

PAK522 SUBJECTIVE SHORT AND LONG

Q#01: what are the proposal of Crips Mission (1942)?

Answer: The Cripps Mission (1942) proposed Dominion Status for India after WWII, formation of a constitution-making assembly, freedom for provinces to opt out, and British control of defense during the war.

Q#02: Two Nation Theory According to Allama Iqbal?

Answer: Allama Iqbal believed that Muslims and Hindus were two separate nations, so Muslims should have a separate state to protect their identity and rights.

Q#03: Objective Resolution Of Pakistan Impact On Later Constitution?

Answer: The Objectives Resolution influenced later constitutions by making Islamic principles a basic part of Pakistan's constitutional system and serving as the foundation for the Constitutions of 1956, 1962, and 1973.

Q#04: Aurangzeb policies which contribute to the decline of Mughal empire?

Answer: Aurangzeb's strict religious policies, long wars, conflicts with Rajputs and Marathas, and overexpansion weakened the Mughal Empire and contributed to its decline.

Q#05: Explain the Three Legislative Lists introduced under the Government of India Act 1935?

Answer: The Act of 1935 divided powers into Federal, Provincial, and Concurrent Lists to share authority between central and provincial governments.

Q#06: How did the failure of the Cabinet Mission Plan contribute to the demand for the partition of India by Muslims?

Answer: The failure of the Cabinet Mission Plan convinced Muslims that coexistence in a united India was difficult, strengthening the demand for the partition of India and creation of Pakistan.

Q#07: Discuss Allama Iqbal's critiques of Indian Nationalism?

Answer: Allama Iqbal criticized Indian Nationalism because he believed Muslims were a separate nation with distinct identity and needed protection of their political and religious rights.

Q#08: Discuss the role of students in the Pakistan Movement?

Answer: Students contributed to the Pakistan Movement by spreading political awareness, participating in campaigns, supporting Muslim League leaders, and mobilizing public support for Pakistan.

Q#09: Benefits of 1962 Constitution of Pakistan?

Answer: Presidential System
Political Stability
Basic Democracies System
Economic Development.
Modern Administration

Q#10: What are the objective of All India Muslim League?

Answer: The objectives of the All-India Muslim League were to protect Muslim rights, represent Muslims politically, maintain relations with the British, and promote Muslim unity.

Q#11: Why did Sheikh Ahmad Sirhindi oppose Akbar's policies?

Answer: Sheikh Ahmad Sirhindi opposed Akbar's policies because he believed they were against Islam, especially Din-e-Ilahi and policies that weakened Islamic identity.

Q#12: Define ideology, what was the reaction of Allama Iqbal on western idea?

Answer: Ideology means a system of beliefs and ideas. Allama Iqbal supported useful Western knowledge but rejected Western materialism and nationalism because they weakened Islamic moral and spiritual values.

Q#13: what is the role of Quaid e Azam in Lahore resolution?

Answer: Quaid-e-Azam led the Lahore Session, supported the Two-Nation idea, and guided the demand for separate Muslim states in 1940 Lahore Resolution.

Q#14: What was the reason of dissolution of first constituent 1954?

Answer: The First Constituent Assembly was dissolved in 1954 due to delays in constitution-making, political conflicts, and loss of confidence by the Governor-General.

Q#15: Pakistan Resolution (1940)?

Answer: The Pakistan Resolution of 1940 demanded separate Muslim states, which later led to the creation of Pakistan.

Q#16: How did Aurangzeb's policies contribute to the decline of the Mughal Empire?

Answer: Aurangzeb's religious policies, long wars, and internal conflicts weakened the Mughal Empire and led to its decline.

Q#17: What were the movements and efforts of Sir Syed Ahmed Khan for modern education?

Answer: Sir Syed Ahmed Khan promoted modern education by founding MAO College, encouraging English learning, and improving Muslim-British relations.

Q#18: Constitution of 1973?

Answer: The Constitution of Pakistan 1973 was passed on 14 August 1973. It introduced a parliamentary system, declared Islam as state religion, and guaranteed fundamental rights. It also created a strong federal structure with provinces sharing powers.

Q#19: Role and aims of Aligarh movement ?

Answer: The Aligarh Movement aimed to promote modern education, social reform, and Muslim-British understanding. It played a key role in educating Muslims and improving their social and political condition.

Q#20: Reasons for govt of India act 1935 ?

Answer: The Government of India Act 1935 was introduced due to Indian demands for self-rule, failure of earlier reforms, Round Table Conferences, and rising nationalism.