Q.1 The family is the secondary form of socialization that plays the most important role in raising children.

A. False

B. True

Q.2 What is Family Diversity?

A. Dominance of a particular family pattern worldwide

B. Emphasis on extended families around the globe

C. Existence of diverse family structures in the society

D. The tendency of increased homogeneous families

Q.3 Legal termination of marriage is known as:

A. Breakup

B. Seperation

C. Engagement

D. Divorce

Q.4 Which of the following statement is a significance of having sociologists on the staff of medical schools and hospitals?

A. They regulate the medical profession

B. They perform medical procedures

C. They study the influence of culture on medicine

D. They provide medical care

Q.5 Women's entry into workforce led to emphasis on two important aspects in society i.e _____ and Self-reliance.

A. Rationalization

B. Socialization

C. Individualism

D. Egalitarianism

Q.6 The _____ perspective suggests that health care is one of the scarcest resources in the world over which people struggle.

A. Functionalist

B. Conflict

Q.7 According to the functionalist perspective, societies set up ways to control sickness primarily by making rules that prevent people from being sick.

A. True

B. False

Q.8 In Pakistan, while fathers and other relatives contribute but the overwhelming belief persists that child-rearing is primarily the duty of mothers.

A. False

B. True

Q.9 Individuals delay marriages for the sake of their _____ .

A. Career

B. Economy

C. Health

D. Religion

Q.10 Which of the following term refers to physical, emotional and sexual abuse of a partner to the other in married relationship?

A. Termination of marriage

B. Familial relationships

C. Domestic violence

D. Manhood in patriarchy

Q.1 Which societies consider same-sex relationships as individual's freedom of choice?

A. Traditional

B. Islamic

C. European

D. Patriarchal

Q.2 The family is the secondary form of socialization that plays the most important role in raising children.

A. False

B. True

Q.3 Which one of the following is considered as basic unit in Pakistani society?

A. Politics

B. Health

C. Religion

D. Family

Q.4 Same-sex families are recognized and accepted under Pakistani law due to influence from European civilizations.

A. True

B. False

Q.5 Housing Structures were small in early urban/industrial societies; only nuclear families could adjust in such houses.

A. True

B. False

Q.6 Divorce is the term used to describe the social termination of a marriage relationship.

A. True

B. False

Q.7 The symbolic interactionist perspective suggests that mental health is determined solely by biological factors.

A. False

B. True

Q.8 Which of the following descended family system does not create social boundaries during the transfer of property?

A. Uni-lineal

B. Bi-lineal

Q.9 The conflict perspective focuses on people's struggles for the equitable distribution of resources.

A. True

B. False

Q.10 Domestic violence refers to physical, emotional and sexual abuse of a partner to the other in married relationship

A. True

B. False

Q.1 Epidemiology is the study of the incidence and distribution of _____ and disease in a society.

A. Health

B. Wealth

Q.2 Which one of the following perspectives highlights the ways in which gender roles are constructed and reinforced through everyday behaviors?

A. Feminist

B. Symbolic interactionist

C. Conflict

D. Structural functionalist

Q.3 Which of the following factors have influenced the divorce rate in Pakistan?

A. Women economic independence

B. Cultural change

C. All of the given options

D. Easier access to to legal support

Q.4 Child custody laws govern the judicial proceedings that establish the parent or guardian responsible for a child's upbringing when the parents fail to reach a consensus on this matter.

A. True

B. False

Q.5 The advancements in_____ and changing gender expectations reshape the conventional notions of what is suitable for both husbands and wive.

A. Agriculture

B. Technology

Q.6 Mate selection refers to the process by which people choose their life partner.

A. False

B. True

Q.7 Symbolic interactionist perspective views the ways members of society construct their own _____ by interacting with other members.

A. Social media

B. Socila condition

C. Social reality

D. Social status

Q.8 The _____ perspective suggests that health care is one of the scarcest resources in the world over which people struggle.

A. Functionalist

B. Conflict

Q.9 Which of the following is an example of medicalization?

A. Labeling shyness as a social anxiety disorder

B. The introduction of new fashion styles

C. The expansion of public transportation

D. The development of new exercise trends

Q.10 In arranged marriages within Pakistani culture, it is common for families to exchange gifts or dowries as a symbol of mutual respect.

A. False

B. True

Q.1 Epidemiology is the study of the incidence and distribution of _____ and disease in a society.

A. Wealth

B. Health

Q.2 Thompson and Hickey (2016) identified behavioral issues at school as not a reason for children in single-parent households.

A. False

B. True

Q.3 The family is the basis of_____ because it performs crucial tasks in society.

A. Social order

B. Social conflict

Q.4 The existence of family structure and arrangements in society is known as:

A. Family homogenity

B. Cultural homogenity

C. Globalized family

D. Family diversity

Q.5 According to Thompson and Hickey (2016), which of the following negative outcomes is likely to occur in children from single-parent households?

A. All of the given options

B. Physical health problems

C. Behavioral issues at school

D. Dropout rates

Q.6 The study of epidemiology focuses on the historical evolution of healthcare practices.

A. False

B. True

Q.7 Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a concern about alternative medicine in the past?

A. Lack of scientific validation

B. Overwhelming support

C. Efficacy

D. Safety concerns

Q.8 What is Family Diversity?

A. Dominance of a particular family pattern worldwide

B. Existence of diverse family structures in the society

C. The tendency of increased homogeneous families

D. Emphasis on extended families around the globe

Q.9 Domestic violence, work-family balance, and divorce are hurdles in maintaining healthy familial relationships.

A. False

B. True

Q.10 In Pakistan, descent pasterns are unanimously:

A. Multilinal

B. Matrilineal

C. Patrilineal

D. Bilateral

Q.1 The symbolic interactionist perspective suggests that mental health is determined solely by biological factors.

A. True

B. False

Q.2 Same-sex families are not legally recognized in Pakistan as these are contrary to the ____ideology.

A. Modern

B. Islamic

C. Global

D. Western

Q.3 The sick role, according to Talcott Parsons, includes exemption from normal responsibilities and seeking competent help for recovery.

A. False

B. True

Q.4 The MOST resistant factor of the modernization is:

A. Family

B. Religion

C. Militray

D. School

Q.5 Due to growth of middle class in Pakistan, education and career opportunities are also increasing. This situation has resulted in a change in _____ dynamics.

A. Religion

B. Media

C. Health

D. Family

Q.6 When examining the family tree from the younger generation to the older ones, it is known as bilateral descent.

A. True

B. False

Q.7 Criteria for mate selection is _____ in a Muslim society and Hindu society.

A. Different

B. Compatible

C. Same

D. Forced

Q.8 Which of the following is an example of a social norm that regulates reproduction in Pakistan?

A. None of the given options
B. Having children outside the marriage
C. Having children before getting married
D. Having children after marriage

Q.9 Conflict in marriage is so common that it frequently shows up in books, music, movies, and soap operas.

A. False
B. True

Q.10 Which of the following is the most common reason for the single-parent households since World War II?

A. Divorce
B. Economic Independence
C. Death of a spouse
D. None of the given options

Q.1 Which of the following is an example of medicalization?

A. Labeling shyness as a social anxiety disorder

B. The development of new exercise trends

C. The expansion of public transportation

D. The introduction of new fashion styles

Q.2 Race is considered as one of the social variable related to life expectancy.

A. True

B. False

Q.3 Prior to modernization in Western societies, the nuclear family was considered as the predominant form of family

A. True

B. False

Q.4 The housing structures developed in early Urban/industrial societies were built in a way that only _____ type of families could live.

A. Single-parent

B. Nuclear

C. Joint

D. Extended

Q.5 Which one of the following patterns refers to the ways of organization and structure of families?

A. Residence pattern

B. Descent pattern

C. Authority pattern

D. Family pattern

Q.6 Single-parent families are often headed by divorced or widowed women in Pakistan who receive no emotional or financial support from:

A. Friends

B. Government

C. Parents

D. Law

Q.7 In recent years Pakistani society has witnessed _____ equality at the household level.

A. Academic

B. Health

C. Political

D. Gender

Q.8 Socioeconomic status does impact health and access to healthcare within the United States.

A. False

B. True

Q.9 Integrative medicine includes conventional medical treatments in favor of alternative therapies.

A. False

B. True

Q.10 Alternative medical systems other than _____ are discouraged by governments.

A. Cosmopolitan

B. Religious

C. Homeopathic

D. Tradtional

Q.1 Pakistan's policymakers are expressing concerns over the _____ population growth rates in the country.

A. Unstable

B. High

C. Low

D. Stable

Q.2 Traditional authority tends to be completely egalitarian, ignoring social distinctions.

A. True

B. False

Q.3 In Hinduism, the belief in the single, supreme God is central.

A. True

B. False

Q.4 What is one advantage of schooling?

A. Bringing down the unemployment rate

B. Encouraging political dissent

C. Fostering cultural isolation

D. Promoting social unrest

Q.5 What does the conflict perspective suggest about the bottom line in education?

A. Test results outweigh family background

B. Academic talent is the sole determinant

C. Elite colleges focus on diversity

D. Family background weighs more heavily than test results

Q.6 In Max Weber's "The Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism," which nations played prominent role in the rapid emergence of capitalism?

A. Spain and Portugal

B. Sweden and Norway

C. England and Holland

D. France and Italy

Q.7 Fertility rates are associated with women's _____ and access to opportunities.

A. Cooking skills

B. Reproductive health

C. Physical fitness

D. Empowerment

Q.8 Animatism is the system of beliefs in which _____forces are the dominant power.

A. Human

B. Supernatural

Q.9 What is one of the criticisms of the screening and allocation process from a conflict perspective?

A. Ensuring Equality

B. Fostering Meritocracy

C. Promoting Diversity

D. Reproducing Inequalities

Q.10 The supreme example of the state's authority is capital punishment.

A. True

B. False

Q.1 How do schools contribute to social integration?

A. By facilitating cultural segregation
B. Promoting a sense of national identity
C. Providing childcare services to parents
D. Highlighting importance of individualism

Q.2 According to Randall Collins, what do credential societies rely on to determine job qualifications?

A. Personality assessments
B. Degrees and certifications
C. Social connections
D. Work experience

Q.3 Population density refers to the number of individuals residing within a specified ___area.

A. Political
B. Celestial
C. Geographic
D. Economic

Q.4 Which one of the following is the central characteristic of an authoritarian political system?

A. Power is determined by direct popular vote
B. Power is equally distributed among all citizens
C. Power is concentrated in the hands of a small group or elite
D. Power is held exclusively by a single ruler

Q.5 Theism acknowledges the existence of spirits as dominant powers.

A. True
B. False

Q.6 In anticipatory socialization, what is the goal regarding future roles and statuses?

A. Preparing students for current job roles
B. Imparting skills necessary for future roles
C. Ignoring industrial environments
D. Discouraging career exploration

Q.7 In which of the following society cows are considered sacred?

A. Indian
B. Arabic
C. Chinese
D. Pakistani

Q.8 In the conflict perspective, what is considered a tool for maintaining existing power structures?

A. Economic policies

B. Social control

C. Technological advancements

D. Cultural diversity

Q.9 Karl Marx perceived religion as a potential impediment to social change rather than a catalyst.

A. True

B. False

Q.10 The most flimsy and fragile type of authority is:

A. Charismatic

B. Legal

Q.1 Gender nonconformity refers to:

A. The acceptance of traditional gender roles and expectations
B. The belief that gender is solely determined by biology
C. The rejection of traditional gender roles and expectations
D. The belief that gender is solely determined by society

Q.2 How does power influence political systems?

A. It creates chaos and instability
B. It eliminates the need for authority figures
C. It guarantees an equal distribution of resources
D. It shapes decision-making and resource allocation

Q.3 Fertility plays a significant role in shaping:

A. Family structures
B. Educational systems
C. Cultural traditions
D. Technological advancements

Q.4 According to Max Weber, feudalism played a crucial role in the quick development of capitalism in certain nations.

A. False
B. True

Q.5 According to Margaret Mead's research, gender differences are primarily influenced by:

A. Culture
B. Both biology and culture
C. Biology
D. Genes

Q.6 How do movements like women's rights challenge social control?

A. By endorsing traditional norms
B. By avoiding political engagement
C. By advocating for equality
D. By supporting established structures

Q.7 Critically evaluating the benefits and drawbacks of postponing job hunting helps in developing:

A. Policies
B. Universities
C. Roads
D. Norms

Q.8 Internal migration is the movement that occurs within a:

A. Family
B. Community
C. Country
D. Continent

Q.9 What do more educated people often have?

A. Unhealthy lifestyles
B. Better access to healthcare
C. Limited social networks
D. Lower-paying jobs

Q.10 Which two characteristics did Emile Durkheim observe in the modern world?

A. Religious belief and collectivism
B. Secularism and individualism
C. Feudalism and socialism
D. Authoritarianism and conformity

Q.1 According to the conflict perspective, what can students and teachers do within educational institutions?

A. Embrace the status quo
B. Conform to dominant narratives
C. Resist and advocate for change
D. Ignore social issues

Q.2 In every religion, things are categorized as sacred and profane. The sacred things are considered as ____ and transcendent.

A. Simple
B. Suspicious
C. Ordinary
D. Holy

Q.3 According to conflict sociologists, what is the "correspondence principle"?

A. Schools mirror society in their curriculum
B. Schools should be separate from society
C. Schools challenge social hierarchies
D. Schools oppose societal norms

Q.4 What is gatekeeping in the context of education?

A. The process of selecting who will enter what professions
B. The process of determining academic grades
C. The process of evaluating teacher performance
D. The process of tracking students into positions

Q.5 Resistance or disagreement with established political powers is the objective of rebellion.

A. False
B. True

Q.6 Emile Durkheim emphasized the distinction between the sacred and _____ in religion.

A. Profane
B. Truth

Q.7 What role does self-fulfilling prophecy play in shaping collective behavior, according to the interactionist perspective?

A. Predicting behavior
B. Ignoring behavior
C. Influencing outcomes
D. Determining outcomes

Q.8 Political change involves the transformation of political institutions and systems.

A. False

B. True

Q.9 What do more educated people often have?

A. Better access to healthcare

B. Unhealthy lifestyles

C. Limited social networks

D. Lower-paying jobs

Q.10 Military juntas typically come to power through coups d'états in:

A. Middle East and Oceania

B. South America, Asia, and Africa

C. Europe and North America

D. Central America and the Caribbean

SOC101 - Quiz No.5

Date: 07 January 2026

Q.1 In Pakistan, which key area often presents limited opportunities for women?

A. Military service
B. Sports and athletics
C. Economic leadership roles
D. Access to higher education

Q.2 Which one of the following is the key area where women often face limited opportunities in Pakistan?

A. Business
B. Politics
C. Construction
D. Manufacturing

Q.3 Capitalism _____ the development and adoption of new technologies.

A. Encourages
B. Hinders
C. Limits
D. Neutralizes

Q.4 Which movements in Pakistan exemplify resistance against social control?

A. Women rights, labor
B. Educational, agricultural C. Artistic, literary
D. Environmental, technological

Q.5 What does the cultural transmission of values in education involve?

A. Teaching technical skills
B. Transmitting societal ideals
C. Transmitting societal technology
D. Emphasizing individualism

Q.6 Which of the following is typically NOT owned by private individuals in socialist economies?

A. Retail stores
B. Restaurants
C. Technology companies
D. Oil wells

Q.7 Age at first birth is one of the factors that influence:

A. Fertility

B. Marriage

C. Mortality

D. Employment

Q.8 The laws of the market place guide the economy in a system that follows a _____ policy.

A. Authoritarinism

B. Laissez-faire

Q.9 According to socialists, what is the favored method for achieving common societal goals?

A. Private ownership

B. Government intervention

Q.10 Revolutions seek to transform cultural and artistic expressions of a nation.

A. False

B. True

Q.1 What is the role of schools in innovation?

A. Rejecting intellectual development
B. Hindering cultural change
C. Fostering the development of new knowledge
D. Upholding tradition and the status quo

Q.2 Which of the following is the most common form of theism around the world?

A. Animatism
B. Monotheism
C. Polytheism
D. Animism

Q.3 Gender identity is established:

A. During adolescence
B. During infancy
C. At birth
D. In early childhood

Q.4 According to capitalists, capitalism's strong incentive to maximize profits encourage:

A. Equality and income redistribution
B. Centralized planning schemes
C. Social welfare programs
D. Effort, investments, and innovation

Q.5 In which of the following religious practice believers seek contact with the sacred through icons?

A. Animism
B. Monotheism
C. Theism
D. Animatism

Q.6 Which of the following statements is true regarding gender and culture?

A. Gender is solely determined by culture
B. Gender is solely determined by biology
C. Gender is a combination of biology and culture
D. Gender is unrelated to culture

Q.7 What role does the state play in relation to the behavior of people and organizations.

A. Rule creator

B. Lenient enforcer

C. Passive observer

D. Facilitator of chaos

Q.8 Which of the following is typically NOT owned by private individuals in socialist economies?

A. Restaurants

B. Retail stores

C. Technology companies

D. Oil wells

Q.9 In India, cows are considered _____ in the Hindu theology.

A. Profane

B. Sacred

Q.10 What is the role of cultural and historical contexts in the construction of femininity and masculinity?

A. Enforce rigidity

B. Has a significant role

C. Enforce moderanity

D. Minimize cultural influence

Q.1 Self-fulfilling prophecy is defined as:

A. Beliefs influencing behavior
B. Economic inequalities
C. Statistical predictions
D. Individual expectations

Q.2 Military juntas typically come to power through coups d'états in:

A. Central America and the Caribbean
B. Europe and North America
C. South America, Asia, and Africa
D. Middle East and Oceania

Q.3 The term "androgyny" refers to:

A. The presence of both masculine and feminine traits in an individual
B. The rejection of traditional gender roles
C. The belief that men and women should have equal rights
D. The acceptance of traditional gender roles

Q.4 Sexism can manifest as:

A. Prejudice
B. Discrimination
C. Equality
D. Both prejudice and discrimination

Q.5 Which one of the following is an important function of schools according to functionalists?

A. Social integration
B. Moral instruction
C. Emotional intelligence
D. Cognitive development

Q.6 The study of anticipatory socialization is crucial for developing policies and interventions to promote:

A. Migration
B. Social mobility
C. Traditionalism
D. Globalization

Q.7 Political change involves the transformation of political institutions and systems.

A. True
B. False

Q.8 What is one of the criticisms of the screening and allocation process from a conflict perspective?

A. Ensuring Equality

B. Reproducing Inequalities

C. Fostering Meritocracy

D. Promoting Diversity

Q.9 Which one of the following is the central characteristic of an authoritarian political system?

A. Power is held exclusively by a single ruler

B. Power is concentrated in the hands of a small group or elite

C. Power is determined by direct popular vote

D. Power is equally distributed among all citizens

Q.10 According to Durkheim, which of the following propagate sacredness among the believers?

A. Rituals

B. Collective belief

C. Profane activities

D. Religious symbols

Q.1 According to the conflict perspective, what is the role of social control?

A. Fostering harmony
B. Enhancing freedom
C. Maintaining power
D. Promoting equality

Q.2 What is one of the latent functions of education?

A. Cultural transmission of values
B. Teaching knowledge and skills
C. Social integration
D. Providing childcare

Q.3 In Pakistan, what is a common method for challenging negative stereotypes and prejudices?

A. Sports events
B. Construction projects
C. Awareness campaigns
D. Artistic performances

Q.4 The functionalist perspective suggests that religion contributes positively to social cohesion and stability.

A. True
B. False

Q.5 Which term best describes the connection between economic inequality and revolutions?

A. Causation
B. Irrelevance
C. Coincidence
D. Opposition

Q.6 Intersectionality refers to:

A. Social identities, such as gender, race, and class
B. The belief that gender is solely influenced by biology
C. Study of different social institutions
D. The study of different genders

Q.7 What is the suggested bias of the education system in Pakistan, based on the conflict perspective?

A. Towards the wealthy
B. Towards Government officials
C. Towards rural communities
D. Towards urban communities

Q.8 The term "patriarchy" refers to:

A. A society without any gender hierarchy

B. A society in which women hold power and dominate men

C. A society with defined gender roles

D. A society in which men hold power and dominate women

Q.9 In an authoritarian system, who among the following typically holds the most power?

A. A small group or elite

B. A wide range of political parties

C. The judiciary and legal institutions

D. The entire citizenry

Q.10 Emile Durkheim emphasized the distinction between the sacred and _____ in religion.

A. Truth

B. Profane
