

SOC101

Quiz 1

ABSTRACT

This comprehensive collection of notes is accurately crafted to empower students to excel academically, ensuring they achieve a minimum of 80% marks in their examinations. The content is organized with clarity and precision, focusing on key concepts, critical analyses, and practical applications tailored to the syllabus. These notes serve as a reliable resource for both thorough preparation and last-minute revision. Designed to inspire confidence and mastery, this guide is an essential tool for students striving for academic excellence.

Maha Malik

INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY

SOC101_INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY
Quiz 1

1. Assimilation is a process in which minority groups lose their distinctive identities and cultural patterns of the _____ group. Dominant
2. Karl Marx believed that change occurs through social revolution, which is the driving force of: Political upheaval
3. According to symbolic interactions which of the following is key to communicate with one another: Symbols
4. What should researchers do to ensure accurate observation data collection? Identify the social setting and context of observation
5. Sociologists examine how social structures and institutions come into being and the _____ influences that impact our daily lives and societal values. Political
6. The three primary goals of science are to explain why something happens, _____ and predict future outcomes. Generalize
7. Which approach in research is more confirmatory and tests existing theories and hypotheses? Deductive approach
8. The exchange of ideas, thoughts or emotions between individuals or groups in the social interaction is called: Communication
9. Before the advent of_____ people used to make their assumptions from traditions and religion. Scientific Revolution
10. The subculture is: A smaller cultural group within a larger society with distinct characteristics.
11. What is the primary method used to analyze data in a systematic and empirical approach? Statistical analysis
12. Which one of the following refers to cultural elements that can be found in every culture around the world regardless of its distinct characteristics? Cultural universals
13. How does the usual comparison between ideal culture and real culture unfold? Ideal culture often reflects higher aspirations than those practiced in real culture
14. A cultural group within a larger society that shares distinct beliefs, values, and practices is called: Sub culture
15. Which of the following theorist influenced the development of critical theory? Max Weber
16. Which of the following knowledge is less credible due to dependence on limited observations? Common sense
17. Sociology is considered a science because it relies on _____ data analysis, and theory building to understand the social world. Empirical observation
18. The continuous struggle of human beings to improve their living standards can result in which of the following? Positive social change
19. When individual or group work together to achieve common goal or outcome it called: Cooperation
20. Postmodernism is a theoretical approach that highlights the significance of which aspect in shaping social relations and structures? Language and discourse
21. What does postcolonialism emphasize? Colonialism and its legacy in shaping social relations and structures
22. Social structures and institutions that shape human behavior include family, education, and religion. True

Maha Malik's Compilation

SOC101_INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY
Quiz 1

23. Structural functionalism emphasizes social structures and institutions as crucial for maintaining social order and stability. True
24. Secondary groups often involve deep emotional connections. False
25. Values are _____ defined standards that people use to decide what is desirable and good for social living. Culturally
26. Which of the following group has an established and recognized hierarchy of authority and is governed by rules and regulations? Formal
27. Conflict theory suggests that social change occurs through struggles and conflicts between competing groups. True
28. Power and inequality create disparities and hierarchies among individuals and groups in society. True
29. Sociology helps us understand how our personal lives are connected to the broader social world. True
30. Values are abstract standards of goodness while beliefs are specific thoughts that individuals consider true or false. True
31. Which of the following children are raised in isolation? Feral
32. Which of the following type of social interaction refers to individuals or groups working together towards a common goal or objective? Cooperation
33. Spencer believed in the concept of: Individualism
34. Non-verbal communication involves using gestures, facial expressions, and body language to express: Meaning and emotions
35. Competition can be constructive or destructive can lead to innovation, progress and some time social inequality. True
36. Ideal Culture can provide individuals with a sense of identity and purpose, but Real Culture can also cause conflict and tension when it contradicts the ideals. True
37. Which of the following term is used to refer the custom, art, and social interactions of a particular society? Culture
38. Why there are counterarguments that sociology can not be science? Due to complexity and subjectivity of social phenomena
39. In scientific research, first step is to: Select topic
40. Conflict serves as a vehicle for social: Change and development
41. The process of gathering information on social behavior and interactions entails: Observational research
42. Which one of the following research methods offer in-depth insights into a specific situation? Case studies
43. What are informal rules and expectations that guide people's everyday behavior? Folkways
44. Norms that control everyday behaviors and are commonly gentle in terms of outcomes for violations are known as: Folkways
45. Written language refers to which type of interaction: Verbal
46. In Pakistani society, feminism could be applied to studying: The influence of media on gender roles
47. According to Karl Marx, _____ will replace capitalism. Socialism
48. Sociologists claim that human behavior is learned. True

Maha Malik's Compilation

SOC101_INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY
Quiz 1

49. Which of the following statements describes real culture? The culture that exists in reality
50. Sociology analyzes the impact of historical, social, and cultural factors on individuals and groups. True
51. Which of the following is a continuous process? Social change
52. Structural functionalism suggests that social equilibrium is achieved through cooperation and mutual dependency. True
53. Which of the following is/are the example of cultural universals? All of the given options
54. The process by which people act and react in relation to others is known as: Interaction
55. Scientific research in sociology moves beyond common sense and _____ prevailing beliefs about social life. Challenge
56. Deductive logical thought transforms general theory into specific _____ suitable for testing. Hypothesis
57. Values contribute to shaping a culture by: By guiding the beliefs and behaviors of individuals
58. Which of the following is the most important agent of primary socialization? Family
59. Which of the following is/are important for developing theories in sociology? Both causation and correlation
60. Research often starts _____ with a research problem or question. Theoretical Spencer believed in the concept of: Individualism
61. Homesickness is an example of which of the following concept: Cultural shock
62. When people interact to gain something in return is known as: Exchange
63. Human behavior is shaped by genetics OR socialization, is the debate between: Nature and Nurture
64. What term did Herbert Spencer used to describe the evolution of societies? Social Darwinism
65. Language is a system of symbols that allows people to: Communicate with each other
66. Which of the following knowledge is less credible due to dependence on limited observations? Common sense
67. Propositions, Assumptions, and Hypothesis are tested in the field to produce _____ knowledge. Scientific
68. What is the term used to describe the way academic sociology makes knowledge public, "objective," and subject to critique? Public sociology
69. Pop music in Pakistani society is an example of: Real culture
70. What does functional analysis stress about society's composition? Harmony among groups
71. Sociology aims to develop untestable explanations of social phenomena. False
72. Non-material culture primarily includes: Religious practices and rituals
73. A predictor which indicates a relationship between variables is known as: Hypothesis
74. Scientific knowledge is more _____ because it is processed knowledge. Credible
75. Which of the following concept is defined as an understanding of how our personal lives are connected to the broader social world? Sociological imagination
76. In case study research, what is the main advantage of using multiple sources of data? Developing a comprehensive perspective on the case
77. What is the primary purpose of drawing conclusions and making generalizations in research? To summarize the research findings

Maha Malik's Compilation

SOC101_INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY
Quiz 1

78. On what ground people argue about sociology being a science? It can be a science if it adheres to scientific methods and principles
79. Considering alternative explanations is important when establishing causal relationships. True
80. The resistance to the family planning technique is an example of: Cultural lag
81. Which of the following best characterizes mass communication compared to face-to-face interaction? One-way communication
82. Languages, beliefs, values, norms, and attitudes are the example of _____ culture. Nonmaterial
83. Sociologists often rely on common sense for their research instead of following a structural process. False
84. Emile Durkheim viewed society as a complex system with interrelated structures rather than merely a collection of: Individuals
85. Which of the following is an appropriate way to disseminate research findings? Sharing insights through publications or presentations
86. Which theoretical approach focuses on colonialism and its legacy in shaping social relations and structures? Postcolonialism
87. Durkheim's ideas caused the development of _____ as a dominant perspective. Structural functionalism
88. In 17th century enlightenment caused _____ revolution. Scientific
89. In Pakistani society, conflict theory could be applied to understand: The struggle between different ethnic groups for resources and power
90. Triad are more stable than dyad because they allow for _____ in case of strained interactions. Mediation
91. How can an understanding of cultural components such as language and customs be applied in the field of tourism to enhance the travel experience for tourists? By providing multilingual guides and respecting local customs
92. A mental adjustment that occurs when people encounter a culture similar to their own is known as the concept of cultural shock. False
93. Which perspective views society as a harmonious whole with interrelated parts working together? Structural functionalism
94. Accommodation refers to the process of adjusting or adapting to cultural differences and similarities in order to coexist and cooperate with others. True
95. What is a potential limitation of case study research? Findings may lack generalizability to other contexts
96. Bureaucracies are known for their structured and rule-based operations. True
97. Non-verbal communication plays a minimal role in social interaction and relationships. False
98. Folkways are informal rules and expectations that guide people's everyday behavior. True
99. Social interaction is the focus of _____ Sociology Micro
100. In Pakistan, the media has contributed to the growth of consumerist culture in: Urban middle class
101. The sociological imagination helps us grasp the connection between: History and biography
102. Which of the following is a characteristic of the primary group? Deep emotions

SOC101_INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY
Quiz 1

103. Which of the following is the main area of study in sociology? Human society
104. The main objective of social interaction is: To develop friendships and companionship
105. Ethics in research require honesty, but they do not forbid the falsification of results. False
106. Taboos are behaviors that are widely accepted in most societies. False
107. Which of the following is accurate example of primary group? Family members
108. A society can not survive without: Cooperation
109. Sociology seeks to explain_____ of human society. Social dynamics
110. Scientific research in sociology often depends on secrecy and biases. False
111. Social change and _____ are closely inter-linked. Social justice
112. Social problems arise from structural factors and have implications for individuals and society. True
113. Social norms, values, and beliefs have no influence on human actions and interactions. False
114. Which one of the following is NOT an example of non-verbal communication? Talking
115. Scientific methods and principles cannot be applied to the study of social phenomena in sociology. False
116. In all societies and cultures people have same status and role. False
117. Which of the following is NOT an example of cultural universal? Birth
118. What does "Real Culture" represent? The norms, values, and practices that are actually practiced
119. Micro level analysis in sociology focuses on individual actions, behaviors, and attitudes. True
120. What are social problems, according to C. Wright Mills? Conflict with certain values

B.Ed. (1.5 Years) BS English Files