ENG524_Finals_Solved_Spring2024

Objective

1. There has been _____ research on the ways in which the general public has produced knowledge of the economy through intellectual engagement in the media with economists. (limited)
2. Jessop (2013) has outlined _____ approaches examining neoliberalism. (five)
3. Except _____ all are component of stance making. (epistemic knowledge)
4. In Neoliberalism, the term deregulation suggests the business operations more with less regulations. (smoother)
5. Nations and national identities are based on _____ as systems of cultural representation. (historical narratives)
6. The use of flags in everyday contexts refers to _____ concepts of nationalism. (Billig's)
7. Border politics is defined by _____ language and it is part of national identity politics. (national)
8. The social welfare state emerged in _____ era in Western Europe, Canada, Australia, the UK and the United states. (world war II)
9. Stance in the theories of discourse analysis is _____. (ideology)
10. Ferguson (2010) provocatively point out "neoliberalism is for poor and working people". (bad)
11. Historiographical research is produced from certain _____ locations. (political, socioeconomic, all of the given, cultural)
12. Subjective feelings such as happiness and ager are termed as ____ in stance referring. (affective)
13. The lexical level operates at _____ in political discourse. (words and phrases)
14. The phenomenon of 'political theory' is related to _____ in society. (public theory)
15. 'Like' refers to _____ in the sentence 'I like winters'. (stance position)
16. Construction of identity of any political party can be done simply by ___ in political discourse. (slogans)

ENG524_Finals_Solved_Spring2024

17. 'Language helps us in presenting a given view of reality' is point view of linguists. (Chilton)

18. The concept of 'order discourse' is provided by ____ in CDA. (Fairclough)

19. Domination is represented through _____ according to Gramsci's notion of hegemony. (private organizations)

20. A corpus based methodology operates on a _____ collection of naturally occurring texts/discourse. (huge)

21. Emerging literature foregrounds _____ as the central focus of discourse analysis is Social Media. (discursive practice)

22. How can your speech establish 'in-group' or 'out-group' category? (through inclusive pronouns and vocabulary)

23. The post-Marxist theories focus on reality TV with the perspective that how it can _____ class differences. (legitimate)

24. Politicians employ certain _____ strategies to persuade people to follow their hidden agendas. (linguistic)

25. The analysis of the Pakistani news headlines reveals that they are infused with varying ideologies and ____ relations. (power)

26. How are 'objects' defined in the context of 'textual analysis' in the framework of analysis of media discourse (Corvalho, 2008). (Layout and structural organization of the text)

27. The _____ square model of Van Dijik can be employed as the theoretical framework for the study of propagation of ideology. (Ideological)

28. Social media critical discourse analysis deals with _____ mainly as its central object of analysis. (discourse)

29. Media text can be best analyzed by adopting Van Dijk model (1995) and Fairclough & _____ model (1997). (Wodak)

30. The employment of _____ in films depicts ethnically diverse situations. (code-switching)

31. Multimodal approach focuses on how reality TV can reproduce ideologies by involving all _____ resources. (semiotic)

32. The CDA analysis of Jinnah's speech in the first constituent assembly reveals that Jinnah wanted to make Pakistan democratic, just and _____ state. (impartial)

ENG524_Finals_Solved_Spring2024

33. Biased reporting may have serious socio "_____ effects on readers. (psychological)

34. The _____ draws on social theory and contextual knowledge to pint out the "manipulative character" of some discursive practices. (Socio-diagnostic critique)

35. Perhaps a single methodological approach may not be _____ to analyze historical and ideological textual discourses. (sufficient)

36. Scholars often refer to everyday contexts as _____ opposed to the "global", "macro" level of institutions (Van Dijik, 2002) (local or micro)

37. The process of _____ involves "ideological construction as well as an apparatus of legal, political and social discrimination and oppression". (MacMaster, 2001). (racialization)

38. An example of _____ is brown, white, or black skin (all from various parts of the world). (race)

39. The fusion of politics and media over time has led to _____ transforming politicians into media celebrities. (political socialization)

40. The discursive construction of terrorism is often a powerful tool of propaganda used to achieve _____ goals. (socio-political)

41. In pretext for war, retributive justice and _____ did not prove legitimate enough reasons to take any kind of definitive action (revenge)

42. It is important to "recognize that 'terrorism' is simply a word, a subjective epithet, not a/an _____ reality" (Whitbeck, 2004) (objective)

43. Integration discourse as both _____ and producer of controlling institutional frameworks. (product)

44. Construction of identity of any political party can be done simply by in political discourse. (names)

45. Lexical items specifically has relation with: (co-textual context)

46. Mark the following as True or False

Studying the construction of text tells us about ideological beliefs and social effects. (True)

47. Mark the following as True or False

Stance lacks the power to invoke presupposed systems of sociocultural values. (false)

48. Mark the following as True or False

Contextualization cues work by pointing beyond the utterance to its presupposed conditions of use. (True)

49. Mark the following as True or False

The way in which something is said speaker/writer comments on communication itself highlights the attitudinal kind of stance. (False)

50. All are the key components of stance triangles excluding _____. (detachment)

51. Mark the following as True or False

The stance triangle provides an analytic toolkit of interconnected concepts and methods designed to explain various elements and processes of stance. (True)

52. Mark the following as True or False

Subjectivity and positioning go hand in hand. (True)

53. Who argued against devising "further machinery for 'guiding' and 'directing' " individuals"? (Hayek)

54. Who stated "neoliberalism is bad for poor and working people, therefore we must oppose it" (Ferguson)

55. Who has outlined five approaches examining neoliberalism? (Jessop)

56. Who argued that _____ can be seen as "the result of elites integrating critiques of capitalism into capitalism itself as sources of renewal" (neoliberalism)

57. Billig's study (1995) of _____ refers to everyday representations of the nation which build an "imaginary" of national solidarity and belonging. (banal nationalism)

58. the concept of "_____" relates to nativist "body-politics" of viewing and conceptualizing the nation as a body. (mother tongue)

59. which one among the choices is defines as "a political principle that holds that the political and the national unit should be congruent" (nationalism)

60. Who proposed the eclectic framework? (Sicurella (2015))

61. After 9/11, the Bush administration was perceived as the official sponsor of the War on Terror, enforcing a state of moral order through the " of facts". (emotionalization)

62. Through _____ for war, one tries to make subjective realities as legitimate and objective. (justification)

63. Usually academics and political analysts find the word '_____' as a calculated element of propaganda (terrorism)

64. Who gave the theoretical framework discourse of illusion? (Bhatia, 2015)

65. The discourse of _____ is grounded in a sociocultural mesh of beliefs and ideas about what the world is like and what it should be like. (illusion)

66. For nations '_____ for war' is important, in order to prove legitimate reason/s to take any kind of definitive action in the eyes of the world. (pre-text)

67. The traditional definition of race and ethnicity is related to biological and sociological factors respectively (biological)

68. While looking at immigration policy, a particular area in CDA studies on elite racism focuses on 'increasing articulation between race and .(immigrants)

69. Traditionally, domestic sphere seemed to be associated with in most of the gender based studies in CDA. (women)

70. In critical investigations of gender identities and relations is a central focus. (power)

71. Esteban noted in studies that the communicative behavior of women managers as seen inappropriate by employees and it led to their social making their promotion difficult. (isolation)

72. The term 'feminist' in 'feminist CDA' focus on '_____' as an object of CDA research. (gender)

73. Feminist critical discourse analysis (FCDA) studies have focused on investigating: (newer gender ideologies)

ENG524_Finals_Solved_Spring2024

74. According to Clark's analysis of news reports on violence again British women, victims in the reports were categorized as either 'genuine' or ' ' victims. (non-genuine)

75. In feminist CDA research, what is emphasized for understanding gender dynamics in the contemporary period? (the need to challenge and dismantle oppressive power relations)

76. In FCDA, how does perpetrator mitigation affect the accountability of individuals responsible for violence? (it minimizes and reduces the severity of their actions)

77. What are the two main types of contextual analysis from the given choices? (Comparative-synchronic and Historical-diachronic)

78. We can take assistance from _____ analysis to analyze nonverbal communication such as tagging, likes, annotation, sharing, hyperlinks, etc. (multimodal)

79. Which notion fits the most for analyzing the social media discourse from a Faircloughian perspective? (Production and consumption process)

80. Reality TV has been discussed as _____, a form of cheap, trivial and empty entertainment. (low-culture)

81. The perspective to see reality TV as a cultural technology depicts citizens as _____ versions of them. (better and happier)

82. In reality TV, the _____ actor analysis focuses on the representational strategies used to depict participants and their actions. (social)

83. Analysis of films provides depictions of society and paves way for combinations of CDA methods and _____ analysis. (sociocultural)

84. In order to make the text cohesive and coherent _____ can be used as effective strategy. (contextual links)

85. The analysis and the construction and reproduction of ideology through lexical choices/syntactic structures specifically can be studies at _____ level. (word)

86. Through referential strategies, framing and word choices, newspapers have based on their interests. (bias)

87. After 9/11, western filmmakers projected Muslim women in movie as , helpless and ignorant in the public and private spheres. (victims)

88. The responses of the viewers reveal their _____ for entertainment oriented, exaggerated, unfair, and moderately informative headlines of news channels. (dislike)

89. A research study found that the representation of _____ in beauty product is more persuasive and tactical. (gender)

90. The headlines used in newspapers increase or decrease news worthiness of nay incident and manipulate it by using linguistic and _____ markers. (discursive)

91. What can be the function of using pronoun "I" in the speech? (to assert authority and digress the discussion)

92. The research exploring the hidden meanings through the study of 'parts of speech (POS)' focuses on _____ within text. (adjectives and nouns)

Maha Malik

ENG524_Finals_Solved_Spring2024

Subjective

Q. Political discourse analysis

Political discourse analysis (PDA) involves examining the language used in political contexts to understand how power, ideology, and political agendas are constructed and conveyed. This type of analysis often focuses on speeches, debates, policies, and other forms of communication used by politicians and political institutions.

Q. Social media CDA

Social media CDA involves analyzing the content and interactions on social media platforms to understand how discourse is shaped and how it influences social and political opinions. It includes studying hashtags, posts, comments, and the network of interactions among users to identify patterns and implications of online communication.

Q. What is terrorism

Terrorism refers to the use of violence and intimidation, especially against civilians, in the pursuit of political aims. It is characterized by its deliberate targeting of non-combatants and its intent to create fear and coerce governments or societies to achieve specific ideological goals.

Q. Class talk by different linguists

Class talk refers to the way language is used in classroom settings, often analyzed by different linguists to understand how teachers and students interact, how knowledge is constructed, and how power dynamics play out in educational environments.

Q. Three strands which are similar when the project is media CDA:

When the project is media CDA, the three strands that are often similar include:

- Analysis of representation: How different groups, events, and issues are portrayed in the media.

- Analysis of media production: How media content is created, including the role of journalists, editors, and media organizations.
- Analysis of audience reception: How media messages are interpreted and understood by different audiences.

Q. 5 discourse historical strategies by Wodak

The five discourse historical strategies by Wodak include:

- Nomination: How actors, objects, and events are named and referred to.
- Predication: Attributing qualities, characteristics, or features to social actors, objects, and events.
- Argumentation: The construction and justification of arguments.
- Perspectivization: Positioning the speaker's or writer's point of view.
- Intensification and mitigation: Modifying the intensity or tone of statements.

Q. Research description on Dawn and New York editorial

This would involve analyzing editorials from Dawn and The New York Times to compare how each publication addresses specific issues, the language used, the framing of arguments, and the underlying ideologies.

Q. 5 components by Jessop

Jessop outlines five components for examining neoliberalism, including:

- ideology emerged
- political project
- economic policies
- the form taken by a capitalist offensive against organised labour after the crisis of the post-war mode of growth
- specific hegemonic rise in its material practices and policies

Q. 2 strengths of textbooks CDA

- It reveals how knowledge and ideology are constructed and disseminated through educational materials.
- It can identify biases and assumptions in textbooks, contributing to a more critical and informed approach to education.

ENG524_Finals_Solved_Spring2024

Q. Discursive strategies

Discursive strategies are the methods used in communication to achieve specific goals, such as persuading, informing, or entertaining. They include techniques like framing, metaphor, narrative construction, and argumentation.

Q. How Labor Party different from Conservative Party?

The Labor Party and Conservative Party differ in their political ideologies and policies. Generally, the Labor Party is associated with social democracy, advocating for social justice, welfare state, and public ownership, while the Conservative Party tends to support free-market policies, limited government intervention, and individual responsibility.

Q. Five principles of FCDA

Five principles of Feminist Critical Discourse Analysis (FCDA) include:

- Examining how gender inequalities are constructed and maintained through language.
- Analyzing the representation of gender in various texts and contexts.
- Challenging sexist and patriarchal discourses.
- Promoting gender equity through critical reflection and action.
- Integrating interdisciplinary perspectives to understand the complexity of gender issues.

Q. Write note on covert and overt racism

Covert racism refers to subtle, often hidden, discriminatory practices and attitudes, while overt racism is explicit and openly displayed. Covert racism can be harder to detect and challenge, whereas overt racism is more visible and direct.

Q. Jessop has outlined 5 approaches examining neoliberalism

Jessop's five approaches to examining neoliberalism include:

- Economic restructuring.
- Political reorganization.
- Social policy changes.
- Ideological shifts.

- Globalization impacts.

Q. What is Perpetrator mitigation?

Perpetrator mitigation involves strategies and discourse used to downplay or justify the actions of those who commit offenses or harmful acts. It seeks to lessen the perceived severity of the perpetrator's actions.

Q. What is race, example?

Race is a social construct that categorizes people based on physical characteristics, such as skin color, facial features, and hair texture. For example, the concept of "Black" and "White" races in the United States.

Q. What is reality TV?

Reality TV is a genre of television programming that documents unscripted real-life situations and often features unknown individuals rather than professional actors. Examples include shows like "Survivor" and "Big Brother."

Q. Modal of class 5 category?

This question is unclear. If referring to modal verbs used in class 5 language categories, examples include can, could, may, might, must, shall, should, will, and would, which express necessity, possibility, permission, or ability.

Q. Television and discourse

Television discourse involves the study of how television programs construct meaning through language, visuals, and narrative. It includes analyzing genres, scripts, audience reception, and the socio-cultural impact of television content.

Q. Critical discourse of film

Critical discourse analysis of film examines how films convey messages, represent social issues, and influence audiences through narrative, dialogue, cinematography, and other cinematic techniques. It explores the ideological underpinnings and cultural impact of films.

BS English (Applied Linguistics)

https://whatsapp.com/channel/0029VaazKAVBfxoDMH4l9U0u

Maha Malik's Compilation