Q.1 Hierarchical Network Models suggests that semantic memory is organized into _____ categories.

A. two

B. six

C. none of the given options

D. four

Q.2 In Parsing, the _____ representation of the linguistic relationships within a sentence, usually in the form of a tree structure or phrase marker.

A. subsequent

B. external

C. internal

D. side by side

Q.3 The researchers basic interest lie into investigating the speech production from both perspectives i.e. word by word process and _____ sentence process.

A. organized

B. whole

C. None of the given option

D. minimum

Q.4 Studies of figurative language has been focused primarily on_____.

A. overt meaning

B. covert meaning

C. metaphor

D. meaning behind the lines

Q.5 Psycholinguistics can be divided into _____ periods of interdisciplinary activity.

A. four

B. two

C. three

D. none of the given options

Q.6 To describe how humans communicate through sentences/utterances is called _____ of the language.

A. structure

B. function

C. process

D. grammar

Q.7 Working memory capacity is also related to _____in comprehension performance.

A. cognition

B. constructivism

C. individual differences

D. behaviorism

Q.8 A cognitive system with a limited capacity that is responsible for temporarily holding information available for processing is _____.

A. LAD

B. Parsing

C. Working memory

D. Discourse patterning

Q.9 Researches concerning the sentence memory suggest that _____of a sentence is/are retained by an individual.

A. meaning and deep structures

B. none of the given options

C. only the meaning

D. meaning and form

Q.10 Behaviorists favored the study of objective_____.

A. Performance

B. Behavior

C. Competence

D. Thinking

VU TOOLKIT