

Critical Discourse Analysis

ENG524

FINAL TERM PAPER

ZAINEE....

Note: 30% of the paper was taken from past examination files, while the remaining 70% was based on handouts.

Objective Part

1. Aristotle speaks of the unique human capacity for speech.
2. Reconnection with politics among the youth in the West, the changes in dynamics of discursive power cannot be ignored.
3. Names play a crucial part in the construction of any identity.
4. Core strands in CDS associated with Fairclough have been influenced by two dominant social theories.
5. The third side of the triangle represents alignment between the two subjects.
6. It is a specific form of free market Capitalism that has largely come to dominate global economics.
7. Imran Khan's speech for the election shows the ----- and power ideologies.
 - a. Authority
 - b. Persuasion. (ans. not sure)

8. “At a time when globally young women are self-identifying as ‘postfeminist’ uninterested in feminist politics.
9. A comparative- synchronic analysis means looking at various representations of an issue at the time of the writing of one specific news text.
10. A ----- is one that is unhindered by regulations, and is operated by private entities rather than State (public) owners.
 - a. free market.
 - b. privatization
 - c. deregulation
 - d. neoliberalism
11. To understand the uniqueness of historical moments, we need to situate them in larger landscapes of time and space.
12. According to Rogers (2005), there were only 46 articles published between 1983 and 2005.
13. van Leeuwen (2008: vii) draws on Foucault’s concept of discourse as ‘constructions’ of specific aspects of reality’ that is knowledge, combining this with a notion of discourse as a social practice and legitimation.
14. Ferguson (2010) provocatively point out “neoliberalism is bad for poor and working people”.

15. In a campaign called 'Refuse to be a Victim', the NRA explicitly drew upon feminist slogans of the 1970s, which had advocated an attitudinal change in women's traditional depictions as victims of violence.
16. The term 'feminist' in 'Feminist CDA' is focusing on 'gender' as an object of CDA research.
17. The concept of 'order discourse' is provided by Fairclough.
18. Reality TV is 'the most exorbitantly "noticed" form of programming in television history' (Turner, 2010).
19. The discursive construction of terrorism is often a powerful tool of propaganda used to achieve goals. (socio-political)
20. KhosraviNik (2014) has used a term bottom-up language, that how social media is used to manipulate the audience in order to influence their minds.
21. Race refers to a person's physical characteristics, such as bone structure and skin, hair, or eye color.
22. The principle of FCDA is the ideological character of gender.
23. History is rewritten to highlight foundation myths of a "pure people" in "homogenous" nation-states.
24. According to KhosraviNik (2014), the nature, location, and dynamics of discursive power in Social Media.

25. Social Networking Sites (SNSs) include Facebook, Instagram, Tumblr, Twitter; and Instant Messaging Apps.

SUBJECTIVE PART

Question NO.1

Fill in the blanks with suitable words (stance-taking, languages, stance, self-editing)

- I. To frame a theory of stance means to provide a general account of the mode of production of any stance and of its interpretation in a context of interaction.
- II. Posting on Flickr/Instagram is an act of stance-taking.
- III. The choice of language(s) is a key stance-marker.
- IV. Talk about self and others.

Question No. 2

True/ False

- I. Racism and anti-racism in educational practices can be studied under the light of CDA. True
- II. For example, the analysis of an inter-racial alliance between teacher education students contributes to a broadened view of CDA. True

- III. Racism and anti-racism cannot be studied under CDA. False

Question No. 3

Write three types of character? (ChatGPT ans.)

1. Photographer
2. Viewer
3. Commenter

Question No. 4

Name the kind of stance?

- Epistemic stance
- Alignment stance

Question No. 5

Fill in the blank with proper suitable word from the list: (covert, normal, backwardness, skin color, rationalization)

- I. One A common feature of both elite and everyday racism seems to be the increasingly covert ways in which it is reproduced.

- II. Keywords such as multiculturalism, diversity, or integration, that are constantly (re)articulated to deviate direct attention from skin color as a relevant marker
- III. In the post-racial era in which racism tends to be associated with individual prejudice, ignorance, and backwardness that result in direct manifestations of stereotypical beliefs about certain groups.
- IV. Indirect racism still draws on interest-serving legitimizations of what is normal, natural or better in a particular context.
- V. As Hill (2008: 46) puts it, covert forms of racism “do not provoke the exchange of accusations and rationalizations.”

Question No. 6

True/False

- I. Multimodal Analysis can also be important to analyze non-verbal communication such as tagging, likes, annotation, sharing, hyperlinks, etc. that need to be accounted for. True
- II. SM-CDS involves understanding the inter-discursive relation between online and offline. True
- III. SM-CDS argue distinct separation between online and offline words and does not consider their relation. False

- IV. According to KhosraviNik (2014), CMS research is foreground society over technology in explications. True
- V. KhosraviNik argues that SM-CDS should focus on technology rather than discourse. False

Question No.7

Fill in the Blanks (Gaze, maintained, affiliation)

- I. Alignment is achieved when interactants are cooperative in creating an interaction and must be continually maintained in a conservative
- II. Strivers (2008) distinguishes between alignment and affiliation where the latter involves displaying support for and endorsing the teller's Stance towards described events
- III. Charle's Goodwin's analyses of alignment often focuses on both the talk of participant's physical aspects of interaction, such as Gaze.