

Q.1 The Sindh government was the one who initially passed the local government act in 2010.

- A. False
 - B. True
-

Q.2 In a hierarchy set-up, the Joint Secretary reports to the Additional Secretary.

- A. False
 - B. True
-

Q.3 The subject "transfer of property" is Not included in the concurrent list.

- A. True
 - B. False
-

Q.4 Defence is the responsibility of the local government in Pakistan.

- A. True
 - B. False
-

Q.5 According to the rules of business, the number of ministries is 20.

- A. False
 - B. True
-

Q.6 The purpose of the creation of a state is to promote virtue and secure justice for all citizens.

- A. False
 - B. True
-

Q.7 In Pakistan, the head of the state is President, who is elected by the members of both houses of the Parliament and the Provincial Assemblies.

- A. False
 - B. True
-

Q.8 The executive branch of government is not responsible for the execution of policies of the government.

- A. True
 - B. False
-

Q.9 Parliament of Pakistan consists of the President and the two houses known as the National Assembly and the Senate.

- A. True
 - B. False
-

Q.10 Pakistan is the federal republic with three tiers of government (national, provincial and local government).

- A. False
 - B. True
-