Zoo503 Quiz-2

① Human arose ____ million years ago. (6-8)

② Lepidosaurs are ____ (Lizards)

③ Marsupials are included in ____ subclass of mamalia. (Metatheria)

④ Apes arose from the ____ (old world monkey)

⑤ After the late Triassic extinction a new group of ____ dinosaurs, some like plateosaurs (Herbivorous)

⑥ The basal vertebrate, lacked jaws probably evolved during the ____ (Ordovician)

⑦ Gorillas seem to have diverged first about ____ and the ancestors of human & chimps separated about ____ (10Ma, 8-6 Ma)

⑧ Since 1861 ____ more Archeopteryx skeletons have come to light (9)

⑨ Oldest known bird fossils was found in ____ sediments. (Upper Jurassic)

⑩ Monotremes are restricted to ____ (Australasia)

Scanned by CamScanner

(11) Plants moved onto land in the ____ (Ordovician & Silurian)

(12) Dinosaurs famously ruled the Earth for ____ of the Mesozoic replaced by the mamals. (160 Myr, 65a)

(13) The oldest substantial skeletons of pareanthropus aparensis lived approximately ____ ago. (3.2 Ma)

(14) Early bony fishes almost certainly had ____ (both lungs & gills)

(15) Truly modern human H. sapien may have arisen much as ____ certainly by ____ in Africa. (400000 year ago, 150000 year ago)

(16) A network of collagen fibers on which needle like crystal of hydroxyapatite (a form apatite $CaPO_4$) accumulate ____ (bone)

(17) The second major diapsid clade is ____ (Lepidosaurs)

(18) Trace fossil may be classified according to the which of the following of behaviour represented (all of given above)

Scanned by CamScanner

(19) The extraordinary diversity of tetrapod predators in the sea came to an end ___ (65 Ma)

(20) Sphenodon the fautara of ___ (New Zealand)

(21) Homo sapien means ___. (wise person)

(22) The membrane which encloses the embryo is called ___ (the amnion)

(23) ___ live in Africa from 2.4 to 1.5 Ma. (homo bilis)

(24) Archeopteryx is ___ fossils of ancient dinosaurs (Bird like)

(25) Proficient flyer diapsid were called ___ (Pterosaurs)

(26) In the createcous tertiary mass extintion which one of the following survived (Placentals)

(27) Synapsid rediated dramatically in the ___ as a new clade the thertapsida (Late Permian)

Sojhla Fatima

Scanned by CamScanner