Kramsch and Whiteside (2008) defined Symbolic Competence as the ability to position oneself as a Multilingual subject, to understand the cultural memories evoked by symbolic systems.

Celce-Murcia et al. (1995, p. 4) Criticised Bachman's model of CLA and advocated that a model to deal with CLT was needed.

Scanned with CamScanner

Celce-Murcia's revised model of communicative competence proposed _____6_____ types of competencies.

The initial Canale and Swain's model of Communicative Competence was developed in 1980.

TRUE

Scanned with CamScanner

Kramsch believes that there are 3 _____ dimensions of language.

Scanned with CamScanner