ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

Lecture 15: Honesty and Obligation

Important Exam Points

Honesty means being truthful, trustworthy, and reliable.

Obligation means fulfilling duties imposed by law, promises, contracts, and Islamic teachings.

Honesty is one of the greatest moral values in Islam.

Loss of honesty is one of the signs of the Day of Judgment.

Honesty is lost when authority is entrusted to unfit people.

Islam connects honesty directly with faith (Iman).

A person who does not fulfill promises has incomplete faith.

Honesty covers personal, family, social, economic, and political life.

The trust (Amanah) mentioned in Surah Al-Ahzab (33:72) includes all obligations of Islamic law.

Muslims are responsible for every word they speak.

Verbal honesty means speaking truthfully and sincerely.

False praise and exaggerated flattery are condemned in Islam.

Gentleness to guide people towards truth is encouraged.

Flattery that supports falsehood is a sign of hypocrisy.

A Muslim should perform every duty with honesty and integrity.

Administrative corruption is a betrayal of trust.

Accepting gifts because of an official position is prohibited.

Qualified, experienced, and honest people should be appointed to positions of authority.

Giving responsibilities to unqualified people is a betrayal of Allah, His Messenger (ﷺ), and the believers.

A successful society assigns work according to ability, talent, and qualification.

Honesty is essential for social progress and stability.

Honest livelihood means earning through lawful (Halal) means.

Islam permits wealth earned through lawful trade and mutual consent.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

Islam prohibits bribery, theft, gambling, usury (interest), fraud, breach of trust, false weights, and exploitation.

Income that harms others is prohibited.

Contentment and personal integrity are the foundations of honest earning.

Muslims should always seek lawful sources of income.

Parents must be obeyed in all lawful matters.

There is no obedience to parents if they order something against Islam.

If Jihad becomes Fard Ain, parental permission is not required.

If Jihad is Fard Kifayah, parental permission should be obtained.

Disobedience to parents is one of the greatest major sins after Shirk.

Allah may punish disobedience to parents in this world before the Hereafter.

Islam gives special importance to serving and obeying mothers.

Children should always treat parents with love, kindness, respect, and gratitude.

Parents should teach children good character through their own example.

Allah commands believers to fulfill promises, covenants, and trusts.

Breaking promises and violating agreements are condemned in Islam.

Every promise and covenant will be questioned on the Day of Judgment.

The Quran repeatedly emphasizes fulfilling agreements and remaining faithful to Allah's covenant.

Lecture 16: Forgiveness

Important Exam Points

Forgiveness means freeing or pardoning a person from punishment or penalty.

Forgiveness also means releasing someone from an obligation or debt.

Islam encourages forgiveness, patience, and self-control.

The best people are those who become angry slowly and calm down quickly.

The worst people are those who become angry quickly and remain angry for a long time.

A believer should control anger before it leads to sinful actions.

Anger is described as a spark that ignites the heart.

Signs of anger include red eyes and enlarged nostrils.

The Prophet (ﷺ) advised an angry person to remain seated and stay calm.

Controlling anger is a sign of true strength.

The strongest person is the one who controls himself during anger.

The Prophet's simple advice was: "Do not be angry."

Islam replaced the ignorance of the pre-Islamic era (Jahiliyyah) with knowledge, patience, and forgiveness.

Forgiveness is better than revenge.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

If forgiveness is not possible, justice should be observed.

Abusing another Muslim is considered wickedness.

Fighting and quarrelling among Muslims is strongly condemned.

Using obscene language destroys brotherhood among Muslims.

The Prophet (ﷺ) advised Muslims never to abuse anyone.

Smiling at others is considered an act of charity and virtue.

One should never return evil with evil.

If someone criticizes your faults, do not expose his faults in return.

The Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) never took personal revenge.

He always forgave those who harmed him personally.

After the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet (ﷺ) granted general amnesty to his enemies.

Abu Sufyan was forgiven despite years of opposition to Islam.

The people of Taif were forgiven after they stoned the Prophet (ﷺ).

Abdullah bin Ubayy, the leader of the hypocrites, was treated with mercy.

The Prophet (ﷺ) forgave Wahshi, the killer of Hazrat Hamza (RA), after he accepted Islam.

Hind bint Utbah was also forgiven after embracing Islam.

Ikrimah bin Abu Jahl was welcomed warmly after accepting Islam.

Safwan bin Umayyah was granted protection and time to accept Islam.

Habbar bin Al-Aswad was forgiven despite causing severe harm to the Prophet's family.

The Prophet (ﷺ) practiced forgiveness throughout his life.

Forgiveness transforms enemies into sincere friends.

Islam teaches believers to repel evil with goodness.

Allah loves those who restrain their anger and forgive others.

Forgiveness and reconciliation bring great reward from Allah.

Seeking Allah's forgiveness should encourage believers to forgive others.

Showing mercy to young people and respecting elders are qualities of a true Muslim.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

Lecture 17: Uloom-ul-Qur'an – I

Important Exam Points (Most Important & Difficult)

The literal meaning of Qur'an is "to read or recite" (Qara'a).

The technical definition of the Qur'an is the Arabic Speech of Allah revealed to Prophet Muhammad ﷺ with both words and meanings.

The Qur'an has been preserved through Mutawatir (continuous) transmission.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

The Qur'an challenges mankind to produce a book like it.

The five famous names of the Qur'an are Al-Qur'an, Al-Furqan, Al-Kitab, Al-Zikr, and Al-Tanzeel.

Al-Furqan means the book that distinguishes between truth and falsehood.

Al-Kitab means the written and compiled Book.

Al-Zikr means reminder, advice, honor, and admonition.

Al-Tanzeel means the revelation sent down by Allah.

The Qur'an consists of Surahs and Ayat (verses).

An Ayah is the smallest fixed unit of the Qur'an.

The Qur'an contains 114 Surahs.

The shortest Surah is Al-Kawthar (3 verses).

The longest Surah is Al-Baqarah (286 verses).

A Surah is a permanent collection of Qur'anic verses with a beginning and an ending.

Makki Surahs were revealed before Hijrah.

Madani Surahs were revealed after Hijrah.

Every Surah containing the word "Kalla" is Makki.

Every Surah containing permission or rulings of Jihad is Madani.

Verses mentioning hypocrites (Munafiqeen) are Madani.

Except Surah Al-Baqarah, Surahs mentioning Adam (A.S.) and Iblis are generally Makki.

The four categories of Surahs by length are Sab'a Tuwal, Al-Mi'un, Al-Mathani, and Al-Mufassal.

The Qur'an was revealed gradually over 23 years.

Allah Himself promised to protect the Qur'an.

The three methods of preserving the Qur'an are Hifz (memorization), Kitabat (writing), and Jama wa Tadween (compilation).

The Prophet ﷺ appointed scribes to write every revelation.

The Prophet ﷺ also instructed the exact place of every revealed verse.

The Prophet ﷺ reviewed the Qur'an with Angel Jibreel (A.S.) every Ramadan.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

In the final Ramadan before his death, the Qur'an was reviewed twice.

The chief scribe of revelation was Sayyiduna Zaid bin Thabit (RA).

The first official compilation of the Qur'an took place during the caliphate of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr (RA).

The compilation was initiated after many Huffaz were martyred in the Battle of Yamamah.

Every verse was verified through four methods before being included.

The compiled manuscript remained with Abu Bakr (RA), then Umar (RA), then Hafsa (RA).

The standard copies of the Qur'an were prepared during the caliphate of Sayyiduna Uthman (RA).

The committee for preparing standard copies was headed by Sayyiduna Zaid bin Thabit (RA).

Standard copies were sent to different Islamic cities.

Other unofficial copies were removed to prevent differences in recitation.

The first revelation of the Qur'an was "Iqra" (Read).

Knowledge is the greatest honor given to mankind.

Allah taught Adam (A.S.) the names of all things, giving him superiority over the angels.

Only those who truly possess knowledge fear Allah the most.

Islam encourages acquiring deep religious knowledge (Tafaquh fid-Deen).

If a person does not know something, he should ask the people of knowledge.

Lecture 18: Uloom-ul-Qur'an – II

Important Exam Points (Most Important & Difficult)

Believers must never act before the command of Allah and His Messenger ﷺ.

Respecting and honoring the Holy Prophet ﷺ is an essential part of faith.

Raising one's voice above the voice of the Prophet ﷺ may cause one's good deeds to become worthless.

Lowering the voice before the Prophet ﷺ is a sign of true Taqwa.

Calling the Prophet ﷺ loudly from outside his rooms was declared against proper Islamic manners.

Islam commands believers to verify any news brought by a Fasiq (wicked person).

Acting on unverified information may cause injustice and later regret.

The decisions of the Holy Prophet ﷺ are always superior to personal opinions.

Allah has made faith beloved in the hearts of true believers.

If two groups of Muslims fight, believers must first reconcile them peacefully.

If one group continues oppression, Muslims must oppose the aggressor until it returns to Allah's command.

All believers are brothers and must maintain unity.

Islam strictly forbids mocking, ridiculing, insulting, and giving offensive nicknames.

Suspicion without evidence is sinful.

Spying on others is prohibited in Islam.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

Backbiting (Ghibah) is compared to eating the flesh of one's dead brother.

The true standard of honor in Islam is Taqwa, not race, tribe, language, or wealth.

Islam means outward submission, while Iman means true faith settled in the heart.

Guidance (Hidayah) is a blessing and favor from Allah alone.

Allah alone possesses complete knowledge of the unseen (Ghaib).

The Holy Prophet ﷺ has greater authority over believers than they have over themselves.

The wives of the Prophet ﷺ are the Mothers of the Believers.

The Prophet ﷺ is the perfect role model (Uswa-e-Hasanah) for all Muslims.

Prophet Muhammad ﷺ is Khatam-un-Nabiyyin (The Final Prophet).

No prophet will come after Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

Sending Durood and Salam upon the Prophet ﷺ is commanded by Allah.

Hurting or disrespecting Allah and His Messenger ﷺ leads to Allah's curse.

Hurting innocent believers through false accusations is a grave sin.

True servants of Allah respond to ignorant people with peace and patience.

The righteous spend part of the night in worship and prayer.

True believers constantly seek Allah's protection from Hell.

Islam teaches moderation in spending by avoiding extravagance and miserliness.

Lecture 19: Uloom-ul-Qur'an – III

Important Exam Points (Most Important & Difficult)

The true servants of Allah avoid the three major sins: Shirk, unlawful killing, and adultery.

Shirk is the greatest sin because it violates the Oneness of Allah.

Killing an innocent person without lawful reason is strictly prohibited.

Adultery is one of the gravest moral crimes in Islam.

A sincere Tawbah requires repentance, true faith, and righteous deeds.

Allah promises to replace the evil deeds of sincere repentant believers with good deeds.

Persistent sinners who die without repentance deserve severe punishment.

True repentance means abandoning sins completely and returning to Allah.

Believers should neither participate in falsehood nor support evil gatherings.

A true believer passes by sinful activities with dignity and avoids involvement.

The righteous reflect upon the verses of the Qur'an instead of ignoring them.

The prayer of righteous believers includes asking Allah for righteous spouses and children.

Believers ask Allah to make them leaders of the righteous (Muttaqeen).

Patience (Sabr) includes remaining steadfast in worship, hardships, and obedience to Allah.

The reward for patience is lofty palaces (Ghurafah) in Paradise.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

Allah values His servants only when they worship and sincerely call upon Him.

Success belongs to the believers who possess the qualities mentioned in Surah Al-Mu'minun.

Khushu (humility and concentration) is an essential quality of successful believers during Salah.

Successful believers avoid useless, vain, and meaningless talk (Laghw).

Zakat purifies both wealth and the soul.

Believers guard their chastity and remain within lawful marital limits.

Anyone seeking unlawful relationships beyond what Allah has permitted is considered a transgressor.

Trusts (Amanah) include responsibilities toward Allah, society, and individuals.

Keeping promises and fulfilling agreements are signs of true faith.

Successful believers protect and maintain their prayers regularly.

The inheritors of Firdaus are those who possess all the qualities of successful believers.

Firdaus is the highest and most excellent level of Paradise.

Islam strictly prohibits associating partners with Allah.

Kindness and excellence toward parents is one of the greatest Islamic obligations.

Parents should never fear poverty because Allah is the Provider.

Islam forbids both open and hidden forms of immorality.

The wealth of orphans must only be managed in the best possible manner until maturity.

Justice must always be observed in weights and measures.

Islam teaches speaking the truth even against one's own relatives.

Fulfilling Allah's covenant is a fundamental obligation of every Muslim.

Islam is the Straight Path, and following other paths leads people away from Allah.

All Divine commandments are meant to guide mankind toward Taqwa (God-consciousness).

Lecture 20: Uloom-ul-Hadith – I

Important Exam Points (Most Important & Difficult)

The literal meaning of Hadith is news, report, conversation, story, or message.

The word Hadith also means "new" as opposed to "Qadim" (old).

In the Qur'an, the word Hadith is used in the sense of story, communication, and message.

Technically, Hadith refers to the sayings, actions, silent approvals, and descriptions of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

The technical definition of Hadith includes Qawl (speech), Fi'l (actions), Taqrir (silent approval), and Wasf (description).

Every Hadith consists of two essential components: Isnad and Matan.

Isnad is the complete chain of narrators who transmitted the Hadith.

Matan is the actual text or content of the Hadith.

Hadith-e-Qudsi contains the words conveyed by Allah through the Prophet ﷺ.

Hadith-e-Nabawi consists of the sayings and actions directly attributed to Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

A Sahih Hadith fulfills all five conditions of authenticity.

The first condition of Sahih Hadith is an unbroken chain of narrators (continuous Isnad).

Every narrator in a Sahih Hadith must be upright ('Adl) and possess good moral character.

Narrators of Sahih Hadith must have accurate memory or reliable written preservation (Dabt).

A Sahih Hadith must be free from Shudhudh (contradiction) and hidden defects ('Illah).

Hasan Hadith has narrators whose accuracy is slightly lower than Sahih while meeting the remaining conditions.

Da'if Hadith is any narration that fails to meet one or more conditions of Sahih.

Mawdu' Hadith is a fabricated narration falsely attributed to Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

Technically, a Mawdu' narration is not considered a genuine Hadith.

The literal meaning of Sunnah is way, method, practice, conduct, or mode of life.

In the Qur'an, Sunnah refers to Allah's established law or pattern.

The Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ means his practical way of life.

Hadith records the Sunnah, but a single Hadith may contain more than one Sunnah.

The authority of the Prophet ﷺ comes directly from Allah, not from public acceptance.

Obedience to Prophet Muhammad ﷺ is equivalent to obedience to Allah.

A believer's faith is incomplete until he accepts the Prophet's ﷺ judgment wholeheartedly.

Allah's love is conditional upon following Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

The Prophet ﷺ possessed independent legislative authority granted by Allah.

The Prophet ﷺ prohibited certain matters even when they were not explicitly mentioned in the Qur'an.

The famous Hadith states: "I have been given the Qur'an and something like it."

The Sunnah explains, clarifies, specifies, and supplements the teachings of the Qur'an.

During the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime, legal issues were settled through his judgments and decisions.

The Prophet ﷺ instructed Muslims to perform commands according to their ability and completely avoid prohibited matters.

The Prophet ﷺ declared silk and gold unlawful for Muslim men and lawful for women.

The Rightly Guided Caliphs always gave preference to the Sunnah in legal matters.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

Abu Bakr (RA) verified Hadith before issuing legal rulings.

Abu Bakr (RA) granted the grandmother one-sixth inheritance based on authentic Hadith.

Lecture 21: Uloom-ul-Hadith – II

Important Exam Points (Most Important & Difficult)

Hadith is the second major source of guidance after the Holy Qur'an.

The history of Hadith compilation is generally divided into four major eras.

The first era is the Era of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

The Prophet ﷺ encouraged the Companions to memorize and learn his Ahadith.

The Prophet ﷺ often repeated his words three times to make memorization easier.

The Prophet ﷺ instructed several Companions to write down his Ahadith.

The Prophet ﷺ permitted Abdullah bin Amr (RA) to record every authentic statement he heard from him.

The Prophet ﷺ ordered, "Write it down for Abu Shah," proving the permission to write Hadith.

The Prophet ﷺ advised those with weak memory to strengthen it through writing.

The Companions preserved Hadith through both memorization and written manuscripts.

Sahifa Ali (RA) is among the earliest written collections of Hadith.

Sahifa Sadiqah compiled by Abdullah bin Amr (RA) is one of the oldest Hadith manuscripts.

The Prophet's ﷺ official letters and written commands also preserved many Ahadith.

Around 250 letters of the Prophet ﷺ have been identified according to Dr. Hamidullah's research.

During the Companions' era, Hadith was preserved through memorization, writing, teaching, and practical implementation.

Hazrat Umar (RA) appointed senior Companions to teach the Qur'an and Sunnah throughout the Islamic provinces.

Senior Companions established Hadith circles in different cities for teaching the next generation.

Sahifa Hammam bin Munabbih is an important manuscript proving uninterrupted Hadith transmission.

During the era of the Tabi'in, fabricated Ahadith began to appear due to the spread of Islam.

Caliph Umar bin Abdul Aziz officially ordered the systematic compilation of Hadith.

Abu Bakr ibn Hazm was among the scholars instructed to compile Hadith.

Imam al-Zuhri became the first scholar to systematically compile Hadith and document narrators' biographies.

The era of Taba Tabi'in is regarded as the Golden Age of Hadith compilation.

During this era, complete Isnad and principles for identifying authentic Hadith were established.

The sayings of the Companions and Successors were also carefully recorded during this period.

The six most authentic Hadith books are collectively known as Sihah al-Sittah (Kutub al-Sittah).

Sahih al-Bukhari is considered the most authentic book after the Holy Qur'an.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

Imam Bukhari was born in Bukhara in 194 A.H.

Imam Bukhari selected about 9,082 narrations from nearly 600,000 Ahadith, while approximately 4,000 remain without repetition.

Imam Bukhari performed two Rak'ahs of prayer before recording each Hadith.

Imam Muslim was born in 206 A.H. and belonged to Nishapur.

Sahih Muslim is regarded as the second most authentic Hadith collection after Sahih al-Bukhari.

Imam Muslim accepted only Ahadith with continuous Isnad and trustworthy narrators.

Jami' al-Tirmidhi classifies Ahadith into Sahih, Hasan, Sahih Hasan, Hasan Sahih, Gharib, Da'if, and Munkar.

The category of Hasan Hadith was clearly emphasized by Imam al-Tirmidhi.

Abu Dawud selected approximately 4,800 Ahadith from nearly 500,000 narrations.

Sunan Abu Dawud is regarded as one of the finest books devoted mainly to legal Ahadith.

Imam al-Nasa'i compiled Al-Mujtaba (Sunan al-Sughra), containing only reliable traditions.

Sunan Ibn Majah contains 4,341 Ahadith arranged into 32 books and about 1,500 chapters.

Sahih al-Bukhari and Sahih Muslim are known as the two Sahihs among the Six Authentic Books.

Lecture 22: Uloom-ul-Hadith – III

Important Exam Points (Most Important & Difficult)

Hadith and Sunnah are the primary sources of Islamic knowledge after the Holy Qur'an.

The Sunnah explains, clarifies, and practically demonstrates the teachings of the Qur'an.

The first Hadith of Sahih al-Bukhari emphasizes that the acceptance of deeds depends upon intentions.

Every person is rewarded according to the intention behind his or her actions.

Pure intention (Niyyah) is the basic requirement for the acceptance of every good deed.

Migration (Hijrah) performed for Allah earns divine reward, while migration for worldly gain earns only worldly benefit.

The best among Muslims are those who learn the Qur'an and teach it to others.

Learning and teaching the Qur'an is one of the greatest acts of worship in Islam.

The Prophet ﷺ left two permanent sources of guidance: the Book of Allah and his Sunnah.

Whoever firmly follows the Qur'an and Sunnah will never go astray.

Innovations (Bid'ah) must be judged and rejected according to the Qur'an and Sunnah.

Islam is founded upon five fundamental pillars.

The first pillar of Islam is the testimony of faith (Shahadah).

The remaining pillars are Salah, Zakat, Fasting in Ramadan, and Hajj.

Prayer strengthens a believer's relationship with Allah.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

Zakat purifies wealth and develops social responsibility.

Fasting develops piety, patience, and obedience to Allah.

Hajj symbolizes submission to Allah and reminds believers of the Day of Judgment.

When Allah intends good for a person, He grants understanding of religion (Fiqh).

Understanding Islam correctly is one of Allah's greatest blessings.

On the Day of Judgment, every person will be questioned about five important matters.

A person will be questioned about life, youth, wealth, earning, spending, and knowledge.

Knowledge without practice will also be questioned by Allah.

Earning a lawful livelihood (Halal Rizq) is an obligatory duty after the basic obligations of Islam.

Islam strongly encourages lawful earnings and prohibits unlawful income such as usury (Riba).

A believer must stop evil according to his ability.

The highest level of preventing evil is through lawful authority and power.

If one cannot stop evil physically, one should condemn it through speech.

Disliking evil in the heart is the weakest level of faith.

Good character will be the heaviest deed on the believer's scale on the Day of Judgment.

Allah dislikes those who use foul, abusive, and obscene language.

An honest and trustworthy merchant will be with the Prophets, the truthful, and the martyrs.

The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ is the Seal and Final Prophet.

The example of the final brick in a beautiful building illustrates the completion of Prophethood through Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

Lecture 23: The Sirah of the Holy Prophet ﷺ – I

Important Exam Points (Most Important & Difficult)

The literal meaning of Sirah is way, method, conduct, character, habit, or manner of life.

Technically, Sirah refers to the biography, morals, habits, and life of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

The Holy Qur'an is the foremost and most authentic source of Sirah.

The sources of Sirah are divided into Primary Sources and Secondary Sources.

The primary sources include the Holy Qur'an, Hadith books, Maghazi books, Shumail books, Dalail al-Nubuwwah books, and early Islamic history books.

The secondary sources include Asma al-Rijal books, Haramain history books, genealogical books, and Asar al-Sahabah books.

Hazrat Ayesha (RA) described the character of the Prophet ﷺ by saying, "His character was the Qur'an."

Even the polytheists of Makkah acknowledged the truthfulness and honesty of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ before Prophethood.

Obedience to the Prophet ﷺ is equivalent to obedience to Allah.

Allah's love is attained by following the Sunnah of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

The Qur'an and the Sunnah are the two fundamental sources of Islam.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

Holding firmly to the Book of Allah and the Sunnah protects Muslims from going astray.

Following the Sirah of the Prophet ﷺ is the true source of guidance.

The Prophet ﷺ practically demonstrated every command of the Holy Qur'an.

The Prophet ﷺ instructed Muslims to perform Salah exactly as they saw him performing it.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ is the perfect role model for all humanity.

The Makki life of the Prophet ﷺ is divided into life before Prophethood and life after Prophethood.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ was born on Monday, 12 Rabi-ul-Awwal, in the Year of the Elephant.

The birthplace of the Prophet ﷺ is located near Masjid al-Haram in Makkah.

The name Muhammad ﷺ means "the one who is praised repeatedly."

Hazrat Aminah (RA) first breastfed the Prophet ﷺ.

Hazrat Halimah Sa'diyyah (RA) became the most famous foster mother of the Prophet ﷺ.

The arrival of the Prophet ﷺ brought immense blessings and prosperity to the household of Hazrat Halimah (RA).

The Prophet ﷺ remained with Hazrat Halimah (RA) until approximately five years of age.

Hazrat Aminah (RA) passed away at Abwa while returning from Madinah when the Prophet ﷺ was six years old.

After the death of his mother, the Prophet ﷺ came under the care of his grandfather Hazrat Abdul Muttalib.

Hazrat Abdul Muttalib predicted that the Prophet ﷺ would attain a great status.

After the death of Abdul Muttalib, Hazrat Abu Talib became the guardian of the Prophet ﷺ.

The Prophet ﷺ made his first business journey to Syria with Abu Talib at the age of twelve.

The monk Bahira recognized the signs of Prophethood during this journey.

The Prophet ﷺ became widely known as Al-Ameen (the Trustworthy) before Prophethood.

At the age of twenty-five, the Prophet ﷺ conducted Hazrat Khadijah's (RA) trade journey to Syria with complete honesty.

Hazrat Khadijah (RA) proposed marriage after being impressed by the honesty and character of the Prophet ﷺ.

The Prophet ﷺ married Hazrat Khadijah (RA) at the age of twenty-five, while she was forty years old.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

At the age of thirty-five, the Prophet ﷺ wisely resolved the dispute over placing Hajr-e-Aswad during the reconstruction of the Ka'bah.

The Prophet ﷺ placed Hajr-e-Aswad with his own hands after all tribal leaders jointly lifted it on a cloth.

The wisdom of the Prophet ﷺ prevented bloodshed among the tribes of Quraysh.

Lecture 24: The Sirah of the Holy Prophet ﷺ – II

Important Exam Points (Most Important & Difficult)

The first revelation was revealed to the Holy Prophet ﷺ at the age of forty.

The first revelation took place in the Cave of Hira on 17th Ramadan, 610 CE.

Angel Jibril (A.S.) brought the first revelation with the command "Iqra" (Read).

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

The first revealed verses were Surah Al-Alaq (96:1–5).

After the first revelation, the Holy Prophet ﷺ returned home trembling and asked Hazrat Khadijah (RA) to cover him.

Hazrat Khadijah (RA) comforted the Holy Prophet ﷺ and testified to his truthfulness, honesty, generosity, and noble character.

Hazrat Khadijah (RA) was the first woman to accept Islam.

Hazrat Abu Bakr (RA) was the first adult man to accept Islam.

Hazrat Ali (RA) was the first child to accept Islam.

Hazrat Zaid bin Harithah (RA) was the first servant to accept Islam.

The preaching of Islam remained secret for the first three years.

Dar-e-Arqam became the first center for the secret preaching of Islam.

The Quraysh planned to assassinate the Holy Prophet ﷺ, but Banu Hashim protected him.

The Quraysh imposed a social boycott on Banu Hashim in the 7th year of Prophethood.

The social boycott continued for three years, from the 7th to the 10th year of Prophethood.

During the boycott, Muslims suffered hunger, thirst, and severe hardships.

The boycott agreement prohibited marriage, trade, social relations, and food supply with Banu Hashim.

The boycott ended when termites destroyed the written agreement except the words "Bismika Allahumma."

The year in which Hazrat Khadijah (RA) and Abu Talib passed away is called Aam-ul-Huzn (The Year of Grief).

After Abu Talib's death, Abu Lahab withdrew tribal protection from the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ traveled to Taif with Hazrat Zaid bin Harithah (RA) to preach Islam.

The leaders of Taif rejected the message of Islam and ordered people to stone the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

Hazrat Jibril (A.S.) offered to destroy Taif, but the Holy Prophet ﷺ prayed for the guidance of its future generations.

The Christian servant Addas accepted Islam after meeting the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

The miraculous journey of Isra and Miraj took place after the Year of Grief.

During Isra, the Holy Prophet ﷺ traveled from Masjid al-Haram to Masjid al-Aqsa.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ led all previous Prophets (A.S.) in prayer at Masjid al-Aqsa.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

During Miraj, the Holy Prophet ﷺ met Hazrat Adam (A.S.), Isa (A.S.), Yahya (A.S.), Yusuf (A.S.), Idris (A.S.), Harun (A.S.), Musa (A.S.), and Ibrahim (A.S.) in the seven heavens.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ witnessed Paradise, Hell, and the Pond of Kausar during Miraj.

Allah initially made fifty prayers obligatory during Miraj.

On the advice of Hazrat Musa (A.S.), the Holy Prophet ﷺ repeatedly requested a reduction in prayers.

Allah reduced the obligatory prayers from fifty to five daily prayers while preserving the reward of fifty.

Six people from Yathrib accepted Islam during the 11th year of Prophethood.

The First Pledge of Uqbah took place in the 12th year of Prophethood with twelve people from Yathrib.

The conditions of the First Pledge included worshipping only Allah, avoiding shirk, theft, adultery, slander, killing children, and obeying the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ sent Hazrat Musab bin Umair (RA) to Yathrib to teach Islam.

Hazrat Sa'd bin Mu'adh (RA) accepted Islam through the efforts of Hazrat Musab bin Umair (RA), leading many members of the Aws tribe to embrace Islam.

The Second Pledge of Uqbah took place in the 13th year of Prophethood with seventy-five participants, including two women.

The participants of the Second Pledge promised to obey, support, defend, and sacrifice for the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

After the Second Pledge of Uqbah, the Muslims received permission to migrate to Yathrib (Madinah).

The Holy Prophet ﷺ migrated to Madinah approximately three months after the Second Pledge of Uqbah.

Lecture 25: The Sirah of the Holy Prophet ﷺ – III

Important Exam Points (Most Important & Difficult)

The Madni life of the Holy Prophet ﷺ began after the migration (Hijrah) to Madinah and lasted for the final ten years of his life.

The major events of the Madni life include Brotherhood of Madinah, Charter of Madinah, Battle of Badr, Battle of Uhud, Battle of Ahzab, Treaty of Hudaibiyah, Conquest of Khaibar, Battle of Muthah, Conquest of Makkah, Battle of Hunain, Battle of Tabuk, and the Last Sermon.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ migrated to Madinah after thirteen years of Prophethood.

The migration took place to protect the lives of Muslims, establish the Islamic State, and implement Islamic teachings.

The people of Madinah warmly welcomed the Holy Prophet ﷺ upon his arrival.

Three groups lived in Madinah at the time of Hijrah: Muslims, polytheists, and Jews.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ established brotherhood between the Muhajireen (Emigrants) and Ansar (Helpers) in the house of Hazrat Anas bin Malik (RA).

The main objective of the Brotherhood of Madinah was to strengthen Muslims and support the emigrants.

Brotherhood removed racial, tribal, and social discrimination among Muslims.

The Ansar sacrificed their wealth and property for the Muhajireen with complete sincerity.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

Hazrat Abdul Rahman bin Auf (RA) politely refused excessive financial assistance and earned his livelihood through trade.

The Charter of Madinah is regarded as the first written constitution in history.

The Charter of Madinah was signed between Muslims, Jews, and the polytheists of Madinah in 1 A.H.

The Charter guaranteed religious freedom for the Jews and mutual defence of Madinah.

The Charter ended conflicts between Aws and Khazraj and strengthened the Islamic State.

The Battle of Badr was fought in Ramadan, 2 A.H., between Muslims and the Quraysh.

The Battle of Badr is called "Yawm-ul-Furqan" in the Holy Qur'an.

The Muslim army consisted of 313 companions, while the Quraysh army consisted of about 1000 soldiers.

Allah Almighty helped the Muslims by sending angels during the Battle of Badr.

After the Battle of Badr, seventy disbelievers were killed and seventy were taken as prisoners.

Prisoners unable to pay ransom were required to teach ten Muslim children.

The Battle of Uhud took place in Shawwal, 3 A.H., near Mount Uhud.

The Muslim army initially numbered one thousand, but Abdullah bin Ubay withdrew with three hundred hypocrites.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ appointed fifty archers under Hazrat Abdullah bin Jubayr (RA) to guard the mountain pass.

The Muslims suffered losses in Uhud because many archers disobeyed the Prophet's instructions.

Hazrat Hamzah (RA), Hazrat Musab bin Umair (RA), and many other companions were martyred in the Battle of Uhud.

The Battle of Ahzab (Battle of the Trench) took place in 5 A.H.

Hazrat Salman al-Farsi (RA) suggested digging a trench around Madinah for defence.

The allied army of Quraysh and other tribes numbered approximately ten thousand.

Allah Almighty defeated the enemy through strong winds and unseen forces.

The Treaty of Hudaibiyah was signed in 6 A.H. between Muslims and Quraysh.

The Prophet ﷺ saw a dream of performing Umrah before the Treaty of Hudaibiyah.

Hazrat Usman (RA) was sent to Makkah as an ambassador before the treaty.

The Pledge of Ridwan was taken after the rumour of Hazrat Usman's martyrdom.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

The Treaty of Hudaibiyah established a ten-year peace agreement between Muslims and Quraysh.

Although Muslims returned without performing Umrah that year, the treaty became a great victory for Islam.

Lecture 26: The Sirah of the Holy Prophet ﷺ – IV

Important Exam Points (Most Important & Difficult)

The Battle of Khaybar was fought against the Jews in 7 A.H. after the Treaty of Hudaibiyah.

The main reason for the Battle of Khaybar was to stop the continuous conspiracies and treacheries of the Jews against Islam.

Khaybar was located about 100 miles north of Madinah and contained many strong forts.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

The Companions who participated in Bay'at al-Ridwan joined the expedition to Khaybar.

Abdullah bin Ubay secretly informed the Jews of Khaybar about the Muslim movement.

The Jews sought military assistance from Banu Ghatafan before the battle.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ strategically camped the Muslim army to block the enemy's escape routes.

The Prophet ﷺ announced that the Islamic flag would be given to the person most beloved to Allah and His Messenger.

Hazrat Ali (RA) received the flag of Islam during the Battle of Khaybar.

Hazrat Ali (RA) defeated the Jewish champion Marhab, leading to the conquest of the first forts.

The remaining forts of Khaybar were surrendered peacefully after a ceasefire agreement.

The Jews agreed to pay Jizyah in return for retaining their lands.

The Battle of Mu'tah was fought in 8 A.H. against the Roman Empire.

The battle began after Harith bin Umair al-Azdi (RA), the Prophet's messenger, was martyred by the Roman governor Sharjeel.

Hazrat Zaid bin Harithah (RA) was appointed the first commander of the Muslim army.

Hazrat Ja'far bin Abi Talib (RA) was appointed as the second commander.

Hazrat Abdullah bin Rawahah (RA) was appointed as the third commander.

The Muslim army consisted of about 3,000 soldiers, while the Roman forces numbered nearly 200,000.

After the martyrdom of the three commanders, Hazrat Khalid bin Waleed (RA) took command.

Nine swords broke in the hands of Hazrat Khalid bin Waleed (RA) during the Battle of Mu'tah.

Hazrat Khalid (RA) wisely reorganized the Muslim army and saved it from destruction.

The courage displayed at Mu'tah greatly strengthened the image of Muslims throughout Arabia.

The Conquest of Makkah took place in 8 A.H.

The conquest became necessary after Quraysh violated the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah by supporting Banu Bakr against Banu Khuza'ah.

Amr bin Salim al-Khuza'i informed the Prophet ﷺ about the violation of the treaty.

Abu Sufyan visited Madinah to renew the peace treaty, but the Prophet ﷺ did not accept his request.

The Prophet ﷺ secretly prepared an army of ten thousand Companions for the conquest.

ISL202 IMPORTANT NOTES + EXAM KEY POINTS + LECTURE WISE MCQS

Hatib bin Abi Balta'ah mistakenly leaked information about the Muslim expedition, but he was forgiven because of his participation in the Battle of Badr.

The Muslim army camped at Marr al-Zahran before entering Makkah.

Abu Sufyan accepted Islam before the conquest of Makkah.

The Prophet ﷺ divided the Muslim army into four groups for the peaceful entry into Makkah.

After entering Makkah, the Prophet ﷺ destroyed all idols inside the Ka'bah.

Hazrat Bilal (RA) delivered the Adhan from the roof of the Ka'bah after the conquest.

The Prophet ﷺ announced general amnesty and forgave the people of Makkah.

After the conquest, the Prophet ﷺ accepted allegiance from the people at Mount Safa.
