

MGT501_Quizzes_From Assessments

1. Which one of the following is the development suggestion within an organization for an employee? (Provide solution, not problems; Set the right values and priorities; Make investment in yourself a priority; Be customer-oriented)
2. Which one of the following is the development suggestion within an organization for an employee? (Provide solution, not problems; Set reasonable goals; Be customer-oriented; Be a team player)
3. Which one of the following employees places great importance on the quality of work life and on having time off for family life? (All of the given options; Younger employees; Older employees; Midlife employees)
4. Career development has a wider focus, longer time frame, and broader scope than training. (True)
5. Many midlife employees have entered the workforce, and managers need to be aware of these workers' scheduling and training needs. (False)
6. Which one of the following tools are used for self-assessment? (Performance appraisal; Assessment centers; Psychological testing; Career-planning Workshops)
7. Which one of the following tools are used for organizational assessment? (Succession planning; Career workbooks; Career-planning workshops; Skills assessment exercises)
8. Job rotation does not suit employees who want to maintain a narrow and specialized focus. (True)
9. Formally, succession planning means high-level managers identifying and developing their own replacements. (False)
10. Performance management is the willingness to do something, conditioned by the action's ability to satisfy some need. (False)
11. _____ is a process designed to assist employees in managing their careers. (Organizational development; Carer development)

12. Performance is a function of: (Plateauing, motivation and opportunity; Ability, motivation and opportunity; Ability, motivation and recruitment; Ability, workshops and opportunity)
13. Which one of the following is NOT the determinant of performance? (Willingness to perform; Punishment to Perform; Capacity to Perform; Opportunity to Perform)
14. The effective and efficient work, which also considers personnel data such as measures of accidents, turnover, absence, and tardiness, is called: (Performance; Recruitment; Motivation; Selection)
15. _____ compares each employee's performance to a predetermined standard, or expected level of output. (Rating Scales; Management by objectives; 360-Degree Feedback; Work Standards)
16. _____ requires written records be kept of highly favorable and highly unfavorable work actions. (360-Degree Feedback; Rating Scales; Management by objectives; Critical Incidents)
17. When an individual's task outcome is difficult to determine, it is common to evaluate the person's task-related _____ (Traits; Behaviors; Improvement Potential; Task Outcomes)
18. If ends are considered more important than means, _____ become the most appropriate factor to evaluate. (Behaviors; Improvement Potential; Traits; Task Outcomes)
19. _____ means systematically determining relative worth of jobs to create job structure (Job Specification; Job Description; Job evaluation; None of the mentioned)
20. To help employees deal with personal problems, more and more companies are implementing _____ (Punishment; Self Management; Employee Assistance Programs; None of the mentioned options)
21. _____ means administering an aversive consequence (Employee Assistance Programs; Positive Reinforcement; Self Management; Punishment)
22. Applying a valued consequence that increases the likelihood that the person will repeat the behavior that led to it is termed as _____ (Employee Assistance Programs; Punishment; Self Management; Positive Reinforcement)

23. Companies empower their employees to take responsibility for the day to day functions in their areas; this refers to: (Positive Reinforcement; Employee Assistance Programs; Punishment; Self Management)
24. Which one is NOT the line managers responsibility in appraising the performance. (Provide performance feedback; Hiring and firing of employees; Complete the ratings; Set performance goals)
25. _____ consists of the pay that a person receives in the form of wages, salaries, bonuses, and commissions. (Direct Financial Compensation; Non-financial Compensation; None of the mentioned options; Indirect Financial Compensation)
26. A technique that collapses many pay grades (salary grades) into a few wide bands in order to improve organizational effectiveness is called (Broad Banding; Pay Ranges; Single-Rate System; Wage Curve)
27. _____ includes a minimum and maximum pay rate with enough variance between the two to allow some significant pay difference. (Pay Grades; Pay Ranges; Wage Curve; Single-Rate System)
28. _____ is the fitting of plotted points in order to create a smooth progression between pay grades (Wage Curve; Broad Banding; Single-Rate System; Pay Ranges)
29. _____ is a statement of an employee's worth by an employer or a perception of worth by an employee. (Single-Rate System; Pay Ranges; Wage Curve; Pay)
30. The grouping of similar jobs together to simplify the job pricing process is known as (Pay Grades; Pay Ranges; Single-Rate System; Wage Curve)
31. An individual laid off by an organization covered by the Social Security Act may receive unemployment compensation for up to 26 weeks, this comes under: (Unemployment Compensation; Workers' Compensation; None of the mentioned options; Social Security)
32. The practice of permitting employees to choose, with certain limitations, their own working hours. (Job Sharing; Compressed Workweek; Flextime; Part-Time Work)
33. Following does NOT come under discretionary benefits (voluntary) to employees by the organization (Payment for time not worked; Employee services; Social Security; Health and security benefits)

34. _____ is a system of retirement benefits that provides benefits like disability insurance, survivor's benefits, and, most recently, Medicare (Social Security; Workers' Compensation; Unemployment Compensation; None of the mentioned options)
35. _____ benefits provide a degree of financial protection for employees who incur expenses resulting from job-related accidents or illnesses. (Unemployment Compensation; Social Security; None of the mentioned options; Workers' Compensation)
36. _____ refers to any compensation method that ties pay to the quantity or quality of work the person produces. (Workers' Compensation; Rewards; Social Security; Pay-for-Performance)
37. Effectiveness of the rewards can be improved by considering which of the following factor(s) (Ensure rewards are relevant; All of the mentioned options; Link rewards to performance; Use team rewards for interdependent jobs)
38. Merit pay, bonus programs, and awards are all plans used under which of the following type of Pay-for-Performance Plans (Team-Based Plans; Plant wide Plans; Corporate wide Plans; Individual-Based Plans)
39. The most widely used program of Corporate wide Plans is (Plant wide Plans; Profit Sharing programs; Team-Based Plans; Gain Sharing programs)
40. Plant wide plans are generally referred to as _____ because they return a portion of the company's cost savings to the workers, usually in the form of a lump-sum bonus (Corporate wide Plans; Gain Sharing programs; Rewards; Team-Based Plans)
41. Which is not one of the variables of Expectancy Theory: (Effort (E); Expectancy (E); Valance (V); Instrumentality (I))
42. A person's desire to do the best possible job or to exert the maximum effort to perform assigned tasks is called: (Freedom; Motivation; None of them; Expectation)
43. Taking an employee off probation because of improved performance is an example of "Punishment". (False)
44. The first type of Maslow's hierarchy of needs is "Social Needs". (False)
45. Theory-Y represented the traditional management view that employees are lazy, was uninterested in work, and needed to be prodded to perform. (False)

46. First phase of motivation process is: (Rewards & Punishment; Employee Performance; Need Identification; Layoffs)
47. The best indicator that a safety program is succeeding is a reduction in the frequency and severity of injuries and illnesses. (True)
48. Numerous studies have concluded that workplace smoking is not hazardous to employees' health, and not detrimental to the firm's financial health. (False)
49. Safe working environment just happens automatically; it has no need to be created. (False)
50. Benefits of a safe and healthy workforce include: (Increased efficiency and quality; More productivity; Reduced medical and insurance costs; All of them)
51. Safety programs are implemented to ensure the _____ at the workplace: (Both physical and psychological conditions; Physical conditions; None of them; Psychological conditions)
52. _____ is essential if safety programs are to be effective: (External environment; Funds; Top management's support; Labor)
53. The main sources of stress include: (Organizational factors; The general environment; Personal factors; All of them)
54. Talking too fast or too loud, bad moods, being irritable, being critical, Aggression, Irrationality, overreaction and reacting emotionally all are symptoms of _____ type of stress: (Internal; Behavioral; Short-term physical; Long-term Physical)
55. The total depletion of physical and mental resources caused by excessive striving to reach an unrealistic work-related goal is called Hypnosis. (False)
56. A method of learning to control involuntary bodily processes, such as blood pressure or heart rate is known as Burnout. (False)
57. Which is Not one of the techniques that individuals can utilize to deal with stress: (Hypnosis; Leave; Transcendental meditation TM; Biofeedback)
58. Organizational culture and structure, status differences, and time all are individual barriers to communication. (False)
59. Social support at home by friends family members and at workplace by supervisor, colleagues subordinates etc cannot be used to avoid the burnout in the organizations. (False)
60. Upward communications are messages between departments or people in the same department. (False)

61. A feeling of lack-of-control over commitments and a belief (incorrect) that you are accomplishing less are symptoms of: (Hypnosis; Biofeedback; Burnout; None of them)
62. Burnout can be avoided by taking the following steps: (All of them; Get regular exercise; Reduce unnecessary commitments; Follow a healthy lifestyle)
63. Effective communication can be facilitated by developing and maintaining programs which include: (Employee feedback; All of them; Employee assistance; Information dissemination)
64. _____ contains the means by which employees can voice dissatisfaction with specific management actions: (Employee Security; Grievance procedure; Mediation; Arbitration)
65. Under a _____ system, union and management negotiate with each other to develop the work rules: (Layoff; Staffing; Compensation; Collective bargaining)
66. The document that results from the collective bargaining process is known as a _____ or contract: (Recognition; Labor agreement; Union security; Management Rights)
67. A process in which a dispute is submitted to an impartial third party to make a binding decision is called mediation. (False)
68. Many individuals will join a union simply because they are urged to do so by other members of the work group. (True)
69. Job insecurity, unfair discipline and policies, harassment and abusive treatments are not the reasons which cause the formation of employee unions. (False)
70. One of the alternatives in the list below is not the Negotiation Strategy. (Avoiding Style; Trusting Collaboration; Active Avoidance; Open Subordination)
71. The trade of products and services between two or more parties must first be agreed upon through negotiation. (True)
72. People get into conflict when they have serious disagreements, which leads to friction among the parties. (True)
73. Conflict is the method utilized by two or more parties to come to a mutually beneficial agreement to exchange goods and services. (False)

74. Conflict occurs when one party believes that the interests of the other party are being resisted or negatively impacted. (True)
75. Power, the ability of one person to influence another, is not limited to managers. (True)
76. Politics and power are correlated with strategy, organization, and ignorance. (False)
77. The environment in which political activities flourish is created by three factors. Except, (Building Relationship; Finally, changes in leadership; Changes in any of the five strategic contextual forces; Changes in the coordination)
78. Another political strategy involves gaining competence, becoming indispensable, and influencing decision-making standards. This strategy entails controlling resources and decisions. Making choices, managing resources, and developing connections may all assist or hurt a business. (True)
79. Three different kinds of power flow from a person's official position inside an organization: Except. (Coercive; Reward; Legitimate; Negotiation)
80. Employee rights provide them the freedom to act in a way that is not subject to legal or societal repercussions. In order to give employees special protection in their interactions with their employers, both the federal government and state governments have passed legislation. (True)
81. Employees may have rights to ethical treatment, constrained free expression, and constrained privacy in addition to statutory and contractual rights. (True)
82. Managers use employee reprimand as a method to convey the need for behavior modification. Typically, supervisors are the ones who administer such punishment. Yet, if teams are utilized, it can fall under their purview. (True)
83. The right to manage a firm and to keep any loss made falls under the category of management rights. (False)
84. According to the definition, suspension and dismissal must be distinct from one another. (True)
85. Factors to Consider, a system of graduated sanctions, and an appeals procedure are the three foundational elements of an equitable disciplinary procedure. (False)
86. Discipline is a strategy used by management to change unsatisfactory performance unsatisfactory performance and behavior action procedure. (True)

87. Although many individuals are aware of the expenses associated with terminating employees, there are also advantages. The following are some advantages of separations: Except. (Opportunity for greater diversity.; Increased innovation.; Written Warning; Opportunity for greater diversity.)
88. Since they have no prospect of persuading anyone to take any action, leaders without authority are actually not leaders at all. (True)
89. To be effective, leaders must present a vision that is a general statement of the organization's desired course and that elicits good emotional reactions in members of the organization. (True)
90. There is no difference in leadership styles between participatory and autocratic. (False)
91. It is the process of being a leader that helps individuals and groups within an organization set goals, directs them towards reaching those goals, and then enables them to be successful in doing so. (True)
92. By creating ideas, encouraging their team members to pursue them, building employee acceptance and commitment to their objectives, and giving their team members the larger picture, transformational leaders motivate and achieve performance beyond expectations. (True)
93. ----- is a job analysis method which is used to collect data by watching employee's work. (Dairy Method; Observation method; Interview Method; Survey Method)
94. Job interview based on a thorough job analysis, applying job-related questions with predetermined answers consistent across all interviews for a job is called----- (Undefined interview; Defined interview; Structured interview; Unsructured interview)
95. ----- is a job analysis method which is used to collect data by watching employee's work. (Dairy Method; Interview Method; Observation method; Survey Method)
96. ----- department of an organization should develop the policies and guidelines to protect the integrity and security of HRIS. (Human Resource; Finance)
97. Job posting is an internal source of recruitment. (True)
98. Now a days the biggest challenge related to the environmental Challenges is Globalization. (True)

99. Assistant-to positions is an On-the-job development technique. (True)
100. Program instruction techniques is considered as Non-experiential learning. (True)
101. Lecture courses is an Off-the-job development technique. (True)
102. ----- factor is helpful to measure the performance of an organization through customer's perspective. (Real time; Response time; Just in Time; All of the given options)
103. Rapid change is a challenge which is related to Individual Challenges. (False)
104. 'Limited effect on productivity' is a disadvantage of ----- plans. (Strategic plans; Financial plans; management plans; Corporate wide Plans)
105. Process by which the receiver translates the sender's message into an understandable form is known as ----- . (Decoding; Encoding; mobilization; All of the given options)
106. "Financial flexibility for the firm" is an advantage of ----- plans. (Corporate wide Plans; Financial plans; Strategic plans; mangement plans)
107. Process by which sender puts a message in a certain format to send to the receiver is known as ----- . (None of the given options; Decoding; Programming; Encoding)
108. "Administering an aversive consequence" is known as ----- . (Award; Reward; Punishment; None of the given options)
109. Salary is an example of intrinsic reward. (False)
110. "Parent company grants another firm the right to do business in a prescribed manner". The term that best describes the statement is (None of the given options; Manufacturing; Licencing; Franchising)
111. A corporation with operations in many countries and highly decentralized operations is known as ----- corporation. (Translucent; Transnational; Transparent; All of the given options)
112. An arrangement whereby an organization grants a foreign firm the right to use intellectual properties such as patents, copyrights, manufacturing processes, or trade names for a specific period of time is known as ----- . (Manufacturing; Franchising; None of the given options.; Licensing)
113. An approach to manage international operations in which subsidiaries are managed and staffed by personnel from the host country is known as: (Geocentric approach; None of the given options.; Polycentric approach; Ethnocentric approach)

114. An approach to managing international operations in which top management and other key positions are filled by people from the home country is called -----
----- (All of the given options; Geocentric approach; Ethnocentric approach; Polycentric approach)

115. Which of the following resources are the most precious? (Human Resources; Financial Resources; Intangible resources; Customer relationships)

116. Which of the following is NOT a function of Staffing? (Industrial relations; Selection; Placement; Recruitment)

117. Which of the following is an HR activity? (Staffing; Training and development; Compensation; All of the given options)

118. High productivity is an organizational benefit of High-Performance Work System (HPWS). (True)

119. Customer satisfaction is NOT an organizational benefit of High-Performance Work System (HPWS). (False)

120. HPWS stands for High-Performance Work System (True)

BS English (Applied Linguistics)

<https://whatsapp.com/channel/0029VaazKAVBfxoDMH4l9U0u>