

ENG524

1. Critical Discourse Studies in Applied Contexts

- Principles of CDS applied to economic shifts like "post-Fordism," "neoliberalism," and "network society".

2. Textual Mediation

- Fairclough's term describing the influence of text in shaping social reality.

3. Semiotization

- Refers to the growing use of semiotic practices in modern life.

4. New Textualization of Work

- Concept where modern workers engage in new literacy tasks beyond traditional work activities.

5. Intertextuality

- Tracks the relationship between past constructions across time and space.

6. Historical Layering

- Concept capturing simultaneity and historicity in synchronic studies.

7. Indexicality

- Use of linguistic markers to situate discourse in context.

8. Recontextualization

- The transformation of discourse from one context to another.

9. Dialogism

- A multi-voiced approach to understanding discourses.

10. Legitimation Strategies

- Discursive strategies that justify and rationalize social actions.

11. Neoliberalism

- Characterized by free market trade, deregulation, and privatization.

12. Political Discourse

- Discourse related to power, identity, and governance.

13. Binary Conceptualizations

- Representations using antonymous choices in political discourse.

14. Spatial Metaphors

- Usage of spatial cognition like "containers" to conceptualize political identity.

15. Cognitive Linguistics in CDA

- Focus on how metaphor shapes thinking and reality.

16. Conceptual Blending Theory

- Cognitive framework emphasizing creativity in metaphor.

17. Rhetorical Figures

- Techniques like metaphor, irony, and hyperbole in discourse.

18. Praemunitio

- Rhetorical strategy to anticipate counterarguments.

19. Topoi

- Argumentative schemes in rhetoric like "topos of history".

20. Historical CDA

- Uses historiography to understand political and social discourse.

21. Identity Construction

- Exploring how discourse builds personal and collective identities.

22. Multimodal CDA

- Integration of visual, textual, and material designs in CDA.

23. Ethnographic Discourse Analysis

- Examines discourse in context using ethnographic methods.

24. Genre Analysis

- Study of language use within specific social and cultural contexts.

25. CARS Framework

- A model for structuring research articles by Swales.

26. Normalization Strategies

- Euphemization, naturalization, and justification in discourse.

27. Strategies of Abstraction

- Removing human agency to depict actions as inevitable.

28. Textual Production

- Processes in creating media content like textbooks.

29. Order of Discourse

- Fairclough's concept of structured discursive practices.

30. Critical Media Analysis

- Investigating power and ideologies in media texts.

31. Discourse Ontologies

- Representations of people and actions in political discourse.

32. Path Schema

- Conceptual framework for policies and progress.

33. Alignment in Stance

- Evaluates how subjects position themselves and others.

34. Triune Stance Act

- Evaluating, positioning, and aligning within discourse.

35. Discursive Hegemony

- Control of narratives through discourse.

36. Globalization in CDA

- Examines the effects of neoliberal globalization on discourse.

37. Critical Moments

- Analyzing key events that challenge existing discourses.

38. Myth of a Pure People

- Identity politics constructing national myths.

39. Mediatization

- Process where media shapes socio-political phenomena.

40. Visual Metaphors

- Images that construct ideological narratives.

41. Ideological Standpoints

- Embedded perspectives in discourse.

42. Socio-Cognitive Dimensions

- Understanding the interplay of language and cognition.

43. Textbook Practices

- How state ideologies influence educational materials.

44. Discourse Historical Approach

- Connecting past and present in discursive analysis.

45. Stance Triangle

- Framework for analyzing alignment, positioning, and evaluation.

46. Discourse about Terrorism

- Examines the socio-political construction of terrorism.

47. Hegemonic Narratives

- Dominant stories perpetuated by discourse.

48. Naturalization of Policies

- Presenting political actions as natural.

49. Fairclough's Three Dimensions

- Text, discursive practice, and social practice in CDA.

50. Mediated Discourse

- Analyzing discourse shaped by media.

