

ENG506

Final-Term (☆☆☆☆☆☆)

ABSTRACT

This comprehensive collection of notes is accurately crafted to empower students to excel academically, ensuring they achieve a minimum of 80% marks in their examinations. The content is organized with clarity and precision, focusing on key concepts, critical analyses, and practical applications tailored to the syllabus. These notes serve as a reliable resource for both thorough preparation and last-minute revision. Designed to inspire confidence and mastery, this guide is an essential tool for students striving for academic excellence.

Maha Malik
World Englishes

1. World Englishes

World Englishes refers to the different varieties of English used around the world due to history, culture, colonization, and globalization.

2. Kachru's Three Circles Model

- Inner Circle: Native English countries (UK, USA, Australia)
- Outer Circle: Former colonies where English is institutionalized (India, Pakistan)
- Expanding Circle: English as a foreign language (China, Japan)

3. Englishization

The increasing use of English in different domains which influences local languages and cultures.

4. Language Policy

Decisions by governments about the role, status, and use of languages.
Factors: population, prestige, status, functionality.

5. Top-Down vs Bottom-Up Policy

- Top-down: Government imposed
- Bottom-up: Community-driven

6. Death of a Minority Language

Disappearance of a language due to assimilation, globalization, and demographic pressure.

7. English as a Lingua Franca

English is used globally for communication between speakers of different languages.

8. English in Europe

Acts as the main lingua franca in education, business, and EU institutions.

9. English in Southeast Asia

- Secure in Singapore

- Strong in Philippines
- Reviving in Malaysia
- Foreign language elsewhere

10. English in the Philippines

Used in education and governance; revived due to globalization.

11. English in Japan

- Small fluent population
- Many borrowings from English
- Nativized pronunciation

12. Features of Japanese English

- Vowel insertion in clusters
- Addition of final vowels

13. Chinese as Global Language

Growing due to economy, globalization, and Belt & Road Initiative.

14. Multilingual Features of Circles

- Inner: English as L1
- Outer: English + local languages
- Expanding: English as foreign language

15. English Maintenance

Maintained through global use, education, and commerce.

16. Dictionary Challenges

Standardization, regional variation, new words.

17. Corpus in Linguistics

Large electronic text collections used for research and dictionaries.

18. Second Language Acquisition (SLA)

A cognitive process involving stages of learning.

19. Participants of SLA

Learners, teachers, researchers.

20. Communicative Competence

Ability to use language appropriately in social contexts.

21. Native Speaker Myth

Native speakers are not automatically better teachers.

22. Learners' Problems

Pronunciation, grammar, lack of exposure.

23. ELT (English Language Teaching)

Teaching English using structured methods and testing.

24. Testing in ELT

Tests often follow native norms and may ignore local varieties.

25. Code-Mixing

Mixing two languages in one sentence.

26. Code-Switching

Switching languages between sentences or situations.

27. Reasons for Code-Switching

Identity, efficiency, social relations.

28. Women and Language Choice

Chosen for economic opportunity and social mobility.

29. Language and Marginalization

Limited access to dominant language causes exclusion.

30. Paradigm

Set of related word forms.

Example: write – wrote – written

31. Coinage

Creation of new words.

Examples: selfie, blog, Google.

32. AAVE (African American Vernacular English)

A recognized English variety with unique grammar and pronunciation.

33. Codification

Standardizing spelling, grammar, and vocabulary.

Benefits: consistency, learning, identity.

34. Spelling Standardization

Fixing spellings to reduce confusion.

British vs American spelling.

35. Macaulay's Minute (1835)

Introduced English-medium education in India.

36. Spread of English

Spread through colonization, trade, education, media.

37. American English

Maha Malik's Compilation

Influential inner-circle variety due to US power and media.

38. Offshore Universities

Campuses abroad (NYU Abu Dhabi, Monash Malaysia).

39. Linguistic Imperialism

English dominance seen as cultural and linguistic control.

40. English as Resistance

Used in anti-colonial movements for empowerment.

41. Aboriginal Australian English

Reduced vowels, stress shift, phonological changes.

42. African English

Used in government, education, and commerce with prestige.

43. History of English in China

Introduced via trade, missionaries, and colonization.

44. Power of Dictionary

Defines standards and legitimacy of a language variety.

45. Inner vs Outer Circle Policy

Inner: minority languages issue

Outer: English for elite and administration

46. Proximity Agreement

Verb agrees with nearest noun.

47. Difficulties of English Learning

Spelling, pronunciation, grammar.

48. Foreign Language

English used mainly for international communication.

49. Lexicographer

Person who compiles dictionaries.

50. Regional vs Social Dialect

- Regional: location-based
- Social: class-based

51. English in Pakistan (Post-Independence)

Urduization vs English-medium policies.

52. New Zealand English Features

Vowel changes and local vocabulary.

53. Australian English Features

Hypocoristics (arvo), pronunciation shifts.

54. European English Ideology

English used as native, foreign, and international language.

55. Bilingual Women & Language

Play key role in spreading and adapting English.

56. Language Policy in Thailand

English taught widely but proficiency remains low.

57. Functions of Dictionary

Authority, reference, confidence, recognition.

58. Role of Mother Tongue in Classroom

Supports learning and linguistic rights.

B.Ed. \(1.5 Years\)

BS English

Files

