Q.1 A user agent must dispatch _____ event type to indicate when the user moves a touch point along the touch surface.

A. Touchmove

B. Touchcancel

C. Touchend

D. Touchstart

Q.2 The target of _____ event must be the same Element on which the touch point started when it was first placed on the surface, even if the touch point has since moved outside the interactive area of the target element.

A. Touchmove

B. Touchcancel

C. Touchend

D. Touchstart

Q.3 404 HTTP error is generated due to _____.

A. The removal of the newline character.

B. Any missing file.

C. Slow loading of the web page.

D. Missing JavaScript file.

Q.4 In general, event handler is nothing but _____

A. function handler

B. function

C. event

D. interface

Q.5 Google, Microsoft, Amazon, Facebook, and others all show that UI performance translates directly to _____.

A. Loss

B. Data

C. Profit

D. Users

Q.6 It's almost impossible to graph _____ into your application after it's already been built.

A. Optimization

B. Data

C. Performance

D. Analysis

Q.7 _____ events are always delivered to the element that first received that _____ .

A. Touch, Touch

B. Move, Touch

C. Read, Touch

D. Click, Touch

Q.8 Which one is not a chrome development tool?

A. View points

B. Elements

C. Console

D. Tags

Q.9 First step to ensure great performance is being able to analyze your _____.

A. User engagement

B. Code

C. Performance

D. Design

Q.10 Touch supporting mobile browsers, usually interpret _____.

A. Text writing

B. No tapping

C. Single tapping

D. Double tapping
