

Final term Preparation

Communication skills - MCM301

Lesson - 19

* Making a Good Speech — (Any five)

① Audience consideration → Ensure ideas are clear and easy to follow for them.

② Speak effectively → speak slowly, clearly, energetically → maintain conversational tone and engage with audience.

③ Use gestures → (body movement) to emphasize points and transitions.

④ Making eye contact → keep audience involved, show confidence → avoid staring one person too long

⑤ Avoid memorizing your speech → only use brief notes, preferably on one page, highlight notes (key points)

⑥ Rehearse your presentation → until comfortable and within time limit.

⑦ Record/Review your speech → for clarity

⑧ Familiarize yourself with room → understand layout and acoustics.

④ Handouts material — handle wisely —

provide them after speech to keep them focused.

⑩ Build credibility through Practice → confidence comes from practice

* Overcome Stage Fright — (Fear) (Any five)

① Know the room ② know the audience

③ Know your material (speech) ④ Stay relax

⑤ Visualize yourself giving your speech

⑥ Realize that people want you to succeed

⑦ Don't apologize ⑧ Turn nervousness into

+ve energy ⑨ Gain experience through practice

* Types of Speech —

① Informative speech → Provide interesting and useful info

(Types) ① Object (people, places, things)

② Processes (how-to, explanations)

③ Events (past, presents future, happening)

④ Concepts (ideas, theories)

② Persuasive speech → to change or reinforce belief or actions

- Types
- ① Question of fact (T/F of claim)
 - ② Q of Value (morality of idea/action)
 - ③ Q of Policy (specific course of action)

Organizing Persuasive speech

- ① Present problem → then solution.
- ② Identify problem → analyze cause → Present sol
- ③ Comparative advantage → (show why ur sol is best)
- ④ Motivated sequence → (Effective for immediate action)

Principal of persuasion

- ① Small changes are more acceptable than
- ② large changes.
- ③ Their benefit should outweigh cost.
- ④ Change should meet audience needs.

Introduce changes gradually → higher to lower
(most acceptable to difficult to accept)

③ Ceremonial speech (during ceremonies)

- Types
- ① Tribute (honoring someone's achievement)
 - ② Acceptance (receiving award)
 - ③ Inspiration (encouraging audience)
 - ④ After-Dinner (entertaining)
 - ⑤ Master of Ceremony (hosting/guiding event)

Lesson - 20

Handling Q/A in business Presentations -

① Anticipating → متوقع

By considering ① Previous experiences → Q/A from previous presentations. ② Common concerns like time taken, cost, impact of some action.

③ Planning → During presentation, identify potential Q/A → By practicing ④ Input from associates (advisors → seniors in experience)

② Answering → write out Answers to anticipate Q.

• prepare both summary and detail responses

• concept / idea / detail response / summary

③ Revising content of your presentation.

④ Rehearsing → Practice Q/A sessions with colleague to gain confidence / Improve responses.

* Inviting Q/Comments

① Before presentation → engage audience by asking their initial thoughts.

② During Pres → Take Q after each key points if time allows.

③ After Presentation → At the end, but end with and strong closing remark, not the Q/A session.

Lesson - 21

* Responding Q/A -

- | | | |
|-------|--------------------------------|-----------------|
| Steps | ① Listen | } receiver role |
| | ② Discern ^{intention} | |
| | ③ Affirm (support) | } sender role |
| | ④ Answer | |

① Listen Attentively — Listening skills

are equally imp as speaking skills.

A presenter shows interest in audience and what they have to say.

Tips ① Make focused eye-contact

② Nod gently to show understanding

③ Lean slightly forward to ^{convey} interest

④ Match facial expression to nature of the Q or objections.

Skills of good listener.

① Identify main point from words (پہلو)

② Determine if speaker is concrete or → (most expressive) (want possibilities) conceptual thinker small sentences
want facts

③ Rephrase what person said to ensure understanding.

② Discern nature and intent of verbal feedback →

Discernment is related to perception → attentive listener can discern complexity and intent of a question by observing vocal / visual cues → tells whether Q is motivated by genuine interest or to challenge speaker

③ Affirm the person → made comment to acknowledge person; "that's a good point".

∴ Don't over-do it. ∴ Make it brief.

④ Answer → should be ^(straightforward) clear, correct, (facts)
 ^(concise, well considered) _(short) ^(audience, interest)

* Types of Audience's comments/Responses -

① Agreement → acknowledge with "Thank you".

② Addition → Acknowledge / brief comment → "that's very good point".

③ Objection → handle calmly — three ways to respond

- Agree (if point is valid, acknowledge)

- Re-approach (Explain your point from

- diff angle. • Arbitrate (use feel-felt-found

- method — "I understand, why you feel that

- way. I work with someone recently who felt the same way, until they found that.

* Managing Disruptions — (disturbance)

A presenter should demonstrate leadership and remain calm; take action and be flexible.

Strategies to handle

- ① Detour — continue presentation → find alternate way
- ② Delay — Invite Q/discussions while resolving disturbance
- ③ Dismiss — In extreme cases, dismiss audience.

Handling disruptive behavior → ① Identify detractors (who interrupt repeatedly) — ② Handle behavior to maintain atmosphere.

∴ Stay calm ∴

Reasons for disruptive behavior

- ① Resistance to change
- ② Irritation of presenter
- ③ Repetition of previously successful disruptive behavior

Dealing with disruptive behavior

- ① Be courteous → پیار سے سمجھاؤ
 - ② Exercise control → (کوئی اصرار نہ کریں) خود کو اساد دے چھاؤ
 - ③ Confront → Plz leave → دوپڑے کو
- (FOR BENEFIT OF AUDIENCE)

Lesson - 22

* Significance of setting -

It's consideration is imp for these reasons

- ① Psychological (physical factors)
- ② Perceptual (conveys a message)
- ③ Speaker Concentration
- ④ Comfortable for audience → so they can (see clearly, hear clearly, sit comfortably, focus attentively)
- ⑤ Seating consideration and Room managements
(audience size, audience composition, workspace,
Interaction, duration, tables, Aisles →  Free space,
visibility, Open space

* Types of seating arrangements

Imp

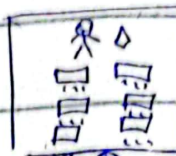

① conventional theater style

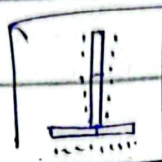

② Semi circle

③ Conventional classroom

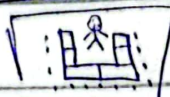

④ T-Formation

⑤ Modified-T-Formation

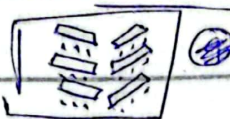

⑥ U-Formation

⑦ Board-room

⑧ V-Formation

* Environmental Factors

① Lighting ② Temperature ③ Air quality

④ Sound

Lecture - 23

* Visual aids — in oral presentations to enhance your quality of v.

Why visual aids?

- ① Capture attention
- ② Illustrate complex points
- ③ Enhance understanding
- ④ Maintain focus
- ⑤ Add variety
- ⑥ Make lasting impact
- ⑦ Emphasize key points
- ⑧ Aid in memory

- To find right media for you Pres determine
 - ① audience size
 - ② Audience participation ^{or} Y/No?
 - ③ Pres budget
 - ④ Equipment/supply limitation
 - ⑤ Time constraints
 - ⑥ Physical factors

Types of visual aids

① Computer-based Presentation

- Benefits →
 - ① Dynamic, full-color multimedia Presentations
 - ② Real-time data Pres
 - ③ No supply cost
 - ④ Last minute changes
 - ⑤ Special affects
 - ⑥ Low production cost
 - ⑦ Remote transmission

- Limitations →
 - ① Expensive projection equipment
 - ② Require computer/graphic skills
 - ③ Relies heavily on equipment
 - ④ Needs darkened room.

- Hints →
 - ① chk equipment beforehand
 - ② Use a high intensity overhead projector
 - ③ Use remote ctrl or assistant
 - ④ Bring backup copies of ur pres
 - ⑤ Use laser pointer
 - ⑥ Vary pres with other activities to keep the lights on.

② Videos

• Benefits → ① Professional Quality with full-color-motion and sound ② Easy duplication ③ Entertaining ④ Can present to large remote audience

• Limitations → ① Requires professional production ② Expensive ③ Time consuming ④ Less presenter involvement ⑤ Discourage audience participation

• Tips → ① Test equipment beforehand ② Darken room ③ keep video short ④ Ensure audience focus by making them look at specific idea.

③ 35mm slides

• Benefits → ① high quality images ② Easy duplication ③ Reliable/portable projectors ④ Remote control operation.

• Limitations → ① Darkened room ② Limited audience participation ③ More prep time needed ④ Difficult note taking ⑤ Previewing/editing challenging.

- Tips → ① chx/arrang slides. beforehand
② Ensure proper lighting and focus ③ Use laser pointer ④ Number the slides
⑤ while discussion — use black slides to pause.

Lecture — 24

② Over head transparencies

- Benefits → ① Computer control over — preparation
② Presenter face audience ③ can be rearranged or omitted ④ can be highlighted ⑤ Can be revealed point-to-point ⑥ Inexpensive to produce ⑦ Comfortable/easy use.

- Limitations → ① For groups upto 100 ppl.
② relies on equipment ③ older projectors → dim/noisy
④ Presenter must stay near projector
⑤ Some audiences may see it outdated

- Tips → ① Test focus and project placement
② position projector on dominant side
③ Turn off projector while changing transparencies ④ Bring spare bulbs/gloves
⑤ eye contact ⑥ keep visual simple/clear

⑤ Flipcharts —

• Benefits → ① No need of electricity

② Economical ③ Easy to use ④ Encourages audience participation ⑤ Reliable/suitable ⑥ Last minute changes ⑦ Fully lit-room

• Limitations → ① up to 35 ppl use ② Presenter must have high energy ③ Can appear less professional ④ require good penmanship ⑤ Labor intensive so costly.

• Hints → ① Ensure FC fit stand ② plan (on paper first) sketch charts beforehand. ③ Use FC markers

④ Avoid using clrs ⑤ Lightly write with pencil (only you can see not audience) to note next key point ⑥ 7x7 or 6x6 rule 7 words each line/7 lines each sheet

~~⑦~~

⑥ White-boards —

• Benefits → ① ideal for spontaneous info

② write quietly / erase less effortly ③ inexpensive

④ Easy to use ⑤ suited for small grps

• Limitations → ① ② Handwritten → hard to read

③ Turn back to write → lose audience

attention ④ Difficult to transport

⑤ can appear unprepared.

• Tips — ① write large enough for everyone to see ② use for brain-storming / planning sessions ③ Plan activities to keep audience engage.

⑦ Handouts

• Benefits — ① No need to take notes ② provide accurate record ③ can share additional info ④ useful for absent attendees. ⑤ can be used with all type of presentation media.

• Limitations — ① Audience may read ahead and lose focus ② Can cause pre judgement ③ Page-turning noise ④ poor design → poor presentation.

• Tips — ① Prepare enough copies ② Decide best time to distribute ③ Inform audience so they don't make notes

Lecture - 25

Summary of visual aids

- ① Visual aids should add to presentation, not distract from it.
- ② Focus on delivering good speech, visuals should only add to it.
- ③ VA must be clearly visible / understandable.
- ④ Use simple fonts
- ⑤ Avoid distracting objects while speaking.
- ⑥ Be prepared for disaster!
- ⑦ Speak to audience not to VA.
- ⑧ Keep video/audio presentations short.
- ⑨ Show statistical info through charts/graphs.

Lecture - 25

* Group Communication

Group meeting → Meeting of two or more people to discuss a common purpose

Dyadic communication → B/w two people

Group communication → at least 3 people - to 15 or more

Types of groups

- ① Informal → Casual, like chatting over tea
- ② Formal → Task-oriented meetings

stages of group formation (FSNP)

- ① Forming → Getting started and oriented
- ② Storming → Conflicts and arguments arise
- ③ Norming → conflicts are resolved, rules are set
- ④ Performing → Group works towards its goals.

Stages in problem solving (OCES)

- ① Orientation: Free discussion, asking questions
- ② Conflict: opinions and evidence are presented
- ③ Emergence: solutions are proposed, conflicts decrease
- ④ Solutions: Final decision, action plans are made.

Purpose of group meetings (I-S-PS)

- ① Informal meeting
- ② Suggested solution meetings
- ③ Problem-solving meetings

Group - decision Making

① Standard agenda: systematic approach -

(i) Problem identification (ii) Problem analysis

(iii) Criteria selection (iv) Solution generation

(v) Solution evaluation & selection

(vi) Solution implementation

(vii) Final decision

- Consensus (اجماع)

- Compromise • Majority vote

- Decision by Leader • Arbitration (تسوية)

② Brainstorming → ① generating many ideas

quickly, ② encourage creativity and spontaneity

③ Phases → • Idea generation • Analysis • Action planning

"The best way to get good ideas is to have a lot of ideas."

∴ Final decision is same as of standard agenda.

Group Leadership -

① Authoritarian - leader makes all decisions

high control → ① members frustration → ② conflicts

→ ③ status difference → ④ fundamental beliefs

⑤ limited responsibility

③ Laissez-faire → Group has complete freedom minimal leader involvement → ① Members may feel disunited and dissatisfied → ② there is a little sense of accomplishment & unity. → ③ status-mindedness develops → ④ No concern for goal achievement → ⑤ Little friendships b/w leader and members.

Planning the meeting -

- ① Define purpose
- ② Decide who will participate
- ③ Arrange date, time, place
- ④ Create agenda
- ⑤ Announce meeting
- ⑥ chk physical arrangements

~~Roles in group meetings~~

Procedures during meeting

- ① Begin with opening statement
- ② Engage participants in discussion
- ③ Understand roles of participants

Group functions being performed

- ① Group task role
- ② Group building & Maintenance roles
- ③ Individual roles

Group task roles → ① Initiating (starting action)

- ② Info seeking (asking facts, ideas)
- ③ Info giving
- ④ Clarify
- ⑤ Questions
- ⑥ Summarize
- ⑦ Consensus seeker (checking whether grp is getting near to conclusion/decision)
- ⑧ Implementation
- ⑨ Devil's advocate (reminder to not getting to conclusions so fast)
- ⑩ Consultant (expert advice)

Group building / maintenance role →

- ① Encouraging (respond to others, help them feel valued)
- ② Expressing group feelings —

- ② Compromising → seeks to find middle ground
- ③ Gatekeeping → ensure open communication within grp
- ④ standards setting → imposes and insist on standards for group's action
- ⑤ Housekeeping → keep every one aware of group's decision and progress

Individual Roles—

- ① self-understanding ② Inter-personal understanding
- ③ Active listening ④ Managing conflicts
- ⑤ stopping conflicts Escalation ⑥ Disruptive behavior (recognize—address)
- ⑦ Recognition

Participant roles in group meeting

- ① Organizer (meeting sahi rukh m ja ri h)
(Fact)
- ② Clarifier ③ Questioner ④ Factual Contributor
- ⑤ Energizer ⑥ Idea creator ⑦ Critical tester
- ⑧ Conciliator (In conflict, if both sides refuse to budge, find middle ground → seek to find compromise ⑨ Helper of others.

Lecture - 26

* Elements of effective written communication —

- Crucial in business
- create good impression
- conveys clear meaning
- make you appear friendly / helpful

7C's

- ① ^{شكرية} Courtesy → ① Be polite, consider reader's feeling
② Use-you-attitude (+ve state of mind)
③ Understand reader's problem ④ Use +ve suggestions and show benefit for reader

— Guidelines —

- ① Avoid irritating expressions ② Include meaningful apologies when needed ③ Use courteous wording ④ Respond ^{بسرعة} promptly to show reader's concerns are important
⑤ Use +ve wording ⑥ Avoid biased lang-

Some Basic truths → ① People are self-centered, ② not perfect, ③ defensive, ④ expect courtesy, ⑤ do the best they can.

Bias free - lang →

- a. gender-bias → Businessman - to - business person,
→ Mankind - to - Humankind, → Man-made - to - artificial
- b. Racial and ethnic bias (رَاسِيَّةٌ لَوْنِيَّةٌ)
- c. Age-bias d. Disability bias

Lecture - 27

② Correctness → It's core is proper grammar, punctuation and spelling

- Formal to informal
- Use right lvl of lang → Recheck
- Check accuracy of words, info, data • Use correct grammar and punctuation • Check spelling.

③ Conciseness → short with full meaning

- (un-necessary)
- ① Eliminate wordy expression ② Include only relevant material ③ Avoid unnecessary repetition → (Virtual uni → VU)

④ Clarity → ① Choose precise, concrete, familiar words (exact)
② Constructing effective sentences/paragraphs.
(length, unity, coherence, emphasis) (reasonable) (importance)

Lecture - 24

- ⑤ ^(solid) Concreteness → being specific, definite, vivid ^(clear)
- Include as much specific info as possible
 - Use general expression only when,
 - (i) It's not possible to be specific
 - (ii) you wish to be diplomatic (tactful)
 - (iii) Exact figures are unimportant
 - Use active words ^(specific, personal, concise, emphatic) rather than passive verbs → use passive only when ^① (you don't want to be personal, stress the object of action, ^② does isn't imp)
 - Use vivid, image-building words

⑥ Completeness → if not the loss of ^{①②③} (good-will, valued customers, sales), ^④ Waste of time, ^⑤ Cost of returning.

Best way to determine completeness is

5 W's & H

Who, What, when, Where, Why, How

- Provide all necessary info
- A. all Q asked,

• Give something extra when desirable

Lecture - 29

Preparing for effective business Writing -

① Planning stage

- (i) Determine your purpose (ii) Consider your reader (technical background? one or multi readers? within/outside organization? age? occupation? income level? habits? edu lvl? geo location? what u expect he'd do to ur info?)
(iii) choose your ideas (brainstorming) (iv) Determine appropriate content (Ask urself → ① what info is relevant for situation? ② What makes msg cmplt ③ what would be helpful if you were recipient? ④ What content should be included)

Lecture - 30

② Organizing stage

① Outline topics → (clarity, time save, emphasize)

② Methods → Direct (general to specific) , Indirect (specific to general)

③ Determine appropriate order of topics

Lecture - 31

③ Drafting stage

- ③ Drafting
 - ① Develop beginning paragraph → Ensure it's appropriate, engaging, sets the tone
 - ② Compose body → develop main idea within message & scope.
 - ③ Develop ending paragraph → focus on desired action and show courtesy

Ending Paren

- Ending Para — ① Be concrete ② show courtesy

- i - State desire action
- ii - Who is to perform it
- iii - how to
- iv - when
- v - Make action easy
- vi - Includes reader benefit material
- vii - show appreciation
- viii - Until task is done, don't say thank you
- (ix) Avoid -ve info
- (x) offer assistance
- (xi) keep ending para short

④ ~~Body compos~~ Editing stage

- ⑤ Proofread (Accuracy, Misspelled words, Typing error, -ion/-ion of material, sequence chk, format?)

Lecture - 32

* Parts of business letter —

- | Essential | Non-essential parts |
|---|--|

③ Inside address

④ Salutation (Dear Sir,)

⑤ Body

⑥ Complimentary close (regards,)

⑦ Signature

⑧ Subject line
→ (main topic)

⑨ Reference initials
→ (those who help in letter typing)

⑩ Enclosure (letters inf)

→ (Document) → other than
→ cc, bc, bcc, bpe

⑪ Copy notation

⑫ Mailing notation
→ additional message

⑬ Post script

Lesson - 33

* Direct request letters - request letters for information, action, products, adjustments and references

strategy for routine requests

① Structure

(i) Opening → main idea / request

(ii) Body → Provide details / Justify request

(iii) Close → Request specific action friendly

(i) Opening → ① Be direct but polite ② Assume compliance ③ Avoid personal intro ④ Punctuations

⑤ Be specific

(ii) Body → ① Logical explanation ② Series of Questions (• Imp Q 1st, • Only relevant Q,

• One topic per Q)

iii) close → ① Specific request ② Contact Info
③ Expression of appreciation → avoid thanks in advance

Types →

1) Direct-inquiry letters → there are two types of direct inquiry letters

(a) Requesting info about product/services

(b) Requesting info about a person

∴ considerations → ① respect legal/moral rights

② Focus on job-related info

∴ Planning → ① Begin with general or specific

② Explain situation ③ Cover additional & systematically ④ End with goodwill and action orientation

2) Lecture - 34

(a) Indirect-inquiry letters → req to general info

instead of giving Ans to specific Questions.

∴ opening is less specific than direct-inquiry letters → still provide enough detail.

(b) claiming letters → Qualities → ① Avoid threats

② Present all relevant facts ③ Maintain professional tone ④ Include you-attitude

③ Make definite request (replacement, refund, repair etc)

Structure → ① opening ② explanations ③ U-attitude
④ Closing

(4) Order letters -

Content components →

- ① Partinent info → about the item being ordered.
- ② shipping direction → including receipt date/location
- ③ Payement method → clear instruction for payment

Lecture - 35

(1) Letters of invitation

i) speaking invitation → Name of groups, characteristic of group, length of presentation, topic, date, time, location, transportation details and honorarium (VIPs)

ii) Social invitation letters → Include event details (type, date, time, location) and please respond (RSVP) request

(6) Reservation letters → include opening (room type, days needed), section (arrival & departure times) and closing (courteous & action-oriented closing)

(7) Letters requesting favors → Include :
opening (the favor you're asking), section (additional info about why it's imp) and closing should be courteous and action-oriented.

Lecture - 36

* Good-news letters

- ① ~~It's~~ replying to inquiries →
- ② Letters granting adjustment
- ③ Letters Acknowledging orders
- ④ Letters granting favors
- ⑤ Letters of congratulation
- ⑥ Letters accepting invitations.

characteristics — ① Begin with good-news (main idea) ← fast-start opening ③ Provide details

④ Focus on you-attitude ② appropriate closing

Lecture - 37

Disappointing - news letters

- Goals →
- ① Convey news (state disappointing info)
 - ② Ensure acceptance → (help reader accept)
 - ③ Maintain goodwill → keep relationship +ve
 - ④ Protect organization's Image → Address issue professionally
 - ⑤ Reduce future correspondence → aim to resolve the matter effectively.

Tone → ① Audience-centered

② +ve lang

③ Respectful lang.

Organizing your Message -

Direct approach → when bad news is minimal or audience prefer immediate info.

Indirect approach → to soften blow → use when news is more significant.

- ① Avoid being wordy/irrelevant, ② Avoid being too long
→ ① Avoid saying no, avoid using know-it-all tone, ③ Avoid apologizing

Buffer → A friendly or neutral statement at start of msg to soften impact of what comes next → types of buffer

- ① Agreement ② Appreciation ③ Cooperation ④ Fairness
- ⑤ Praise ⑥ Understanding ⑦ Good news.

Lecture - 38

* Four part sequence of indirect approach

(1) Open with a buffer (explained in previous lg)

(2) Follow with reasons → well-written reasons are:

① Detailed → Explain why you can't agree to request.

② Tactful → Suggest that req might not be good fit for them.

③ Individualized → Explain company's policy which make sense.

④ Unapologetic → Don't apologise for decision.

⑤ Positive → Avoid +ve phrases

(3) State refusal → three techniques for saying no:

① De-emphasize bad news → ⁽ⁱ⁾ mention disappointing

news briefly → ⁽ⁱⁱ⁾ use structure sentence

that make bad news less prominent (embed, subordinate in complex compound sentences)

② Use conditional statement (if, when)

③ Focus on your does, not on your don't's

(4) Close with goodwill → ① stay +ve

② Limit future contacts ③ Be optimistic

④ Be sincere ⑤ Be confident

Lecture - 39

Refusal types

- (1) Refusing info Req. — Explain why you can't provide info, offer any available alternatives
 - (2) Refusing a favor — state why you can't help offer alternatives.
 - (3) Refund refusal — explain reason, offer solution
 - (4) Refuse claims → avoid -ve lang, don't apologize, make impact that you consider their complaints, end respectfully and action-orientedly.
 - (5) Declining invitation → must be tactful/courteous
 - (6) Reject job application → state buffer, → reason ^{them with} and encourage alternatives and consideration in future.
- + Do's and Don'ts for preparing disappointing news letters

Do's →

- ① Start with +ve or neutral opening
- ② Explain situation clearly
- ③ Hint at the refusal (avoid saying no)
- ④ Focus on what you can do
- ⑤ Include propositions if appropriate

- ⑥ Give tips to avoid future problems.
- ⑦ Suggest an alternative solution
- ⑧ Make it easy for reader to take action

Don'ts →

- ① Avoid -ve words/phrases
- ② Avoid accusatory tone ^(avoiding)
- ③ Avoid highlighting refusal
- ④ Avoid using company policy as a excuse
- ⑤ Avoid making unlikely assumption
- ⑥ Avoid apologizing
- ⑦ Avoid a slow start
- ⑧ Avoid meaningless close
- ⑨ Avoid suggesting future problems
- ⑩ Avoid Fake empathy

Lecture 40

★ Writing persuasive message

(i) Planning persuasive message →

- (i) Analyze your purpose
↳ clearly define why you are writing the message
- (ii) Analyze your audience
↳ understand their wants/needs
↳ Be aware of cultural background
(Demographic, psychographic)

- (iii) Establish your credibility → show you are knowledgeable and trustworthy
- (a) support your message with facts
- (b) Name your

- sources (c) Be an expert (d) Establish common ground (e) Be enthusiastic (energetic)
- (f) Be objective (g) Be sincere (h) Be trustworthy
- (i) Have good intentions.
- (iv) strive for high ethical standards
- Ensure your message is honest and ethical

(a) Developing persuasive message

Strategies →

① Framing your arguments → AIDA (attention, interest, desire, action) ← Four phases of organizing (a) Attention — (should be personalized, you-oriented, straight forward, relevant)

(b) Interest — (state benefits with great detail)

(c) Desire — (provide evidence, draw attention)

(d) Action — (Suggest specific steps, restate benefits, make action clear and easy)

② Balancing emotional and logical appeals

It depends on 4 factors:

(1) The action you wish to motivate

(2) Reader's expectations (3) resistance you must overcome (4) How much authority to sell or point of view

- (1) Emotional appeals → calls on human feelings (help accept your messages)
- (2) Logical appeals → calls on human reasons
 - Analogy → you reason from specific to specific evidence.
 - Induction → you reason from specific evidence to general conclusion.
 - Deduction → you reason from generalization to specific conclusion.

Lecture - 41

* Avoid faulty logic

Guidelines →

- | | |
|---|---|
| ① Avoid hasty generalization | Don't draw conclusions without enough evidences. |
| ② Avoid begging the question | Don't just restate your claim, provide real evidence. |
| ③ Avoid personal attacks | Focus on argument, not the person making it |
| ④ Avoid oversimplifying complex issues. | Present all relevant factors |
| ⑤ Avoid assuming false causes | don't assume things by your own |
| ⑥ Avoid faulty analogies | comparisons should be valid and relevant |
| ⑦ Avoid illogical support | Evidences should support your claims logically. |

∴ PM → Persuasive msg

2) Reinforcing your position — (strengthening your message) strategies →

① Use facts and data

② Use example and stories

③ Use clear and powerful language.

- Use semantics (meaning of words and other symbols)

- Use abstractions (enhance emotional context of PM)

- Be Moderate (small steps) — Focus on your goal.

- Use simple language — Anticipate opposition

(think objections and address them)

- Provide sufficient support (evidence)

- Create win-win situation (change ^{yours} → ^{theirs} benefit)

- Time your message appropriately (at right time)

- Use metaphors/stories → msg memorable/relatable.

3) Dealing with resistance — strategies —

① Present all sides → (all view point with pros/cons)

② Use "What If" scenarios → Poke holes in your own theories before your audience does and find solutions

③ Involve your audience → let them first give solution.

Avoid mistakes like →

① Using an up-front hard sell → avoid taking strong position at start.

② Resisting compromise → be open to compromise and new ideas → (give and take)

③ Relying solely on great arguments → arguments are just part of equation → connect with your audience emotionally / use vivid lang.

④ Assuming persuasion is a one-shot effort → convincing take time.

Lesson - 42

* Types of Persuasive message -

(1) The sales letters → suggested plan is

(a) Opening → attract reader's attention

(b) Section → that capture reader's interest

(c) Section → that ^{establish} ~~capture~~ desire / convincing ^{Part}

(d) Closing → courteous, action-oriented.

(2) Collection letters — also considered persuasive

Types of appeals in collection letters —

(1) Fair play appeal → "We've been fair with you, now you need to be fair with us by paying your account in full."

(2) Good credit reputation appeal → "We remember very well the favorable comments made by several of your credit references...."

(3) Pride appeal → "We are sure that you, too, take great pride in keeping your account balanced paid up."

(4) Fear legal action appeal → "Unless we have your full payment by Dec. 10, we will turn your account ^{over} to our collection dep."

Memoranda and short-reports **

- Memo? Used within organization for internal communication

Format → • To: • From • Date:

• Subject:

Basic purpose of memo-

- ① Requesting info
- ② Giving instructions
- ③ Serving as covers for message
- ④ Making announcements

Advantage of memos:

- ① Solve problems by transmitting info
- ② Provide written record
- ③ Can reach many people simultaneously

Types of memos

(1) Requesting info → • state key idea (req)
• Present details • Remind request / provide additional information.

(2) Memo giving instructions → • Provide clear step-by-step guidelines • Ensure completeness and accuracy of info.

(3) Transmittal memo → • Used to introduce longer, accompanying message • Describe main point of message.

(4) Announcement memo → used to announce matters like personal transfer, meetings or policy changes.

memorandum reports →

① Progress report → update on status of project — suggested plan → (a) Intro (b) Summary of progress already reported (c) Detailed summary of progress since last reporting (d) Nature of exceptional progress (e) Summary of work yet to be completed.

② Periodic reports → Regular updates on ongoing activities

→ Strategy → ① statement of recommendation ② Outcome ③ Plan ④ discussion ⑤ Conclusion

③ Justification reports → Justify changes in procedures or increase in budget.
