~~Eng~~ EDU 305 Final-Term Imp Que

Q#1 What is difference between Direct Bullying / Indirect bulling?

1. Direct Bullying:

Direct Bullying is used when verbal and physical aggression is used to harm a student.

Indirect Bullying:

Indirect Bullying involves purposeful actions that lead to Social exclusion or damage to a students status or repudation in an attempt to get others to not socialize with the victim. It includes:

- Threats
- Insults
- Name Calling
- Spreading rumors
- Writing hurtful graffiti

Q#2 As a teacher, how you can maintain a healthy environment in Classroom?

- Give students a patience hearing
- Have a good-student-teacher rapport
- Not students should be allowed to dominate.
- Shy students are encouraged to speak
- An atmosphere of Cooperation needs to be built.

Q#3 Student work in classroom
active participants?

Active participants:

Encourage students to be active participants

Support their natural desire for:

- Autonomy
- Independence

Teachers can invite students to help

- Choose goals
- To role-play new behaviours
- To suggest strategies they might use to meet goals.

Q#4 Preventive discipline in students exercise?

- Tell your students that you cannot tolerate disruptive behaviour because it interferes with the rights of the other students to learn and grow, and with your right to teach.
- Well-planned classroom activities reduce disruption

Q#5 Performance deficit Vs Skills deficit?

Performance Deficit:-

If the student can give the correct response but does not display the behaviour outside the testing situation, the social skills problem is probably due to performance deficit.

Skill Deficit: If the student cannot produce the socially correct response, the social skill problem may be due to a skill deficit.

Q#6 Teacher-Student rapport?

- Rapport refers to the relationship that students and teachers build with each other during the learning process.
- A Positive and freindly relationship between an instructor and a learner is needed to personalize learning and make the process simply fascinating.

Q#7 Difference b/w Empathy and Self-efficacy

Empathy:-

Empathy is extending help to students and showing Concern towards them. Empathy means you Care and ~~feel~~ feel for Others.

Self-Efficacy:-

Self-Efficacy is facilitated by a person's beliefs and expectations about his/her ability to achieve Certain tasks Successfully or demonstrate Certain behaviours.

Q#8 School Wide Code of Conduct?

- Safety
- Respect
- Honesty
- Responsibility
- Courtesy

Q#9 Explain Process of EBSS?

- Clarify the need for effective behavioral Support and establish Commitment, including administrative Support and participation.
- Priority of this should be refleded in the School improvement plan.
- Develop a team focus with Shared ownership.
- Create a Comprehesive system that prevents as well as responds to problem behaviour.
- Tie effective behavioral Support activities to the School mission.
- Develop an action plan establishing staff responsibilities.

Q#10 Explain steps for develop anti-bullying attitude?

Anti-bullying attitudes Can be developed thoough:

- Awareness raising
- Opportunity for Self-reflection
- Awakening feeling of responsibility
- Role-playing or rehearsing new behaviours.
- Non-violence training Conducted by older peers Can be particularly powerful.

Q#11 What Step should be taken to Control bullying?

- Teacher Can encouraged to integrate bullying prevention material into their Curriculum.
- This Can be accomplished by holding regular classroom meetings to discuss bullying.
- Classroom meetings with students help increase students knowledge of how to intervence, build empathy, and encourage pro-Social norm.

Q#12 What is delegation to authority to teachers?

- Principals in well-disciplined Schools should delegate authority to teachers to handle routine Classroom discipline problems
- Principals should assist teachers to improve their classroom management and discipline skills by arranging for staff development activities.

Q#13 Explain group Contigencies?

- The use of Structure in which rewards and punishments are meted out to group based on the behaviour of individuals within those group have been found effective in remediating misbehaviour.
- Training in self awarness, values clarification, Cooperation and development of helping skills has been successfully used to improve the behaviour of misbehaving students.

- Peer tutoring structures lower the incidence of misbehaviour in classroom. Depending on the situation, students with behaviour problem may serve either as tutors or tutees.

Q#14 What social skills deficit in aggressive students?

Aggressive students often:

- Exhibit deficits in social information processing.
- Are likely to mis-interpret social clues
- Mis-assign hostile intent to others during stress.

Social skills deficit:

- Poor impulse control
- Low tolerance.
- Limited ability to generate alternative responses to stress.
- Limited insight in the feeling of self and others.

Q#15 Being a teacher if you feel your student in stress? student exhibit minor behavior problems. your response

Teacher can be:

- use proximity control
- boost students interest
- provide assistance with assigments.

Q#16 Being a teacher if student argue and Complaints what is your response?

When students argue and Complaints as a teacher I Can:

- remind student of rules
- Use Conflict resolution
- Encourage students to ask for help.

Q#17 Explain affective rules?

In order to establish Caring Classroom, It is important to frame rules that are Socially emotionally driven.

Examples:

- Be emotionally supportive
- Be helpful to peers
- Be respectful
- Do not Shout
- Donot Snath material others.
- take turn before Speaking
- Acknoledge and appriciate others

Q#18: What is Social Competence?

It is a Skill:

- generate good Social interactions among peers
- Establish Caring Connections
- Develop warm altitudes
- It is the ability to act in a Caring and helpful manner toward others.

Q#19 What strategies should be implemented Control violence among studentents?

- Practice for Crises
- train all staff to respond to student aggression
- Establish trust and rapport with students
- Remain Calm and in Control
- Maintain a therapeutic attitude

Q#20 Explain Source of frustrations among aggressive students?

Sources of frustrations Can be:

- Failure
- Boredom
- Lack of maintenance of Social relationships
- Lack of positive reinforcement
- Irrelevant Curriculum
- Feeling of powerlessness
- overexposure to punishment.

Q#21 Features of EBS Effective behavioral Support?

- There is total staff Commitment to managing behaviour.
- There should be clearly defined and communicated expectations and rules.
- Have an instructional Component for teaching students Self Control and Social Skill strategies
- Prepare a plan to adress the needs of students with chronic, challenging behaviour.

Q#22 What is benchmark?

- Benchmarks are specific points of reference connected to levels of performance against which students are monitored.
- It is used to record performance by using a specific indicator.

Q#23 Teacher training in classroom discipline?

Training programm should include learning activities and practice in the areas of:

- Organizing room and material
- Developing a workable set of rules and procedures
- Assuring student accountability
- Formulating and explaining consequences
- planning activities for the first week
- Maintaining management system

Q#24 What strategies can a teacher use to develop social competence among students?

Teacher in helping student develop social competence develop on the ability to:

- Develop a school wide culture of social competance
- Infuse the curiculum with situation specific social skills
- Match the level and intensity of instruction to students social skill deficit.

Q#25 Being a teacher how u monitor students learning in classroom?

Role of teacher in monitoring learning:

Teachers should:

- be proactive in giving feedback
- Continuously monitor student learning
- have a well defined mechanism to record student progress
- keep assessment portfolios to monitor student learning.

Q#26: Explain temperature preferences?

Temperature preferences can very dramatically. Most children cannot concentrate when they are either too cold or too warm.

Q#27 Intrinsic and Extrisic ~~motivation~~? Reward

Extrinsic reward / motivation:

- "Reinforcement is the heart of behavioral control"
- Behaviorist believes that teachers, parents and others in authority need only to think about external incentives.
- It refers money, grades, Carrer, praise, exams

Intrinsic motivation: Those behaviour need to be supported that help students enhance quality of life and enable them to become life-long learners- humanistic approach.

It refers: • Sense of achievement
• Curiosity • interests • pride

Q#28 Dictogloss techniques?

- Dictate the information using a dictogloss, a replacement for writing notes on chalkboard.
- Student listen twice to a passage read at normal speed, taking notes during the 2nd reading.
- They work with a partner to try to reconstruct the text.
- when a pair thinks they have the information, they write the passage on the board and class works together to make it as close to the original as possible
- The teacher makes the final Connections and the student correct their work.

Q#29 Instructional Strategies?

- Gear your instruction to the correct level of difficulty
- break instructions into smaller learning
- Teach student to take responsibility of their learning
- Provide assessment that helps the student and inform the teacher.

Q#30 How teacher develop caring attitudes?

- Show and prove that you care
- It is good to say "thank you" and "please" when we talk to students
- Giving individual attention to students
- Listen to their problems Sincerely.
- Avoid using red pen-use green instead.

Q#31 Vicarious learning?

- Beliefs are often acquired through observation and interpretation.
- In observing the modeling behavior of others, the learner is able to reflect on past experience with such behaviour and make meaning of its relevance in a new situation.

0#32 Intrinsic Motivation VS Extrinsic Motivation

Intrinsic Motivation:-

- Intrinsic motivation is a desire to attain targets for the sake of learning.
- The argue for a true desire for mastery is driven by intrinsic motivation.
- Students are rewarded for showing keen interest in the tasks.

Extrinsic Motivation:-

- Extrinsic motivation occurs when a student is driven to perform behaviour in order to win a reward or avoid a punishment.

For Example

You want to put up a good behaviour because of fear of punishment.

- Students who must put forth more than the average degree of effort to accomplish a goal