

Virtual University Of Pakistan

Semester Fall 2023

LECTURE WISE NOTES:
Short Questions File & MCQ's File
0312-6968553

COURSE: PAK301

MCQ's File For Midterm

LECTURE # 01

What is ideology?

- A) A set of actions and practices
- B) A set of beliefs, values, and ideals
- C) A type of political party
- D) A legal document

What does ideology give to life and human action?

- A) Chaos
- B) Order and meaning
- C) Randomness
- D) Uncertainty

What does ideology emphasize?

- A) Cultural diversity
- B) Economic stability
- C) Specific principles and ideals
- D) Technological advancement

How does ideology affect consciousness?

- A) It has no impact on consciousness
- B) It creates consciousness based on its principles
- C) It eliminates consciousness

D) It confuses consciousness

What did the Constituent Assembly of Pakistan pass in March 1949?

- A) A resolution on foreign policy
- B) An economic reform plan
- C) The Objectives Resolution
- D) A constitution

Why did the Muslims of South Asia demand separate electorates?

- A) To promote Hindu-Muslim unity
- B) To increase their representation in government
- C) To maintain their individuality in Hindu society
- D) To create a secular state

What was the basis of Muslim nationhood in South Asia?

- A) Ethnicity
- B) Language
- C) Religion (Islam)
- D) Territory

When did the concept of Muslims as a nation develop in South Asia?

- A) During the British rule
- B) After the creation of Pakistan
- C) With the advent of Islam
- D) In the 19th century

Who was the first Muslim invader in India?

- A) Allama Iqbal
- B) Quaid-i-Azam
- C) Muhammad bin Qasim
- D) Mahmud of Ghazna

What motivated the Muslims of South Asia to declare a separate identity of nationalism?

- A) British support
- B) Hindu domination
- C) Economic opportunities
- D) Social equality

Who is known for the Aligarh Movement?

- A) Allama Iqbal
- B) Quaid-i-Azam
- C) Sir Syed Ahmad Khan

D) Muhammad bin Qasim

What role did the Indian National Congress play in Indian politics?

- A) It promoted Muslim rights
- B) It worked to overthrow the British
- C) It supported the British rule
- D) It advocated for Hindu-Muslim unity

Who founded the All-India Muslim League, and when?

- A) Sir Syed Ahmad Khan in 1857
- B) Quaid-i-Azam in 1947
- C) Allama Iqbal in 1930
- D) Founded in 1906

What concept served as the basis for the demand for Pakistan by the Muslims in British India?

- A) Hindu-Muslim unity
- B) Separation of powers
- C) The Two-Nation Theory
- D) Social equality

What was the outcome of the Hindi-Urdu Controversy?

- A) Hindi replaced Urdu as the official language
- B) Urdu remained the official language
- C) Hindi and Urdu were both adopted as official languages
- D) It had no impact on language use

What was one major reason for the development of Muslim separatism?

- A) Economic opportunities
- B) Sense of Muslim identity
- C) Religious conversion
- D) British rule

Which principles are enshrined in the Muslim nationalism mentioned in the text?

- A) Economic growth and prosperity
- B) Social inequality and discrimination
- C) Respect for human dignity and rights
- D) Promotion of a single culture

What did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan emphasize as the key to Muslim advancement?

- A) Political activism
- B) Economic development
- C) Modern education and non-political activities

D) Separatism from the British

What did the All-India Muslim League aim to protect and advance?

- A) Hindu interests
- B) British rule
- C) Political rights and interests of Muslims
- D) Economic opportunities for all

What did the Muslims of South Asia initially demand when seeking to protect their heritage and identity?

- A) A separate state
- B) Integration with Hindus
- C) Safeguards, constitutional guarantees, and federalism
- D) Economic subsidies

What major assault on Muslim heritage occurred after 1857?

- A) The War of Independence
- B) Hindi-Urdu Controversy
- C) Hindu-Muslim unity
- D) The British rule

What did Hindus demand in the Hindi-Urdu Controversy?

- A) Promotion of Urdu
- B) Replacement of Urdu by Hindi
- C) Preservation of both languages
- D) Elimination of both languages

In the context of Muslim nationalism, what does "Two-Nation Theory" refer to?

- A) The idea of having two political parties
- B) The belief in two separate nations: Hindus and Muslims
- C) A theory of economic development
- D) The promotion of religious unity

What principles are mentioned in the text as enshrined in the constitutions?

- A) Protection of a single culture
- B) Social inequality and discrimination
- C) Rule of Law, socio-economic justice, equity, and fair play
- D) Suppression of non-Muslim beliefs

What did the Muslims want to preserve and protect in India?

- A) Hindu traditions
- B) Hindu-Muslim unity
- C) Their distinct identity and heritage

D) British rule

What did the Muslims initially demand for the protection of their heritage and identity?

- A) A separate state
- B) Integration with Hindus
- C) Economic subsidies
- D) Safeguards, constitutional guarantees, and federalism

What did the Indian National Congress work for during British rule?

- A) Hindu-Muslim unity
- B) The overthrow of the British
- C) Muslim representation in government
- D) Economic prosperity

Who founded the All-India Muslim League and when was it founded?

- A) Allama Iqbal in 1930
- B) Quaid-i-Azam in 1947
- C) Sir Syed Ahmad Khan in 1857
- D) Founded in 1906

What concept served as the basis for the demand for Pakistan by the Muslims in British India?

- A) Hindu-Muslim unity
- B) Separation of powers
- C) The Two-Nation Theory
- D) Social equality

What was the outcome of the Hindi-Urdu Controversy?

- A) Hindi replaced Urdu as the official language
- B) Urdu remained the official language
- C) Hindi and Urdu were both adopted as official languages
- D) It had no impact on language use

What was one major reason for the development of Muslim separatism?

- A) Economic opportunities
- B) Sense of Muslim identity
- C) Religious conversion
- D) British rule

Which principles are enshrined in the Muslim nationalism mentioned in the text?

- A) Economic growth and prosperity
- B) Social inequality and discrimination

C) Respect for human dignity and rights

D) Promotion of a single culture

What did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan emphasize as the key to Muslim advancement?

A) Political activism

B) Economic development

C) Modern education and non-political activities

D) Separatism from the British

What did the All-India Muslim League aim to protect and advance?

A) Hindu interests

B) British rule

C) Political rights and interests of Muslims

D) Economic opportunities for all

What did the Muslims of South Asia initially demand when seeking to protect their heritage and identity?

A) A separate state

B) Integration with Hindus

C) Safeguards, constitutional guarantees, and federalism

D) Economic subsidies

LECTURE # 02

What role did Allama Iqbal envision for Islam in the lives of Muslims?

A) As a historical relic

B) As a divisive force

C) As a dynamic ideology

D) As a foreign import

What significant agreement was signed in 1929 as a response to the neglect of Muslim rights in the Nehru Report?

A) The Simla Accord

B) The Jinnah-Gandhi Pact

C) The Lucknow Agreement

D) Jinnah's 14 Points

In what year did Muhammad Ali Jinnah first use the term "nation" to describe the Muslims of India?

A) 1916

B) 1929

C) 1935

D) 1947

According to Muhammad Ali Jinnah, what combination of factors makes a minority a separate entity?

- A) Religion, culture, race, and art
- B) Language, literature, and history
- C) Legal laws and moral code

D) All of the above

What did Allama Iqbal criticize in Western culture in his poetry?

A) Materialism

- B) Secularism
- C) Democracy
- D) Colonialism

What did Allama Iqbal believe could help Muslims overcome their internal discord and meet external challenges?

- A) Western education
- B) Nationalism
- C) Islam with spiritualism
- D) Economic development

Which event marked Allama Iqbal's first public appearance in 1899, where he presented the poem "Nala-i-Yatim"?

- A) Indian National Congress Session
- B) Annual session of Anjuman Himayat-i-Islam
- C) The Lucknow Pact signing
- D) Nehru Report presentation

In what year did Allama Iqbal express his vision of a separate Muslim state at the Allahabad Session of the Muslim League?

- A) 1916
- B) 1929
- C) 1930
- D) 1940

What was the final destiny that Allama Iqbal expressed for the Muslims of Northwest India in his Allahabad address?

- A) Integration with Hindus
- B) A separate self-governing state
- C) Complete freedom from British rule
- D) Hindu-Muslim unity

What did Muhammad Ali Jinnah assure for the constitution of Pakistan in terms of religious minorities?

A) Equal rights and freedom of worship

B) Exclusion from political participation

C) Limited rights and representation

D) No mention of religious minorities

What was the main goal of Muslims in British India before considering a separate state?

A) Seeking British protection

B) Promoting Hindu-Muslim unity

C) Safeguarding their identity and interests

D) Pursuing complete freedom from British rule

Which pact, signed in 1916, accepted Muslim demands for separate electorates and minority rights?

A) The Lucknow Pact

B) The Delhi Agreement

C) The Simla Accord

D) The Jinnah-Gandhi Agreement

What term did Muhammad Ali Jinnah use to describe the Muslims of India, emphasizing their distinct cultural and civilizational identity?

A) Community

B) Minority

C) Nation

D) Ethnic group

According to Muhammad Ali Jinnah, what dynamic force could help the Muslims unite and overcome their challenges?

A) Economic development

B) Islam

C) Western culture

D) Political alliances

What did Allama Iqbal criticize about Western culture and society in his poetry?

A) Lack of spiritualism

B) Strong political leadership

C) Materialism

D) Hindu-Muslim unity

According to Allama Iqbal, what could help Muslims overcome internal discord and external challenges?

- A) Western education
- B) Political alliances
- C) Spiritualism based on Islam
- D) Military strength

In his address to the Muslim League Session in Allahabad in December 1930, what vision did Allama Iqbal express for the Muslims of Northwest India?

- A) Unity with Hindus
- B) Integration with British India
- C) A separate Muslim state
- D) Independence from British rule

What assurance did Muhammad Ali Jinnah give regarding the constitution of Pakistan?

- A) A theocratic state
- B) Democracy with equal rights for all citizens
- C) An autocratic regime
- D) Religious minorities excluded from participation

What force did Muhammad Ali Jinnah believe could unite the Muslims and provide ethical guidance?

- A) Capitalism
- B) Materialism
- C) Western culture
- D) Islam

What did Muhammad Ali Jinnah use to emphasize the distinct identity of Muslims and their role as a separate entity?

- A) Religion, culture, and race
- B) Language and literature
- C) History and tradition
- D) All of the above

LECTURE # 03

What was the primary cause of British animosity towards Muslims after the War of Independence 1857?

- a) The promotion of Indian culture
- b) The support of Muslims for British rule

c) The belief that Muslims were responsible for the war

d) The decline of Mughal influence

What change did the British make to the medium of instruction and official language in schools in 1835?

a) Introduced Arabic as the official language

b) Restricted the use of English

c) Promoted Urdu as the medium of instruction

d) Made English the only medium of instruction and official language

What was the consequence of Muslims being disinclined to make use of opportunities under the British regime?

a) The resurgence of Mughal rule

b) The decline of the British Empire

c) The progress and prosperity of Muslims

d) A potential disaster for the Muslim community

Which of the following individuals were associated with the Aligarh Movement alongside Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

a) Mahatma Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru

b) Nawab Mohsin ul Mulk and Hali

c) Raja Ram Mohan Roy and Dayananda Saraswati

d) Sir Isaac Newton and Charles Darwin

What were the two immediate objectives of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan when he started the Aligarh Movement?

a) Promote religious education and agitational politics

b) Create tension between Muslims and the British government

c) Remove the state of tension between Muslims and the British government and induce them to get jobs

d) Encourage the use of Arabic and Persian in education

What is the main reason behind Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's push for Muslims to learn Western education?

a) To maintain a medieval outlook

b) To promote agitational politics

c) To create a friendly atmosphere with the British government

d) To restore the Mughal Empire

What role did English professors like Bech, Morison, Raleigh, and Arnold play in the Aligarh Movement?

a) They promoted the use of Urdu as the medium of instruction.

b) They advocated for agitational politics.

c) They contributed to the development of Aligarh College.

d) They translated English works into Arabic and Persian.

Answer: c) They contributed to the development of Aligarh College.

In which year did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan establish the Scientific Society for the translation of English works into Urdu at Aligarh?

a) 1859

b) 1863

c) 1864

d) 1870

What organization met every year to take stock of the educational problems of Muslims and persuade them to get modern education?

a) The Indian National Congress

b) The Mohammedan Educational Conference

c) The Aligarh Institute Gazette

d) The All India Muslim League

What did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's writings aim to achieve regarding Islamic teachings?

a) Promote misunderstandings about Islam

b) Create a cordial relation between the British Government and Indian Muslims

c) Encourage the Urdu-Hindi controversy

d) Advocate for religious education

What did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan strongly forbid Muslims from doing in terms of politics?

a) Join the Indian National Congress

b) Promote the use of English in education

c) Advocate for religious education

d) Join the British government

What did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's writings aim to achieve regarding Islamic teachings?

a) Promote misunderstandings about Islam

b) Create a cordial relation between the British Government and Indian Muslims

c) Encourage the Urdu-Hindi controversy

d) Advocate for religious education

What did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan strongly forbid Muslims from doing in terms of politics?

a) Join the Indian National Congress

b) Promote the use of English in education

c) Advocate for religious education

d) Join the British government

What major objective of the Aligarh Movement did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan achieve?

- a) The revival of Mughal rule
- b) Boosting up the depressed Muslim community to the status of a nation
- c) Promoting agitational politics
- d) The restoration of Arabic as the official language

What major objective of the Aligarh Movement did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan achieve?

- a) The revival of Mughal rule
- b) Boosting up the depressed Muslim community to the status of a nation
- c) Promoting agitational politics
- d) The restoration of Arabic as the official language

What were the major objectives of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's Aligarh Movement?

- a) To promote agitational politics
- b) To encourage religious education
- c) To create a friendly atmosphere with the British government
- d) To motivate Muslims to learn Western education and abstain from agitational politics

What were the major objectives of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's Aligarh Movement?

- a) To promote agitational politics
- b) To encourage religious education
- c) To create a friendly atmosphere with the British government
- d) To motivate Muslims to learn Western education and abstain from agitational politics

Which educational institution was raised to the level of a college in 1877 and later to the level of a university in 1920?

- a) Gulshan School
- b) Victoria School
- c) Aligarh Institute Gazette
- d) Mohammedan Anglo-Oriental School (MAO)

What was the role of the Mohammedan Educational Conference in the context of the Aligarh Movement?

- a) To advocate for agitational politics
- b) To promote religious education
- c) To take stock of the educational problems of Muslims and persuade them to get modern education
- d) To create tension between Muslims and the British government

How did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's writings help create a cordial relation between the British Government and Indian Muslims?

- a) By promoting misunderstandings about Islam
- b) By advocating for agitational politics
- c) By removing misunderstandings about Islamic teachings
- d) By supporting the Urdu-Hindi controversy

LECTURE # 04

When was Sir Syed Ahmad Khan born?

- a) 1817
- b) 1857
- c) 1898
- d) 1920

What influenced Sir Syed's interest in English and Western learning?

- a) His family's involvement with the Mughal Empire
- b) His maternal family's association with the British government
- c) His father's career as a lawyer
- d) His education in a Western institution

What position did Sir Syed hold with the British in 1839?

- a) Judge
- b) Head Clerk
- c) Doctor
- d) Soldier

How did the events of the War of Independence in 1857 affect Sir Syed?

- a) They led him to join the British army.
- b) They strengthened his belief in the Mughal Empire.
- c) They changed his perspective on life and his community.
- d) They inspired him to promote religious education.

What were the major contributions of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

- a) Promoting agitational politics and religious education
- b) Guiding the Indian Muslims to rejoin life and politics
- c) Establishing the Mughal Empire and restoring its power
- d) Encouraging Hindus to win British favor

What did Sir Syed achieve in the political arena?

- a) He intensified misunderstandings between Muslims and the British.
- b) He helped Muslims regain control of India.
- c) He motivated Muslims to embrace modern education and coexist with other nations.
- d) He promoted agitational politics.

How did Sir Syed win the confidence of the British and establish a cordial relationship with them?

- a) By promoting misunderstandings about the British
- b) By helping the British in the War of Independence
- c) By advocating for agitational politics
- d) By promoting religious education

What was Sir Syed's view on British rule in India?

- a) He believed the British were uneducated and uncivilized.
- b) He thought the British should leave India immediately.
- c) He viewed the British as a civilized, educated, and disciplined nation.
- d) He considered the British rule as a disaster for India.

What publications did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan release to redress grievances and improve relations?

- a) Loyal Mohammedans of India and Risala Asbab-i-Baghawat-i-Hind
- b) Agitational Politics in India and Promoting Religious Education
- c) Encouraging Urdu-Hindi Controversy and Hindu-Muslim Unity
- d) Muslim Struggle for Independence and Indian National Congress

Why did Sir Syed warn Muslims against the Indian National Congress?

- a) He believed the Congress was supportive of Muslim interests.
- b) He wanted Muslims to join the Congress and promote unity.
- c) He foresaw sinister aspirations of the Hindus in the Congress.
- d) He thought the Congress would bring British rule to an end.

What controversy emerged in 1867 regarding language in India?

- a) Promotion of Persian language
- b) Promotion of Hindi over Urdu
- c) Promotion of Arabic language
- d) Promotion of English language

Who led the campaign to replace Urdu with Hindi?

- a) Sir Syed Ahmad Khan
- b) Benarsi Muslims
- c) Benarsi Hindus
- d) The British government

What did Sir Syed advocate for regarding the unity of Hindus and Muslims?

a) Complete integration into a single nation

- b) Separation into two distinct nations
- c) Promotion of regional languages
- d) Hindu dominance in politics

What organization did Sir Syed establish in 1888 to counter the propaganda of the Indian National Congress?

a) Muslim League

b) United Indian Patriotic Association

- c) All India Congress
- d) Indian National Association

In 1893, Sir Syed founded an association to protect the political, religious, and social rights of Muslims. What was it called?

a) Indian National Congress

b) All India Muslim League

c) Muhammadan Defense Association

d) United Indian Patriotic Association

LECTURE # 05

What event in 1857 marked the decline of Muslim rule in India?

A) Partition of Bengal

B) War of Independence

C) Aligarh Movement

D) Lucknow Pact

Who was held responsible for the rebellion in the aftermath of the 1857 War of Independence?

A) Only Muslims

B) Only Hindus

C) Both Muslims and Hindus

D) The British

What prominent association and movement aimed at reviving the self-identity and political positioning of Muslims in Indian society?

A) Indian National Congress

B) Central Mohammedan Association

C) Aligarh Movement

D) The Simla Deputation

What issue unveiled the animosity of the Hindu community towards Muslims?

A) Hindi-Urdu Controversy

B) Lucknow Pact

C) Simla Deputation

D) Partition of Bengal

What was the Congress's method for incorporating Muslims in Hinduism?

A) Partition of Bengal

B) Simla Deputation

C) Educational movement

D) Hindu Revivalist movements

What was the area and population of United Bengal before its partition in 1905?

A) 50,000 sq. miles with 40 million populations

B) 100,000 sq. miles with 60 million populations

C) 189,000 sq. miles with 80 million populations

D) 200,000 sq. miles with 100 million populations

What was the main reason for Hindu protest against the partition of Bengal in 1905?

A) To promote Muslim life conditions

B) They had loosened grip over the eastern parts

C) They supported the partition strongly

D) It was the division of the motherland

When was the partition of Bengal annulled by the British government?

A) December 1915

B) December 1911

C) August 1917

D) December 1907

What was the response of the British government to the violent strategy of protests adopted by Hindus against the partition annulment?

A) Sympathy towards Muslims

B) Disappointment of Muslims

C) Support for Hindu protests

D) Indifference

What was the Simla Deputation's purpose in 1906?

A) To present Muslim demands to the British government

- B) To unite Hindus and Muslims
- C) To promote English education
- D) To protest against the partition of Bengal

Who led the Simla Deputation in 1906?

- A) Sir Agha Khan
- B) Sir Syed
- C) Lord Curzon
- D) Mahatma Gandhi

What key demand did the Simla Deputation present to the Viceroy?

- A) Abolition of the partition of Bengal
- B) Full independence for India
- C) Separate electorate for Muslims
- D) Increased representation in the Imperial Legislative Council

When was the All India Muslim League formally established?

- A) 1905
- B) 1906
- C) 1907
- D) 1913

Who chaired the meeting that led to the establishment of the All India Muslim League?

- A) Sir Syed
- B) Sir Agha Khan
- C) Wiqar-ul-Mulk
- D) Mahatma Gandhi

What were the initial goals of the All India Muslim League?

- A) Promoting Hindu-Muslim unity
- B) Achieving complete independence from the British
- C) Protecting and promoting political rights and interests of Muslims
- D) Opposing British rule

In which year did the Muslim League change its goals?

- A) 1905
- B) 1906
- C) 1913
- D) 1916

What significant event led to a shift in the Muslim League's policy and goals?

- A) Partition of Bengal

B) Simla Deputation

C) Annulment of the Partition of Bengal

D) Demolition of the mosque in Kawnpur

What was the primary change in the goals of the Muslim League in 1913?

A) Striving for complete independence from the British

B) Promoting better relations with other communities

C) Establishing a separate Muslim state

D) Advocating non-cooperation with the British

Who played a significant role in bringing the Congress and the Muslim League closer?

A) Sir Syed

B) Sir Agha Khan

C) Quaid-i-Azam

D) Mahatma Gandhi

What did the Lucknow Pact of 1916 aim to achieve?

A) Hindu-Muslim separation

B) British rule in India

C) Muslim dominance in politics

D) Hindu-Muslim unity and constitutional reforms

Who played a pivotal role in envisioning Hindu-Muslim unity and the Lucknow Pact?

A) Mahatma Gandhi

B) Quaid-i-Azam

C) M. A. Jinnah

D) Lord Curzon

LECTURE # 06

What was the primary goal of the Khilafat Movement?

a) To gain independence from British rule

b) To protect the Ottoman Caliphate

c) To establish a Hindu-Muslim alliance

d) To demand territorial sovereignty for India

Why did concerns arise in India about the future of Turkey during World War I?

a) Turkey invaded India

b) Turkey sided with Germany in the war

- c) Turkey sought assistance from India
- d) Turkey was winning the war

When did the Khilafat Movement experience its peak period of demonstrations, boycotts, and pressure by Hindus and Muslims?

- a) 1919-1922
- b) 1920-1925
- c) 1914-1918
- d) 1922-1927

What role did the Indian Muslims attribute to the Ottoman Caliphate in the context of the Khilafat Movement?

- a) A symbol of Hindu-Muslim unity
- b) A symbol of unity for the Muslim world (Ummah)
- c) A symbol of British oppression
- d) A symbol of Indian independence

Which newspapers and magazines played a significant role in provoking sentiments for the preservation of Khilafat and the control of holy places?

- a) Times of India and The Hindu
- b) Zamindar, Comrade, and Hamdard
- c) The New York Times and The Guardian
- d) The Daily Mail and The Sun

What steps were announced by the Khilafat Committee in response to the injustice faced by the Muslim community?

- a) Celebration of victory
- b) Boycott of British goods
- c) Cooperation with the British government
- d) Support for the Rowlatt Act

What law in India granted the government authority to persecute Indians without legal assistance or the right to appeal?

- a) Jallianwala Bagh Act
- b) Jinnah's Act
- c) Rowlett Act
- d) Gandhi Act

What tragic incident occurred in Jallianwala Bagh in April 1919, leading to a large number of casualties?

- a) A stampede during a religious festival
- b) A peaceful protest against British rule
- c) A fire in a marketplace
- d) A British military open fire on a crowd

How did Ram Muhammad Singh Azad seek revenge for the Jallianwala Bagh massacre?

- a) By assassinating a British governor
- b) By leading a non-cooperation movement
- c) By organizing a peace conference
- d) By writing a book about the incident

Why did Jinnah oppose the non-cooperation movement and leave the Congress?

- a) He supported the use of extraconstitutional means of protest
- b) He disagreed with the goal of preserving the Khilafat
- c) He believed in cooperating with the British government
- d) He thought the movement was too peaceful

What were some of the elements of the non-cooperation movement in India?

- a) Embracing British goods and services
- b) Returning titles and boycotting courts
- c) Increasing taxes and supporting the government
- d) Expanding police and military jobs

What was the main focus of the Khilafat Conference held in Karachi in July 1921?

- a) Expressing loyalty to the British government
- b) Expressing loyalty to the Turkish Sultan
- c) Discussing the future of Indian politics
- d) Promoting Hindu-Muslim unity

What was the Hijrat Movement, which took place from 1920-21?

- a) A movement for Indian independence
- b) A movement to expel foreign forces from Turkey
- c) A migration of Indian Muslims to Darul Islam (Afghanistan)
- d) A movement led by Gandhi to promote peace

What does "Darul Harab" mean in the context of the Hijrat Movement?

- a) A term used for India
- b) A term used for Turkey
- c) A term used for Afghanistan
- d) A term used for a safe place for Muslims

Why did many Indian Muslims migrate to Afghanistan during the Hijrat Movement?

- a) They wanted to escape British rule
- b) They believed the King of Afghanistan would welcome them

- c) They were seeking better economic opportunities
- d) They were forced to leave India by the British government

What event in India caused a clash between Moplahs and the police and Hindus, embittering Hindu-Muslim relations?

- a) The Jallianwala Bagh massacre
- b) The Chorachori Incident
- c) The Rowlett Act
- d) The Quit India Movement

Why did Gandhi call off the Non-Cooperation Movement in February 1922?

- a) Due to successful negotiations with the British government
- b) To end the violence that had escalated
- c) To pursue a different strategy for Indian independence
- d) To focus on the Khilafat Movement

Who emerged as a national leader in Turkey in 1922 and restricted the powers of the Sultan?

- a) Gandhi
- b) Nehru
- c) Attaturk
- d) Jinnah

In what year was the Khilafat abolished in Turkey?

- a) 1920
- b) 1922
- c) 1924
- d) 1926

What was one of the conclusions drawn from the Khilafat Movement?

- a) Religion has no mobilizing capacity
- b) Extra-territorialism is the key to success
- c) Hindu-Muslim unity is a lasting phenomenon
- d) It led to the reactivation of the Indian National Congress

What term describes the mobilization capacity of Islam in organizing masses?

- a) Secularism
- b) Extra-territorialism
- c) Pan-Islamism
- d) Communalism

How did the Khilafat Movement impact the suffering of the Muslim community?

- a) It alleviated their suffering

- b) It had no effect on their suffering
- c) It resulted in increased suffering
- d) It led to their migration to Europe

What impact did the Khilafat Movement have on Hindu-Muslim unity?

- a) It strengthened unity
- b) It had no effect on unity
- c) It led to a lasting unity
- d) It proved short-lived

What was the effect of the Khilafat Movement on the Muslim League and other Muslim organizations?

- a) It led to their dissolution
- b) It had no effect on their activities
- c) It reactivated them to restart their activities as a separate nation
- d) It united them with the Indian National Congress

LECTURE # 07

What event brought Hindu-Muslim communities into cooperation and prompted efforts to prepare constitutional proposals in British India?

- a) Jallianwala Bagh massacre
- b) Khilafat Movement
- c) Simon Commission
- d) Quit India Movement

What were the major demands of the Delhi Muslim Proposals of March 1927?

- a) No separate electorate
- b) Statutory Muslim majorities in Punjab and Bengal
- c) Reservation of seats for Muslims in Central Assembly
- d) Hindu-Muslim unity

Which Muslim leader opposed Jinnah on the issues of separate electorate and the attitude towards the Simon Commission?

- a) Maulana M. A. Jauhar
- b) Sir Muhammad Shafi
- c) Jawaharlal Nehru
- d) Mahatma Gandhi

What recommendations of the Nehru Report threatened Muslim interests?

- a) Reservation of seats for Muslims in Punjab and Bengal

- b) Separate electorate for Muslims
- c) No separate electorate
- d) Sind to be made a separate province

What did Jinnah refer to as the "parting of the ways" in response to the Nehru Report?

- a) The formation of the Muslim League
- b) The acceptance of the Nehru Report
- c) His presentation of the 14 points
- d) The failure to reach an agreement

What did Jinnah's Fourteen Points reflect?

- a) The aspirations of every Indian
- b) The aspirations of the Congress
- c) The aspirations of the Muslim community in India
- d) The aspirations of the British government

What was the main objective of the Simon Commission in India?

- a) To seek Indian opinion on future constitutional arrangements
- b) To establish a new political party
- c) To enforce British rule in India
- d) To conduct a census

Which of the following was NOT one of the proposals presented by the Simon Commission?

- a) Federal system of government with a strong center
- b) Abolition of Dyarchy system in provinces
- c) More powers to provincial governments
- d) Introduction of separate electorates

What were the key issues emphasized by prominent Muslims like Jinnah and Sir Shafi in the first Round Table Conference?

- a) Religious freedom and communal harmony
- b) Federalism, self-government, safeguards for minorities
- c) Support for the Simon Commission
- d) Abolition of separate electorates

What was the Communal Award announced by Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald in August 1932?

- a) A religious festival
- b) A new constitutional proposal
- c) A pact between Hindus and Muslims
- d) A statement of support for the Simon Commission

What reaction did the Congress express against the right of separate electorate for Indian minorities, especially low caste Hindus?

- a) Support and agreement
- b) Opposition and disapproval
- c) A call for complete independence
- d) A hunger strike

What did the Poona Pact involve?

- a) A pact between India and Britain
- b) Surrender of the separate electorate right by low caste Hindus
- c) The end of the Round Table Conferences
- d) The formation of a new political party

Who did NOT participate in the 3rd Round Table Conference in 1932?

- a) Quaid-i-Azam
- b) Mahatma Gandhi
- c) Sir Shafi
- d) All of the above participated

What did the White Paper on Constitutional Proposals issued in March 1933 detail?

- a) The working basis of the Indian constitution
- b) The biography of prominent leaders
- c) The results of the Round Table Conferences
- d) The history of British rule in India

When was the Government of India Act, 1935 approved by the King?

- a) August 1935
- b) December 1930
- c) March 1933
- d) October 1932

What was the key issue that remained unchanged despite various efforts in British India?

- a) Hindu-Muslim Relations
- b) The success of the Simon Commission
- c) Muslim demands for complete independence
- d) The British government's control over India

What is the significance of Allama Iqbal in history?

- a) He was a British politician
- b) He was a prominent Muslim intellectual
- c) He was a military leader
- d) He was a scientist

In which year did Allama Iqbal deliver his Presidential Address?

- a) 1930
- b) 1857
- c) 1905
- d) 1922

What key issue remained crucial to Muslims in British India?

- a) Territorial nationalism
 - b) Economic development
 - c) Religious diversity
 - d) Separate identity
- Answer: d) Separate identity

What theory did Muslims advocate to assert their separate identity?

- a) Territorial nationalism
- b) Two Nations theory
- c) Religious assimilation
- d) Cultural unity

What was the major obstacle to the acceptance of the Two Nations theory?

- a) Hindu support
- b) British support
- c) Territorial nationalism
- d) Lack of Muslim intellectuals

Where did Iqbal stay in Europe from 1905 to 1908?

- a) London
- b) Paris
- c) Berlin
- d) Brussels

What did Iqbal emphasize as the ideal leader for Muslims to follow?

- a) A political leader
- b) The Holy Prophet (PBUH)
- c) A philosopher
- d) A foreign leader

What did Iqbal seek salvation through?

- a) Nationalism
- b) Islam
- c) Western education
- d) Secularism

When was the title of "Sir" conferred upon Iqbal?

- a) 1930
- b) 1922
- c) 1908
- d) 1910

Where did Iqbal deliver lectures on Islam in 1928-29?

- a) Delhi
- b) Lahore
- c) Aligarh, Hyderabad, and Madras
- d) London

In which city did Iqbal deliver his famous address in December 1930?

- a) Delhi
- b) Lahore
- c) Allahabad
- d) Mumbai

What did Iqbal evaluate in his Allahabad Address?

- a) The political and social situation of Europe
- b) The importance of Hindu culture
- c) The role of Islam in the lives of Indian Muslims
- d) The decline of British influence in India

According to Iqbal, why did the European view of duality of religion and state not apply to Indian society?

- a) Because Europeans understood Indian culture
- b) Because Indians followed a secular approach
- c) Because religion in India was a personal affair
- d) Because religion in India had a socio-political role

What did Iqbal suggest as a solution to the communal question in India?

- a) Territorial nationalism
- b) Religious assimilation
- c) Territorial redistribution based on religion
- d) Secularism

Which regions did Iqbal suggest be amalgamated into a self-governing state within or outside the British Empire?

a) Punjab, NWFP, Sind, and Balochistan

b) Delhi, Agra, and Jaipur

c) Madras, Hyderabad, and Bombay

d) Bengal, Assam, and Odisha

According to Iqbal, what would a consolidated North Western Muslim state offer to India?

a) Economic prosperity

b) Cultural diversity

c) Peace and security due to internal balance of power

d) A stronger British presence

What did Iqbal consider Islam to be in India?

a) A cultural relic

b) A static religion

c) A living, dynamic force

d) A minority religion

Why were the Muslims not willing to submerge their religious individuality?

a) Fear of British domination

b) Lack of a strong leader

c) Lack of trust and fear of Hindu domination

d) Lack of a distinct culture

According to Iqbal, what was the historical reality of India?

a) A continent inhabited by diverse people

b) A homogenous nation

c) A land without culture

d) A British colony

What did Iqbal propose as a need of the time regarding territorial redistribution?

a) The creation of more provinces

b) The formation of a single nation

c) The amalgamation of India and Pakistan

d) Territorial redistribution based on religion

What did Iqbal advocate regarding the development of Shariah?

a) It could develop within a secular state

b) It was impossible without a free Muslim state

c) It needed Western influence

d) It was irrelevant in modern times

What did Iqbal advise Muslims to prioritize above self-interest?

- a) Economic development
- b) Political power
- c) Patriotism
- d) Islam

What, according to Iqbal, has saved the Muslims in difficult times?

- a) Economic prosperity
- b) Political alliances
- c) Islam
- d) Western education

What did Iqbal emphasize as more important than patriotism?

- a) Faith, culture, and historical traditions
- b) Political power
- c) Territorial expansion
- d) Economic development

What is the main focus of Allama Iqbal's Allahabad Address?

- a) The economic development of Muslims
- b) The cultural assimilation of Muslims
- c) The political future of Muslims in British India
- d) The unity of all Indian religious groups

In Iqbal's vision, what was the key element of Islam in India?

- a) A static religion
- b) A cultural artifact
- c) A living, dynamic force
- d) A personal belief

According to Iqbal, what is the major obstacle to internal harmony in India?

- a) British rule
- b) Lack of education
- c) Fear of domination from Hindus
- d) Economic disparities

What does Iqbal propose to resolve the communal question?

- a) Territorial redistribution based on language
- b) Territorial redistribution based on ethnicity
- c) Territorial redistribution based on religion
- d) Assimilation of communities

What regions did Iqbal suggest be amalgamated into a single self-governing state?

- a) Delhi, Agra, and Jaipur
- b) Punjab, NWFP, Sind, and Balochistan
- c) Madras, Hyderabad, and Bombay
- d) Bengal, Assam, and Odisha

What is the expected outcome of the formation of a consolidated North Western Muslim state, according to Iqbal?

- a) Economic development
- b) Religious conflict
- c) Peace and security due to an internal balance of power
- d) Cultural diversity

How does Iqbal view the impact of Islam on the lives of Indian Muslims?

- a) As irrelevant to their daily lives
- b) As a static and unchanging force
- c) As a dynamic and influential force
- d) As a personal belief

Why were Muslims not willing to submerge their religious individuality, according to Iqbal?

- a) Lack of cultural diversity
- b) Fear of British domination
- c) Lack of trust and fear of Hindu domination
- d) Lack of religious belief

What is the historical reality of India, as per Iqbal?

- a) A homogeneous nation
- b) A land without culture
- c) A British colony
- d) A continent inhabited by diverse people

According to Iqbal, what is the need of the time regarding territorial redistribution?

- a) The creation of more provinces
- b) The formation of a single nation
- c) The amalgamation of India and Pakistan
- d) Territorial redistribution based on religion

What did Iqbal emphasize as more important than patriotism?

- a) Faith, culture, and historical traditions
- b) Political power
- c) Territorial expansion
- d) Economic development

LECTURE # 09

Who is credited with coining the name "PAKISTAN" for the Muslim state?

- a) Allama Iqbal
- b) Muhammad Ali Jinnah
- c) Chaudhry Rahmat Ali
- d) Liaquat Ali Khan

What significant contribution did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali make to the movement for the establishment of Pakistan?

- a) He served as Pakistan's first Prime Minister
- b) He drafted the Lahore Resolution
- c) He outlined proposals for the partition of India for the sake of Muslims
- d) He led the All-India Muslim League

In what year did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali first present his proposal for a Muslim state with the name "PAKISTAN"?

- a) 1947
- b) 1933
- c) 1951
- d) 1940

Where did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali go for higher education?

- a) Aligarh Muslim University
- b) Oxford University
- c) Cambridge University
- d) Harvard University

What is the full form of "PAKISTAN" as proposed by Chaudhry Rahmat Ali?

- a) Punjab, Afghanistan, Kashmir, Sind, Tamil Nadu
- b) Punjab, Afghanistan, Khyber, Sind, Tibet, and Nepal
- c) Punjab, Afghanistan, Kashmir, Sind, and Balochistan
- d) Punjab, Arabia, Karachi, Sindh, Turkey, and Afghanistan

According to Chaudhry Rahmat Ali, what was the conflict between Muslims and Hindus primarily about?

- a) Economic resources
- b) Religious differences
- c) Sectarian disputes
- d) International survival and domination

When did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali establish the Pakistan National Movement?

- a) 1947
- b) 1933
- c) 1951
- d) 1940

Which regions did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali suggest as separate Muslim states besides Pakistan?

- a) Hyderabad and Bengal
- b) Punjab and Sindh
- c) Assam and Deccan
- d) Tamil Nadu and Nepal

When did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali visit Pakistan?

- a) 1948
- b) 1951
- c) 1933
- d) 1940

What was Chaudhry Rahmat Ali's primary argument for the creation of Pakistan?

- a) Economic prosperity
- b) Preservation of Islamic culture
- c) Geographical separation from India
- d) Integration with other South Asian nations

What important role did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali play in the history of Pakistan's formation?

- a) He was the first President of Pakistan
- b) He drafted the Lahore Resolution
- c) He coined the name "PAKISTAN"
- d) He was a prominent leader in the Pakistan Movement

Where was Chaudhry Rahmat Ali born?

- a) Karachi
- b) Lahore
- c) Hoshiarpur district
- d) Islamabad

What was Chaudhry Rahmat Ali's educational background?

- a) He had no formal education
- b) He studied in the USA

c) He completed his B.A. from Islamia College, Lahore

d) He earned a PhD in political science

What role did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali play during his student days at Cambridge University?

a) He was not actively involved in any activities

b) He advocated for the protection of Indian Muslims' rights

c) He joined a political party in the UK

d) He focused on his academic studies

In which publication did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali first propose the name "PAKISTAN"?

a) Pakistan Gazette

b) Pakistan Times

c) NOW OR NEVER

d) Lahore Resolution

What did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali propose as the solution to the Hindu-Muslim conflict?

a) Economic cooperation

b) Religious dialogue

c) Territorial separation

d) Cultural assimilation

Which regions did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali propose as separate states apart from Pakistan?

a) Bengal and Assam

b) Punjab and Sindh

c) Khyber and Tibet

d) Arabia and Turkey

What did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali suggest for the future of Muslims and Islam in South Asia?

a) Integration with other South Asian nations

b) Preservation of Indianism

c) Maintenance of a separate Muslim state

d) Dominance over other nations

How did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali contribute to the political landscape of South Asia?

a) He was a political leader in India

b) He was a founding member of the Indian National Congress

c) He coined the name "PAKISTAN" and proposed the idea of a separate Muslim state

d) He was a prominent British politician

When was Chaudhry Rahmat Ali's Pakistan National Movement established?

a) 1933

b) 1951

c) 1940

d) 1948

What is the primary basis for Chaudhry Rahmat Ali's proposal of territorial separation?

a) Economic prosperity

b) Cultural assimilation

c) Preservation of religious identity

d) International cooperation

In which year did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali pass away?

a) 1951

b) 1940

c) 1933

d) 1948

What is the full form of "PAKISTAN" as proposed by Chaudhry Rahmat Ali?

a) Punjab, Afghanistan, Khyber, Sind, Tamil Nadu

b) Punjab, Arabia, Karachi, Sindh, Turkey, and Afghanistan

c) Punjab, Afghanistan, Kashmir, Sind, and Balochistan

d) Punjab, Afghanistan, Kashmir, Sind, Tamil Nadu

According to Chaudhry Rahmat Ali, what was the nature of the conflict between Muslims and Hindus?

a) Sectarian and religious

b) Cultural and economic

c) Political and territorial

d) International and about survival Answer: d) International and about survival

What key role did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali play in the history of Pakistan's formation?

a) He was the first President of Pakistan

b) He drafted the Lahore Resolution

c) He coined the name "PAKISTAN"

d) He led the All-India Muslim League

LECTURE # 10

What did the Government of India Act, 1935 introduce in the country?

- a) A fully-fledged government
- b) Provincial part only
- c) A federal government
- d) A new constitution

Who contested the 1937 elections in British India?

- a) Only the Congress
- b) Both the Muslim League and Congress
- c) Only the Muslim League
- d) Various political parties

Which political party projected itself as an all-India force representing all religions and factions during the 1937 elections?

- a) Muslim League
- b) Congress
- c) Communist Party
- d) Hindu Mahasabha

In the 1937 elections, which provinces did the Congress win with majorities?

- a) Punjab and NWFP
- b) Bombay and Delhi
- c) Madras, U.P., C.P., Bihar, and Orissa
- d) Bengal, Punjab, NWFP, and Sind

What was the primary reason for the Muslim League's poor performance in the 1937 elections?

- a) Lack of support from the British
- b) Strong competition from other Muslim organizations
- c) Organizational problems and opposition by local Muslim groups
- d) Lack of funding

When did the Congress form governments in 6 provinces?

- a) February 1937
- b) July 1937
- c) December 1939
- d) November 1935

What conditions did the Congress impose on the Muslim League in exchange for support in the U.P.?

- a) Dissolve AIML Parliamentary Board

- b) AIML members to express allegiance to the Congress
- c) AIML members not to function as a separate group
- d) Dissolve the Muslim League entirely

What was the primary goal of the Congress in its policies towards Muslims in the provincial governments?

- a) Inclusion of Muslims in government positions
- b) Promoting religious unity
- c) Excluding the Muslim League from government processes
- d) Protecting Muslim culture and heritage

What movement did the Congress launch to defame the Muslim League?

- a) Hindu Mass Contact
- b) Muslim Cultural Revival
- c) Secularization Movement
- d) Indian Unity Campaign

What was the main focus of the Congress's cultural and educational policies?

- a) Promotion of Hindu culture and symbols
- b) Preservation of diverse cultural heritage
- c) Embrace of Muslim culture
- d) Expansion of British colonial culture

What anthem did the Congress introduce in institutions and offices as part of its cultural policies?

- a) Jana Gana Mana
- b) Vande Mataram
- c) Saare Jahan Se Achha
- d) Jai Hind

What language was given topmost importance in the Congress's policies?

- a) Urdu
- b) Hindi
- c) English
- d) Punjabi

What was the objective of the Wardha Educational Scheme?

- a) Promotion of Islamic education
- b) Conversion of Muslims into Hindus
- c) Preservation of indigenous languages
- d) Enhancement of Urdu literature

According to the provided information, what did Chaudhry Rahmat Ali primarily focus on during his political activities?

- a) Promoting Muslim unity
- b) Advocating for communal violence
- c) Encouraging religious dialogue
- d) Fostering cultural exchange

What did the Pirpur Report, published in November 1938, focus on?

- a) The role of the Muslim League in British India
- b) The challenges faced by the Congress in the elections
- c) The cruelties of the Congress ministries in seven provinces
- d) The success of the Hindu Mahasabha in the elections

What was the main objective of the Sharif Report, published in March 1939?

- a) To investigate the Muslim League's organizational weaknesses
- b) To focus on the ill treatment of Muslims in Bihar
- c) To document the success of the Congress ministries
- d) To analyze the economic policies of the government

What did the Fazl-ul-Haq Report reveal regarding the Congress government's treatment of Muslims?

- a) Support for Muslim cultural preservation
- b) Protection of religious rights
- c) Unjust treatment and discrimination
- d) Promotion of Hindu-Muslim unity

How did the Muslim League respond to the Congress's policies towards Muslims?

- a) They supported the Congress's initiatives
- b) They cooperated with the Congress in government
- c) They highlighted the issues and mobilized Muslims
- d) They endorsed the Congress's cultural policies

When did the Muslims observe the "Day of Deliverance"?

- a) November 1935
- b) July 1937
- c) December 22, 1939
- d) September 1939

How did the Muslim League redefine its position during World War II?

- a) They supported the Congress ministries
- b) They expressed their enthusiasm for the Congress's policies
- c) They maintained their position without any changes
- d) They emphasized the need for Muslim consent in any future constitution

What was the primary impact of the Second World War on the Congress ministries in November 1939?

- a) The Congress ministries expanded their powers
- b) The Congress ministries intensified their anti-Muslim policies
- c) The Congress ministries resigned
- d) The Congress ministries joined the Muslim League

What were the main issues that Muslim leaders shed light on during the Lucknow session in October 1937?

- a) Hindu-Muslim unity
- b) Congress's cultural policies
- c) Reduction of status of Urdu and other Muslim-related issues
- d) The Congress's support for the Muslim League

What was the primary goal of the Muslim League in redefining its position during World War II?

- a) To join the Congress ministries
- b) To maintain their previous policies
- c) To demand a separate Muslim state
- d) To emphasize the need for Muslim consent in any future constitution

LECTURE # 11

What compelled the Muslims to launch a movement for a separate homeland in British India?

- a) British colonial rule
- b) Hindu-Muslim unity
- c) Congress Rule
- d) Economic disparities

Why were the Muslims disappointed with the Congress leadership?

- a) Lack of representation in the Congress
- b) Discriminatory economic policies
- c) Hindu government's potential anti-Muslim rule
- d) The Congress's alliance with the Muslim League

What did Quaid-i-Azam state in his article in Time and Tide regarding the Muslims?

- a) Muslims are a religious community
- b) Muslims are not a nation
- c) Muslims are a nation

d) Muslims should assimilate with Hindus

When did Quaid-i-Azam make the comments regarding the demand for the division of India if a satisfactory settlement for Muslims could not be found?

a) March 23, 1939

b) March 13, 1940

c) August 22, 1942

d) November 24, 1945

What was the primary purpose of the Lahore Resolution of 1940?

a) To establish the concept of a united India

b) To demand a separate Muslim state

c) To seek more representation for Muslims in government

d) To promote religious harmony

Who moved the Lahore Resolution at the Muslim League's annual session in Lahore in 1940?

a) Quaid-i-Azam

b) Allama Iqbal

c) Maulvi Fazlul Haq

d) Ch. Khaliquzzaman

What did Jinnah say about the Indian problem in his remarks regarding the Lahore Resolution?

a) It is a communal issue

b) It is a purely domestic concern

c) It is not communal but international

d) It is a territorial dispute

According to the Lahore Resolution, why was the Federal system under the Government of India Act, 1935 not acceptable to Muslims?

a) It favored the Muslims too much

b) It was based on Islamic principles

c) It did not provide sufficient representation for Muslims

d) It was designed to exclude Muslims from power

What did the Lahore Resolution state about the adjacent units where Muslims were in the majority?

a) They should be absorbed into Hindu-majority provinces

b) They should be left as independent states

c) They should be integrated into a single Muslim state

d) They should remain autonomous and sovereign

What term did the Lahore Resolution use to describe the formation of Muslim states?

- a) Districts
- b) Territories
- c) Regions
- d) Independent States

Which significant word was not used in the Lahore Resolution but was implicit in its message?

- a) Partition
- b) Autonomy
- c) Unity
- d) Pakistan

What event signaled the beginning of World War II in 1939?

- a) The publication of the Lahore Resolution
- b) The offer by the British for Indian cooperation in the war
- c) The Quit India Movement
- d) The Cripps Mission

What offer did the British announce in August 1940 to seek Indian cooperation for the war?

- a) Granting complete independence to India
- b) Expansion of the Viceroy's Executive Council and the setting up of National Defense Council
- c) Establishment of a separate Muslim state
- d) Division of India into multiple countries

What was the primary response of the Congress to the British offer in August 1940?

- a) They accepted the offer immediately
- b) They intensified their cooperation with the British
- c) They started the Non-Cooperation movement
- d) They demanded a separate state for Hindus

What was the reaction of the Muslim League to the British offer in August 1940?

- a) They embraced the offer wholeheartedly
- b) They demanded a separate Muslim state
- c) They joined the Quit India Movement
- d) They insisted on unity with Hindus

What did the Quit India Movement lead to in August 1942?

- a) British victory in India
- b) Hindu-Muslim unity

- c) The partition of India
- d) The slogan "Divide and Quit India"

What did M.K. Gandhi emphasize during the Gandhi-Jinnah Talks in September 1944?

- a) The need for immediate division of India
- b) The concept of two nations in India
- c) The importance of Hindu-Muslim unity
- d) The importance of a united India

How did Jinnah respond to Gandhi's emphasis on a united India during the talks?

- a) He agreed to abandon the demand for a separate state
- b) He reiterated the Muslims' ideological and constitutional demand
- c) He embraced the idea of a united India
- d) He demanded a separate state for Muslims

LECTURE # 12

What did the British seek from India during World War II?

- A) Military cooperation
- B) Financial aid
- C) Cultural exchange
- D) Religious harmony

Who arranged the Simla Conference in June-July 1945?

- A) Lord Wavell
- B) Mahatma Gandhi
- C) Jawaharlal Nehru
- D) Lord Mountbatten

Who represented the Muslim League at the Simla Conference?

- A) Jawaharlal Nehru
- B) Mahatma Gandhi
- C) Muhammad Ali Jinnah
- D) Maulana Abul Kalam Azad

What did Jinnah believe about the Muslim League's role in representing Indian Muslims?

- A) It should cooperate with the Congress
- B) It was the sole political party of Indian Muslims

- C) It had no role in Indian politics
- D) It represented only the elite Muslims

What was the primary focus of the Muslim League's political campaign during the 1945-46 elections?

- A) Promoting unity among Indian communities
- B) Advocating for independence from British rule
- C) Emphasizing the goal of Pakistan
- D) Encouraging cooperation with the Congress

What slogan did the Congress use during the 1945-46 elections?

- A) Independence from British rule
- B) Unity among Indian communities
- C) Promotion of religious diversity
- D) Support for the Muslim League

How many Muslim seats did the Muslim League win in the Central Legislature elections held in December 1945?

- A) 10
- B) 20
- C) 30
- D) 40

In the provincial elections of February 1946, which province saw the Muslim League win the most Muslim seats?

- A) Punjab
- B) Bengal
- C) Sindh
- D) NWFP

Which political leader headed the Khudai Khidmatgar in NWFP after the provincial elections?

- A) Muhammad Ali Jinnah
- B) Jawaharlal Nehru
- C) Dr. Khan
- D) Mahatma Gandhi

What was the primary objective of the Cabinet Mission sent by the British Labour government in March 1946?

- A) To suppress political movements in India
- B) To promote religious harmony in India
- C) To formulate an acceptable constitutional settlement
- D) To establish British rule in India

What did the Muslim League reiterate during the Delhi Convention on April 19, 1946?

- A) Their support for a united India
- B) Their demand for a strong central government
- C) Their commitment to shatter the Hindu dream of united India
- D) Their acceptance of the Cabinet Mission Plan

What did the Muslim League wish for in the second Simla Conference in May 1946?

- A) Strong central government
- B) Two legislative assemblies
- C) A united India
- D) Hindu-Muslim unity

What was the key recommendation of the Cabinet Mission Plan in May 1946?

- A) Formation of multiple nations in India
- B) Establishment of a strong central government
- C) Creation of an Indian Union with provinces and princely states
- D) Immediate independence for India

How many groups were created for the provinces in the Cabinet Mission Plan?

- A) 1
- B) 2
- C) 3
- D) 4

What could a province or group do after ten years, according to the Cabinet Mission Plan?

- A) Seek assistance from the British government
- B) Request a review of its relationship with the Union
- C) Choose to remain part of India
- D) Join the Muslim League

How was the Constituent Assembly (CA) elected in July 1946?

- A) By direct popular vote
- B) By the British government
- C) By provincial assemblies
- D) By religious leaders

Why did the Muslim League boycott the first session of the Constituent Assembly on December 9, 1946?

- A) They were not interested in the constitution-making process
- B) They demanded two constituent assemblies

- C) They fully supported the Congress's views
- D) They wanted to frame the Constitution for a united India

What became clear by the end of 1946 regarding the constitution for united India?

- A) It could be easily forced
- B) It was fully supported by the Congress
- C) It was rejected by the Muslim League
- D) It could not be forced

LECTURE # 13

Why did the Muslim League decide to launch 'Direct Action' in 1946?

- A) To promote religious unity
- B) To confront the British government
- C) To oust the Congress from power
- D) To seek assistance from the British

What was the main objective of Direct Action Day on August 16, 1946?

- A) To promote peace and harmony
- B) To celebrate India's independence
- C) To protest against British policy of injustice
- D) To demand a strong central government

What event convinced Lord Wavell to bridge the gap between the Muslim League and the Congress?

- A) Direct Action Day
- B) Calcutta massacre
- C) The formation of the Interim Government
- D) The declaration of independence

Why was it imperative to coordinate the Muslim League and the Congress?

- A) To create a united front against the British
- B) To strengthen the Hindu-Muslim alliance
- C) To suppress the Direct Action movement
- D) To divide India into multiple regions

Who requested Jinnah to join the Interim Government, and when did he accept?

- A) Mahatma Gandhi; August 15, 1946
- B) Lord Wavell; October 25, 1946

- C) Jawaharlal Nehru; December 9, 1946
- D) Winston Churchill; March 2, 1947

What did the Muslim League protest in Punjab in February 1947?

- A) The formation of the Interim Government
- B) The British government's policies
- C) The imposition of Governor's rule
- D) The conspiracy to oust the Muslims

Who launched a movement against the ejection of Muslim peasants in Assam?

- A) Mahatma Gandhi
- B) Jawaharlal Nehru
- C) Lord Mountbatten
- D) Maulana Bhashani

What announcement did Prime Minister Attlee make on February 20, 1947?

- A) The British government would continue to rule India indefinitely
- B) By June 1948, all power would be given to representatives
- C) India would be divided into multiple regions
- D) The British government would retain power over foreign affairs

Who was appointed as the new Viceroy of India in March 1947?

- A) Lord Wavell
- B) Lord Mountbatten
- C) Mahatma Gandhi
- D) Jawaharlal Nehru

What was the primary objective of Lord Mountbatten's appointment as Viceroy?

- A) To strengthen British rule in India
- B) To organize a dialogue with Indian leaders
- C) To wind up British rule in India
- D) To impose a new constitution on India

What were the key provisions of the 3rd June Plan?

- A) Imposition of a constitution on India by the British
- B) Formation of a Constituent Assembly by the British
- C) A constitution framed by the Constituent Assembly
- D) A separate constitution for each Indian state

According to the 3rd June Plan, what would happen to areas that did not accept the constitution?

- A) They would be forcibly included
- B) They would be given time to consider it

- C) They would be left without governance
- D) They would be allowed to secede

How were the Punjab and Bengal Assemblies supposed to decide on partition according to the 3rd June Plan?

- A) By a direct referendum
- B) By a majority vote in each Assembly
- C) By the decision of the British government
- D) By a decision from the United Nations

How was the future of Sind determined in the 3rd June Plan?

- A) By a direct referendum
- B) By a majority vote in the Constituent Assembly
- C) By the Viceroy's decision
- D) By a vote from the United Nations

How was the future of Balochistan decided according to the 3rd June Plan?

- A) By a direct referendum
- B) By the British government's decision
- C) By a vote in the Indian Constituent Assembly
- D) By a Shahi Jirga and non-official members of Quetta Municipal Committee

What did the Indian Independence Act, July 1947, establish?

- A) A united Indian state
- B) Two independent dominion states
- C) Continued British rule
- D) A new British Viceroy

What would serve as the interim constitution, subject to changes, as per the Indian Independence Act?

- A) Government of India Act, 1935
- B) A new constitution drafted by the British
- C) The existing provincial constitutions
- D) The British Monarch's decree

Who could amend the interim constitution until March 31, 1948, according to the Indian Independence Act?

- A) The British Monarch
- B) The Indian Constituent Assembly
- C) The Governor Generals
- D) The United Nations

LECTURE # 14

Which act marked the complete takeover of all rights of the East India Company over India by the British government?

- A) Indian Councils Act, 1861
- B) Government of India Act, 1919
- C) Government of India Act, 1935
- D) Indian Council Act, 1892

Who issued a proclamation for the assumption of control of India by the British Crown in 1858?

- A) Lord Canning
- B) Queen Victoria
- C) East India Company
- D) Secretary of State for India

What title was given to Lord Canning after the assumption of control of India by the British Crown?

- A) Governor General of India
- B) Viceroy
- C) Prime Minister of India
- D) Chief Administrator of India

Which act was the first legislation by the British government in India?

- A) Government of India Act, 1909
- B) Government of India Act, 1935
- C) Indian Council Act, 1892
- D) Indian Councils Act, 1861

How many members were there in the Legislative Council according to the Indian Council Act of 1861?

- A) 6
- B) 10
- C) 12
- D) 16

What did the Indian Council Act of 1892 introduce?

- A) Increased representation in Central Legislative Council
- B) Limited powers for Indian legislatures
- C) Direct elections for the Executive Council
- D) The concept of bicameral legislature

Which act is also known as the Minto-Morley Reforms?

- A) Indian Councils Act, 1861
- B) Indian Council Act, 1892
- C) Government of India Act, 1909
- D) Government of India Act, 1919

How many Governor Provinces were there under the Government of India Act, 1909?

- A) 6
- B) 11
- C) 15
- D) 20

Which act introduced the concept of Diarchy in the provinces?

- A) Indian Council Act, 1861
- B) Indian Council Act, 1892
- C) Government of India Act, 1919
- D) Government of India Act, 1935

What did the Government of India Act, 1935 introduce?

- A) A federal system with a powerful center
- B) Diarchy in the provinces
- C) The role of Chief Commissioner Provinces
- D) Limited powers for the Governor General

Which list included subjects like defense, postal services, and external affairs in the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) Federal list
- B) Provincial list
- C) Concurrent list
- D) Reserved list

How many houses did the Central Legislature have under the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) One
- B) Two
- C) Three
- D) Four

What was the method of election for the Council of State under the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) Direct election
- B) Indirect election
- C) Appointment by the Governor
- D) Hereditary succession

Which act introduced limited powers for the legislature with 80 percent of the budget above their vote?

- A) Indian Council Act, 1861
- B) Government of India Act, 1919
- C) Government of India Act, 1935
- D) Government of India Act, 1909

Who had the power to rule provinces directly under the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) Governor General
- B) Chief Commissioner
- C) Elected government
- D) Prime Minister

Which part of the Government of India Act, 1935 was introduced in 1937?

- A) Federal part
- B) Provincial part
- C) Concurrent list
- D) Reserved subjects

How was the franchise extended under the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) Based on land ownership
- B) Universal suffrage
- C) On the basis of property, tax paying, and other criteria
- D) Through a complex nomination process

Which part of the Government of India Act, 1935 allowed for the establishment of Federal Court and High Courts?

- A) Federal part
- B) Provincial part
- C) Concurrent list
- D) Reserved subjects

Which province was separated from India under the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) Bengal
- B) Punjab
- C) Burma
- D) Sindh

What was the main feature of the provincial governments under the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) Strong central control
- B) Diarchy
- C) Elected governments
- D) Limited powers for Governors

Which of the following was NOT a feature of the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) A strong center
- B) Elected governments in provinces
- C) Indian control over defense
- D) Federal legislature elected indirectly

What could the Indian legislature NOT do under the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) Amend the constitution
- B) Make laws for the federal list subjects
- C) Refuse budget grants
- D) Overrule the Governor General

How were members of the Federal Assembly elected under the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) Directly by the public
- B) Indirectly by provincial legislatures
- C) By hereditary succession
- D) By nomination by the Governor General

Which list included subjects like education, police, and local self-government under the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) Federal list
- B) Provincial list
- C) Concurrent list
- D) Reserved list

What was the main feature of the executive chief under the Government of India Act, 1935?

- A) Independent Judgment
- B) Limited powers
- C) Controlled by the legislature
- D) Responsible to the Governor General

How many Governor Provinces were there under the Government of India Act, 1909?

- A) 6
- B) 11
- C) 15

D) 20

Which act is also known as the Minto-Morley Reforms?

- A) Indian Councils Act, 1861
- B) Indian Council Act, 1892
- C) Government of India Act, 1909
- D) Government of India Act, 1919

What did the Indian Council Act of 1892 introduce?

- A) Increased representation in Central Legislative Council
- B) Limited powers for Indian legislatures
- C) Direct elections for the Executive Council
- D) The concept of bicameral legislature

Which act was the first legislation by the British government in India?

- A) Government of India Act, 1909
- B) Government of India Act, 1935
- C) Indian Council Act, 1892
- D) Indian Councils Act, 1861

Who issued a proclamation for the assumption of control of India by the British Crown in 1858?

- A) Lord Canning
- B) Queen Victoria
- C) East India Company
- D) Secretary of State for India

LECTURE # 15

What did the attainment of independence mark for Pakistan?

- A) The end of all problems
- B) The beginning of a new phase of struggle
- C) A period of prosperity
- D) The establishment of a strong government

What was a serious problem in setting up the federal government in Karachi after independence?

- A) Shortage of office space
- B) Lack of political support
- C) Overabundance of senior officers
- D) Efficient administrative authorities

What did Pakistan face in the initial stages of independence?

- A) Economic stability
- B) Division of assets
- C) Integration of princely states
- D) Communal harmony

Why did the Indian government withhold financial, military, and other shares from Pakistan?

- A) India was not aware of Pakistan's existence
- B) Lack of cooperation
- C) Fear of Pakistan's collapse
- D) Religious differences

Which princely state initially acceded to Pakistan but later favored India in a referendum?

- A) Junagadh
- B) Hyderabad
- C) Kashmir
- D) Punjab

Which princely state was surrounded by India from all sides and integrated into India despite its ruler's desire to stay independent?

- A) Junagadh
- B) Hyderabad
- C) Kashmir
- D) Srinagar

Which princely state had a Hindu ruler but a Muslim-majority population and became a cause of conflict between India and Pakistan?

- A) Junagadh
- B) Hyderabad
- C) Kashmir
- D) Punjab

When did communal riots occur in India, leading to the displacement of Muslims and the refugee problem?

- A) After independence
- B) In 1948
- C) In August 1946
- D) During partition

What was the major river issue faced by Pakistan in 1948?

A) Canal water shortage

- B) Flooding
- C) Trade disputes
- D) Political unrest

How was the canal water problem between India and Pakistan eventually settled?

- A) By military intervention
- B) Through diplomatic negotiations
- C) By the United Nations
- D) The World Bank's intervention

What issue adversely affected Pakistan's economy as it depended on trade from India?

- A) Canal water shortage
- B) Refugee crisis
- C) Trade problems
- D) Currency devaluation

In what year did India devalue its currency, causing economic difficulties for Pakistan?

- A) 1946
- B) 1947
- C) 1948
- D) 1949

How did Pakistan respond to India's currency devaluation in 1949?

- A) By devaluing its own currency
- B) By cutting off trade with India
- C) By seeking aid from the United Nations
- D) By joining the Indian economy

What was the impact of the war in Kashmir on Pakistan's early years of independence?

- A) It brought prosperity
- B) It led to economic growth
- C) It caused difficulties and troubles
- D) It improved relations with India

What was the initial challenge faced by Pakistan after achieving independence?

- A) Lack of skilled human resources
- B) Overabundance of senior officers
- C) Sufficient office space
- D) Strong cooperation from India

What was the major river issue faced by Pakistan in 1948?

A) Canal water shortage

- B) Flooding
- C) Trade disputes
- D) Political unrest

Which princely state initially acceded to Pakistan but later favored India in a referendum?

A) Junagadh

- B) Hyderabad
- C) Kashmir
- D) Punjab

Which princely state was surrounded by India from all sides and integrated into India despite its ruler's desire to stay independent?

A) Junagadh

B) Hyderabad

- C) Kashmir
- D) Srinagar

Which princely state had a Hindu ruler but a Muslim-majority population and became a cause of conflict between India and Pakistan?

A) Junagadh

B) Hyderabad

C) Kashmir

D) Punjab

When did communal riots occur in India, leading to the displacement of Muslims and the refugee problem?

A) After independence

B) In 1948

C) In August 1946

D) During partition

What was the major river issue faced by Pakistan in 1948?

A) Canal water shortage

- B) Flooding
- C) Trade disputes
- D) Political unrest

How was the canal water problem between India and Pakistan eventually settled?

A) By military intervention

B) Through diplomatic negotiations

C) By the United Nations

D) The World Bank's intervention

What issue adversely affected Pakistan's economy as it depended on trade from India?

A) Canal water shortage

B) Refugee crisis

C) Trade problems

D) Currency devaluation

In what year did India devalue its currency, causing economic difficulties for Pakistan?

A) 1946

B) 1947

C) 1948

D) 1949

How did Pakistan respond to India's currency devaluation in 1949?

A) By devaluing its own currency

B) By cutting off trade with India

C) By seeking aid from the United Nations

D) By joining the Indian economy

LMS Handling Services Available for Job Holders 03126968553

