Question No: 52 (Marks: 10)

Leaders should be selected by the respective followers or must be imposed by the policy makers? In your opinion which could be the better option? Elaborate in detail by explaining the pros & cons of both the situations.

Leaders are selected by the respective followers because as we know that best leaders are selected by the people who want him. The good leader is that who leads his followers. So his people will follow him. But if a leader is selected by policy makers, may be this leader will not be able to motivate and guide his people. Because there is no opinion taken from people in selection of this leader. We will take a real example from today's life.

For example, if we select a leader in elections on high majority, we will be happy from that leader. But if some party has select a leader without the knowledge of people. That will be not a good opinion. I think that the first sentence will be correct in my view.
