Soc302 past papers

Social mobility where a person's social position changes within their own lifetime is called:

A) Intergenerational mobility

B) Intragenerational mobility

C) Structural mobility

D) Horizontal mobility

Which stratification system is legally sanctioned?

A) Class

B) Slavery

C) Caste

D) Estate

In conflict theory, schools primarily serve to:

A) Promote meritocracy

B) Encourage social equality

C) Reproduce class inequality
D) Transmit technical skills

Which intergroup relation maintains distinct cultural identities but shares political equality?
A) Assimilation
B) Segregation
C) Pluralism
D) Genocide

- Functionalist perspective on religion
- Gender role socialization in early childhood
- Positive vs. preventive checks in Malthusian theory
- Resistance social movements

Long Question
Discuss the three major systems of stratification (slavery, caste, class) with examples. Which system is most rigid, and why?

According to symbolic interactionism, prejudice is:
A) A result of unequal economic structures
B) A learned attitude reinforced through interaction
C) An inevitable product of competition
D) A biological trait

De jure segregation refers to:
A) Informal neighborhood clustering
B) Legally enforced separation of groups
C) Workplace discrimination
D) Religious pluralism

A latent function of education is:
A) Skill training
B) Moral development
C) Delaying workforce entry
D) Literacy improvement

- Manifest vs. latent functions in education

- Sociological definition of minority group
- Cultural diffusion and social change
- Role of health disparities in social epidemiology

Long Question
Explain demographic transition theory. Which stage poses the greatest population growth challenge for developing countries? Support your answer with examples.

Which theory views social inequality as necessary for the functioning of society?
A) Conflict theory
B) Functionalism
C) Symbolic interactionism
D) Feminist theory

The spread of a social innovation across cultures is called:
A) Cultural integration
B) Cultural diffusion
C) Cultural lag
D) Social stratification

- Functionalist vs. conflict perspectives on family
- Symbolic interactionist view on gender
- Types of crowds in collective behavior
- Urbanization trends in developing nations

Long Question
Discuss the impact of industrialization on patterns of urbanization. How has this trend influenced social stratification?

In Weber's view, the dimension of stratification involving control over resources and decision-making is:
A) Status
B) Class
C) Power
D) Prestige

Which type of social movement seeks limited change for specific individuals?
A) Revolutionary
B) Alternative
C) Reformative
D) Resistance

Which epidemiological measure compares illness rates between groups?
A) Morbidity rate
B) Health disparity index
C) Social gradient
D) Mortality ratio

- Patterns of intergroup relations
- Role of religion in social cohesion
- Preventive vs. positive population checks
- Gender inequality in workplace structures

Long Question
Evaluate the strengths and limitations of the functionalist perspective on social institutions, using education, religion, and family as examples.