Date: __/__/__

Write the Concept of class? and Social economic resources?

In January 2021, the BBC launched the great British class Survey (GBCS). An additional Survey, Carried out by a professional Survey Company called Gfk, and based on considerably Smaller Sample of 1026 respondents, produced results that were probably more reflective of the state of class relations in the UK. In both Surveys, Britons were placed in one of Seven Categories which the designer of the Survey deemed relevant for the 21st Century class System in Britian. These Categories were: Elite, established middle class, technical middle class, New affluent workers, Traditional working class, Emergent Service works and the precariat.

Date: __/__/__

Q# Textbook Production Practices?

Macgilchrist has taken an example from Germany to make the Concept of Textbook production and CDA clear: Textbook production include the following Specifies:

1) Curricullum: Each of the 16 federal state in Germany has its own education system, including its own Curricula.

2) Secondly, most federal states in Germany require textbooks for politics to go through a formal approval process, including anonymized reviews from teacher and final review from federal state ministry of education.

3) Thirdly, publishing houses follow previous versions of the textbook during textbook production. In the production of politics 70% of the material was to be taker from previous version. For the remaining 30% they could write their own texts and select their own materials.

TAYYAB

Screen image of Muslim Women Films in the popular post-9/11 war on terror.

The study in an affirmative deconstruction of strategies that filmakers have been applying to persaude the oppressed Muslim women to enact power. To investigate not only the image of oppressed Muslim women but also to bring to surface the successful struggles of educated and professional women who are observed resisting the misogynist discourse. The data was drawn from four popular films (American Sniper-2014, Jarhead-2 Field of Fire-2014, Zero Dark Thirty 2012 and Body of Lies 2008) depicting the post 9/11 American war on terroorin the muslim Countries Such as afghanistan, Iraq, Jordan, Pakistan, Oman, Syria. In addition to identification of the Muslim women in the oppressive discourses the study unlocks Some hidden meanings by acknowledinging their professional contribution in the Social institution.

FATIMA

Classtalk discuss by Turgeon, Taylor and Niehaus? Imp

Turgeon, Taylor and Niehaus provide a good example of how public policy talk can construct class and class relations, as they critically analysis how welfare-to-work programm managers in United States talk about welfare recipients, using what they call "classtalk". Classtalk may invoke a 'culture of poverty' ideology and ignores structral conditions and causes of poverty. Class talk is a talk which positions individuals in terms of vague and superficial folk theories, focusing on the surface level appearance of the class as opposed to the how and why of its existence.

Date: / /

Q# Social media discourse Analysis?

Social media refers to the use of web-based and mobile technologies to turn communication into an interactive dialogue. Khosravinik defines social media by the communicative affordance they provide at the intersection of mass and interpersonal communication. Social media communication is viewed as electronically mediated communication across any platform, spaces, sites and technologies in which users can work together in producing and compiling content. Social media have access to see and respond institutionally (newspaper article) Social networks sites include Facebook, Instagram, Tumblr, Twitter and Instant messages apps such as watsapp and Telegram. Social media have focus on facilitating participation and interaction

TAYYAB

FATIMA

Date: __/__/__

CDA of Film? Imp

Wodak and Meyer have focused on Film analysis, both written and spoken language are focused. Even apparently spontaneous spoken language, with all its "paraverbal" dimension of performance and social, regional, and ethnic variation, becomes in the context of film just another representational resource. According to Androutsopoulos the employment of code switing in films depicting ethnically diverse situations and several similar phenomenon have all recieve critical consideration. The filmic construction of broad range of social groups has been addressed. For film, the potentially misleading or misdirecting role of audio-visual representation has received partially close attention in work on documentation.

Imp

Date: / /

Two Strength of Critical discourse analysis of textbook?

- First their insistenc on a research aesthetic of smallness and slowness. Semantic argumentation and lexicogrammatical pattern construct knowledges and address readers as particular studen subjects.
- Second, they draw on textbook discourse to trouble core conceptual issues such as the politics of visibility, the role of individual human agency in combating environmental destruction, or the apparent closure of dominat discourse.

Note on Terrorism = Imp

Terrorism is a socio-political Construct is difficult to be defined objectively and universally. It is largely Context based. The terrorism cannot really defined as the "Systematic use of violence and intimidation to achieve some goal. Terrorism is a ubiquitous discursive Construction with effects that impact greatly on several aspects of the public and private lives of individual.

War of Iraq?

Concept of power by Foucault (1 Imp

Foucault pointed out that power is everywhere and neither inherently good nor bad. He believed that power "traverses and produces things, it includes pleasure, forms knowledge, produces discourse. It needs to be considered as a productive network which runs through the whole social body."

Q# Historical- diachronic Analysis?

The historical diachronic analysis takes place at two levels:

- At the first level, the historical approach involves examining the course of social matters and their wider political, social and economic context.
- At the second level, it is important to examine temporal evolution of mediated discourse and to produce a history of media construction of a given social issues.

Q# Three importance of Journalistic media discourse remain under research:? Imp

Three important aspect remaind under research

1) the time plan in discourse analysis
2) the discursive strategies of social actors
3) extra- and supra-textual effects of mediated discourse

FATIMA

Date: ___/___/___

Blending? Imp

According to Card, blending theory plays a vital role to understand the Context-relevent material.
It is Cognitive in nature and plays a great role in CDA because it allows for greater Creativity and Strategy.

Border politics? Imp

Border politics are part of national identity politics and are increasingly defined by the national language, by ethnicity and Culture, transcending the Political borders on nation-state.

and of interest. It is the formal exchange of reasoned views.

Feminist Critical discourse analysis:

The term feminist in Feminist CDA is focusing on "gender" as an object of CDA research. FCDA is driven as much by current feminist epistemology and and practice as it is by CDA principles. The interest of FCDA lies in how gender ideologies and gendered relations of power get reproduced, negotiated, and contested in representation of social practices.

TAYYAB

Date: / /

View of Cook on advertising and DA? Imp

Cook states: "Advertising is one of the most prominent, Powerful and unbiquitous Contemporary of uses of language. Advertising's creative use of language makes its a particularly rich site for language and discourse Analysis."

Elements of Stance? Imp

- Evaluation and Modality
- epistemic and Effective

~~Applied~~ Model of Class? Imp

Model of class developed by the savage, is clearly Bourdiesian. A kind of default Bourdieusian approach to class has taken over in sociology and Sociolinguistics. This model in a Constant state of revision. Consist of five general categories.

- Economic resources
- Sociocultural resources
- Behaviour
- Life Condition
- Spatial Condition.

Date: / /

Q# According to Macgilchrist ways to map critical approach to textbook discourse? Imp there are many ways to map CA to textbook discourse:-

- looking deeply into racism
- Nationalism
- immigration and other topic in textbook.

Q# Positive Discourse Analysis by Bartlett? Imp

PDA focuses on "positive" orientation to discourse analysis. According to Bartlett (2012) there has been no entry of terms positive discourse analysis in Wikipedia, and on Google, there were few Publication on PDA.

Date: ___/___/___

Q1 Two notions that are important to explain representation? Imp

Two notions are important to explain representation are given below:-

- First, perspective and its ideological implications are vital for understanding how PD works, as its logical consequence of " bringing the viewer's body into particular alignments with elements in the scene depicted and prior universal embodied experience.
- Second, Context, defined as Construct of " Socio-cultural Conventions from which the online pragmatic processing of language takes its bearing".

Q2 Discursive effects by Carvalho? Imp

Carvalho proposed the category of discursive effects. Discursive effects are processes that are linked to text, but occur outside the text or above. Example of discursive effects are • Closure • discourse saturation • discourse institutionali

Date: / /

Q# Research design of English Urdu article?

The research design for an English Urdu articles outlines how the study will be conducted. It explains the plan for analyzing how language shapes meaning and power dynamics. It includes detail like research questions.

- Data collection methods (gathering article and texts).

and • Analysis techniques (Examining language use and effects.

Q# Iraq invasion? Imp

Iraq invasion indicated that support would only be achieved if they were presented as a legitimate and progressive step in metaphorical War on Terror.

Date:

Q# Two

to e

Two

repre

• First

impl

how

Con

viev

wi

•

•

Q#

Date: __/__/__

Q2 Objectives of English and Urdu headlines?

Objects refers to the subjects or topics that news headlines in English and Urdu focus on. These headlines are carefully crafted to grab attention and convey a particular perspective. Analyzing the objects of these headlines helps us understand how media shapes our views on different issues and events.

Q Ethnographic discourse Analysis?

Ethnographic discourse analysis is a way of studying how people talk and communicate within specific social groups and communities. It's like watching and listening closely to understand how language is used to creat meaning, relationships and identities in these groups. It helps us see how language shapes social dynamics and reflects the values of different communities

Q# Write about individualism?

- Individualism in CDA refers to a focus on how language and communication contribute to the construction of individual identities and ideas within a larger social context.
- It examines how ~~individual~~ text and discourse shapes the way individuals are portrayed, understood and positioned in relation to broader cultural and social norms.
- Individualism involves studying how language choices in media, politics and other forms of communication can either highlight and downplay the uniqueness and agency of individual.
- It helps us understand how language contributes to the perception and representation of individuals as independent actors with their own beliefs, desires and responsibilities

Date: __/__/__

The Concept of power by Foucault's

Foucault's idea of power is different from traditional view. He says power is not just about strong people controlling weaker ones. Instead its everywhere is society, shaping how we act and think. power is not only about control; its also about setting rules and what we believe is true. Its found in institutions like schools and even in how society makes us behave in certain ways. Foucalt shows that power is complex, always changing.

Small talk? Imp

Small talk in CDA refers to the casual and everyday conversations that we have in social settings. Small talk is a window into how language shapes our social interactions and reflect broader issues in Society.

and attitudes.

Define Stance? Imp

Stance refers to persons attitudes, perspectives, or position on a particular topic or issue. It's how someone express their thoughts, feelings, or beliefs about something. Stance can be Conveyed through language, gestures, and acts online communication and studies.

TAYYAB

Like how different Communities social media and what it means for them

2. What you know about Critical Ds CDS?
Critical Discourse studies is a way of analyzing ~~th~~ language that goes beyond just understanding the word themselves. This approach is Critical because it aims to uncover hidden meanings.
biases, and inequalities in Communication.
It looks at how language is used to shape and reflect power dynamics, social values, and ideologies in Society.
Critical discourse study is about understanding how language isn't just a way to express ideas.
but also a powerful tool that shape how we perceive the world and interact within it.

TAYYAB