

MGT-111 – Introduction to Public Administration

Lesson VISE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS for Midterm by Mudasar Qureshi Vu360

LESSON NO 1? Introduction

What are the objectives of the course on Public Administration/Management?

- Why is the course on public administration/management considered important?
- Define public administration and explain its significance in governance?
- Discuss the historical origins of public administration as a practice?
- What were the reasons for the emergence of public administration as a subject of study after World War I?
- Provide various definitions of public administration and analyze their implications?
- Explain the concept of democracy and its values in the context of governance?
- Describe the institutions of the state and their respective roles in governance?
- Define government and its role in governing society?
- Discuss the concepts of organization, management, process, efficiency, and state in the context of public administration?

LESSON NO 2? Evolution of Public Administration

- What is the relationship between public administration, democracy, and citizens' rights as outlined in the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan 1973?
- Discuss the evolution of public administration/management and its significance?
- Who were the main contributors to the Classical School of public administration, and what were their major theories?
- How did Woodrow Wilson view the role of government and public administration in his essay "The Study of Administration"?
- Explain Leonard D? White's perspective on the concerns of public administration, focusing on efficiency and democratic values?
- What was the concept of "value-free" science of management as emphasized by W? F? Willoughby?
- Describe Frederick Winslow Taylor's contributions to scientific management and his approach to increasing efficiency in organizations?
- What were the key principles derived from Taylor's shoveling experiment, and how did they influence management practices?
- Define the Classical School of Management and explain its emphasis on scientific management standards?
- What is meant by the term "theory" in the context of public administration, and how does it contribute to understanding organizational phenomena.

<https://chat?whatsapp.com/F5zhJsitf5yL4RjDODz1fL>

LESSON NO 3? Classical School of Thoughts – I

Here are some important questions based on the provided paragraph:

- Discuss the key contributors to the Classical School of Management and their significant contributions?
- Explain the concept of scientific management and its emphasis on efficiency, citing examples from the works of Fredrick Winslow Taylor, Henry L? Gantt, and Frank and Lillian Gilbreth?
- What were Max Weber's main characteristics of bureaucracy, and how did they influence organizational structures?
- Describe the principles of management proposed by Henri Fayol and their significance in modern management practices?
- How did Henry L? Gantt contribute to the development of management techniques, particularly with the introduction of the Gantt chart?
- Discuss the importance of division of work, authority, and unity of command as outlined by Henri Fayol in the context of organizational management?
- What were the main features of the Classical School of Management, and how did it differ from the Human Relation Approach?
- Explain the concept of hierarchy of authority and its relevance in organizational structures?
- How did Frank and Lillian Gilbreth contribute to scientific management, particularly through their focus on time and motion studies?
- Discuss the transition from the Classical School of Management to the Human Relation Approach and its implications for organizational theory and practice?

LESSON NO 4? Classical School of Thoughts – II

- Here are some important questions based on the provided paragraph:
- Discuss the main contributors to the Human Relations School of thought in public administration and management?
- Explain the significance of the Hawthorne studies conducted at the Western Electric Company's Hawthorne Plant?
- How did Elton Mayo's findings in the Hawthorne studies challenge the assumptions of the Classical School of Management?

- Describe the concept of the Hawthorne effect and its implications for organizational behavior and productivity?
- What were Chester I? Barnard's key contributions to the understanding of organizational management, as outlined in "The Function of the Executive"?
- Explain the concept of the three zones of employee acceptance as proposed by Chester I? Barnard?
- How did Herbert Simon contribute to the Human Relations School's understanding of decision-making processes within organizations?
- Discuss the main concepts associated with the Human Relations School of thought in public administration and management?
- What were the major criticisms of the Classical School of Management that led to the development of the Human Relations School?
- Analyze the implications of the Human Relations School's perspective on organizational behavior and productivity in modern organizations?
-

LESSON NO 5? Human Relations Schools

- What are the main features of the Human Relations School in public administration and management?
- Explain the relationship between the Human Relations School and the Behavioural School in organizational theory?
- Discuss Douglas McGregor's Theory X and Theory Y and their implications for understanding human behavior in organizations?
- Describe Abraham Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs theory and its relevance to organizational behavior and management?
- Who were the main contributors to the System School of thought in organizational theory, and what are the key concepts associated with this school?
- Compare and contrast open and closed systems in the context of organizational theory?
- How does the System School view organizations, and what does it emphasize in understanding organizational behavior?
- Discuss the concept of subsystems within organizations and their significance in system theory?
- Explain the importance of feedback in organizational systems and how it contributes to organizational effectiveness?
- Why is it important to consider multiple theories and schools of thought when studying organizational behavior and management?

LESSON NO 6? Power And Politics

- Define power and politics in the context of organizational behavior and management?
- Discuss the main types of power used by managers in organizations, providing examples for each?
- Explain the concept of conflict in organizations and its potential positive and negative impacts?
- What are the main reasons behind managers' negative views toward politics in organizations?
- Describe the three-dimensional typology proposed by Farrell and Peterson (1982) for understanding organizational political behavior?
- How do power and politics influence decision-making and problem-solving processes within organizations?
- Discuss the relationship between power, authority, and legitimacy within organizational structures?
- Why is it important for managers to understand and effectively manage power and political behavior in organizations?
- How can managers use power and politics positively to achieve organizational goals and manage conflicts?
- Provide examples of how different types of power and political behaviors manifest at various levels of an organization?

LESSON NO 7? History of Public Administration – I

- How did the Management Science School emerge, and what are its key principles?
- What are the traditional functions of government, and why are they essential for effective governance?
- Describe the administrative practices of the Indus Valley Civilization, including its governmental structure and functions?
- Discuss the administrative innovations introduced during the Moghul Period, particularly under rulers like Sher Shah Suri and Akbar?
- Explain the impact of British rule on the administrative systems and practices in the Indian subcontinent, including the role of the East India Company?
- What were the significant provisions of the Regulating Act of 1773, and how did it shape British governance in India?
- Analyze the events leading up to the 1857 war of independence and its consequences for British rule in India?
- How did the administrative practices of the Moghul Period influence the British administrative structure in India?
- Discuss the significance of the East India Company in the context of British colonial administration in India?
- Evaluate the continuity and changes in administrative practices from the Indus Valley Civilization to the British Period in the Indian subcontinent?

LESSON NO 8? History of Public Administration – II

- How did the events leading up to the 1857 war of independence impact the administration of British India?
- What were the key provisions of the Government of India Act 1858, and how did it change the administrative structure in India?
- Describe the structure and evolution of the civil service during the British colonial period in India, including the distinctions between covenanted and uncovenanted employees?
- What recommendations were made by the Atchison Commission (1886-87), and how did they influence the organization of the Indian Civil Service?
- Discuss the role of the East India College in training individuals for the Indian Civil Service and the criteria for recruitment?
- How did the Indian Civil Service Act 1861 impact the promotion and recruitment policies within the civil service?
- Explain the significance of the establishment of the Public Service Commission in 1926?
- What provisions were introduced regarding security of tenure for civil servants under the Government of India Act 1935?
- Discuss the contributions of the British administration in areas such as law, finance, education, railways, public works, and public health in India?
- What challenges did the newly formed country of Pakistan face in terms of public administration at the time of independence, and how were they addressed?

LESSON NO 9? Civil Service

- Define civil service and explain its significance in the context of public administration?
- Describe the two methods of recruiting civil servants in Pakistan?
- Outline the structure of the federal and provincial governments in Pakistan, including the hierarchy of ministries, departments, and autonomous bodies?
- Discuss the traditional functions of government and explain how modern governments have expanded their functions?
- Explain the concept of All-Pakistan Services and Central Services in Pakistan's civil service system?
- Identify the components of the Civil Service of Pakistan (CSP) and the Police Service of Pakistan (PSP)?
- Describe the Central Services that existed in Pakistan before the Administrative Reforms of 1973?
- Analyze the historical continuity in the civil service structure inherited from the colonial period and its implications for the development of Pakistan?
- Discuss the challenges faced by the civil service structure in Pakistan and its alignment with the country's developmental needs?
- Evaluate the need for reform in the civil service structure to better serve the goals of modern governance and development in Pakistan?

<https://chat?whatsapp.com/F5zhJsitf5yL4RjDODz1fL>

LESSON NO 10? Civil Service Reforms

- Here are some important questions based on the provided paragraph:

- What were the key observations made by Rowland Egger in his report on the civil service of Pakistan in 1953?
- Discuss the recommendations put forward by Rowland Egger to improve the working of the civil service?
- Who was Bernard Gladieux and what were his criticisms regarding the structure of the civil service?
- Outline the recommendations of the First Five Year Plan of the Government of Pakistan regarding civil service reforms?
- Explain the findings and recommendations of the Pay and Service Commission of 1962?
- What were the key recommendations proposed by the Working Group of 1969 to improve the civil service structure?
- Discuss the main recommendations made by the Administrative Reforms Committee of 1972?
- How were the reforms in the civil service structure implemented in Pakistan?
- Describe the categories of civil service in Pakistan and the criteria for recruitment?
- What are the major training institutions for civil servants in Pakistan, and what types of training do they offer?

LESSON NO 11? 1973 Constitution of Pakistan

What is the significance of the Preamble in the Constitution of Pakistan?

- Describe the territories of the state of Pakistan as outlined in the Constitution?
- Discuss the constitutional provision regarding the state religion of Pakistan?
- Explain the definition of the state according to Article 7 of the Constitution?
- Distinguish between government and state as defined in the Constitution?
- What is the role of the President in the executive authority of the federation?
- Outline the composition and functions of the Parliament of Pakistan?
- Describe the composition and functions of the National Economic Council (NEC)?
- Explain the purpose and functions of the National Finance Commission (NFC)?
- Discuss the provisions regarding the establishment and functions of the Public Service Commission in Pakistan?

LESSON NO 12? Structure of Government

- What is the significance of the Rules of Business in the functioning of the government?
- Describe the structure of the government as outlined in the Constitution?
- Explain the concept of a ministry and its relationship with divisions?
- Discuss the main functions of the Finance Division within a ministry?
- Outline the organizational structure of the Finance Division?
- Differentiate between attached departments and autonomous bodies under a ministry?
- How does the minister's role differ from that of the secretary within a ministry?
- Discuss the importance of the Cabinet in the decision-making process of the government?
- Explain the concept of autonomous bodies and their role within the government structure?
- How are policies formulated and executed within a ministry, and what role do secretaries play in this process?

LESSON NO 13? Public and Private Administration

- What are the fundamental differences between public and private sector organizations?
- How does the concept of public interest differentiate the objectives of public and private sector entities?
- Explain the significance of ambiguity in setting goals for public organizations compared to private sector entities?
- Describe pluralistic decision making and its impact on public sector management, contrasting it with private sector decision making?
- Discuss the visibility of public sector managers in comparison to their counterparts in the private sector, and its implications?
- How do government policies and actions differ from market dynamics in determining prices and operations?
- Define and provide examples of public goods, highlighting their characteristics and implications for public administration?
- Evaluate the allegation that public organizations are less efficient compared to private organizations, citing reasons and potential solutions?
- Explain the unique powers possessed by governments, including the power to regulate, coerce, and the pervasiveness of their laws?
- Summarize the concepts of ambiguity, pluralistic decision making, and visibility, and their relevance to public administration?

LESSON NO 14? Organization

Define organizational roles and explain their significance in facilitating effective cooperation within organizations?

- Describe the process of organizing within an organization, highlighting the main steps involved?
- Differentiate between formal and informal organizations, providing examples of each?
- Discuss the concept of departmentalization and its importance in expanding organizations?
- Explain the principle of span of control and factors influencing an effective span of control?
- What are the types of departmentalization? Provide examples of each type?
- How do organizational levels and spans of management contribute to the structure of an organization?
- Discuss the significance of clear delegation of authority in determining the effectiveness of span of control?
- Explain the concept of informal organization and its relationship with formal organizational structures?
- Summarize the key concepts of organization, organizational roles, formal and informal organizations, span of control, and departmentalization?

LESSON NO 15? Departmentalization

Define departmentalization and explain its significance in organizational structure?

- Discuss the various bases of departmentalization, including departmentalization by number, time, function, geography, customer, and product?
- What are the advantages and disadvantages of departmentalization by time?
- Explain the advantages and disadvantages of departmentalization by function, providing examples of each?
- Describe the advantages and disadvantages of departmentalization by geography, with relevant illustrations?
- Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of departmentalization by customer, citing examples?
- What are the benefits and challenges associated with departmentalization by product?
- Define matrix organizations and explain how they combine functional and project-based departmentalization?
- What are the typical problems encountered in matrix management? Provide examples to illustrate each problem?
- Summarize the key concepts of departmentalization, including its various bases and matrix organizations?

LESSON NO 16? Power and Authority

Define power and authority, highlighting their roles in organizational dynamics?

- Explain the concepts of line and staff functions within an organization, providing examples of each?
- Discuss the nature of delegation and its significance in organizational management?
- What is the scalar principle, and how does it contribute to organizational effectiveness?
- Describe the concept of functional authority and its implications for organizational decision-making?
- Discuss the benefits and limitations of staff functions within an organization?
- Explain the concept of decentralization of authority and its importance in organizational structure?
- Differentiate between centralization and decentralization of authority, providing examples of each?
- What are the different kinds of centralization within an organization? Provide examples to illustrate each kind?
- Summarize the key concepts of power, authority, delegation, line and staff functions, scalar principle, functional authority, and centralization/decentralization?

LESSON NO 17? Delegation of Authority

- Outline the process of delegation of authority within an organization? Why is it essential for effective management?
- Discuss the role of personal attitudes towards delegation in organizational decision-making? How can managers overcome resistance to delegation?
- What are the guidelines for overcoming weak delegation and achieving effective decentralization within an organization?
- Explain the determinants that influence the degree of delegation of authority in management decision-making?
- Describe the importance of coordination in achieving organizational goals? How does specialization affect the need for coordination?
- How does coordination help prevent conflicts and promote efficiency within an organization?
- Discuss the impact of specialization on individuals' perception of organizational goals and interpersonal styles?
- Summarize the key concepts of delegation of authority, coordination, and specialization, and their significance in organizational management?

LESSON NO 18? Planning – I

- Discuss the importance of planning in organizational management? How does planning contribute to the achievement of organizational goals?
- Define planning and outline the key principles underlying the planning process? How do different levels of planning contribute to organizational success?
- Explain the relationship between planning and controlling in organizational management? How do effective planning and controlling support each other?
- Describe the four major aspects of planning, including its contribution to organizational objectives, its importance in managerial tasks, its pervasiveness, and the efficiency vs? effectiveness of plans?
- Identify and explain the different types of plans used in organizational management, including purpose or mission, objectives or goals, strategies, policies, procedures, rules, programs, and budgets?
- Discuss the significance of each type of plan in organizational decision-making and goal achievement? Provide examples to illustrate each type of plan?
- How does the concept of pervasiveness of planning influence managerial roles and responsibilities within an organization?
- Explain the role of control in the planning process? How do managers establish standards and measure performance against them to ensure the success of plans?

LESSON NO 19? Planning – II

- What are the remaining types of plans discussed in the lecture? Provide examples of each type and explain their significance in organizational management?
- Describe the eight steps involved in the planning process? How do these steps contribute to the rational approach to setting objectives and achieving organizational goals?
- Discuss the significance of recognizing the need for planning in the planning process? How does recognizing the need for planning contribute to organizational efficiency and effectiveness?
- Explain the process of determining objectives in the planning process? Why are objectives considered crucial in the planning process?
- Describe the role of forecasting in the planning process? How do organizations use forecasting to anticipate future trends and make informed decisions?
- Discuss the importance of evaluating alternatives in the planning process? How does the evaluation of alternatives help organizations make effective decisions?
- Explain the significance of implementing and revising plans in the planning process? How do these steps contribute to the success of organizational plans?
- Discuss the three principles of planning: time horizon, commitment principle, and coordination of short-term and long-term plans? How do these principles guide organizations in effective planning?

LESSON NO 20? Planning Commission and Planning Development

Discuss the historical background and evolution of planning organizations in Pakistan, starting from the Development Board to the establishment of the Planning Commission? What were the main objectives behind the creation of these organizations?

- Explain the functions of the Planning Commission at the national level in Pakistan? How does the Planning Commission contribute to the socio-economic development of the country?
- Describe the relationship between national plans and development projects in Pakistan? How do projects contribute to the realization of the goals outlined in national plans?
- Outline the process of project completion in Pakistan, from project identification to project evaluation? What are the key steps involved in this process, and how does each step contribute to the successful implementation of development projects?
- Discuss the structure and functions of provincial planning organizations in Pakistan, focusing on the Planning and Development Department? How do these departments contribute to the development planning process at the provincial level?
- Explain the role of the Planning and Development Working Party (PDWP) in approving development projects at the provincial level in Pakistan? What criteria are considered during the approval process?
- Analyze the significance of planning organizations in Pakistan for the overall development of the country? How do these organizations ensure systematic and rational planning for socio-economic progress?
- Define the concept of the project cycle and discuss its importance in the context of development planning in Pakistan? How does understanding the project cycle help in managing and evaluating development projects effectively?

LESSON NO 21? Decision Making

- Discuss the significance of decision making in the context of planning? How does decision making influence the effectiveness of planning processes?
- Explain the concept of rationality in decision making? What are the key steps involved in rational decision making, and how does it contribute to organizational success?
- Compare and contrast the Organizational Process Model and Rationality in Decision Making theory? How do these theories explain decision making within organizations?
- What is limited rationality, and how does it affect the decision-making process? Discuss the challenges managers face due to limited time, information, and certainty?
- Describe the steps involved in rational decision making, including the search for alternatives and the evaluation of alternatives? How do managers select the best course of action?
- Differentiate between programmed and non-programmed decisions? Provide examples of each type of decision and explain when they are typically used in organizations?
- Discuss the various decision-making situations that managers encounter, ranging from certainty to uncertainty? How does uncertainty impact the decision-making process, and what methods can be used to improve decision quality?

- Explain the approaches to decision making, such as risk analysis, decision tree, and preference theory? How do these approaches help managers make informed decisions under conditions of uncertainty?
- Analyze the factors that influence the decision-making process, including personal differences, role of knowledge, and institutional factors? How do these factors shape the decisions made by managers within organizations?
- Evaluate the importance of rational decision making in organizational success? How can managers overcome limitations in decision making to achieve better outcomes?

LESSON NO 22? Human Resource Management (HRM)

- Discuss the concept of human resource management (HRM) and its significance in organizational success? How does HRM contribute to the efficient utilization of resources within an organization?
- Explain the importance of human resource planning in HRM? What are the key components of human resource planning, and how does it help organizations prepare for future workforce needs?
- Describe the recruitment process in HRM? What are the sources of recruitment, and why is job analysis essential before recruitment?
- Outline the selection process in HRM? How does the selection process ideally involve mutual decision-making, and what factors influence this process?
- Analyze the relationship between job description, position description, and hiring specification in the recruitment and selection process? How do these components help organizations attract and identify suitable candidates?
- Evaluate the role of labour market dynamics in recruitment and selection? How does the labour market influence the availability and quality of candidates for different job positions?
- Discuss the challenges and considerations involved in the selection process when the job market is extremely tight or when there is a shortage of qualified workers? How do organizations attract and retain talent in such situations?
- Explain the concept of staffing in HRM and its relationship with the seven steps involved in the HRM process, including recruitment, selection, socialization, training, performance appraisal, compensation, and promotion?
- Compare and contrast job description, position description, and hiring specification? How do these documents contribute to effective workforce management and organizational planning?
- Reflect on the importance of HRM processes in achieving organizational goals and maintaining a competitive edge in the market? How can organizations optimize their HRM practices to enhance employee satisfaction and productivity?

Best Of Luck