) Group discussion
- d) Telephonic interview

What is the STAR method used for?

- ✓ a) Structuring behavioral answers
- b) Dressing up
- c) Asking questions
- d) Negotiating salary

What does STAR stand for?

- ✓ a) Situation, Task, Action, Result
- b) Strength, Target, Aim, Role
- c) Start, Think, Ask, Respond
- d) Study, Test, Answer, Repeat

What should you bring to an interview?

- ✓ a) Copies of your resume and certificates
- b) Snacks
- c) Family photos
- d) Books

What is appropriate attire for a job interview?

- ✓ a) Formal and professional clothing
- b) Sportswear
- c) Casual t-shirt
- d) Party dress

What is a good response to "Tell me about yourself"?

- ✓ a) Brief career summary and strengths
- b) Life story
- c) Personal opinions
- d) List of hobbies

What is a common mistake in interviews?

- ✓ a) Speaking negatively about past employers
- b) Asking relevant questions
- c) Listening actively
- d) Maintaining posture

What is the purpose of follow-up after an interview?

- ✓ a) To express gratitude and interest

- b) To complain
- c) To argue about questions
- d) To cancel the application

Which type of interview is conducted over the phone?

- ✓ a) Telephonic interview
- b) Behavioral interview
- c) Group interview
- d) In-person interview

What is a situational interview question?

- ✓ a) Hypothetical job-related scenario
- b) Personal experience
- c) Hobbies and preferences
- d) Multiple choice

What's the best way to handle tough questions?

- ✓ a) Stay calm and respond honestly
- b) Argue with the interviewer
- c) Skip the question
- d) Guess an answer

Why is body language important in interviews?

- ✓ a) It shows confidence and attentiveness
- b) It replaces answers
- c) It distracts
- d) It avoids stress

What is the ideal duration of an answer?

- ✓ a) 1–2 minutes
- b) 10 minutes
- c) 30 seconds
- d) Until interrupted

How can you prepare for common interview questions?

- ✓ a) Practice and rehearse
- b) Ignore them
- c) Read silently
- d) Memorize answers only

What is a competency-based interview?

- ✓ a) Focuses on specific skills and behaviors
- b) Tests memory
- c) Checks dress code
- d) Confirms address

What is the closing question in many interviews?

- ✓ a) "Do you have any questions for us?"
- b) "Are you tired?"

- c) "Will you accept a low salary?"
- d) "Where are you from?"

What is the best way to ask questions during interviews?

- ✓ a) Ask about role and company culture
- b) Ask about vacation length
- c) Ask personal questions
- d) Ask about gossip

What does punctuality reflect in an interview?

- ✓ a) Professionalism and respect
- b) Indifference
- c) Nervousness
- d) Laziness

Lecture 41 – Résumés and Job Application Letters

What is the main goal of a résumé?

- ✓ a) To showcase skills and qualifications
- b) To replace interviews
- c) To request a meeting
- d) To summarize history

What type of résumé focuses on work experience?

- ✓ a) Chronological
- b) Functional
- c) Creative
- d) Modular

What is a functional résumé based on?

- ✓ a) Skills and abilities
- b) Time sequence
- c) References
- d) Design

Which section is typically at the top of a résumé?

- ✓ a) Contact information
- b) Hobbies
- c) Certifications
- d) Work samples

What does the objective statement show?

- ✓ a) Career goals and relevance to job
- b) Salary expectation
- c) References
- d) Personal opinion

What should be avoided in a résumé?

- ✓ a) Spelling errors and irrelevant details
- b) Bullet points
- c) Action verbs
- d) Contact information

Why use action verbs in a résumé?

- ✓ a) To highlight achievements and responsibilities
- b) To impress with grammar
- c) To confuse ATS
- d) To exaggerate

What is an applicant tracking system (ATS)?

- ✓ a) Software that scans résumés for keywords
- b) Interview tool
- c) Email sender
- d) HR assistant

What makes a résumé stand out?

- ✓ a) Relevant content and clean format
- b) Bright colors
- c) Long stories
- d) Decorative fonts

What is a cover letter?

- ✓ a) A letter that introduces your résumé
- b) A greeting card
- c) A resignation letter
- d) A salary slip

What is included in the opening of a cover letter?

- ✓ a) Purpose and position applied for
- b) Personal story
- c) List of hobbies
- d) Signature

What does the body of a cover letter explain?

- ✓ a) Qualifications and suitability
- b) Family background
- c) Grades only
- d) Opinions

What is the purpose of the closing in a cover letter?

- ✓ a) To express appreciation and interest
- b) To criticize past employers
- c) To state unrelated facts
- d) To list documents

How should a résumé be formatted?

- ✓ a) Neatly, consistently, and professionally

- b) Colorful and detailed
- c) Casual and handwritten
- d) In columns only

What should not be included in a résumé?

- ✓ a) Salary history
- b) Job titles
- c) Dates of employment
- d) Degrees

Which résumé type is best for job changers?

- ✓ a) Functional résumé
- b) Chronological
- c) Academic résumé
- d) Infographic

What should a résumé summary highlight?

- ✓ a) Core strengths and achievements
- b) Problems faced
- c) Previous salaries
- d) Contact details

How long should a résumé be?

- ✓ a) 1–2 pages
- b) 4–5 pages
- c) 3–4 pages minimum
- d) Unlimited length

What is the correct order in a chronological résumé?

- ✓ a) Most recent job first
- b) Alphabetical order
- c) Based on location
- d) Random order

What can weaken a résumé?

- ✓ a) Generic statements and typos
- b) Specific results
- c) Industry terms
- d) Clean layout

Lecture 42 – Business Meetings and Minutes

What is the primary purpose of a business meeting?

- ✓ a) To discuss and decide business matters
- b) To entertain staff
- c) To conduct interviews
- d) To distribute salary

What are minutes in a meeting?

- ✓ a) Written record of decisions and discussions
- b) Notes for the next meeting
- c) Informal feedback
- d) Time spent on topics

Who usually prepares the minutes?

- ✓ a) Secretary or assigned recorder
- b) Chairperson
- c) Attendee
- d) HR officer

Which of the following is a type of meeting?

- ✓ a) Board meeting
- b) Job interview
- c) Sales report
- d) News broadcast

What is quorum in a meeting?

- ✓ a) Minimum number of participants required
- b) Food arrangement
- c) Budget sheet
- d) Speaker's time

What is the agenda of a meeting?

- ✓ a) List of topics to be discussed
- b) List of attendees
- c) Summary of last meeting
- d) Email attachment

What is the purpose of a notice for a meeting?

- ✓ a) To formally invite participants
- b) To explain salary
- c) To declare strike
- d) To post updates

What should be included in meeting minutes?

- ✓ a) Decisions, actions, and participants
- b) Full conversations
- c) Personal feedback
- d) Resumes

What is a chairperson's role in a meeting?

- ✓ a) To lead and control discussion
- b) To take notes
- c) To skip discussion
- d) To criticize

What is a motion in a meeting?

- ✓ a) Formal proposal for decision

- b) Background information
- c) Invitation
- d) Objection

Which of the following is part of meeting planning?

- ✓ a) Setting objectives and agenda
- b) Designing slides
- c) Booking hotel rooms
- d) Printing banners

Why is time management important in meetings?

- ✓ a) To keep discussions focused and efficient
- b) To save snacks
- c) To finish early
- d) To avoid notes

What makes meetings more productive?

- ✓ a) Clear objectives and follow-up
- b) Casual attire
- c) Long speeches
- d) Free seating

What are action items?

- ✓ a) Tasks assigned after the meeting
- b) Debate points
- c) Greetings
- d) Questions raised

What is the function of the opening of a meeting?

- ✓ a) Welcome and review of agenda
- b) Announce promotions
- c) Discuss breaks
- d) Share personal news

Who signs the final minutes document?

- ✓ a) Chairperson and secretary
- b) All attendees
- c) Only HR
- d) Receptionist

Which statement best describes informal meetings?

- ✓ a) Casual discussion without strict structure
- b) Government-required
- c) Legally binding
- d) Always recorded

What is a standing committee?

- ✓ a) Permanent committee for recurring issues
- b) Staff meeting

- c) Complaint board
- d) Temporary team

Which of the following meetings is legally mandatory in some companies?

- ✓ a) Annual General Meeting (AGM)
- b) Project planning session
- c) Product launch
- d) Department party

What follows “Any Other Business” on an agenda?

- ✓ a) Meeting adjournment
- b) Presentation
- c) Salary report
- d) Coffee break

Lecture 43 – Cross-Cultural Communication

What is cross-cultural communication?

- ✓ a) Exchange of information between people from different cultures
- b) Online chatting
- c) Local advertising
- d) Marketing emails

Why is cross-cultural communication important in business?

- ✓ a) It helps avoid misunderstandings and build relationships
- b) It reduces paperwork
- c) It increases profits directly
- d) It shortens presentations

What is cultural context?

- ✓ a) Background that influences communication style
- b) Time zone difference
- c) Presentation structure
- d) Business law

What is high-context culture?

- ✓ a) Communication relies on implicit messages and non-verbal cues
- b) Straightforward and detailed communication
- c) Legal documentation
- d) Written-only interaction

Which country is typically low-context?

- ✓ a) Germany
- b) Japan
- c) China
- d) Saudi Arabia

Which term refers to belief in equality among people?

- ✓ a) Egalitarianism
- b) Collectivism
- c) Power distance
- d) Formality

What does “power distance” refer to?

- ✓ a) The level of acceptance of unequal power in society
- b) Time difference
- c) Salary variation
- d) Travel distance

Which of the following is a cultural barrier to communication?

- ✓ a) Stereotyping
- b) Clear pronunciation
- c) Accurate data
- d) Visual aids

What is ethnocentrism?

- ✓ a) Belief that one’s own culture is superior
- b) Respecting all cultures
- c) Learning new languages
- d) Understanding accents

Which of the following is a strategy for effective cross-cultural communication?

- ✓ a) Active listening and empathy
- b) Avoiding conversations
- c) Using jargon
- d) Being aggressive

What is paralanguage?

- ✓ a) Non-verbal elements like tone and pitch
- b) Grammar rules
- c) Cultural laws
- d) Written language

Why should gestures be used carefully across cultures?

- ✓ a) They may have different meanings in different cultures
- b) They always express the same emotion
- c) They are unnecessary
- d) They’re ignored

What is a global mindset?

- ✓ a) Ability to adapt to different cultures
- b) Focus on local issues only
- c) Ignoring cultural differences
- d) Working alone

Which of the following can improve cross-cultural writing?

- ✓ a) Using simple and clear language

- b) Using idioms
- c) Local slang
- d) Regional jokes

How can cultural awareness be developed?

- ✓ a) Through education and experience
- b) Through ignoring news
- c) By avoiding foreign languages
- d) By watching ads

What is monochronic culture?

- ✓ a) Focuses on doing one task at a time
- b) Multitasking culture
- c) Informal culture
- d) Legal culture

What is the communication style in collectivist cultures?

- ✓ a) Indirect and group-oriented
- b) Direct and individualistic
- c) Silent and private
- d) Rapid and aggressive

Which value is more prominent in individualistic cultures?

- ✓ a) Personal achievement
- b) Group harmony
- c) Obedience
- d) Shared responsibility

Which communication method is safest across cultures?

- ✓ a) Neutral, clear written communication
- b) Sarcastic speech
- c) Verbal jokes
- d) Regional dialects

Which of the following is a sign of cultural intelligence?

- ✓ a) Ability to interpret and adapt to different cultural signals
- b) Speaking only your native language
- c) Avoiding feedback
- d) Relying on stereotypes

Lecture 44 – Ethics in Business Communication

What are ethics in business communication?

- ✓ a) Moral principles guiding communication
- b) Legal rules only
- c) Writing style
- d) Marketing techniques

Why are ethics important in communication?

- ✓ a) They build trust and integrity
- b) They increase speed
- c) They reduce cost
- d) They limit options

Which of the following is an unethical practice?

- ✓ a) Plagiarism
- b) Proofreading
- c) Writing clearly
- d) Verifying facts

What is transparency in communication?

- ✓ a) Being open and honest
- b) Being brief
- c) Being secretive
- d) Avoiding feedback

What does confidentiality mean in business?

- ✓ a) Keeping private information secure
- b) Sharing personal stories
- c) Announcing results
- d) Printing all data

Which of the following is considered ethical communication?

- ✓ a) Accurate and respectful messaging
- b) Exaggeration
- c) Concealing data
- d) Emotional language

What is deception in communication?

- ✓ a) Providing false or misleading information
- b) Simplifying the truth
- c) Clarifying terms
- d) Responding late

Which of these affects ethical communication?

- ✓ a) Culture and personal values
- b) Keyboard type
- c) Company size
- d) Internet speed

What is a conflict of interest?

- ✓ a) Personal interest interfering with professional duties
- b) Argument over content
- c) Format issue
- d) Deadline dispute

Why should citations be used?

- ✓ a) To avoid plagiarism and give credit

- b) To confuse readers
- c) To make reports longer
- d) To copy text

What does bias in communication mean?

- ✓ a) Unfair favoritism or prejudice
- b) Presenting facts
- c) Being objective
- d) Editing grammar

Which of these is a result of unethical communication?

- ✓ a) Damaged reputation and legal issues
- b) Better teamwork
- c) Faster emails
- d) Shorter meetings

What is whistleblowing?

- ✓ a) Reporting unethical or illegal behavior
- b) Gossiping in office
- c) Blowing a horn
- d) Filing documents

What is ethical listening?

- ✓ a) Paying attention with respect and fairness
- b) Multitasking during talks
- c) Interrupting
- d) Ignoring questions

What does inclusive language aim to do?

- ✓ a) Avoids discrimination or offense
- b) Targets only one group
- c) Uses slang
- d) Uses old terms

Which of the following is an ethical challenge in digital communication?

- ✓ a) Privacy and data protection
- b) Writing fast
- c) Using visuals
- d) Logging in

How can ethical culture be promoted in business?

- ✓ a) Training and clear policies
- b) Strict dress code
- c) Free emails
- d) Fewer meetings

What is a code of conduct?

- ✓ a) A set of rules guiding ethical behavior
- b) Company history

- c) Profit summary
- d) Survey report

What is fairness in communication?

- ✓ a) Treating all participants equally
- b) Speaking quickly
- c) Avoiding feedback
- d) Using technical terms

What should you do if asked to write something unethical?

- ✓ a) Refuse politely and report if needed
- b) Agree silently
- c) Forward it
- d) Ignore the task

Lecture 45 – Digital Communication Tools

What is digital communication?

- ✓ a) Exchange of information via electronic means
- b) Handwritten messages
- c) Face-to-face talk
- d) Telephone call only

Which is a commonly used business communication tool?

- ✓ a) Email
- b) Typewriter
- c) Loudspeaker
- d) Letterhead

What is the main benefit of using email in business?

- ✓ a) Fast and documented communication
- b) Delayed feedback
- c) Personal conversation
- d) Informal tone

What is a professional email signature?

- ✓ a) Includes name, title, and contact details
- b) A smiley face
- c) A long quote
- d) Colored font

What is the function of instant messaging in business?

- ✓ a) Enables quick and direct conversations
- b) Replaces documents
- c) For personal gossip
- d) Sends reports

Which platform is commonly used for virtual meetings?

- ✓ a) Zoom
- b) Instagram
- c) TikTok
- d) Photoshop

What is netiquette?

- ✓ a) Online communication etiquette
- b) Gaming slang
- c) Website coding
- d) Email server

What is the use of project management tools?

- ✓ a) To assign, track, and manage tasks
- b) To write poems
- c) To store images
- d) To share jokes

Which of the following is a cloud storage tool?

- ✓ a) Google Drive
- b) Google Maps
- c) Notepad
- d) File Manager

What is a webinar?

- ✓ a) A web-based seminar or presentation
- b) A social ad
- c) A website
- d) A financial report

Why use collaboration tools like Slack or Microsoft Teams?

- ✓ a) For team communication and file sharing
- b) For printing documents
- c) For storing passwords
- d) For posting ads

Which of the following is a drawback of digital communication?

- ✓ a) Risk of misinterpretation and overload
- b) Easy tracking
- c) Security
- d) Connectivity

How can businesses secure digital communication?

- ✓ a) By using encryption and secure networks
- b) By printing copies
- c) By sending manually
- d) By limiting use

Which of these is a formal communication tool?

- ✓ a) Official email

- b) WhatsApp
- c) Facebook
- d) Snap stories

What does “cc” mean in email?

- ✓ a) Carbon copy
- b) Central communication
- c) Click comment
- d) Content copy

Why use video conferencing?

- ✓ a) For face-to-face interaction remotely
- b) To post photos
- c) For polls
- d) For ads

Which of the following helps schedule meetings?

- ✓ a) Google Calendar
- b) MS Word
- c) Adobe Reader
- d) WhatsApp status

What is a digital dashboard used for?

- ✓ a) To monitor and visualize data
- b) To drive cars
- c) To log out
- d) To send faxes

What is email etiquette?

- ✓ a) Using polite, clear, and professional tone
- b) Using emojis
- c) Using colored fonts
- d) Forwarding jokes

Which of these can reduce miscommunication in digital tools?

- ✓ a) Clarity and confirmation
- b) Long texts
- c) Slang
- d) Multiple emails

All Subjects Short Notes Available 03126968553

"Level up your VU experience with Abeer Fatima's exceptional services!"

VIRTUAL UNIVERSITY OF PAKISTAN

Abeer's strategies = VU achievement!

0312-6968553

VU LMS HANDLING SERVICES

Complete Semester LMS Handling

Half Semester LMS Handling

Assignments

Quiz's

GDB

Short Notes For Exams Preparation

Lecture Wise Short Questions File

Lecture Wise MCQ's File

bc12345678

Forgot Password?

Sign In

Notice Board

Student Hand Book

"BUSY SCHEDULE? NO PROBLEM! WE'LL HANDLE YOUR LMS TASKS WITH GUARANTEED EXCELLENCE AND ON-TIME COMPLETION. TRUST US FOR RESULTS!"

"Have questions? Need assistance? Reach out to us on WhatsApp at 03126968553. We're here to help!"

03126968553