Q.1 Which of the following subcategories of a language can be termed as 'language variety'?

A. Dialect

B. All of the given options

C. Style

D. Register

Q.2 Which of the following linguists defined Sociolinguistics?

A. Holmes

B. Fishman

C. All of the given options

D. Nordquist

Q.3 A trade language widely spoken as a non-native language is known as ___.

A. standard language

B. lingua franca

C. creole

D. pidgin

Q.4 In sociolinguistics, language ___ is a general term for any distinctive form of a language or linguistic expression.

A. lect

B. dialect

C. variety

D. jargon

Q.5 An individual also has a ___; that is, he or she controls a number of varieties of a language or of two or more languages.

A. group

B. community

C. networks

D. repertoire

Q.6 Sociology of language is the study of the relations between language and ____.

A. society

B. objects

C. words

D. cities

VU TOOLKIT

Q.7 Which of the following may relate to a place or community?

A. Liberty

B. Variety

C. Propreity

D. Sobriety

Q.8 Who has defined a real speech community as all the people who use a given language or dialect?

A. Krauss

B. Trudgill

C. Lyon

D. Labov

Q.9 According to the Oxford Companion to the English Language (1992), there are two broad types of language ___.

A. variety

B. discipline

C. principles

D. attitudes

Q.10 Sociolinguistics is the ___study of the effect of any and all aspects of society.

A. collaborative

B. narrative

C. descriptive

D. prescriptive

VU TOOLKIT