A wide-angle photograph of a modern cinema hall. The room is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the large, bright white screen at the front. Rows of dark, upholstered seats are arranged in a tiered fashion, filling the lower half of the frame. The walls are a dark, textured color, and the ceiling is also dark with several recessed spotlights. The overall atmosphere is quiet and focused on the screen.

When it comes to movies, we saw a totally different mindset. In the start, both the film industries – Lollywood and Bollywood released movies on social issues or biopics but later on, the audience observed how the things went upside down.
