ENG101 – SHORT DEFINITIONS QUESTION AND ANSWER

1) Define choppy sentence

Choppy sentences are too short sentences which come together. Words are repeated. They are tedious and hard to understand. e.g.

Choppy: Vegetables taste good. Vegetables are easy to prepare. Vegetables are good for health.

Revised: Vegetables taste good and are easy to prepare, and they are good for health.

2) Purpose statement

The purpose statement is a statement that evolves the overall direction or focus for the study.

Purpose

statements are developed for both quantitative and qualitative studies.

A purpose statement is a declarative statement that summarizes a research project's main goal or goals.

A purpose statement provides some guidance in establishing a research question and serves as an introduction to the resultant paper or dissertation chapter.

3) Define visual aids and bibliography

Visual Aid: An instructional device (such as a chart, map, or model) that appeal chiefly to vision; especially, an educational motion picture or filmstrip.

Charts, pictures or images that help to make a point or enhance a presentation.

Bibliography: A bibliography is a list of works (such as books and articles) written on a particular subject or by a particular author.

Adjective: bibliographic.

A bibliography may appear at the end of a book, report, online presentation, or research paper.

4) Punctuation sentence

Punctuation is the name of the marks used in writing. They are very essential signs to understand a sentence in correct way. They represent the expression and feeling in a sentence. Punctuation is used to bring clarity and meaning to writing.

5) Define modifier

A modifier is a word, phrase, or clause which functions as an adjective or an adverb to describe a word or make its meaning more specific.

Modifier is, quite simply, any word or group of words that modifies (describes or elaborates upon) another element in a sentence.

Modifiers can either be adjectives, which modify nouns (or sometimes pronouns), or adverbs, which modify pretty much everything else (usually verbs, adjectives, and other adverbs).

6) Vague language definition

Vague language is defined as words or phrases “which deliberately refer to people and things in a non-specific, imprecise, rough way”.

Vague language is confined to the lexical level as they regard vague language as imprecise words or phrases.

7) Comma splice

Comma splice is two or more independent clauses joined solely by a comma.

A comma splice occurs when you use a comma to join two complete sentences without placing an appropriate joining word between them.

The comma just isn't strong enough to do the job of making one grammatical sentence out of two.

Passing Criteria for a Course:

The passing criteria is defined in such a way that it ensures the student shall be consistent in his studies throughout the semester.

Therefore, for passing a course/subject, student shall fulfill the following:

- Secure minimum 20% score in Formative Assessments/Mid terms
- Secure minimum 20% score in Final Term Examinations.
- Secure at least 40% marks in aggregate while fulfilling the above requirements

Course Selection and Credit Hours

Q: How do I select courses when the course selection is open?

A: Follow these steps:

1. Check the credit hours allowed by your university (e.g., 21, 18, or 15 credit hours).
2. Each subject typically has 3 credit hours.
3. Divide the total allowed credit hours by 3 to determine how many subjects you can select.

Examples:

21 credit hours = 7 subjects
18 credit hours = 6 subjects

15 credit hours = 5 subjects

Remember, the university may allow different credit hours for each student, so check your specific allowance.

By following these steps, you can make informed decisions during course selection and manage your credit hours effectively.
