Question 1:

A random experiment is a one in which we repeat it a large number of times under similiar conditions an it produces:

A. Different results

B. Same results

C. None of the above

D. Independent results

Selected Answer: A

Question 2:

The parameters of binomial distribution are:

A. p,q

B. n,(n-1)

C. n,p

D. n,p,q

Selected Answer: C

Question 3:

Which type of data is used in the binomial distribution?

A. Qualitative data only

B. Continues data only

C. Both discrete and continuous

D. Discrete data only

Selected Answer: D

Question 4:

A randomly selected sample of 400 students at a university with 15-week semesters was asked whether or not they think the semester should be shortened to 14 weeks.46% of the 400 students surveyed answered "yes". Which one of the following statements about the number 46% is correct?

A. It is a population parameter

B. It is a margin of error

C. It is a standard error

D. It is a sample statistic

Selected Answer: D

Question 5:

Which of the following is major property of hypergeometric distribution other than binomial distribution.

A. The successive trials are not independent

B. It follows a continuous distribution

C. The experiment is repeated a fix number of time

D. The outcome of each trial may be classified into one of two categories

Selected Answer: A

Question 6:

The sampling distribution of the sample proportion, p^, will be _____ distributed if the sample size is large and p^ is not too close to 0 or l:

A. Normal

B. Binomial

C. Approximately normal

D. Poisson

Selected Answer: C

Question 7:

The hypergeometric random variable is a(an):

A. Continuous variable

B. Independent

C. Undefined

D. Discrete variable

Selected Answer: D

Question 8:

In a bivariate distribution f(x,y), when one random variable is discrete and the other is continuous, then we may call it _____ ?

A. Mixed distribution

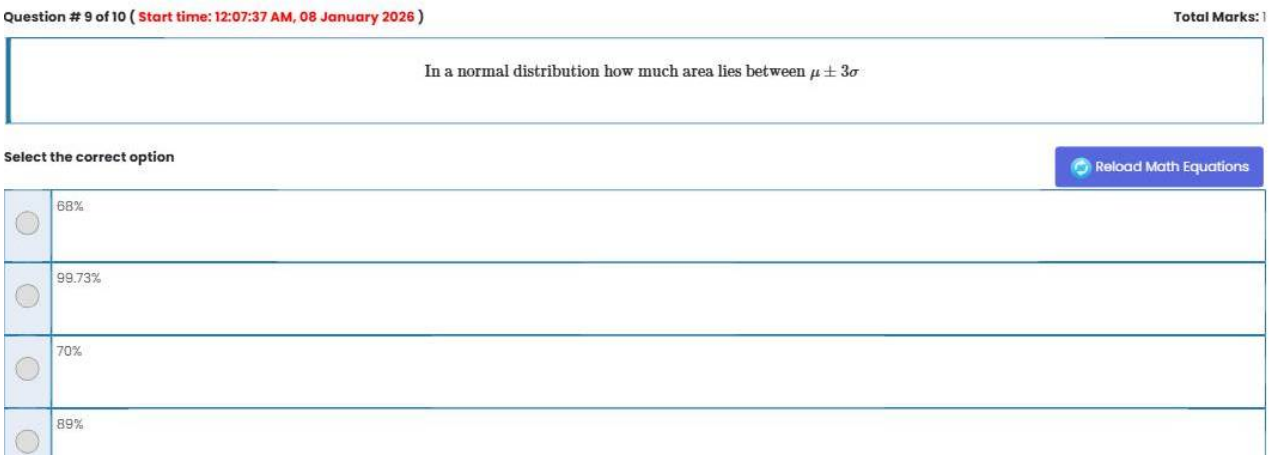

B. Paired distribution

C. Co-discrete distribution

D. Matching distribution

Selected Answer: A
