

EDU401 FINAL TERM PREPERATION FILE BY NATASHA STUDY ZONE

FINAL TERM MOST REPEATED MCQS

Q: Training for citizenship and national identity usually involves:

- A. Lack of influence
- B. Spontaneity
- C. Conditioning
- D. Rebellion

Q: Which level should be emphasized to make population education more meaningful to learners?

- A. Technological level
- B. International level
- C. Individual and family level
- D. Urban development level

Q: Under a voucher system, which source continues to provide the primary funding for a student's education?

- A. Government
- B. Parent
- C. Private
- D. Individual

Q: What has contributed to disillusionment with schooling in many parts of the world?

- A. Ignoring learner differences
- B. Considering learner differences
- C. More school holidays

D. Considering learner needs

Q: Which approach can help in addressing both educational and population-related challenges?

A. Implementing population education

B. Teaching difficult grammar

C. Reducing school hours

D. Using only lectures

Q: Which type of demography is mainly learned informally through family, kin, peers, and community interactions?

A. National demography

B. Urban demography

C. Scientific demography

D. Folk demography

Q: How formal education systems are typically managed in both developing and industrialized nations?

A. Through the national center

B. By individual schools

C. By village councils

D. Through private donors

Q: Population education is bound to reinforce which of the following for innovation and renovations as the system is already using formal and learner oriented approaches?

A. Solutions

B. Trends

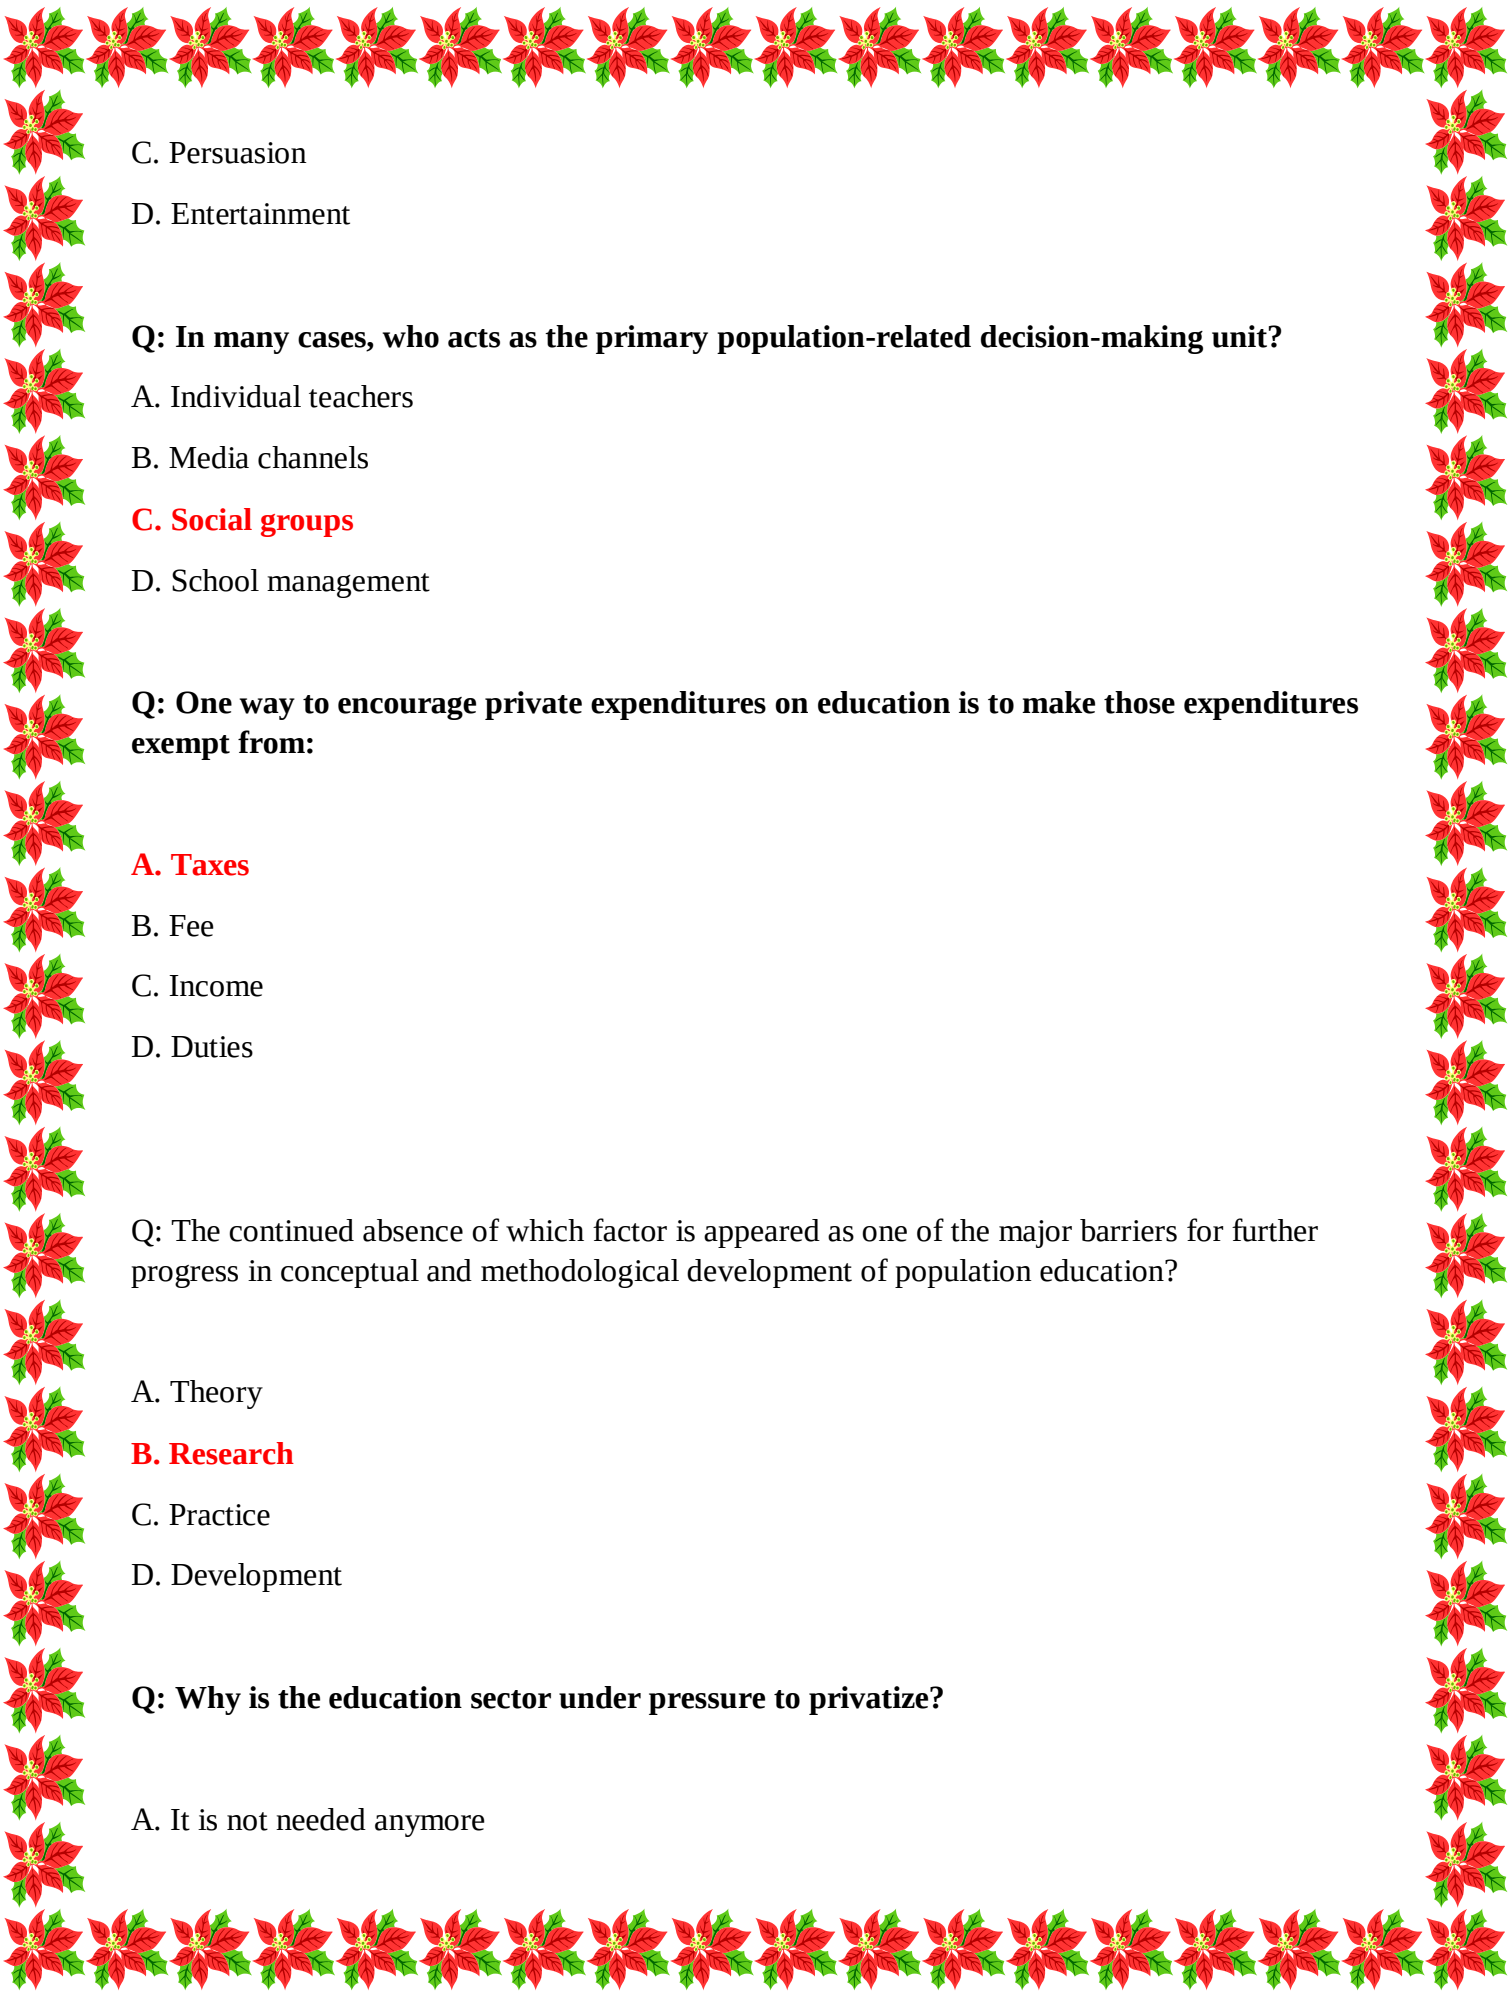

C. Issues

D. Problems

Q: Education systems around the world are not free from:

A. Isolation

B. Silence

C. Persuasion

D. Entertainment

Q: In many cases, who acts as the primary population-related decision-making unit?

A. Individual teachers

B. Media channels

C. Social groups

D. School management

Q: One way to encourage private expenditures on education is to make those expenditures exempt from:

A. Taxes

B. Fee

C. Income

D. Duties

Q: The continued absence of which factor is appeared as one of the major barriers for further progress in conceptual and methodological development of population education?

A. Theory

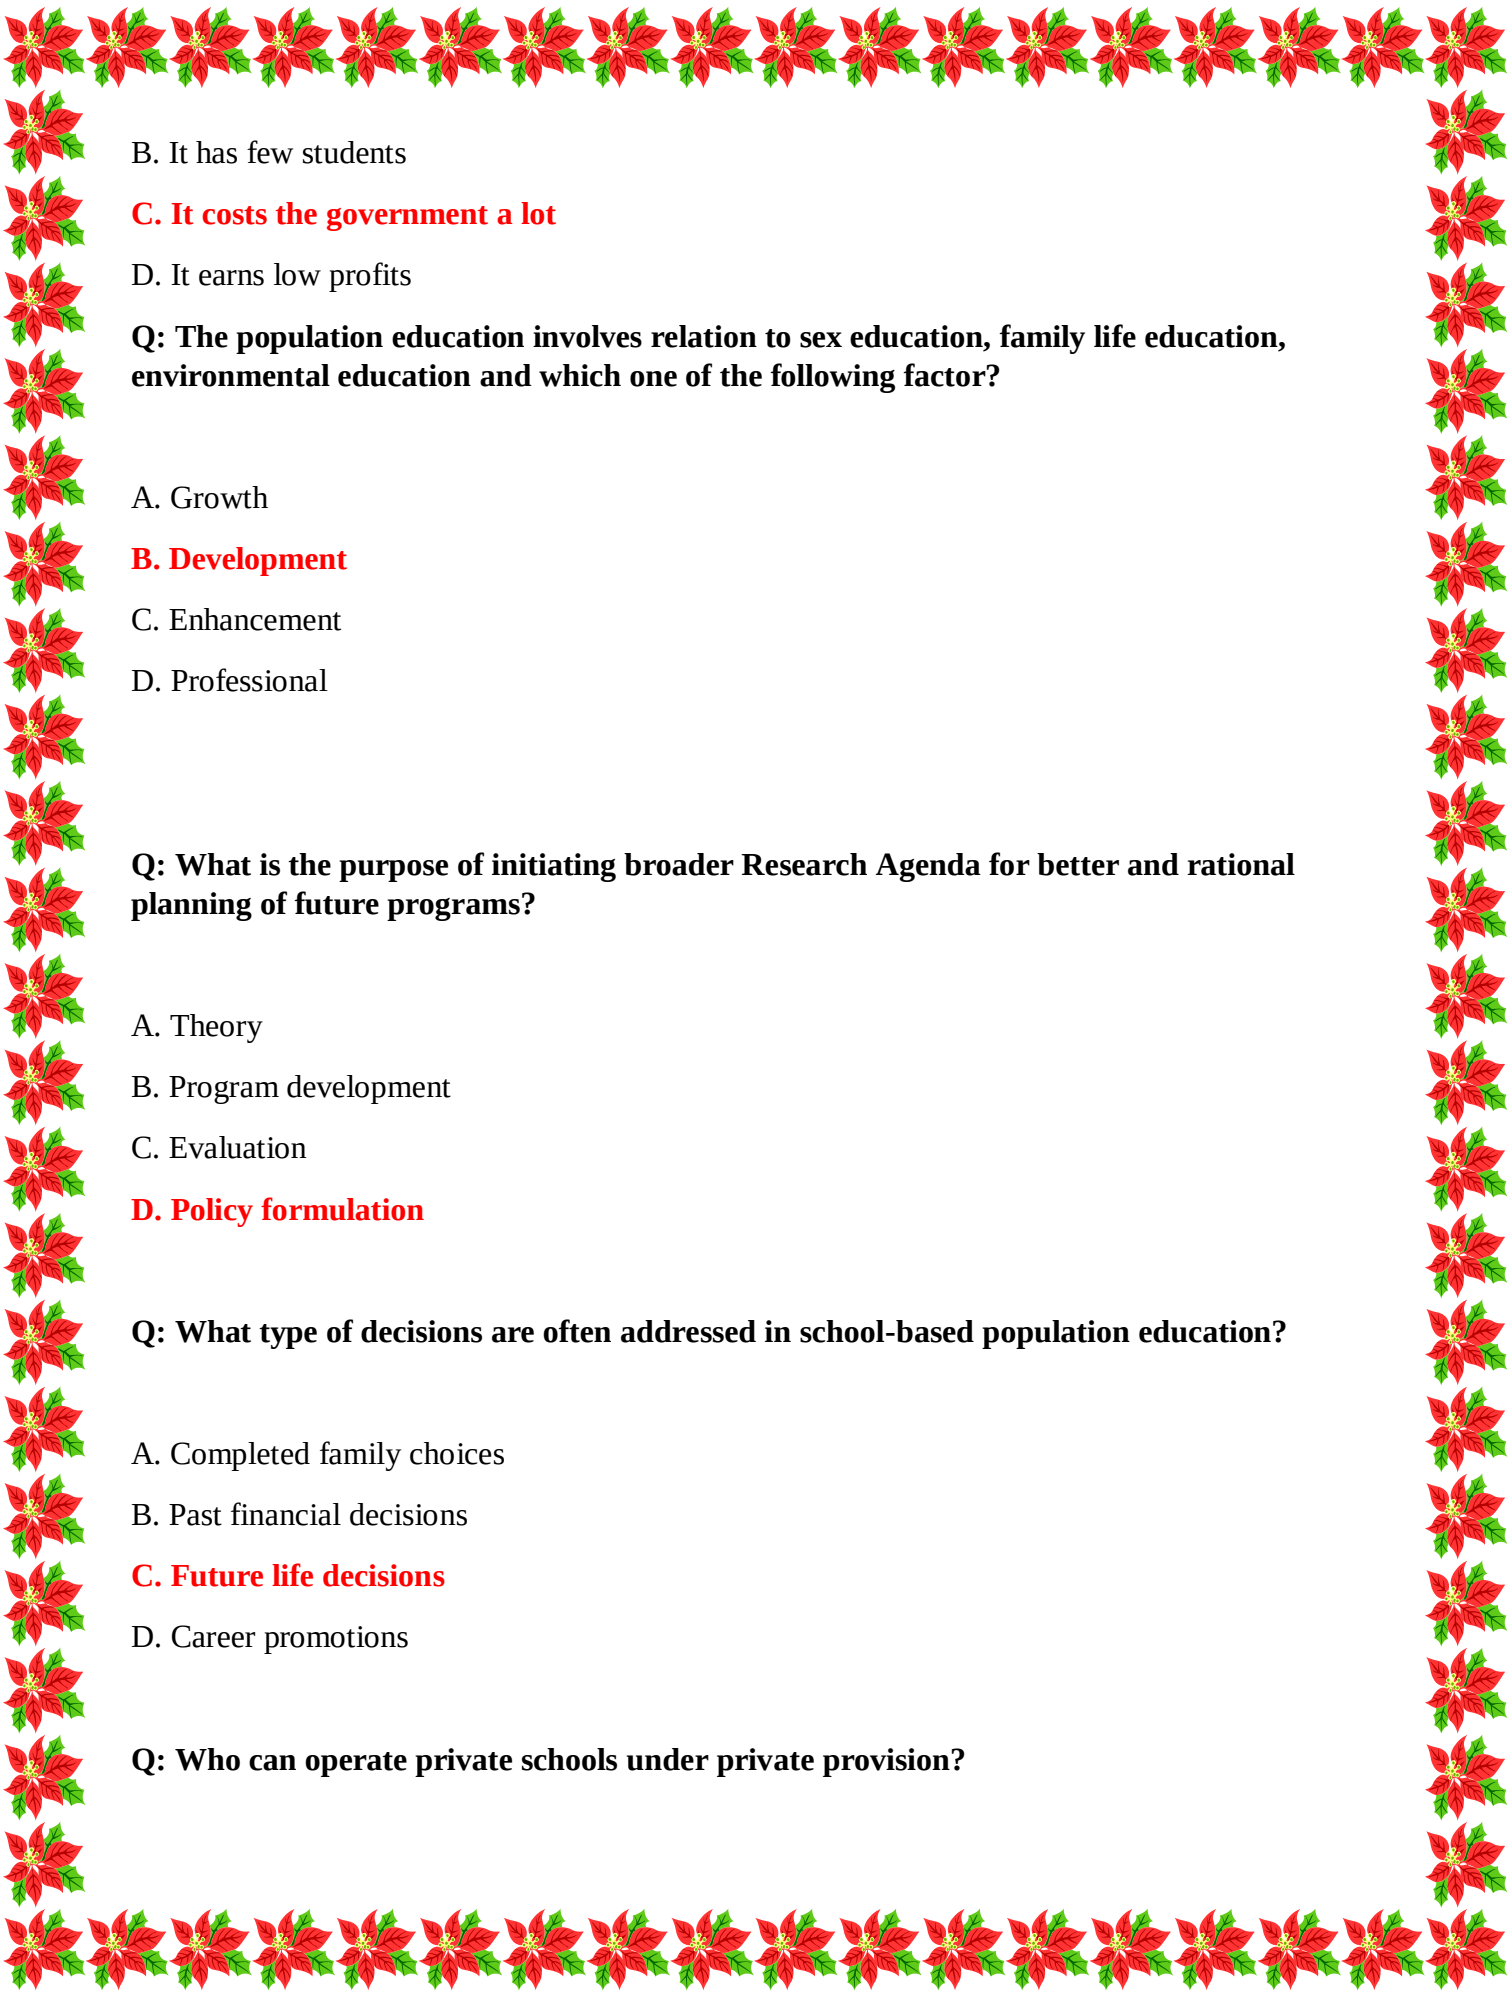

B. Research

C. Practice

D. Development

Q: Why is the education sector under pressure to privatize?

A. It is not needed anymore

B. It has few students

C. It costs the government a lot

D. It earns low profits

Q: The population education involves relation to sex education, family life education, environmental education and which one of the following factor?

A. Growth

B. Development

C. Enhancement

D. Professional

Q: What is the purpose of initiating broader Research Agenda for better and rational planning of future programs?

A. Theory

B. Program development

C. Evaluation

D. Policy formulation

Q: What type of decisions are often addressed in school-based population education?

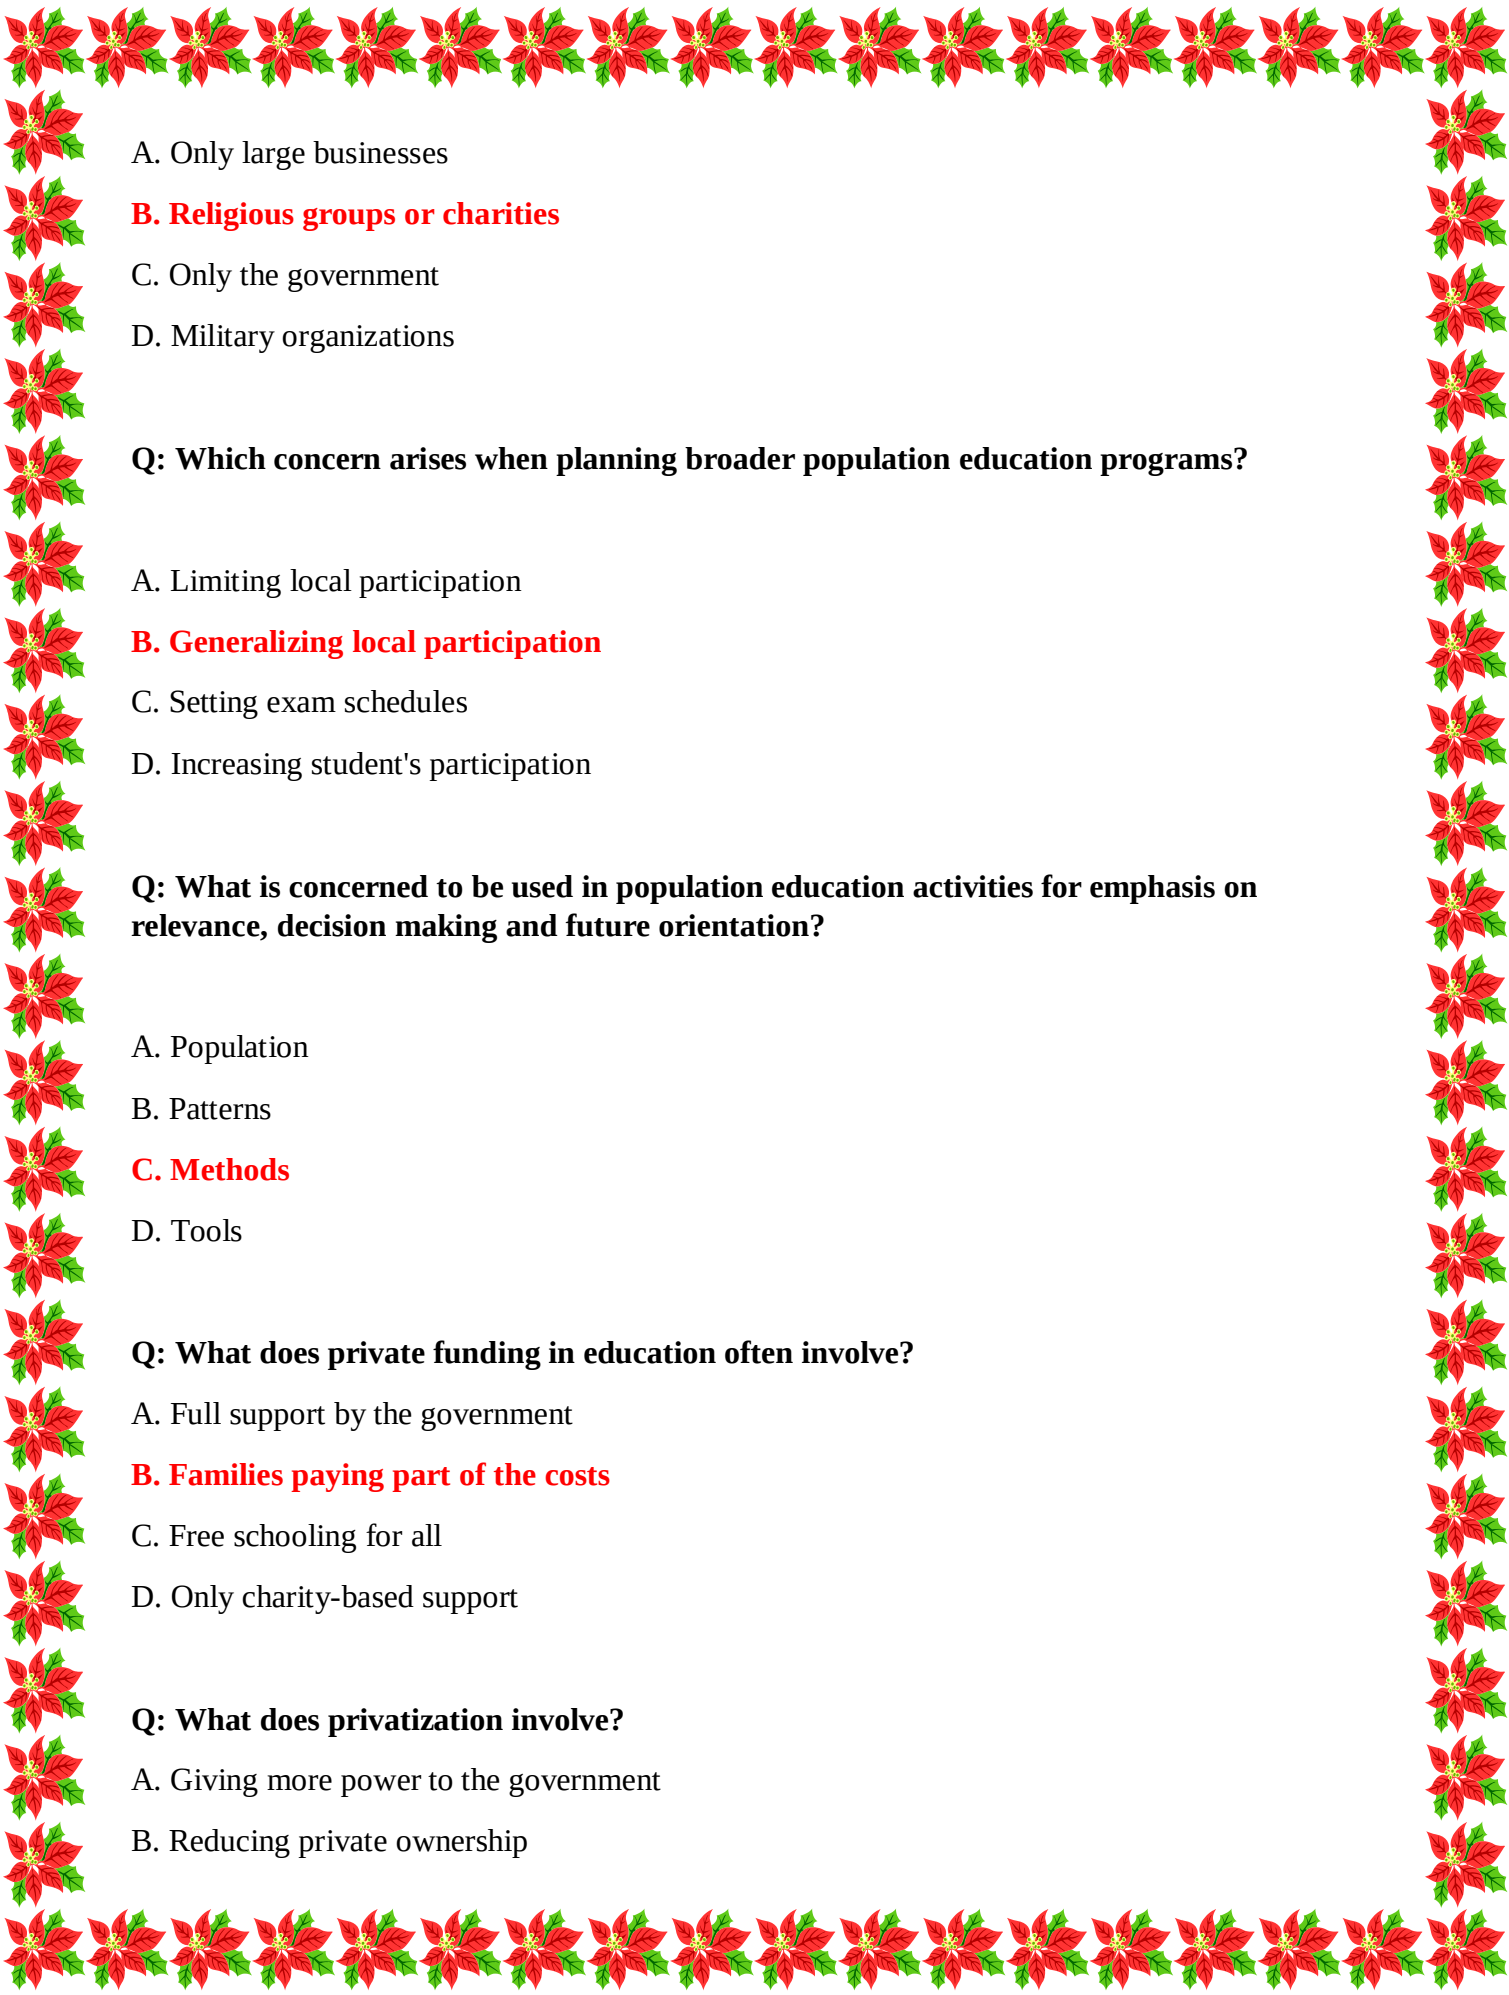

A. Completed family choices

B. Past financial decisions

C. Future life decisions

D. Career promotions

Q: Who can operate private schools under private provision?

A decorative border of red poinsettias with green leaves surrounds the text.

A. Only large businesses

B. Religious groups or charities

C. Only the government

D. Military organizations

Q: Which concern arises when planning broader population education programs?

A. Limiting local participation

B. Generalizing local participation

C. Setting exam schedules

D. Increasing student's participation

Q: What is concerned to be used in population education activities for emphasis on relevance, decision making and future orientation?

A. Population

B. Patterns

C. Methods

D. Tools

Q: What does private funding in education often involve?

A. Full support by the government

B. Families paying part of the costs

C. Free schooling for all

D. Only charity-based support

Q: What does privatization involve?

A. Giving more power to the government

B. Reducing private ownership

C. Shifting control to private individuals

D. Ending private services

Q: What does a value-fair stance in education involve?

A. Promoting government policies

B. Examining multiple viewpoints

C. Ignoring controversial topics

D. Teaching only one view

Q: Liberalization would involve reducing _____

A. lesser work

B. Red Tapism

C. official work

D. college practices

Q: The educators working in related fields should focus attention on which of the following factor while considering the objective to identify issues and difficulties?

A. Solutions

B. Problems

C. Development

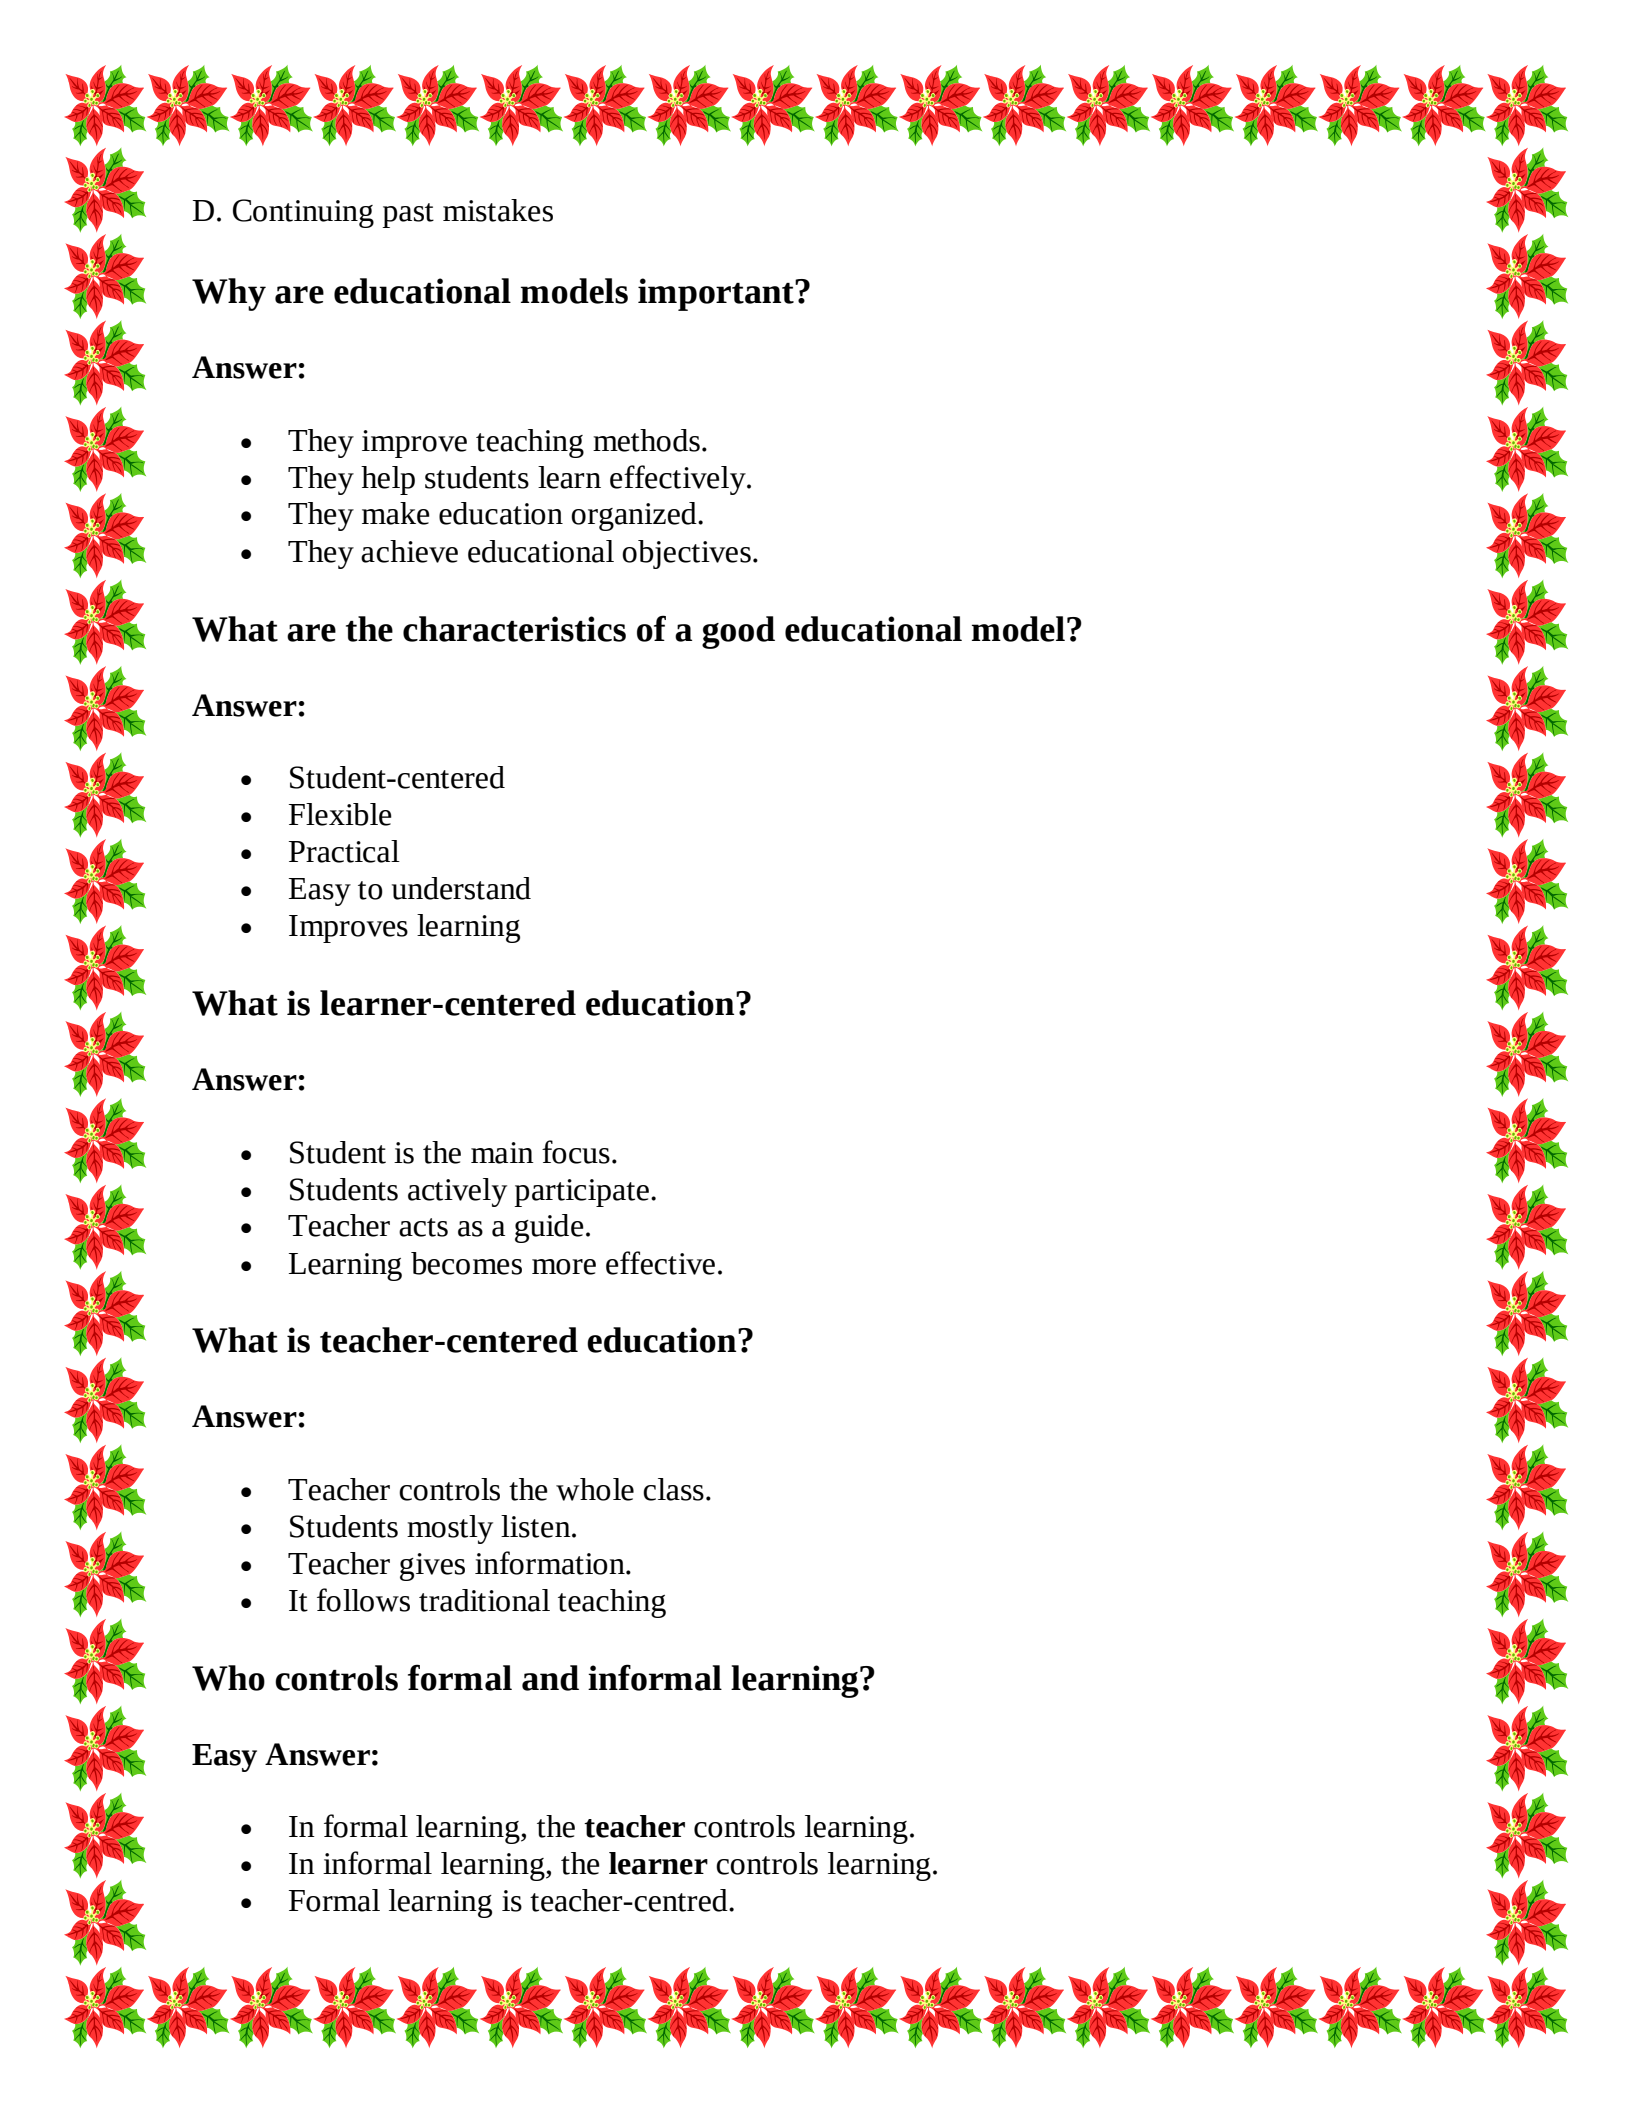

D. Progresss

Q: What is a common focus of out-of-school programs for adults?

A. Reviewing school grades

B. Parenting toddlers

C. Preparing for future decisions

D. Continuing past mistakes

Why are educational models important?

Answer:

- They improve teaching methods.
- They help students learn effectively.
- They make education organized.
- They achieve educational objectives.

What are the characteristics of a good educational model?

Answer:

- Student-centered
- Flexible
- Practical
- Easy to understand
- Improves learning

What is learner-centered education?

Answer:

- Student is the main focus.
- Students actively participate.
- Teacher acts as a guide.
- Learning becomes more effective.

What is teacher-centered education?

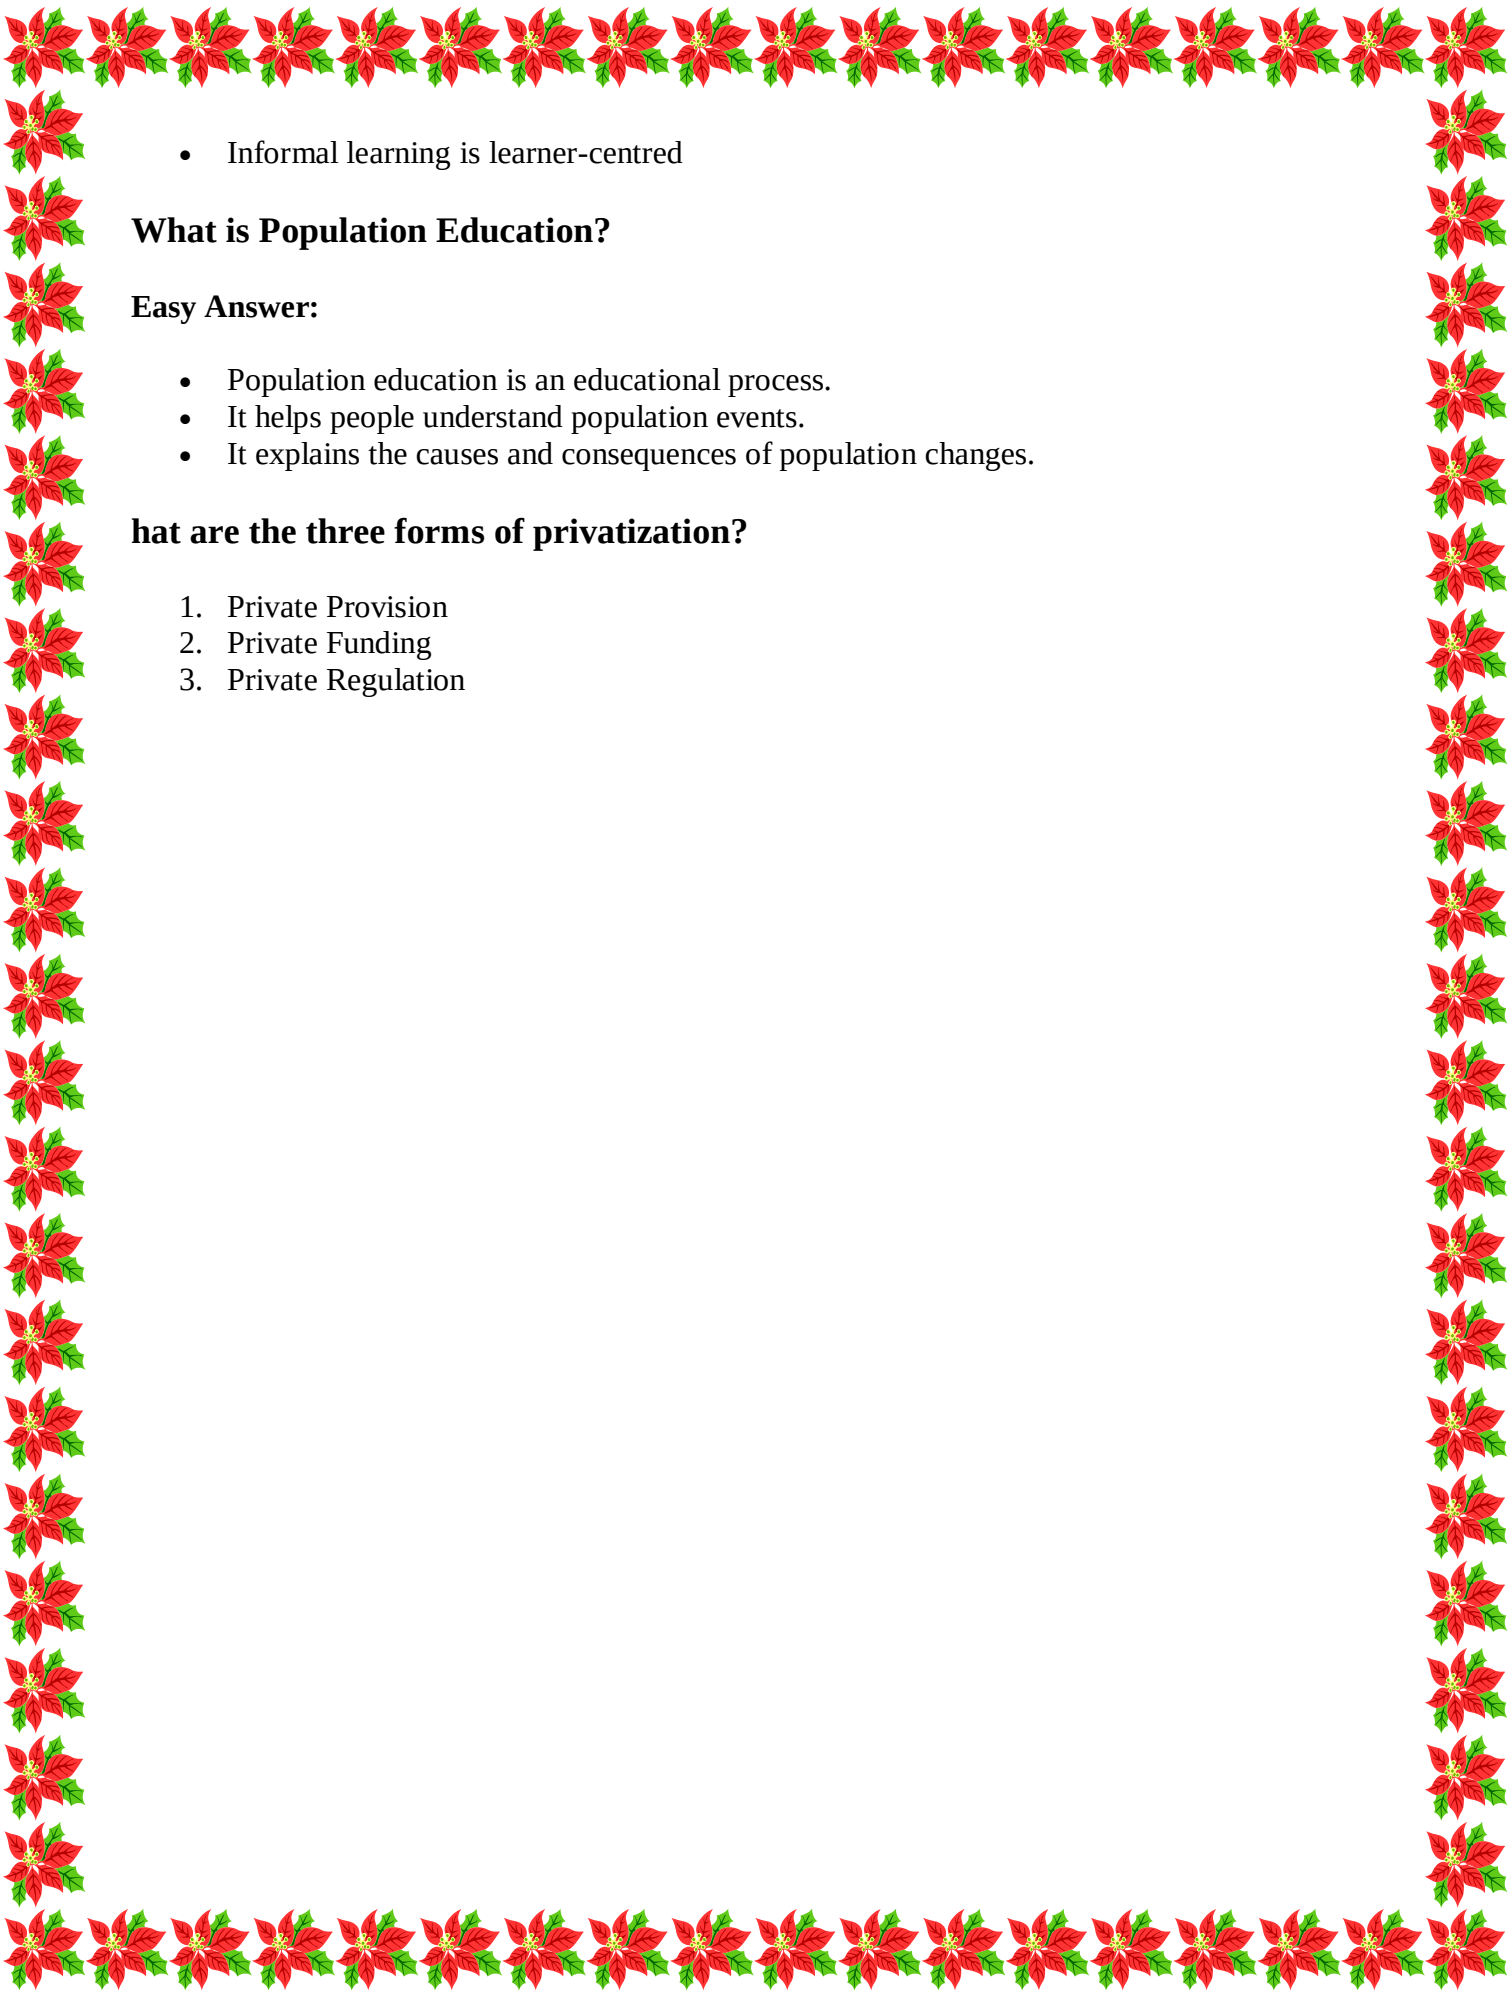

Answer:

- Teacher controls the whole class.
- Students mostly listen.
- Teacher gives information.
- It follows traditional teaching

Who controls formal and informal learning?

Easy Answer:

- In formal learning, the teacher controls learning.
- In informal learning, the learner controls learning.
- Formal learning is teacher-centred.

-
- Informal learning is learner-centred

What is Population Education?

Easy Answer:

- Population education is an educational process.
- It helps people understand population events.
- It explains the causes and consequences of population changes.

What are the three forms of privatization?

1. Private Provision
2. Private Funding
3. Private Regulation