Q.1 _____is a very strict word-order language.

A. French
B. Dutch
C. Russian
D. English

Q.2 Wernicke's Aphasia is _____ deficit.

A. production
B. written
C. spoken
D. comprehension

Q.3 The CPH in the context of Psycholinguistics stands for _____.

A. critical professional hypothesis
B. critical poisoning hypothesis
C. critical period hypothesis
D. conduct and Practices hypothesis

Q.4 SLI is the abbreviation of _____.

A. school language impairment
B. specific language impairment
C. surface language impairment
D. self language impairment

Q.5 Wernicke's Aphasia was discovered by _____.

A. John Wernicke
B. Kim Wernicke
C. Sau Wernicke
D. Carl Wernicke

Q.6 Mutual exclusivity might influence _____.

A. none of the given options
B. meaning
C. word generalization
D. grammar

Q.7 Children focus on _____relations between objects when categorizing.

A. thematic

B. contextual

C. grammatical

D. structural

Q.8 In Psycholinguistics, the CPH can be elaborated as _____.

A. Concordia Publishing House

B. Conduct and Practices Handbook

C. Certified Professional Horticulturist

D. Critical Period Hypothesis

Q.9 Parameters is a framework within _____.

A. general linguistics

B. generative linguistics

C. applied linguistics

D. pure linguistics

Q.10 The two word stage starts from _____months.

A. 18

B. 24

C. 22

D. 26
