

Objective

- 1) Socio-diagnostic critique is both epistemic and deontic.
- 2) The first assumption is that language is part of an ensemble of modes, each of which has equal potential to contribute to meaning.
- 3) The DHA Discourse Historical Approach is problem-oriented
- 4) The process by which text and context come together in the creation of meaning is referred to as contextualization.
- 5) In Discourse Analysis the language beyond the level of the sentence.
- 6) Gouveia 2007 In education, the term PDA can be used to cover various progressive strands such as:
 - A) Reading to Learn programme
 - B) Critical Applied Linguistics
 - C) Curriculum Design
 - D) All of the given options
- 7) The relationship between language and context is fundamental to pragmatics.
- 8) The term Modus Barbara is used to understand logical proofs deeply.

- 9) genre-based teaching can help students gain access to texts and discourses which will, hopefully, help them participate more successfully in second language spoken and written interactions.
- 10) Distribution, how texts circulate within orders of discourse, can be investigated in terms of 'chain' relationships.
- 11) Multimodality must avoid the "tunnel vision".
- 12) CARS stands for create a research space.
- 13) "Strategy" is the process by which ends are related to means, intentions to capabilities, and objectives to resources.
- 14) According to Piller "cultures" vary in time, space, and scale.

Subjective

Short Questions

Recall the concept of Discourse Historical Approach having an eight-stage program and write only the correct statement..... OR What are the eight stages of the Discourse-Historical Approach (DHA)?

- 1) Literature review, activation of theoretical knowledge
- 2) Systematic collection of data and context information\
- 3) Selection and preparation of data for specific analyses
- 4) Specification of the research questions and formulation of assumptions
- 5) Qualitative pilot analysis
- 6) Detailed case studies
- 7) Formulation of critique
- 8) Application of the detailed analytical results

Define Perlocutionary Act in One Line?

8) Genre-based teaching may limit student expression through model texts and audience expectations. True

9) Teaching genres of power necessarily provides the access hoped for learners. **!
(Teaching genres of power does not necessarily provide the kind of access hoped for learners.)

10) Christie (1993) and Martin (1993) support teaching genres of power. True

Define Perlocutionary Act in One Line?

Perlocutionary act: The effect of an utterance on the thoughts or actions of the other person

Long Questions:

True/False.....

- MMDA focuses "specifically on how different semiotic resources are deployed in the re-contextualization of social practices for ideological purposes.. True
- Van Leeuwen and Wodak (1999) argue that social practices can be re-contextualized in language through substitutions, additions, and deletions and re-ordering of the sequences that comprise events. True
- Particular social practice, ideas about why it is the way it is, who is involved and what kinds of values they hold. True
- Social practices may have: participants, ideas, values and attitudes; activities; social relations; objects and instruments; time and setting and causality. True
- In a university document, in order to see that what kind of social practices are re-contextualized, we may look upon: which causality and identities have not been deleted or substituted or added. False

Remember me in your precious prayers And best of luck!