- If someone recites Alif, Laam, Meem, he will get a reward equal to thirty good deeds.

iii) Introduction to the exegesis (Tafasir) of the Holy Qur'an

- The Literal Meaning ofTafsir is to open something and explain it clearly.
- This is the science that deals with the meaning, nuances, wisdom rulings, and problems of the Quran.

- There are two types of Exegesis:

i) Tafsir bil Mathur:

The explanation of the verses of the Quran in the light of the narrations transmitted from the Holy Prophet (PBUH), the companions, and their successors (Tabi'een) to us. For example, Tafseer by Allama Muhammad bin Tafseer Tabari by Jarir Tabari, etc.

ii) Tafseer bil-Rai:

It is the Tafseer by a trustworthy and qualified person who interprets the Quran according to his understanding of the other verses of the Qur'an, hadiths, and sayings of the companions and lexicology e.g. tafseer al-Kashaf by Allama Zamakhshari .

- The following are the five main sources of the Exegesis of the Qur'an.

1) The Holy Qur'an itself.
2). Ahadith of the Prophet (PBUH)
3) The Sayings of the companions and their Followers
4) Arabic Language
5) Rules and Principles of Shari'ah.

ii) Verses and Surahs of the Holy Quran.

- The literal meaning of the verse is symbol or sign.
- The verses of the Qur'an are signs and symbols of the knowledge and wisdom of Allah
- The term "Ayat" refers to a sentence of the Holy Qur'an.
- Number of verses in the Holy Quran is 6236.
- A collection of more than two verses is called a surah (chapter), which are 114 in number.
- Meaning of the surah is elevation and exaltation
- Largest surah - Al-Baqarah, Shortest surah - Surah Al-Kawsar.
- The order according to which the Quran was revealed is called the order of descent.
- First revelation- first five verses of Surah Al-Alaq.
- Current arrangement of the Holy Qur'an is called Al-Tawqifi.
- Surat al-Fatihah at the beginning and Surat al-Nas at the end.

i) Introduction to Holy Quran

- The word Qur'an is derived from "Qira'at" means to read or derived from the word "Qara" which means to collect.

- " The Qur'an is the Word of Allah, which He revealed to Muhammad SAW in both word and meaning, which is preserved in Mushaf and has come down to us in a continuous manner".

- Allama Jalaluddin Sayyuti has written 55 attributes of Allah's Book derived from the Holy Qur'an in his famous book "Al-Attiqan fi Uloom al-Qur'an.

- Allah Almighty has mentioned many names in the Qur'an itself, Al-Qur'an, Al-Furqan, Al-Zikr, Al-Noor and Al-Kitab, (5 names).

Textual study of the Holy Qur'an

- Do not raise your voices above the voice of the Prophet SAW.
- It is narrated that the voice of Thabit bin Qais bin Shammas was naturally loud.
- Who lower their voices in the presence of Allah's Messenger (SAW), they are the ones whose hearts Allah has tested for Taqwa.
- Following the Quran and Sunnah in all matters is of utmost importance.
- Remembering Allah is a matter of importance.
- Speaking softly is a sign of etiquette, and the etiquette of the Prophet (PBUH) is a sign of piety
- Once Hazrat Umar RA heard two people speaking loudly in the Prophet's Mosque, he said that if you were from Medina, I would have punished you.
- In spite of the existence of the Book and the Sunnah, the person who insists on his own opinion is actually ignorant.
- And if two parties of the Muslims fight, make them reconcile.
- It is the duty of every Muslim to make peace between two warring Muslim parties.
- The truth is that (all) believers are brothers (to one another).

iii) Evolution of the exegesis (Tafasir) of the Holy Qur'an

- In beginning whenever there was a need for an explanation or confusion in the meaning of a verse, the Companions would come to the Holy Prophet's service and return after getting a satisfactory answer.
- The Companions tried to understand the Qur'an and acquire the knowledge of the Qur'an so that God's commandments can be well understood. The cousins of the Prophet Hazrat Abdullah bin Abbas and Hazrat Ali are among them. Apart from them, other Companions like Hazrat Ubai bin Ka'ab and Hazrat Zaid bin Thabit are particularly notable.
- After the demise of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) and the spread of Islam to far-flung areas, many companions migrated to Kufa, Basra and other areas and taught the Book of Allah.
- In order to spread and teach the Qur'an, they established circles of the Qur'an and thousands of people further passed on this knowledge to other people.
