

ENG506

Quiz from Assessments (Mid-Term)

ABSTRACT

This comprehensive collection of notes is accurately crafted to empower students to excel academically, ensuring they achieve a minimum of 80% marks in their examinations. The content is organized with clarity and precision, focusing on key concepts, critical analyses, and practical applications tailored to the syllabus. These notes serve as a reliable resource for both thorough preparation and last-minute revision. Designed to inspire confidence and mastery, this guide is an essential tool for students striving for academic excellence.

Maha Malik
World Englishes

ENG506_World Englishes
Quiz from Assessments (Mid-Term)

1. Speaker's education is the main factor that determines the status of a language as a global language. (False)
2. Communication in the past was through translators and interpreters. (True)
3. English is a gender neutral language. (True)
4. The process through which people, companies, and governments of different nations interact and collaborate is termed as globalisation. (True)
5. Select the factor which is important in making a language a global language. (Economic power)
6. Which of the following English speaking countries is economically supreme? (USA)
7. _____ is crucial in making a language a global language. (Economic power)
8. When a language loses its all speakers, the situation is termed as ----------. (language death)
9. _____ are the factors that are involved in linguistic complacency. (All of the given options; Lack of money; Lack of opportunity; Lack of interest)
10. What is the disadvantage of having a single global language? (Risks the status of other languages)
11. One of the appealing properties of language is its _____ character. (cosmopolitan)
12. There are _____reasons behind the lack of motivation for learning other languages. (many)
13. People's desire to have shared customs, beliefs and behaviors is termed as ---------- identity. (cultural)
14. The term ---------- means that people are fully satisfied with one language as the only tool for communication in all fields of life. (linguistic complacency)
15. Global independance is influential in adopting English as a global language. (True)
16. Emerging localized or indigenized varieties of English are termed as ----------. (World Englishes)
17. In _____ century a large number of immigrants came from Midlands and northern England. (17)
18. ---------- is a term for emerging localized or indigenized varieties of English. (World Englishes)
19. James Cook discovered and charted New Zealand and Australia in _____. (1770)
20. Who colonized New Zealand? (British)
21. English was brought to Britain by Jutes, Angles and Saxons. (True)
22. The Portuguese colonized New Zealand. (False)
23. In the year 1807, the British Parliament passed an Act for the _____ of slave trade. (abolition)
24. Blacks viewed _____ language as a tool for achieving an international voice. (English)
25. Black people recognized Afrikaans as language of oppression and _____ as language of liberation. (English)
26. The Dutch colonizers call themselves Afrikaners. (True)
27. British colonial empire in Southeast Asia was established by Sir Thomas Stamford Raffles. (True)

ENG506_World Englishes
Quiz from Assessments (Mid-Term)

28. In which year did the British Parliament pass an act for the abolition of slave trade? (1807)
29. Children born to first generation of slaves started using pidgin as their mother tongue. (True)
30. One of the influences of English language is that it is considered as a language of progress. (True)
31. Industrial Revolution took place in England in the 17th century. (False)
32. In the League of Nations, English was the co-official language with French. (True)
33. "We were taught—and believed—that the best ideas were English ideas, the best government was English government, and the best men were Englishmen". The given statement is an example of _____. (Triumphalist attitude)
34. The creole Krio may have originated among the returning slaves from Jamaica and Britain. (True)
35. Pidginization is a contact between unintelligible African and Asian languages with a dominant American language. (False)
36. Speakers of different languages interact with one another which results in transfer of linguistic features. (True)
37. In the process of Pidginization, a dominant language has a simplified grammar. (True)
38. The creole _____ may have originated among the returning slaves from Jamaica and Britain. (Krio)
39. Acrolect, Basilect and Mesolect are the three parts of the creole continuum. (True)
40. _____ is a fully developed language. (Creole)
41. A pidgin is a fully-developed language. (False)
42. Mc Whorter presented the Afrogenesis Hypothesis in 1995. (True)
43. The use of the nautical jargon theory is "master's try to imitate their servants' incorrect speech patterns." (False)
44. Theories about the origin of pidgins and creoles can be divided into two groups. (False)
45. Grammar remains intact in the process of relexification. (True)
46. Pacific pidgins have only five vowel sounds. (True)
47. The source for lexis of all pidgins and creoles is the superstrate, also known as the dominant language. (True)
48. In Pidgin English, the vowel e is missing. (True)
49. Caribbean pidgins have 12 vowel sounds. (True)
50. The source for lexis of all pidgins and creoles is the superstrate, also known as the _____. (dominant language)
51. A monolingual tenet is a factor responsible for liberating the periphery communities. (False)
52. According to Phillipson a factor responsible for marginalizing the periphery communities is what Phillipson calls the "monolingual tenet. (True)
53. The politics of identity is the discrimination of people on the basis of accents, vocabulary and sentence structure. (True)
54. In which context are native speakers considered superior to non-native speakers? (ELT)

ENG506_World Englishes
Quiz from Assessments (Mid-Term)

55. The discrimination of people on the basis of accents, vocabulary and sentence structure is based on the _____. (politics of identity)

56. International English refers to a particular variety of English. (True)

57. Whose model of 1987 is divided into geographical sections? (McArthur's)

58. Whose model provides a historical overview of the development of globalized English? (Strevens')

59. The advantage of World Englishes models is that they provide English as having multicultural identities identities. (True)

60. Manfred Gorlach's Circle Model of English is similar to Kachru's model of English. (False)

61. Whose model of 1980's is one of the oldest models, and shows the relationship of different varieties of English with British and American English? (Strevens')

62. English serves as an International Language in Modiano's _____ model. (Centripetal Circles model)

63. There are six Rings of Gorlach's circle model of English. (False)

64. Kachru's three circle model considers native speakers superior to the non- native speakers regardless of their language proficiency. (True)

65. The official recognition and acceptance of a language called institutionalization. (True)

66. In Pakistan, English is used as an official language. (True)

67. Which circle countries comprise of people who traditionally are monolingual native English speakers? (inner)

68. The phenomenon whereby a language gains native speakers is termed as nativization. (True)

69. Norm providing is another name for inner circle. (True)

70. Accent causes problem in defining native speakers of the Standard English. (True)

71. The official recognition and acceptance of a language is termed as pidginization. (False)

72. Modifications were proposed by David Graddol in Kachru's three circle model in 1997. (True)

73. Who proposed modifications in Kachru's three circle model in 2001? (Yanu Yasukata)

74. The process in which a language gains native speakers is termed as nativization. (True)

75. Coinage was helpful in enriching English and the indigenous languages. (True)

76. Mesolect is the speech variety which is very similar to a standard prestige language, especially in an area in where a creole is spoken. (False)

77. According to an estimate there are 330 million users of English in India. (False)

78. Basilect is the speech variety which is very different from the prestige variety, especially in an area where a creole is spoken. (True)

79. The literature written in distinctive varieties of English is called _____. (Contact literature)

80. Literature in any language consists of two dimensions. (True)

81. A number of varieties of English emerged in postcolonial scenario. (True)

82. Due to language contact, loan words from other languages enter the ---------- of English regularly. (lexicon)

ENG506_World Englishes
Quiz from Assessments (Mid-Term)

83. Cultural material in contact literature reshapes the expressive qualities of English. (True)
84. The spread and the institutionalization of English has resulted in the pluricentricity of English (True)
85. Literature in any language consists of three dimensions. (False)
86. In English language all vowels are voiced. (True)
87. Nativized varieties of English follow the conventions of their first languages in stress. (True)
88. The differences in stress, rhythm and in segmental features is called accent. (True)
89. The way you sound when you speak is known as accent. (True)
90. Addition of a prefix or suffix to an existing English word creates a new word. (True)
91. Discourse markers are the items that have no independent meaning but that signal solidarity with interlocutors and are considered _____. (polite)
92. One categorization of nouns is specific, and the other is non-specific nouns. (True)
93. In English language a singular countable noun must be preceded by an article. (True)
94. Verbs that express a state rather than an action are called stative verbs. (True)
95. Outer and expanding circle Englishes follows the agreement disagreement system. (True)
96. In the native languages of the outer circle countries, the _____ nouns are treated as plural. (uncountable)
97. We use quantifiers (much, little, few, a lot, little etc.) to talk about quanitities, amounts and degrees. (True)
98. The holistic notion of intelligibility is divided into _____ components. (three)
99. In English language the differences across varieties may lead to difficulties in intelligibility. (True)
100. The holistic notion of intelligibility is divided into three components: (True)
101. Smith's complexity continuum of intelligibility Involves assigning meaning to utterances and recognizing an utterance's referents. (True)
102. Differences across varieties in language may lead to ease in intelligibility. (False)
103. Research findings on intelligibility has concluded that the wider exposure to more varieties increases users' ability to comprehend international educated English. (True)
104. Language standardization is the process by which conventional forms of a language are established and maintained. (True)
105. Written English is more rule-governed than spoken English. (True)
106. In language ideology social,cultural and economic factors are involved. (True)
107. Codification involves the writing and development of grammar textbooks, dictionaries, style and use guides. (True)
108. The process by which conventional forms of a language are established and maintained is called dialect _____. (standardization)
109. Prescriptivism is the belief that one variety of a language is superior to others and should be promoted as such. (True)

110. According to Quirk's view the English is being spread nowadays as the medium of science, technology and business. (True)

111. Kachru rejects the traditional view of native speakers being the norm providers for all varieties of English. (True)

112. Dialect standardization is the process by which conventional forms of a language are established and maintained. (False)

113. 18th century was the most important period of codification for English. (True)

114. In 1970s Einar Haugen defined codification as a process that leads to "minimal variation in form." (True)

115. _____century was the most important period of codification for English. (18th)

116. Different varieties of _____ show a considerable difference in the use of rhetorical strategies in writing. (English)

117. The interaction between strangers which is conventionally more oriented to deference shows the positive politeness. (False)

118. French language does not have systemic choices but only strategies based on politeness considerations. (False)

119. Genre focuses more on the communicative values while style pays more attention to linguistic form. (True)

120. A language which has changed from a regional into a local language is called a standard language. (False)

121. Interpersonal competence is the utterance which fulfills certain actions of what is said by people in the course of interpersonal communication. (False)

B.Ed. (1.5 Years) BS English Files

MAHA MALIK'S Compilation