

ENG506

Quiz from Assessments (Final-Term)

ABSTRACT

This comprehensive collection of notes is accurately crafted to empower students to excel academically, ensuring they achieve a minimum of 80% marks in their examinations. The content is organized with clarity and precision, focusing on key concepts, critical analyses, and practical applications tailored to the syllabus. These notes serve as a reliable resource for both thorough preparation and last-minute revision. Designed to inspire confidence and mastery, this guide is an essential tool for students striving for academic excellence.

Maha Malik
World Englishes

ENG506_World Englishes
Quiz from Assessments (Final-Term)

1. The transformation which takes place in non-English cultures and languages as a result of exposure to the English language is called Englishization. (True)
2. SLA is the field of study that investigates the processes by which foreign and second languages are learned. (True)
3. There are millions of _____ users who learn and use second languages in their own countries, who may never come across a native speaker face to face. (L2)
4. Native-like competence as L2 learning goal is the orthodox view of _____. (SLA)
5. The product of a multilingual contact situation in which those who wish to communicate must improvise a simple language system is called a _____. (pidgin)
6. The purposes and functions of the additional language are determined by the role and status the additional language enjoys in a community. (False)
7. _____ reflects the learner's evolving system of rules. (Interlanguage)
8. Interlanguage as a concept has relevance to stable bilingual and multilingual contexts across the world. (False)
9. The gradual process of learning L2 from L1 towards L2 is called intra language. (False)
10. Fossilization is inapt to the context of world Englishes. (True)
11. The concept of interlanguage is based on three hypotheses. (False)
12. The use of two or more languages by a single individual or a community of speakers is known as: (Multilingualism)
13. Code mixing may be intentional or _____. (unintentional)
14. A morpheme (or word element) that can stand alone as a word. Also called an unbound morpheme or a free-standing morpheme. (True)
15. _____ occurs at a point where the surface structures or grammars of two languages coincide because they have the same word order or constituents. Codification. (Code switching)
16. Conventional notions of language policy and planning lack any _____ perspective. (Critical)
17. _____ language policy was not unidirectional. (Imperial)
18. Anti-colonial movement was well organized, popular and _____ . (Aggressive)
19. Language policy and economic concerns determined colonial policy throughout _____ . (Africa)
20. The place of a language policy is determined by _____. (Population and prestige)
21. One of the reasons for the dominance of English in the language policy is English is a /an _____ language. (Global)
22. The inability to use English as an official language is one of the many reasons English causing _____ . (Exclusion)
23. Ensure that it contributes to the overall cultural, human, and socio- _____ development of a country. (Economic)
24. There is a _____attached to American English despite British English being the "official" target norm in education. (covert prestige)

Maha Malik's Compilation

25. Immigrants in the seventeenth century from northern and western England, Scotland and Ireland. (True)

26. The emergence of a new variety or dialect of a language from the mixing, leveling, and simplifying of different dialects of mutually intelligible languages is known as _____ .(Koinaeizatation)

27. Ethnic varieties come as a result of immigration. (True)

28. Large scale colonization started in the _____ half of the twentieth century. (Second)

29. Regional dialect differences are based on different pronunciation patterns and _____ choices. (Morphological)

30. Australian settlement and development is from 1788 to _____. (1820)

31. The colony of New Zealand was established in _____. (1840)

32. Younger speakers demonstrate more distinguishing features than _____. (Older speakers)

33. The term 'wog' has now been adopted by these groups as a mark of _____ for them and their common experiences of migration. (Solidarity)

34. Malay kingdoms maintained _____ families. (Royal)

35. Language policy after independence stated that Primary education would be in the _____ language. (Ethnic)

36. Use of Mandarin, Malay, and _____ limited to the elementary level. (Tamil)

37. Malay made _____ to qualify for civil servants and university students. (Mandatory)

38. The term African English refers to English as used only by Black Africans in ex- _____ colonies and in Liberia. (British)

39. In African English, the resumptive _____ occurs in non-subject positions. (Pronouns)

40. Between 1500 and 1860, at least _____ million Africans were forcibly taken to the Americas. (12)

41. _____ shows the rich derivational morphology that is characteristic of African languages. (coinage)

42. _____ million people toiling at English lessons in China. (300)

43. Access to English was limited to a university-educated _____ in East Asia. (Elite)

44. Growth of productive forces, strength of the _____ state and rise in living standards together are the three favorable. (Socialist)

45. Elements of English have been made an _____ part of the Japanese language. (Integral)

46. 1715: Establishing of missionary schools began with a school in _____. (Chennai)

47. Lord Macaulay's minutes declared _____ better worth knowing than Sanskrit or Arabic. (English)

48. _____ is the language of religion for Hinduism and Arabic for Islam. (Sanskrit)

49. A government Act in _____ made English co-equal with Hindi for all official purposes of the union, parliament and communication between the union and the states. (1967)

ENG506_World Englishes
Quiz from Assessments (Final-Term)

50. The characteristics of _____ models need to be presented in dictionaries and grammar reference books. (local)

51. _____ processes can be learned independent of the functions of L2 in society. (SLA)

52. Interlanguage passes through many intermediate systems before _____. (Stabilization)

53. There is a need to combine local features performing functions needed by _____ community with modifications for acceptance for international communication. (Intranational)

54. Global spread of English with varying degrees of range and penetration privileges its _____ . (Users)

55. Phillipson's division of English speakers divides English into _____ groups. (Two)

56. Support from _____ Resolutions on linguistic human rights and preservation of cultural and linguistic diversity. (United Nations)

57. Orientalism means 'the Scholarly knowledge of the language and culture of the _____ '. (East)

58. The political, economic, and _____ power of people associated with English. (cultural)

59. Language raises awareness about _____ place in the world (Women's)

60. English-speaking bilingual women are considered as _____ of language change. (innovators)

61. Women are believed to be more _____ to prestige forms of speech. (sensitive)

62. The _____ exercise of power is explored by examining bilingual women's relationships to English in the world contexts. (equal)

63. Global users of English desire to speak or write like native speakers is one of the misconceptions of ELT. (Native)

64. Implications of English language varieties for language pedagogy consist of _____ models. (Two)

65. Native speakers as teachers lack pedagogical training. (Pedagogical)

66. Nativeness assumes Competence in the language. (Competence)

67. _____ is a lingua franca. (English)

68. World English show traces of the _____ influence of the communities that use them. (cultural)

69. Baumgardner went to _____ for learning Chinese. (China)

70. Students may find world Englishes _____. (Deficient)

71. There was a / an _____ dominance of native English speakers. (Ideological)

72. ELT methodology was subservient to _____ purposes. (imperial)

73. The western methods dated from the post _____ period. (World War II)

74. The target language is not native but a new _____ of English. (Variety)

75. _____ do not represent English varieties spoken and used in contact situations. (Language tests)

76. The set of _____ accepted and used by educated native speakers assumed to be the universal target for proficiency. (Norms)

77. _____ is based on how close the language use is to the native speaker norms. (Testing)

78. Test of English for International Communication (TOEIC) – a supposedly neutral test shows bias towards _____ English. (Standard)

79. Universities' need to attract teachers and _____ from around the world. (Researchers)

80. The standardization of higher education is likely to facilitate greater movement of students within _____. (Europe)

81. Medium of instruction for over _____ of the world's international students is English. (Half)

82. _____ of e-learning of high expectations of the learners. (Failure)

83. Publishing of a _____ dictionary allows the users to develop the notion of a standard, (Language's)

84. The sources of data for a lexicographer include the following aspects of language users are Linguistic, Cultural and _____. (Political)

85. The subject field of _____ is language, whereas the subject field of lexicography is dictionaries. (Linguistics)

86. "_____ can be understood as a shorthand for identifying and establishing the varieties of Englishes that are used in various locations around the world". (Legitimacy)

BS English

https://whatsapp.com/channel/0029VaazKAVBfxoDMH4l9U0u