Question No: 51 (Marks: 5)

Can individual be so much motivated that his/ her performance declines as a result of excessive efforts ? Discuss.

Yes, in certain case its true. If a person set goals too high for himself, he may end up

Demotivating himself because of the failure to achieve the goals.

When rewards are used by organizations as payoffs for better performance, the intrinsic rewards, which are derived from person doing what they like, are reduced.

Due to excessive efforts, person loss the control over own behavior so that pervious motivation diminishes.

The elimination of extrinsic rewards can produce a shifting from an external to an internal explanation in an individual's perception of thinking that why he works on a task.

Too much motivation make person to think differentiate themselves from others by their desire to do things better.

Question No: 52 (Marks: 10)

How can we implement Maslow's Hierarchy of need theory in our life? Discuss in detail.

Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs is based on the assumption that people are motivated by a series of five universal needs. These needs are ranked, according to the order in which they influence human behavior, in hierarchical fashion.

Physiological needs are deemed to be the lowest- level needs. These needs but be fullfiled

safety needs -- the needs for shelter and security

Social needs include the need for belongingness and love

esteem needs After social needs have been satisfied, ego and esteem needs self-actualization the need for self-realization, continuous self-development, and the process of becoming all that a person is capable of becoming.

In daily life if we translate this theory its discusss food is basic need of human being we should look into this basic need to motivate our wokers

Stability is equal to safety in malsow's theory . friendship is equal to esteem in theory.

Status and achievements esteem and achievement respectively.

Above theory is used to motivate our works,. We also get guideline during our daily life. It provide us the path to look into needs of others.

Question No: 53 (Marks: 10)

Do you think motivation comes from within a person or it is a result of the situation? Explain in your own words.

What is motivation

Motivation is the internal condition that activates behavior and gives it direction; and energizes and directs goal-oriented behavior

Motivation comes from within. Very few people are highly motivated at work. Most people work at only a small fraction of their actual capabilities. Your Employer can create only motivational environment. It is up to you to motivate yourself.

The highest levels of motivation come when we are in tune with our mind and thinking.

Self-improvement is one of the best motivators because its comes from you inner feelings. Money Does Not Motivate. People adapt to the amount of money they are making that motivation is short- lived. Managers often try to motivate employees via promises of financial rewards and promotion but people likes motivators such as feeling valued and appericated. People are motivated when they feel understood.

True motivation only comes from within an individual but it can only be started from external factors.

Question No: 51 (Marks: 5)

Who are responsible for setting goals? Do you think different Managers set goals, or one manager is responsible for it?

ANS: GOAL SETTING: Goals are the desired outcomes for the individuals, groups or organizations. The success of an organization depends on its goals and how they are achieved. Goal setting is the responsibility of a manager. There are three managers at three different levels:

- Top manager

- Middle manager
- First Line manager

Each manager is responsible for setting goals at different level.

1. Top manager sets the strategic goals which are organization wide.
2. Middle managers set Tactical goals
3. First line managers set operational goals which are related to the operations of the organization.

But it is important that all the goals set by managers should be in accordance to organization's mission.

Question No: 52 (Marks: 10)

Describe the significant workplace issues that affect motivation in today's workforce.

ANS: MOTIVATION: It is the willingness to exert high levels of efforts to reach organizational goals.

Motivation is an important aspect in today's world where competition is increasing day by day, so there is a strong need for motivating employees in order to get best performance from them. Inspite the importance of motivation there are various issues which affect the motivation in today's workforce. Some of the such factors are given below:

- Inappropriate Goals: the goal itself acts as a motivator but if not set well it creates lack of understanding in employees which results in poor performance.
- Recognition: In today's world recognition acts as a strong motivator. If a worker's performance is good he needs to be recognized so that his performance is reinforced but if there is lack of recognition it will de-motivate the worker.
- Salary/Pay: The basic physiological needs are satisfied by money so salary /pay plays an important role in motivating an employee. If it is not upto to the limit where it satisfies workers basic needs it is obvious that low salary will cause de-motivation in employee.

- Opportunities: Everyone desires to develop their capabilities and reaching their full potential, it can somehow be achieved by career opportunities offered by the organization. If an organization does not allow an employee to excel in his/her career this may lose his interest in work.
- Work Itself: The job and the working conditions if not liked by worker he will not do his job with interest and will yield low performance.

Question No: 53 (Marks: 10)

How can a manager make the delegation process more effective? Give logical reasons to support your answer.

ANS: DELEGATION: Delegation is the assignment of part of manager's work to others along with responsibility and authority.

Effective Delegation: Delegation can be made effective in many ways:

· Trust: It is very important while delegating to have full trust in the subordinates. If manger lacks trust in subordinates he will always have a threat of their failure.

· Training the subordinates: Delegation can be effectively done if subordinates know what and how they have to do their work. For this they must be trained well.

· Manager's knowledge about delegation: While delegating manager should know how to delegate i.e how to take work from subordinates and which tasks should be assigned to subordinates.

Question No: 54 (Marks: 10)

Discuss the Boston Consulting Group (BCG) matrix and explain its usefulness in segmenting businesses. Discuss the characteristics for each of the four categories based on the BCG matrix..

Question No: 51 (Marks: 5)

Can individual be so much motivated that his/ her performance declines as a result of excessive efforts ? Discuss.

Yes, in certain case its true. If a person set goals too high for himself, he may end up

Demotivating himself because of the failure to achieve the goals.

When rewards are used by organizations as payoffs for better performance, the intrinsic rewards, which are derived from person doing what they like, are reduced.

Due to excessive efforts, person loss the control over own behavior so that pervious motivation diminishes.

The elimination of extrinsic rewards can produce a shifting from an external to an internal explanation in an individual's perception of thinking that why he works on a task.

Too much motivation make person to think differentiate themselves from others by their desire to do things better.

Question No: 52 (Marks: 10)

How can we implement Maslow's Hierarchy of need theory in our life? Discuss in detail.

Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs is based on the assumption that people are motivated by a series of five universal needs. These needs are ranked, according to the order in which they influence human behavior, in hierarchical fashion.

Physiological needs are deemed to be the lowest- level needs. These needs but be fullfiled

safety needs -- the needs for shelter and security

Social needs include the need for belongingness and love

esteem needs After social needs have been satisfied, ego and esteem needs

self-actualization the need for self-realization, continuous self-development, and the process of becoming all that a person is capable of becoming.

In daily life if we translate this theory its discusss food is basic need of human being we should look into this basic need to motivate our wokers

Stability is equal to safety in malsow's theory . friendship is equal to esteem in theory.

Status and achievements esteem and achievement respectively.

Above theory is used to motivate our works,. We also get guideline during our daily life. It provide us the path to look into needs of others.

Question No: 53 (Marks: 10)

Do you think motivation comes from within a person or it is a result of the situation? Explain in your own words.

What is motivation

Motivation is the internal condition that activates behavior and gives it direction; and energizes and directs goal-oriented behavior

Motivation comes from within. Very few people are highly motivated at work. Most people work at only a small fraction of their actual capabilities. Your Employer can create only motivational environment. It is up to you to motivate yourself.

The highest levels of motivation come when we are in tune with our mind and thinking.

Self-improvement is one of the best motivators because its comes from you inner feelings. Money Does Not Motivate. People adapt to the amount of money they are making that motivation is short- lived. Managers often try to motivate employees via promises of financial rewards and promotion but people likes motivators such as feeling valued and appericated. People are motivated when they feel understood.

True motivation only comes from within an individual but it can only be started from external factors.

Question No: 51 (Marks: 5)

Who are responsible for setting goals? Do you think different Managers set goals, or one manager is responsible for it?

ANS: GOAL SETTING: Goals are the desired outcomes for the individuals, groups or organizations. The success of an organization depends on its goals and how they are achieved. Goal setting is the responsibility of a manager. There are three managers at three different levels:

- Top manager

- Middle manager
- First Line manager

Each manager is responsible for setting goals at different level.

1. Top manager sets the strategic goals which are organization wide.
2. Middle managers set Tactical goals
3. First line managers set operational goals which are related to the operations of the organization.

But it is important that all the goals set by managers should be in accordance to organization's mission.

Question No: 52 (Marks: 10)

Describe the significant workplace issues that affect motivation in today's workforce.

ANS: MOTIVATION: It is the willingness to exert high levels of efforts to reach organizational goals.

Motivation is an important aspect in today's world where competition is increasing day by day, so there is a strong need for motivating employees in order to get best performance from them. Inspite the importance of motivation there are various issues which affect the motivation in today's workforce. Some of the such factors are given below:

- Inappropriate Goals: the goal itself acts as a motivator but if not set well it creates lack of understanding in employees which results in poor performance.
- Recognition: In today's world recognition acts as a strong motivator. If a worker's performance is good he needs to be recognized so that his performance is reinforced but if there is lack of recognition it will de-motivate the worker.
- Salary/Pay: The basic physiological needs are satisfied by money so salary /pay plays an important role in motivating an employee. If it is not upto to the limit where it satisfies workers basic needs it is obvious that low salary will cause de-motivation in employee.

- Opportunities: Everyone desires to develop their capabilities and reaching their full potential, it can somehow be achieved by career opportunities offered by the organization. If an organization does not allow an employee to excel in his/her career this may lose his interest in work.
- Work Itself: The job and the working conditions if not liked by worker he will not do his job with interest and will yield low performance.

Question No: 53 (Marks: 10)

How can a manager make the delegation process more effective? Give logical reasons to support your answer.

ANS: DELEGATION: Delegation is the assignment of part of manager's work to others along with responsibility and authority.

Effective Delegation: Delegation can be made effective in many ways:

· Trust: It is very important while delegating to have full trust in the subordinates. If manger lacks trust in subordinates he will always have a threat of their failure.

· Training the subordinates: Delegation can be effectively done if subordinates know what and how they have to do their work. For this they must be trained well.

· Manager's knowledge about delegation: While delegating manager should know how to delegate i.e how to take work from subordinates and which tasks should be assigned to subordinates.

Question No: 54 (Marks: 10)

Discuss the Boston Consulting Group (BCG) matrix and explain its usefulness in segmenting businesses. Discuss the characteristics for each of the four categories based on the BCG matrix..

ANS: BOSTON CONSULTING GROUP (BCG) MATRIX: The BCG matrix was developed by Boston Consulting Group. Its main purpose was to compare different businesses in an organization's portfolio on the basis of market share and market growth. It helps the organization in allocating resources to its various businesses.

Categories of BCG matrix:

The matrix defines four business groups. The SBUs plotted on BCG matrix can be classified as follows:

- Star: Star has a high market share in a growing market.
- Cash Cow: Cash Cow is an SBU which has high market share in a slowly growing market.
- Question Mark: Have low market share in a growing market. They are the problem creators.

Leadership is a trait which comprises of many virtues and qualities. It is a process but at the same time having attained all the qualities of a leader, it can also be termed as a property. Leadership is a multi-disciplined and a multi-dimensional trait which comprises of different elements.
Places where a decision is required to be taken may require a leadership process to reach a specific decision. But at times when there are individuals who look forward and join an individual since they think that he is the one who will assist them in achieving their goals would be termed as a property. Corporations and businesses want to acquire such managers who have the charisma to make people follow them blindly. In such cases leadership becomes a property

Can individual be so much motivated that his/ her performance declines as a result of excessive efforts ? Discuss.

Yes, in certain case its true. If a person set goals too high for himself, he may end up

Demotivating himself because of the failure to achieve the goals.

When rewards are used by organizations as payoffs for better performance, the intrinsic rewards, which are derived from person doing what they like, are reduced.

Due to excessive efforts, person loss the control over own behavior so that pervious motivation diminishes.

The elimination of extrinsic rewards can produce a shifting from an external to an internal explanation in an individual's perception of thinking that why he works on a task.

Too much motivation make person to think differentiate themselves from others by their desire to do things better.

Question No: 52 (Marks: 10)

How can we implement Maslow's Hierarchy of need theory in our life? Discuss in detail.

Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs is based on the assumption that people are motivated by a series of five universal needs. These needs are ranked, according to the order in which they influence human behavior, in hierarchical fashion.

Physiological needs are deemed to be the lowest- level needs. These needs but be fullfiled

safety needs -- the needs for shelter and security

Social needs include the need for belongingness and love

esteem needs After social needs have been satisfied, ego and esteem needs

self-actualization the need for self-realization, continuous self-development, and the process of becoming all that a person is capable of becoming.

In daily life if we translate this theory its discusss food is basic need of human being we should look into this basic need to motivate our wokers

Stability is equal to safety in malsow's theory . friendship is equal to esteem in theory.

Status and achievements esteem and achievement respectively.

Above theory is used to motivate our works,. We also get guideline during our daily life. It provide us the path to look into needs of others.

Question No: 53 (Marks: 10)

Do you think motivation comes from within a person or it is a result of the situation? Explain in your own words.

What is motivation

Motivation is the internal condition that activates behavior and gives it direction; and energizes and directs goal-oriented behavior

Motivation comes from within. Very few people are highly motivated at work. Most people work at only a small fraction of their actual capabilities. Your Employer can create only motivational environment. It is up to you to motivate yourself.

The highest levels of motivation come when we are in tune with our mind and thinking.

Self-improvement is one of the best motivators because its comes from you inner feelings. Money Does Not Motivate. People adapt to the amount of money they are making that motivation is short- lived. Managers often try to motivate employees via promises of financial rewards and promotion but people likes motivators such as feeling valued and appericated. People are motivated when they feel understood.

True motivation only comes from within an individual but it can only be started from external factors.

Question No: 51 (Marks: 5)

Who are responsible for setting goals? Do you think different Managers set goals, or one manager is responsible for it?

ANS: GOAL SETTING: Goals are the desired outcomes for the individuals, groups or organizations. The success of an organization depends on its goals and how they are achieved. Goal setting is the responsibility of a manager. There are three managers at three different levels:

- Top manager

- Middle manager
- First Line manager

Each manager is responsible for setting goals at different level.

1. Top manager sets the strategic goals which are organization wide.
2. Middle managers set Tactical goals
3. First line managers set operational goals which are related to the operations of the organization.

But it is important that all the goals set by managers should be in accordance to organization's mission.

Question No: 52 (Marks: 10)

Describe the significant workplace issues that affect motivation in today's workforce.

ANS: MOTIVATION: It is the willingness to exert high levels of efforts to reach organizational goals.

Motivation is an important aspect in today's world where competition is increasing day by day, so there is a strong need for motivating employees in order to get best performance from them. Inspite the importance of motivation there are various issues which affect the motivation in today's workforce. Some of the such factors are given below:

- Inappropriate Goals: the goal itself acts as a motivator but if not set well it creates lack of understanding in employees which results in poor performance.
- Recognition: In today's world recognition acts as a strong motivator. If a worker's performance is good he needs to be recognized so that his performance is reinforced but if there is lack of recognition it will de-motivate the worker.
- Salary/Pay: The basic physiological needs are satisfied by money so salary /pay plays an important role in motivating an employee. If it is not upto to the limit where it satisfies workers basic needs it is obvious that low salary will cause de-motivation in employee.

- Opportunities: Everyone desires to develop their capabilities and reaching their full potential, it can somehow be achieved by career opportunities offered by the organization. If an organization does not allow an employee to excel in his/her career this may lose his interest in work.
- Work Itself: The job and the working conditions if not liked by worker he will not do his job with interest and will yield low performance.

Question No: 53 (Marks: 10)

How can a manager make the delegation process more effective? Give logical reasons to support your answer.

ANS: DELEGATION: Delegation is the assignment of part of manager's work to others along with responsibility and authority.

Effective Delegation: Delegation can be made effective in many ways:

· Trust: It is very important while delegating to have full trust in the subordinates. If manger lacks trust in subordinates he will always have a threat of their failure.

· Training the subordinates: Delegation can be effectively done if subordinates know what and how they have to do their work. For this they must be trained well.

· Manager's knowledge about delegation: While delegating manager should know how to delegate i.e how to take work from subordinates and which tasks should be assigned to subordinates.

Question No: 54 (Marks: 10)

Discuss the Boston Consulting Group (BCG) matrix and explain its usefulness in segmenting businesses. Discuss the characteristics for each of the four categories based on the BCG matrix..

ANS: BOSTON CONSULTING GROUP (BCG) MATRIX: The BCG matrix was developed by Boston Consulting Group. Its main purpose was to compare different businesses in an organization's portfolio on the basis of market share and market growth. It helps the organization in allocating resources to its various businesses.

Categories of BCG matrix:

The matrix defines four business groups. The SBUs plotted on BCG matrix can be classified as follows:

- Star: Star has a high market share in a growing market.
- Cash Cow: Cash Cow is an SBU which has high market share in a slowly growing market.
- Question Mark: Have low market share in a growing market. They are the problem creators.
- Dog: Has low market share in a low growing market.
